Ashley Schafer & Born On Derby Day Sweep Kinder Cup, Breeders Challenge Futurities

By Tanya Randall

Ashley Schafer took four horses to southwestern Louisiana for the Kinder Cup, held February 11-12 at the Coushatta Casino Resort Event Pavilion, and hit pay dirt with all of them to earn $47,465.

Born On Derby Day, a home-raised mare owned by Schafer and her husband Seth, was the shining star. The 5-year-old red roan topped the $20,000-added Futurity and the Breeders Challenge qualifier sidepot futurity, placed second in the Kinder Cup Slot Race and won open checks for total earnings of $36,953.

Schafer, an Iowa native now residing in Comanche, Texas, also placed 14th in the Futurity on French Streakof Fame, owned and bred by Joe and Carla Spitz of Lamar, Colorado. The 4-year-old mare by Streakin Boon Dox out of Fames French Kiss, won $3,540 in the Kinder Cup Futurity and Open and $1,960 for finishing 10th in the Breeders Challenge Futurity.

Schafer placed 20th in the Futurity on Makin Dark Money, a 5-year-old Darkelly stallion owned by Nicole Schmidt, for $1,921. Swoon Ta Be Famous, a 5-year-old Dash Ta Fame, Frenchmans Guy gelding owned by Robin Kuhnhein, was 22nd in the Futurity average and won $3,092 between the Kinder Cup and Breeders Challenge.

"I'm grateful for all the producers and stallion owners who have spent the time and money to make our industry what it is," said Schafer. "I don't think any one of us could have imagined the turn our industry has taken. I'm grateful for the Breeders Challenge and the stallion owners as well as Andre Dohrn and Stacy Warner and their whole crew for making the Kinder Cup what it is and allowing us to run at life-changing money."

Although the Spitz are listed as her breeder, Derby was purchased as an embryo by the Schafers. Derby is by the Spitz's great stallion Freckles Ta Fame ("Can Man") and out of the A Streak Of Fling, Shawne Bug mare, KR Last Fling ("Laramie"), who carried Schafer to numerous futurity titles. She was born on the day of the Kentucky Derby in 2017.

Derby is also a full sister to Famous Cash Can that won $105,000 with Schafer last year, and Joes Head Honcho, who just won the inaugural Roping Futurities of America's Heading Championship.

"They're really versatile," said Schafer. "Her mother was like that too. They can go any direction. Can Man and Laramie obviously haven't been disappointing as producers!"

Derby was started under saddle by Schafer's husband, and even though the mare came on quickly—she was loping barrels nicely as a 2-year-old—Derby was held for the 5-year-old futurities.

"I knew her whole life I was going to hold her to run as a 5-year-old," Schafer said, "but it was hard to do it because she was going really well. I felt a lot of her mother in her. She was a little hot and fragile minded. I just really thought she was the kind that would need that extra year."

Although she doesn't really have a preference, Schafer likes running 5-year-olds.

"I'm not partial either way," she said. "As long as they're ready I'll go on with a 4-year-old but I really prefer to run 5-year-olds because I'm a little bit of a slower trainer. I kind of wait on them to come on rather than push them to be ready, so it's just a little easier for me to run 5-year-olds."

Since Derby was training so well, she got to have a break and do other things.

“What I’ll typically do is work with them for two or three months and get them to a really good, confident, solid place and then I’ll get off of them,” Schafer explained. “I’ll either completely get off them completely for two or three months or Seth will ride them and pen rope off them off of them for a few months, just do other things on them for a while.”

Schafer says the off-and-on process allows the colts time to grow up mentally and physically.

“It gives them a little time to recuperate and grow up a little bit,” she said. “I had a vet tell me once that it’s really good to use a horse well and then let them rest. When you’re training them, they’re getting little microtears in their muscles, ligaments and things and when you let them rest, it gives all of that time to heal and they come back stronger.”

Derby made her competitive debut at the OKC Futurity, where she made the finals. She picked up a check at the Come & Take Futurity and placed fourth in the aggregate at the Richest Dinosaur Futurity.

“The mare really tries hard,” Schafer said. “It’s really just about me just staying out of her way. The last two futurities I went to before here, she had a really good first run and then I didn’t ride her well the second round of either one of them. Both times I got in her way at the second barrel. My whole goal going into this futurity was to ride her right the second round. I have a lot of confidence in her, she tries hard and wants to do her job. The main thing for me is to ride her right and stay out of her way. I finally accomplished that.”

At Kinder, Derby was incredibly consistent. She was in the very middle of her drag for both runs and clocked times of 14.697 and 14.700 to win the aggregate.

Derby and the rest of the Schafer futurity crew will get a little break until the Elite Extravaganza Futurity next month in Waco,

BETWEEN THE REINS

Longtime friends Joy Wargo, Jolene Montgomery and Ashley Schafer started the training video training repository BetweenTheReins.us as a way to give back to the barrel racing industry. The video service gives viewers insight into their three different programs, training techniques and philosophies.

“We don’t want people to think our way is the only way to train a barrel horse,” said Schafer. “We just hope that we’re able to help someone that might be having the same issues that we’ve been through multiple times. We’re hoping to help people get to that next spot without having to go through so much trial and error.”

The program also gives viewers a behind the scenes look at the work it takes to make horses shine in the arena.

“That’s what so many people miss,” added Schafer. “There is so much that goes into what you see in the arena. That’s what we hope to do is give people a little insight into the process.”

Texas. Shafer, who had two futurities close together at the end of January with the Lone Star Shootout and The Richest Dinosaur, opted to stay home with her young son and focus on getting her colts ready for next year.

“I’m fortunate enough that I lived close enough to both of those that I was able to drive back-and-forth, but those are still days you’re not getting to ride your colts,” she explained. “I’m looking forward to staying home for a couple of weeks and getting my colts going further along.”

Tonozzi and Rock On Guys Rock Solid in Kinder

Brittany Tonozzi and her homegrown horses, Rock On Guys, had a big weekend at the Kinder Cup Barrel Race in Kinder, LA. The team won the Kinder Cup Derby Championship and also swept in to win the Open of the Breeders Challenge Kinder. All told the team picked up $19,052 for all their efforts. The team has placed through all the futurities over the past year and have even picked up a couple rodeo wins already so we decided to catch up with Tonozzi to ask her a few questions about her speedy mount!

BRR: Can you walk us through your Friday run at Kinder that won the Derby?

Tonozzi: I was at the end and I knew I was going to have to be fast just to place so I sent him harder than I ever have to the first and he handled it like a champ! He had just come off a little sick time and I didn't know if he was going to clock but he showed up in a big way.

BRR: Rock on Guys is now closing in on $100k in lifetime earnings already. Tell us about him and what makes him such a winner?

Tonozzi: He is by our stud, A Guy with Proof, which makes him extra special. He is has already won 2 pro rodeos in his career as a 4 year old and I plan on taking him to more next year and he may get to run at Houston this year.

BRR: Can you share with us an exercise or training tip that was vital to the development of Rock On Guys?

Tonozzi: He has been a little difficult to find the right head gear for because he has a very small mouth and the corners are white so he can't handle much bit. He prefers no bit and I switch from a stop and turn to a combo depending on where I am running at.

BRR: Years ago you gathered up your own broodmares and started mares to start your program, what were you looking for?

Tonozzi: I have actually been breeding horses for 13 years and started with Streakin Six Babe. I was very fortunate that Charmayne (James) sold me such a nice mare. All of my mares now are either out of her or ones that I have ran and competed on like Kisskiss Bangbang and Steele Magnolias.

BRR: What did you see in A Guy With Proof that caused you to believe in him as a stallion?

Tonozzi: I actually competed on his 3/4 sister, French Covergirl, that I bought on Barrel Horse World. I then later purchased her mother American Proof that was a successful race and barrel horse herself and bred her to Frenchman's Guy to get "Bruno". I was very familiar with this family of horses and knew I wanted his genetics to cross with Streakin Six Babe and my other mares.

BRR: After being around several crops of your A Guy With Proof colts, what qualities do you see they almost all have?

Tonozzi: He is proving to me to be a great sire in many aspects. All his babies have large bone, big feet, and are big horses which I like. I have had little to no soundness issues with them and out of the 4 that I have competed on they have all been 1D winners. Not to mention 2 of the 4 have been great head horses. We love the fact that his babies have been so versatile and easy to train. They love whatever job you give them and have been successful at an early age which is important in the futurity game.

Cheers! Kortney Kizer & Coronaslucky Twonite Win Kinder Cup Slot Race

By Tanya Randall

When trying to pick through the hectic futurity schedule, Kortney Kizer made the decision to head to the Kinder Cup, held February 11-12 at the Coushatta Casino Resort in southwestern Louisiana, because they offered a slot race on top of the $20,000-added 5-year-old Futurity and Breeders Challenge. Her mare Coronaslucky TwoNite ("Jill") delivered, winning the slot race for $17,000.

"She's been such a blessing," said Kizer. "She's just the best!" Kizer and Jill also placed fourth in the Kinder Cup Futurity to earn $7,546 and Breeders Challenge futurity sidepot for $5,318. Their weekend winnings totaled $29,864!

THE RUNDOWN w/Kortney Kizer

CoronasLucky TwoNite, "Jill" 15.1 hands, 1,000 lbs.

BIT: L&W Lifter with a three-piece mouthpiece

HEADGEAR: Tiedown

SADDLE: RooHide

SADDLE PAD: "My good friends Larry and Sandy Avants originally helped come out with the 5-Star Pads. They had some old cut outs from when they built pads. They had given me one and that was the pad that she liked."

LEG GEAR: Classic Equine on front, Iconoclast on rear

SHOEING: Rims on front, plain on back; shod by Blane Chapman

FEED: KoolSpeed

HAY: Alfalfa

SUPPLEMENTS: SuperFlex, APF Pro, MVP Gastro Plex

ALTERNATIVE THERAPIES: Theraplate every day, Back On Track every night, Magnet sheet and aqua tread and laser therapy at Aquaterra Equine Rehab and Conditioning in Portales, New Mexico

TRAINING/CONDITIONING: I pony her two to three days a week. The other days I trot through the wheat field. I work the barrel pattern probably two days a week. The rest of the time I just keep her sharp and in shape. She does have a tendency to get fresh and buck so I do have to keep her a little bit tired.

SPONSORS: APF Pro, SuperFlex, Aquaterra Equine, RooHide Saddles

SPECIAL THANKS: To her veterinarian Chris Ray, who got Jill back going.

They won the first round of the futurity with a 14.660, which ended up being the fastest run of those entered in the Slot Race, running on the bottom of the ground. The slot race winner was determined by the best of the two futurity go-round times from the entered contestants.

The two finished just out of the money in the second round with a 15.105.

"On the second run, right out of the alley I slipped my inside stirrup and was behind and got by the first barrel," Kizer explained. "I kind of failed her the second run. She's very intense and likes her job. She makes it very easy for me if I just show up."

Kizer, who resides in Pep, New Mexico, with her husband Jason and 3-year-old daughter Kindel, purchased Jill at the 2020 Jud Little Dispersal Sale as 3-year-old for $21,500.

"I bought her sight unseen," she admitted. Her friends talked her into buying the mare after the horse she originally wanted went above her price range. "We get to the end of the sale and my friends were like, 'You should buy something! These are the last horses out of his breeding program.' They're down to the last few horses and they're like, 'We're going to call and bid.' They basically talked me into buying this horse!"

The daughter of champion performer and sire JL Dash Ta Heaven is out of the Corona Cartel, Firewater Fiesta mare Corona Four Fiesta, a futurity finalist with $7,431 listed in EquiStat. The mare was barely broke to ride when Kizer got her.

"She maybe had thirty days on her and not a good thirty days," recalled Kizer. "I kind of started all over. She bucked. I wanted to take her as a 4-year-old but she banged her leg, so I ended up holding her over (to 5). She's just been all business her first few runs."

Jill made her competitive debut in spectacular fashion at the BFA World Championships where she was 8th in the Futurity running against horses that had campaigned all year. Unfortunately, a stalling situation at the event led to a sore suspensory ligament that kept her out of competition until the Lone Star Shootout in late January, where she placed in the first round.

RIDDEN BY KYLE LELEUX

Leleux and Dollys Streaknbadger Bank at Breeders Challenge

Dollys Streaknbadger came back from a two month break to win the Breeders Challenge Kinder Derby Average and won close to $20k pushing their earnings to close to $185k. The 2021 Royal Crown Futurity Champions pick up checks everywhere we go so we thought we would catch up with Leleux to get a little more info about him and Bentley!

BRR: Can you walk us through your 2 runs at Kinder that won you the Derby Championship?

Leleux: He has been off for almost two months. I really didn't know what to expect. Was he going to be lazy and not fire or was he not going to be sharp in the corners? He did them both. He never disappoints me but we never had this much time off and of course he acts like he never had a day off. The first round I just wanted to feel him. We don't run in small arenas like Kinder very often. He spun the first barrel and ran across the pen and I'm pretty sure the second barrel startled him as it approached rather quickly. He some how got around it and as usual he spun the third. By time the second round came he knew exactly where the barrels were. I felt his heart racing a little more and I knew he knew what was up! I just turned him loose and stayed out of his way!

BRR: Dollys Streaknbadger is now closing in on $185k in lifetime earnings already. Tell us about him and what qualities he possesses that makes him such a winner?

Leleux: Bentley is all business most of the time. He is super soft and sensitive! It doesn't take much to hurt his feelings. With that being said there is nothing he doesn't do that he won't give 110% at. Even though barrel racing is extremely easy for him because he is so fast and incredibly talented he takes it super seriously. It's almost like he knows how to win or just what it takes to win. I'm not quite sure how he does it.

BRR: Can you share with us an exercise or training tip that was vital to the development of Dollys Streaknbadger?

Leleux: I don't do a whole lot of exercises any more but I used to work the fence and back him in circles as a 4 and 5 yr old just to keep him backed off and thinking! He's always wanted to be good so I don't have to do too much.

BRR: You have ridden barrel horses for years now and know what it takes to produce a successful futurity colt. What qualities do you see Dollys Streaknbadger passing on to his colts as he eventually moves into his stud career?

Leleux: I'm probably not the best person to ask on his qualities. Some may call me barn blind. I think he's perfect!! He is the perfect height and body type. He is super smart with a great work ethic. He's an athlete that can run faster than any horse that I've ever ridden and he's beautiful. What more can One ask for? LOL!

BRR: Even though you now sold him to NickelBar Ranch, what did you see in Dollys Streaknbadger that caused you to leave him a stallion as you progressed him through his training?

Leleux: Funny you ask! Being in the stallion business once before I knew I didn't want to do it again. When I bought him from Todd Matte I intended to castrate him. Not because he was bad at all, just because I knew most stallions make great geldings. Then Todd Dollys Streaknbadger, "Bentley" 15.1 hands, 1,200 lbs.

BIT: Kerry Kelly Hemi port

HEADGEAR: Leather bonnet

SADDLE: Shiloh Contender

SADDLE PAD: 3S

LEG GEAR: Classic Equine Splint boots

SHOEING: Bentley only has shoes on the front

FEED: Triple Crown Complete

HAY: Alfalfa

TRAINING/CONDITIONING: I will ride him 5 to 6 days a week mostly just exercising. I may go around the barrels the day before I leave for the barrel race just to make sure he feels good and sharp.

SPONSORS: Thank you to 3S Saddle Pads & Outlaw Equine for their support!

informed me he was a Ruby Buckle stallion; knowing what that incentive has done for the industry, I thought I should keep him a stud as long as he would behave. He's been a gentleman from day one and still is!

BRR: What are three things (other than truck, trailer, horses and such) that you can't travel without?

Leleux: Ulcer Meds & Fluids

HEADIN' FOR HOME

"Classic" by Sherry Morrison // Triple M (Mike Morrison Ministries)

Remember when we talked about a book written about us? A book that helped people to understand us, The Sherry Manual 101? Well, let's take that a little further and let's ask ourselves just what that book would say.

When we read Matthew, Mark, Luke and John, we are learning how Jesus walked this earth. It's about Him healing people and delivering them from all sorts of stuff. It's about His love walk and how He gives us direction so we can walk victorious in our own lives. It's about how He never sinned, though He was tempted, Hebrews 2:18. The best part is how He defeated the devil. It was as simple as Jesus telling the devil, "it is written". So when we have trouble, we only need to remember the answer and then just talk that answer, Matthew 4:1-10.

Now I know that sometimes this is all easier said than done. It's easier for me to pray for someone that is hurting and believe, than to pray for myself when I'm the one that's hurting! But the goal is still the same. We get healed and the devil gets defeated. Sometimes it's through the trial, or over the trial, or around the trial. But we don't pitch a tent and stay there. We keep moving toward the answer.

So. What do you think? In your story, at the end, do you want it to describe how you won . . . . .or how you quit?
