Cindy Patrick & Dash Ta Heaven Duo Win Big at PacWest Ocala

By Tanya Randall

Cindy Patrick and two Jud Little-bred siblings topped the first two races at the Pac West Barrel Race, held February 12-14 at the Southeastern Livestock Pavilion in Ocala, Florida. She topped Friday's Open aboard the 8-year-old mare Flitin N Dashin and won Saturday's Open on the 9-year-old gelding Flit Ta Heaven ("Mouse"). Both horses are by leading sire and performer JL Dash Ta Heaven and out of the NFR qualifying mare Flitin Firin Cash, by Cash Not Credit. The two horses combined for $4,626 on the weekend.

Patrick's husband Gary purchased Mouse as a 3-year-old for her as a birthday present.

She recalled, "I was in the house and my husband said, 'Go get that horse off the trailer.' I said, 'What trailer?' He said, 'There's one out there on the trailer for you.' Tammy Ochs brought him back to Indiana for us."

She said that Mouse was a natural.

"There really wasn't much training to him," she said. "He just loved to do it and just did it!"

At the Pac West race, Mouse won the most $2,539.

"His runs were just awesome," she said. "He always does awesome when my brain isn't getting in the way!"

Patrick purchased Flitin N Dashin at the Jud Little Dispersal Sale last May.

"I didn't know too much about her," Patrick said. "I'm good friends with Janae Massey and she told me about her a little bit. She told me that she was probably the fastest horse she'd ever ridden at Jud's place, so I just took a shot."

It didn't take Patrick long to get with the mare.

"She was pretty good," she said. "I had to figure out what kind of bridle to put on her and a few things about how she was trained, but we hit it off pretty good."

Patrick didn't have a lot of time to devote to getting with the mare as she and husband make their living with Thoroughbred racehorses. Their home is in Pendleton, Indiana, and they take advantage of the lucrative Indiana-bred racing program during the spring and summer. During the winter, they take their training horses south to condition at their Brooksville, Florida, home.

"I don't have time to ride (the barrel horses) during the week because we're busy training racehorses," she said. "I leave the house at 4:30 in the morning and I'm at the track all day. Sometimes the only way I do get to ride them is if I take them to the track with me."

With the Indiana racing season underway when she purchased Flitin N Dashin, Patrick just started running the mare, who doesn't really have a barrel name yet besides Mousette.

"I just went and started running her," said Patrick, who won the reserve at the Indiana NBHA State Show just two months after purchasing the mare. "I just cruised her through the first couple of times because I didn't know what to do. She would kind step by the first barrel a little bit but I figured it out. She just continued to get better. Last weekend, she ran a 13.76, a 13.78 and a 13.80. She was pretty consistent."

Patrick grew up at the racetrack. Her father trained Quarter

A former saddle bronc rider himself, Gary is one of Indiana's leading racehorse trainers.

The racehorses, and barrel horses, have been a family affair. Patrick jockeyed for 10 years and her daughter Cheyenna followed in her footsteps. Cheyenna is a past All-American Youth Champion as well as a race winning Thoroughbred jockey.

"She's at home in Indiana," said Patrick, who also picked up $681 on Cheyenna's homebred gelding Hays Victory Socks, by BHR Frenchies Socks. "We've got some mares to foal out. She just graduated from law school last spring and is taking the bar next week. She's been studying eight hours a day."

Patrick said all the riding she does on the young horses between the Thoroughbreds and her barrel horses has kept her sharp at age 62.

"I think riding colts really helps because you've got to think about what you're doing or you're going to get messed up!" she chuckled. "I think the speed and handling the horses has really helped."

Patrick has both of her Dash Ta Heavens qualified for the American Semifinals at the end of the month. She's finished in the top 30 after slack to qualify for the second round performance before and she's hoping she can make it farther this year.

"I'm just having fun," she said. "People keep trying to buy my horse (Mouse), but I'm not selling. I'm having too much fun."

Wicked Fast -- Wendy Chestnut & Sun Frost Merridoc Win Pac West Sunday

By Tanya Randall

Wendy Chestnut and her 11-year-old mare Sun Frost Merridoc ("Lucky") turned in the fastest time of the Pac West Race, held February 12-14 at the Southeastern Livestock Pavilion in Ocala, Florida, to win Sunday's $3,500-added. Their time of 13.611 was worth $1,289 between the Open and Masters (Seniors) victories.

"We started off a little shaky, but I guess Sunday I got my act together," said Chestnut, who wanted to thank her husband Bob and her sponsors Polyglycan, Pro Elite Grains, Spoiled Rotten Animal Therapy (in Vermont) and Game Changer in Florida (MagnaWave Therapy) and Oxy-Gen.

The multiple First Frontier Circuit Champion wasn't as surprised with the spectacular run as she was with a tipped barrel on Friday.

"Friday night we took a barrel down at the third," said Chestnut, who hails from Poultney, Vermont. "We don't hit barrels very often, but it happens. Saturday it was such a tight race. It was so close. We were a .9 and just out of the money. Sunday, she came back and ran the fastest time of the weekend."

Typically, Chestnut and her husband Bob head to Ocala, Florida, after Christmas. They started going down about the time Lucky came into Chestnut's life. She purchased the daughter of RNJ Heckofafrenchman, out of the Merridoc granddaughter RNJ Ellen, as a green broke 3-year-old from a local horse dealer, Pond Hill Ranch.

"It's funny because I didn't even know who Merridoc was when I bought her," laughed the former corporate business woman. "She just had a cute little head and she was built right. I thought if she doesn't make a barrel horse, she'd make something. Then I started working her I thought, 'Oh I've got something here. She's smart, athletic and quick.'"

Chestnut and Lucky won three straight First Frontier Circuit titles, from 2017 to 2019. They've also won two First Frontier Circuit Finals titles and have qualified for multiple International Finals Rodeo appearances.

In 2020, however, COVID kept Chestnut from taking her typical Oklahoma detour to the IFR. With canceled rodeos in the north-east, she would have been forced to travel to the Midwest and farther to attend qualifying rodeos.

"We didn't have any rodeos," she said. "The only rodeos they really had were in the central United States. They had one or two here or there but they only had $300 added so it really wasn't worth it. We haven't had anything going on up there."

Chestnut plans on staying in Florida through the RAM National Circuit Finals Rodeo in Kissimmee. She finished second in the year-end standings and average at the recent First Frontier Circuit Finals. Chestnut also has a full weekend of rodeos ahead with slack at Kissimmee on Thursday, a Friday night performance in Perry, Georgia, and a Saturday performance in Dade City.

AIRWAY EQ

"Air-Way EQ has helped maintain my horse's respiratory health, I've noticed clearer sounding airways and greater lung capacity. I use Breathe'O2 paste pre-race, he sounds great warming up and really fires without feeling winded."

This was compiled by us because we just thought it would be fun to preview the qualifiers with the Semi-Finals just a couple weeks away!

ProRodeo Tour Finale heads to Salinas on season's final weekend

The ProRodeo Tour Finale will play a bigger role than ever before when it pays out $500,000 on the final weekend of the season.

The Tour Finale will move to California Rodeo Salinas, Sept. 23-26 for the 2021 season and will crown the ProRodeo Tour champions. The half-million-dollar payout on the season's final weekend will play a pivotal role in catapulting athletes into the Wrangler National Finals Rodeo.

"This is what the ProRodeo Tour Finale is all about," PRCA CEO George Taylor said. "Not only will these talented athletes be crowned Tour champions, but a number of competitors will also book their trips to the Wrangler National Finals Rodeo."

The Top 24 competitors in each event in the ProRodeo Tour Standings advance to the Tour Finale and will compete for their share of $500,000.

"We're incredibly excited to be the host for the ProRodeo Tour Finale," Salinas President Dave Pedrazzi said. "California Rodeo Salinas is steeped in ProRodeo history and having the Tour Finale here will only add to that great tradition."
