Pozzi & Babe On The Chase Capture LG Pro Classic Slot Race

By Tanya Randall

Two-time WPRA World Champion Brittany Pozzi is now a two-time $100,000-slot race winner with a futurity horse. At the 9th Annual LG Pro Classic in Kinder, La., Pozzi and her home-bred 4-year-old mare Babe On The Chase ("Birdie") captured the $115,000 Invitational Slot Race Championship with a 14.220.

The Victoria, Texas, barrel racer used her years of experience in high-pressure situations to make a business run rather than go for broke.

"I told myself I need to play this smart," she said. "I just need to make a smooth clean run because there were a lot of hit barrels. It was like a demolition derby. I thought I just need to keep the barrels up and see what they pay me. I don't need to go in there and try to blow everyone's doors off and end up not getting a check. In a way I feel like I played it safe, but then she really clocked."

Prior to Kinder, Birdie had only made eight competitive runs—two at the BFA Juvenile in Oklahoma City, a jackpot in Stockdale, Texas, a jackpot in Colorado and two-runs at Blackmon Quarter Horses Futurity in Gonzales, Texas, where they finished sixth in the average. All of those runs were vastly different from the small setup at Kinder with its short run to a blind first barrel.

"I've been running her in all these pens where it's a long run to the first barrel like Oklahoma City and Stockdale," said Pozzi. She and Birdie were the 13th fastest in the Qualifying Round with a 14.495. "I think I shocked her in the first round of the slot race. The first round of the futurity, I thought I'm going to let her cruise to it and let her nail it and then go on. I used my futurity run like an exhibition—though not really—and she goes and wins the first round. I was shocked. I had no idea that she was this nice. It was a total shock to me—which it usually is when I do go at Lance's because I don't have that many runs on them."

Pozzi and Birdie posted their fastest run of the event, a 14.129, in the open round of the futurity on Friday. They came back Sunday with a 14.548 to win fifth in the BFA Futurity for $4,989 and earn $2,668 on their carryover times in the open. Their total haul was $122,657.

"I really don't know that much about her," laughed Pozzi. "I raised her and trained her, but as far as running her in competition, I don't know that much about her. I was really impressed when she came in made another good run on Sunday. That made me really happy. She's barely had four runs, much less four runs in one weekend. Well, actually more than that, because I cruised her through pretty good in exhibitions. She's never had that much pressure put on her."

Birdie is by leading sire Chasin Firewater, who just happens to be a three-quarter brother to Alive N Firen, the sire of Pozzi's World Champion Yeah Hes Firen ("Duke"). The mare is out of Streakin Six Babe, a daughter of Streakin Six that Pozzi purchased from Charmayne James. Both James and Pozzi won WPRA World Championships aboard Streakin Six geldings—James on Cruisin On Six and Pozzi on Sixth Vision ("Stitch").

Streakin Six Babe has been a strong producer for Pozzi's program. Her first foal for Pozzi was 2012 Diamonds & Dirt Futurity Champion Ima Super Fly Guy, by Frenchmans Guy. She's also produced multiple futurity finalist and pro rodeo money earner Smoke N The Babes, a 6-year-old gelding by Smoke N Sparks.

Pozzi also has Streakin Is Easy, a 5-year-old mare by Dashin Is Easy. Streakin Is Easy has had some injuries, but Pozzi has her well and has started her back. Pozzi also has a Dash Ta Fame 2-year-old, a Be A Magnolia Runner yearling, a Firewaterontherocks filly on the ground and is awaiting two Frenchmans Guys later this spring out of Streakin Six Babe.

"All that mare's babies have had a motor," said Pozzi. "I've excited about Birdie and her future for sure."

Like all of Pozzi's prospects, Birdie spent a year with Paul Bass in Florida getting broke, but the spooky mare quickly showed Pozzi she was going to need more riding than some of her other futurity

Sanders Silet Auction

A well known barrel racer, Tahnee Sanders, of Lebanon, Nebraska was recently involved in a bad ATV accident, leaving her paralyzed. She is starting to have some movement and the family would like to continue her rehabilitation at Craig Hospital in Colorado to give her the opportunity to regain her normal life and activities. To help, we have set up an online silent auction on Facebook at "Benefit Silent Auction for Tahnee Sanders." Over 65 items have been offered at this point ranging from stallion breedings to many nice custom items including tack and metal art. National barrel racing organizations including Better Barrel Racing, Future Fortunes and Bonus Race Finals have also donated general packages and support. People have been very generous and it shows how tight knit and supportive the barrel racing community is. The auction ends Wednesday February 25th at 7:00 PM CST. For more information contact Deb Christy, 785.543.7829.

Formation of the ERA Announced

The Elite Rodeo Association (ERA), an innovative new rodeo corporation created and owned by the top rodeo athletes in the world, is proud to announce its formation.

The ERA plans to work in cooperation with existing rodeo venues and sports arenas across North America to create an exciting and sought after tour. In addition, ERA is focused on the future generations of top rodeo athletes with a mission of ensuring the integrity of the sport of rodeo and providing additional opportunities for professional rodeo cowboys, cowgirls and industry partners for years to come.

The ERA is owned by the top 55 rodeo athletes, 42 of which are World Champion Rodeo Cowboys & Cowgirls. While the current ownership includes existing top competitors, the progressive model allows for aspiring elite rodeo athletes to participate and earn ownership in the ERA.

Governed by a seven-member board that will consist of three rough stock representatives, three timed event representatives and one administrative official, the athlete-owned organization will showcase the best cowboys and cowgirls, whose eligibility to compete will be determined by the ERA qualification system. In 2016, the ERA will produce a 15-event regular-season tour, all broadcast on national network television, culminating with a 5-day World Championship event. "We are excited about building and releasing our 2016 season and plan to increase the number of tour stops in the years to come.

Exciting announcements about the 2016 tour will be coming soon. More information will be released through erarodeo.com and our Facebook page, ERA Rodeo. Media Contacts: Holly DeLaune, info@erarodeo.com

The American Semi-Finals Schedule and Info

THE AMERICAN Semi-Finals – Fort Worth (All times Central Time) Wednesday, February 18

Thursday, February 19

9 a.m.- Tie-Down Roping Slack, Cowtown Coliseum

9 a.m Team Roping Slack, Outdoor Arena

6 p.m - Steer Wrestling Slack, Cowtown Coliseum

Friday, February 20

7 p.m.- Round One of Semifinals, Cowtown Coliseum

Saturday, February 21

7 p.m.- Round Two of Semifinals, Cowtown Coliseum

Sunday, February 22

2 p.m. - Final Round of American Semi-Finals, Cowtown Coliseum

6 – 9 p.m. - Sponsor Patch Auction, Billy Bob's Texas

The barrel racing slack kicks off the Semi-Finals Wednesday morning at 9 am central time and will be broadcast by 3-2-1 Action Video; the link can be found at www.barrelhorseworld.com on the homepage. All the Semi-Finals slack and performances will be broadcast live on Sirius XM Rural Radio Channel 80 or www.prorodeolive.com hosted by Steve Kenyon.

The three performances of the Semi-Finals will be televised on RFD-TV on Feb. 20 at 8:30 p.m. (Central) (1st Performance) and Sunday, Feb. 22, at noon (Central) (2nd Performance) prior to RFD-TV's live broadcast of the final Performance Sunday at 2 p.m.

In the barrel racing, the top 30 times from slack will then come back in the performances Friday through Sunday (February 20-22). From there, the fastest 10 will advance to battle the WPRA's top 10 – and a couple of special exemptions – inside AT&T Stadium on March 1 during RFD-TV's THE AMERICAN, presented by Polaris RANGER.

Immediately after the final performance on Sunday, the general public is also invited to bid in person at Billy Bob's Texas or by telephone or online to buy the sponsor patches on the backs of the 22 barrel racers on the final AMERICAN roster. Check superiorlivestock.com for more details.

To reserve your hotel room near the Stockyards, visit stockyardsrodeo.com/hotels. Secure your tickets early through stockyardsrodeo.com or by calling 1-888-Cowtown (269-8696). You can also buy Semi-Finals tickets and AMERICAN tickets through Ticketmaster by calling 1-800-745-3000.

Finally, tickets to THE AMERICAN can also be purchased by visiting www.attstadium.com. Click on Events & Tickets, then Ticket Information and select "The American Rodeo" in the field at the top. For more information visit www.AmericanRodeo.com or visit www.BetterBarrelRaces.com.

In the barrel racing, if someone won both rounds of the Semi-Finals they would take home more than $48,000! For the whole event, the Semi-Finals have a total purse of close to $500,000 so it will be an event nobody will want to miss.

"When I got her back from Paul and started riding her, she was scared of everything," said Pozzi. "I was riding her one time and I my text alert went off in my back pocket, and I thought I was a goner. She ran off. It freaked her out. She freaked me out. I knew I was going to have to get some more rides on her. Basically, the two that were behind went with me to Colorado. I turned her and another 3-year-old I took out in a 100 acre pasture. Basically, I rode and worked her when I had time."

Birdie had just three exhibition trips and they were all at Gonzales, Texas, before going to the BFA World Championships for the Juvenile.

"She won 10th in the (Future Fortunes) Sire's Slots at BFA and was right out of placing in the average," said Pozzi. "I could tell she was going to be nice. Did I think she was going to win the slot race at Lance's? Heck no!"

The $115,000 couldn't have come at a better time for Pozzi, who is currently rebuilding her rodeo string since the retirement of Duke, and for JB Quarter Horses' Chasin Firewater, who will miss the 2015 breeding season due to complications from an old injury to his stifle.

"It's what we all needed," said Pozzi. "From JB Quarter Horses to my deal, we all needed a little pick-me-up. I'd like to thank Dee and Joe (Braman) of JB Quarter Horses. They've been amazing, helping me out whenever I needed it. They've been very supportive. And, it's awesome that Birdie gets to run at all that extra incentive money."

In the meanwhile, Pozzi has pro rodeos in San Antonio, San Angelo and Tucson. Her two mounts for the time being are pro rodeo winner Shes Free To Flame ("Teddy") and 2014 Diamonds & Dirt Slot Race Champion Kisskiss Bangbang ("Mona").

"Mona clocked fabulous at the winter rodeos, but has hit barrels." lamented Pozzi. "She's rating off the barrels really bad and I'm having trouble getting around them inside. I rode Teddy at San Angelo and she did really well there, so I'm probably just going to run Teddy at San Antonio. (Her boyfriend Garrett Tonozzi suggested Birdie get the call.) I'm going to run Mona at Diamonds & Dirt and then take her to California and run her outside. I may run her at Tucson."

Balancing her rodeo schedule and her futurity horses has always been challenging. She usually goes to most of the early futurities that fit in her with rodeo schedule, but LG Pro Classic has always been one of her favorites.

"I've always enjoyed Lance's futurity," she said. "I've always done good there. I like the format. I like how you get two chances. They've just treated me so good. Everyone in the office has been so helpful. I just really enjoy going to Kinder. It's one of my favorite places to go. That always helps when you are some place you want to be."

Pozzi ran six futurity horses at Kinder and said she was pleased with all of them.

"They all worked good," she said. "I was happy with all of them. Some are further behind than others, which is the case in any trainer's barn. I have a stud that I'm really excited about - A Guy With Proof. He's by Frenchmans Guy out of French Covergirl's mother so he's a three-quarter brother to French Covergirl. The tiny pen wasn't his thing, but I'm excited about him."

Her next major futurity is Diamonds & Dirt, an event she's won twice. Then it's back to focusing on the rodeo horses again.

"Once I get done with Diamonds & Dirt, I'm really going to start focusing on (Smoke N The Babes) and that 5-year-old sister," she said. "Also, I have a 6-year-old World Speed that I really like that I bought from a friend. I think he's going to make a rodeo horse. I'm going to try to get these futurity horses out of the way and focus on the other ones. It's hard to do it all. I've got to prioritize."

Jatzlau Pilots Imanonstop Fame to LG Pro Classic Futurity Championship

By Tanya Randall

Although her competitive career is long over, Imanonstop Princess keeps winning through her offspring for Jackie Jatzlau of Giddings, Texas. The most recent winner for the daughter of Letta Hank Do It, Nonstop Jet mare is the 4-year-old Dash Ta Fame gelding Imanonstop Fame ("Prince"), owned by Shelly Weaver, Drumright, Okla.

At the 9th Annual LG Pro Classic in Kinder, La., Jatzlau guided Prince to BFA Futurity Championship and total earnings of $11,407.

"He's extremely green," said Jatzlau. "He's not supposed to be winning. Inexperience kind of got us in the slot races, but we re-

"I don't out work anybody else. All the people in the futurity business work really hard. It was just my day at Lance's and I'm sure at Diamonds & Dirt it will be somebody else's. I'm just very thankful for my sponsors and the people I have in my life: my boyfriend Garrett Tonozzi and his mother—she came down and helped me. I couldn't have done it without her. My friend Kaylon Rodriguez helped me a bunch. It takes a team of people. I can't do all of this by myself, so having the help was nice."

deemed ourselves and won the futurity. It's hard to be disappointed in that. I'm disappointed that I didn't do it for the big money, but a win is a win, so I'll take it."

Ironically, Weaver had told Jatzlau to scratch Prince from the second go of the Futurity if she thought four runs in a row would be too much for the gelding. However, after hitting barrels in the qualifying round of the slot race and its consolation, Jatzlau knew she had to make her fourth run to prepare for the American Semifinals tomorrow morning.

"Four runs on those colts in four day is really hard," said Jatzlau. "Shelly told me I could scratch him, but he had to run Sunday for me. I couldn't go to the Semifinals like that. I needed to go on a good note. I had failed him twice, so I had to get my stuff together—trust him and ride him good—and he'll have a chance to win the futurity.”

Prince and Jatzlau posted the fastest time of the event, a 14.029, to win the second round of the futurity and the Open 1D with a carryover.

“I backed off and sent him like a rodeo horse,” said Jatzlau, “and he made a phenomenal run. Now we get to go to the Semifinals on Wednesday with a lot of confidence.”

Prince's road from prospect to futurity winner has been full of sharp curves and detours. When Weaver sent the gelding to Jatzlau last February, the gelding had a little more than a handful of rides and had to be sent off for more foundation work.

“When I started back riding, I didn't have a lot of strength in my hand,” said Jatzlau, referring to the hand she broke at the 2013 BFA World Championship Futurity and had to have surgically repaired. “I had ridden him in the roundpen a couple of times and he didn't stop very good. I don't have an arena, and I knew if he took off with me in the pasture, it was going to be a disaster.”

To give Prince a better handle, Jatzlau sent the gelding to Stephan Boutin in Montgomery, Texas, for three weeks. She got him back at Diamonds & Dirt mid-March.

Unbeknownst to Jatzlau, she was pregnant when Prince arrived in February. After her eight week ultrasound following Diamonds & Dirt, Jatzlau called Weaver with the news.

“I knew what her expectations were and I offered to help her find someone else to take him,” Jatzlau said. “After we kicked it around for a few days and she made a few calls, she called me and asked me what I was going to do with my two personal futurity horses. I said I was going to get them as far along as I could, maybe send them off or swim them a little bit and hope for the best.”

Weaver called back a few days later and decided to leave Prince with Jatzlau, given her history of success with the horse's family and knowing that she could ride behind her when he was finished. Jatzlau didn't start Prince on the pattern until May 1 and continued to train until she was 30 weeks pregnant. Prince went to Teri George's in Dripping Springs, Texas, for a week before an injury to George forced her to send him home. He then went to Liana DeWeese in Claremore, Okla.

“When I took him up there, I cruised him through to show Shelly and then cruised him through the next morning for Liana. August 26 was the last time I rode him,” explained Jatzlau.

DeWeese had Prince exactly one month when he got extremely sick with a respiratory infection. He was in ICU for seven days and was off for a full month. Prince got cleared to return to work two days after Jatzlau had her daughter, Journey, on October 20.

"I told Shelly my doctor let me start riding three weeks after I had (my son) Jagger, so I told her to start riding him," said Jatzlau. "She got to ride him about 10 times, just long trotting him. I got cleared to start riding November 10, and she brought him to me November 8. So, from September 25 to November 10, he never saw a barrel." At the 2014 BFA World Championships, Prince exceeded Jatzlau's expectations, placing in a round of the Juvenile with a 15.6. It was that performance that inspired Jatzlau to make a serious lifestyle change.

"After we got home from Oklahoma City, I told (my husband) Lane that this horse is phenomenal and I'm not," said Jatzlau, 34. "We've got to do something, so we started hitting the gym."

"Not only was I pregnant last year, but I started the year injured. I wasn't in the best shape when I got pregnant. I decided that I bust my butt to make sure these horses are feeling good and are in shape, and I'm not. How can I expect them to perform their best when I'm not at mine? I'm stronger than I've ever been. I'm fitter than I've ever been. I'm still not exactly where I want to be. I've lost all my baby weight, but I still want to lose 10 more pounds."

"It's become a lifestyle change. I've made it a part of my daily routine. I made it part of my job to come to the gym daily. We don't diet, but we've been eating really clean and making healthy decisions, snacking on protein bars instead of chips in the afternoon." While Jatzlau was dedicating herself to getting in shape, Prince was recovering from a relapse of the respiratory illness and got another full month off.

"I didn't start riding him again until January 15, and I knew I was entered in the slot race, so I knew I was on a crunch. I took him to the first STBRA in Magnolia after riding him a week, and he won second behind Ashley Penland and VF Coup De Ville. I went to Caldwell on Wednesday night and won it, and then went back to Magnolia to another STBRA and won it."

Jatzlau was entered in the American Qualifier in Glen Rose,

Texas, on Weaver's rodeo horse Frenchmans High, but decided to go with the colt based on his performances at the three jackpots. "I told Shelly I've been running your rodeo horse and your colt, and the colt's been outrunning the rodeo horse by 2/10ths every time," she said. "The colt is just snappy and running out of the bridle; I'm running the colt at the Qualifier. I'll either be crazy for putting a 4-year-old in it in February or I'll look like a genius. She laughed and said OK."

Prince made his seventh competitive run that Friday and qualified for the American on Saturday. His next four runs were at Kinder. Looking back, Jatzlau said her lack of runs and timing caused her to overthink her slot race runs in Kinder.

"Honestly, I overthought it," said Jatzlau, who was on her way to the gym on the Monday following Kinder. "He got a little nervous, which he had never done before and I over rode him. I rode him like a colt instead of backing off and riding him like I was confident. My timing is off and I've lost my competitive edge. I know that I'm probably further behind than he is. To run with the best of the best, you have to be the best. That's why I've been in the gym so much and riding so hard. I've been working my tail in the ground because I'm at a competitive disadvantage. That's why I've been working so hard—I know what kind of colt he is."

Lance Graves Pro Classic Sale Results

The 2015 Lance Graves Pro Classic Sale put on by Going Big Time Sales Co, Inc. showed once again the barrel horse prospect market is on the rise. The sale held during the LG Pro Classic Barrel Futurity at the Coushatta Casino in Kinder, LA, started with a preview, Friday, February 13th at 7:30 pm and the sale kicked off the next day, Saturday, February 14th at 12:00pm.

The sale topper this weekend set a record for a 2 year old prospects in the barrel world. Lot 46 VF Famous Cindy, consigned by Victory Farms, rocketed to a final sale price and record of $135,000. The blue blood daughter of Dash Ta Fame is out of the great Sticks An Stones mare, Modan Cindy. Not only was Modan Cindy a great barrel horse herself, winning the BFA Futurity, being Reserve AQHA World Champion in Jr Barrel Racing and placing at numerous other futurity and events, but she has also produces barrel racing winners including VF A Classy Design. This great prospect sold to Fagan Farms.

The 2nd high seller for the weekend was Hesa Firin, the full brother to World Champion barrel horse and WPRA/AQHA Horse of the Year under Brittany Pozzi, Yeah Hes Firen. The yearling palomino stud colt is by Alive N Firen and out of Splendid Discovery by Shoot Yeah. Consigned by Victory Farms, the fine stud prospect went to Randy Boyd.

The over all sale average was a nice $11,572. For more information on the sale just go to www.goingbigtime.com. The full results will be available for them or you can view them below.

JILL LANE BARREL HORSES WILL TAKE YOU TO THE PAY WINDOW

JL Roc A Bull (JL Sirocco x Lil Bits Of Bullion) Has 30+ days under saddle. Big, strong colt with good feet and bone. Well bred with Dash Ta Fame on the top and Bully Bullion on the bottom. Currently VGBRA and 5 State eligible. He is two this year.

JL Goodnight (Firewater On The Rocks x CS Dee Light) By the popular FWOTR out of a full sister to CS Flashlight. This pretty, gray filly has 30 days under saddle. Very nice mover. WPRA PESI enrolled. She is two this year.

JL Redwood (Red x This Oaks No Joke) From the last foal crop by Red. This gelding will be stouter, as his dam, an own daughter of Doc's Oak was very thick. He has 30+ days under saddle and is very athletic. PIF to FF, PESI and VGBRA and 5 State eligible. He is two this year.

JL Antares (Red) wins platinum horse trailer as average winner of 4 runs at 2015 Classic Equine & Greg Olson!

Thanks to all who came by to see JL The Red Monster at the BFA sale in OKC. Best of luck to his new owners!

Headin' For Home

by Sherry Morrison
Triple M (Mike Morrison Ministries)

I want to say right here in the beginning of this article...I KNOW NOTHING ABOUT MULES!

A few months back, Mike was invited to preach at Mule Days in Ft. Davis, TX. That was a first for us. We've done rodeos, barrel races, ranches and churches....but no mules. After we agreed, our friend dropped the bomb that he had entered us in the team roping and barrel racing! CRIKEY! Let me say, I was VERY ANXIOUS about it.

Upon arriving (me in a cold sweat) we walked all over looking at mules. Big ones, little ones, spotted ones, brown ones, big heads, long ears, big heads, long ears (oh, I said that). The rodeo started off with the halter show, then the hide race, team roping, barrel race and ended with the mule race. It was after the halter show that our friend said he hadn't really entered us. Thank you Jesus! (I will get even some day).

After watching 25-35 second barrel runs on a small pattern, I noticed a few things. Most of them carried an over and under and wore pretty large roweled spurs. LOTS of whipping and LOTS of spurring. Where did they see such a thing?! I know and so do you. They had been watching, and were imitating, some of us barrel racers.

It's the same in the Christian world. We get called hypocrites because sometimes we are. Sometimes we don't do the right thing and people see it. It's easy to judge that. If I've heard it once, I've heard it a thousand times...."Look at that! And they are supposed to be Christians!" Well, I would like to think that barrel racers are horsemen. Not all of us are. But, like being a Christian, it's a walk. You start out believing Jesus is your savior and you go from there. You read your Bible, you make adjustments, you listen to a teaching tape, you make adjustments, you watch a faith preacher on tv and you make adjustments.

Ephesians 5:1 in the Amplified Bible says, "Therefore, be imitators of God (copy Him and follow His example), as well-beloved children (imitate their father.) When we watch such a good example, we are sure to follow in their footsteps.

Mike and Sherry Morrison pastor "Church at the Barn" in Gillette, WY. They also travel to other areas ministering at barrel races, ranches, rodeos, churches and home Bible studies. Check out our schedule online. You can also download all Bible studies by visiting our website: m-m-m.org or contact us at: PO Box 2439, Gillette, WY. 82717, 307/685-2272.
