Brittany Tonozzi & Ima Famous Babe Grab $13,675 at San Angelo Rodeo

By Tanya Randall

Brittany Pozzi Tonozzi's homebred 7-year-old mare Ima Famous Babe ("Katniss") has nabbed her first winter rodeo championship with a $13,675 victory at the $20,000-added San Angelo Rodeo, held January 30-February 1 and February 7-14.

"I just appreciate that committee and their format," said Tonozzi. "I love how they have that rodeo setup, where they let everyone come run. It really helps with the added money."

San Angelo was open to all WPRA cardholders. Everyone got their first run in slack in the First Community Credit Union Spur Arena on January 7, the day after slack for the Odessa pro rodeo. The top 120 times, plus ties, from slack progressed to one of the 10 performances in the Foster Communications Coliseum. The top 12 on a two run aggregate advanced to a short round.

As an added bonus, the winner of San Angelo gets an automatic bye into Rodeo Houston. Since Tonozzi got in as a member of last year's Top 15, Wenda Johnson, who finished second, should get the Houston invite.

Tonozzi and Katniss started off the San Angelo rodeo with a 16.12 which was out of the money 18th in the first round.

"It was her first run back since Vegas and she kind of went through the motions," Tonozzi noted. "It wasn't bad, but it wasn't stellar."

When they came back for their first run the smaller confines of the Foster Communications Coliseum in the matinee performance on February 8, Tonozzi was worried about how Katniss would handle the building and alleyway setup.

"I was nervous about the second round because she's never been in that building," she said. "The way they make you go in there and then turn around to start, I didn't know if she would know to go when I turned. I had no expectations, but she figured it out really fast."

Katniss clocked a 14.1 to finish second in the second round, but the best was yet to come with a 13.93 to win the short round with the only sub-14 run of the rodeo performances.

Tonozzi, who currently sits No. 2 in the WPRA World Standings with $36,388, also placed sixth at the Dixie National in Jackson, Mississippi, on Katniss, earning $1,297.

A two-time world champion barrel racer, Tonozzi has made her last couple of National Finals Rodeo qualifications aboard largely home-raised and trained horses. Her current arsenal is large course specialist KissKiss BangBang ("Mona"). Katniss, who was a 5-year-old futurity horse due to the birth of she and Garrett Tonozzi's daughter Tinlee, has been her rising star in the indoor, shorter course rodeos.

"Mona just gets really tight inside," said Tonozzi, who had just finishing running in slack at Tucson, Arizona. "Like she was really tight today because she's been inside so much. I can't run Mona too long inside because she just gets too tight. Katniss stays pretty honest or has so far."

Tonozzi also has Babe On The Chase ("Birdie") to spell Katniss in the setups that aren't to Mona's liking. Katniss is by Dash Ta Fame, while Birdie is by Chasin Firewater. They are both out of Streakin Six Babe, by Streakin Six.

In between rodeos, Tonozzi has been getting her next crop of star going at the futurities. She's been placing on her homebreds, This Babe Rocks, a half-sister to Katniss, by Firewaterontherocks, and Flame Carver, a Wave Craver out of Shes Free Ta Flame, who helped her qualify for the NFR one year.

Raising and training on top of rodeo makes for a very busy winter and spring.

"It's been so busy," she said from the airport, awaiting her flight back to San Antonio for the semifinals on Wednesday and Thursday. "It's been craziness actually. We're trying to build stuff on our place. It's been crazy. I took my rig into have the tires changed and they back it into the wall. I had to take it in and have the backend

The American Rodeo Sets Record for Most Qualified Athletes in Event History

RFD-TV's The American Rodeo hosted over 500 qualifying events across the country, and as a result nearly 1,500 athletes have qualified to compete at RFD-TV's The American Rodeo semi-finals in the Fort Worth Stockyards later this month. This year's competitors will set the record for the most qualifying athletes in the event's seven year history.

Western athletes competing at The American Rodeo now have a chance to compete for over half a million dollars, making RFD-TV's The American Rodeo semi-finals one of the top 15 paying rodeos in the world.

"It is exciting to see a record-setting amount of qualifiers for our seventh annual event," said Randy Bernard, CEO of The American Rodeo. "We are proud to have seen the event grow over the years. At this rate, our event is paying out more than the Kentucky Derby does."

The American Rodeo's Semi-Finals will take place February 24-March 1 at Cowtown Coliseum in the Fort Worth Stockyards. Tickets are available online for the Semifinals and Finals at AT&T Stadium in Arlington, Texas. The Finals will take place the following weekend, March 7-8 at AT&T Stadium. Tickets are on sale here, beginning at just $10.

"You have to go big when you do events at the historic Fort Worth Stockyards and AT&T Stadium," said Bernard. "We are taking rodeo and Western sports to the next level."

About The American

Taking place at Dallas Cowboys' AT&T Stadium on March 7-8, 2020, RFD-TV's The American Rodeo, hosts the richest weekend in Western sports. With $2.4 million on the line, the best athletes in the world will gather in Arlington, Texas to battle for the biggest single paycheck of their lives.

The American Rodeo invites the top athletes from the 2019 PRCA world standings and puts them against everyday cowboys and cowgirls who advance from the American Rodeo semi-finals. If a nationally ranked athlete wins, the prize is $100,000, but if a qualifier from the semi-finals — or an athlete who earned an exemption — wins The American Rodeo, that contestant shares in a $1 million bonus pool.

New Location, New Sale Records for Triangle's "January Sale"

There was an obvious buzz of excitement amid a standing room only crowd for the annual Triangle Winter Sale, held Jan. 23-25 in Oklahoma City's State Fair Park. The crisp air and optimal timing for both buyers and sellers has historically made the sale, dubbed the "January Sale," among the most anticipated horse sale events in the nation.

This year's relocation from longtime sale site in Shawnee, Oklahoma, to Oklahoma City upped the energy level even more, and closed with another record-breaking net average of $8,500. The average was achieved with an impressive 88-percent sales completion on 641 catalogued horses, less withdrawals and surpassed last year's record-breaking Winter Sale average by $300—while including 94 additional consignments.

"To have an increase in the overall average with nearly 100 more horses in the sale is remarkable," says Jim Ware, owner of Triangle Horse Sales. "It wasn't just one category of horses that sold good—each session sold really well. And to have completed sale numbers like we did is unheard of in this kind of consignment sale. Reaching an 88-percent sale rate is unbelievable."

The three-day sale event kicked off Thursday evening, Jan. 23 with a newly introduced session named the Performance Triangle. This session featured cutting, reining and cow horse consignments that were black-type 2018 prospects and breeding stock, which averaged $9,250. The sale session included a dinner hosted by Oklahoma State Fair Park and the Oklahoma City Convention and Visitor's Bureau as a welcome to the new location for guests that included buyers attending from three foreign countries and 33 states in the US.

At the forefront of the Winter Sale excitement was a flashy chestnut leopard pony that triggered a pre-sale flurry of interest as Hip No. 342, consigned by Mozaun and Sarah McKibben, Whitesboro, Texas. When OBR Going To Be A Star (a 6-year-old Pony of Americas gelding), affectionately known as "Skittles" entered the sale ring, all eyes were on him waiting to see the outcome.

In the end, the gavel closed on a $115,000 sale after tug-of-war bidding, with "Skittles" ultimately going to the Shane Barrington family of Weatherford, Texas. The sale made "Skittles" the sale topper and a national record sale for a family gelding.

The sale also featured exceptionally strong geldings age 3 years and older, which averaged $18,000 on the top 50 head sold, while all 115 in this category averaged $11,500. The strong top sales created a Top 10 average of $46,000 and helped advance 136 horses into Triangle's Top $10,000 Club—the largest number from any one sale since the designation was first implemented in 2015.

Ware says the progressively strong averages the last few years have been reflective of the nation's positive economy and escalating demand for performance horses. Since Triangle's 2015 Winter Sale, which reached an overall average of $6,500, the Top 100 Sales average has increased drastically, reaching $19,000 for Winter Sale 2020.

"It's a reflection of the overall economy," Ware says. "The horse market has experienced ups and downs throughout my lifetime for different reasons, but right now we're experiencing a good, good market. All kinds of horses are in demand and bringing top money."

The second-high sale was achieved by a reining gelding, Hip No. 319, Gunners Top Jessie (Gunners Peppy Oak X Topsail Jessie Girl by Top Cruise) for $75,000. The gray 2012 gelding was also consigned by Mozaun and Sarah McKibben and purchased by Autry Morlan, Bloomfield, Missouri. Gunners Top Jessie led sales for reining-bred horses, which was the highest averaging discipline of the sale at $18,500 per head for National Reining Horse Association money earners and $8,800 for all categories of reiners including mares and prospects.

Another top sale was Hip No. 541, Metallic Style (Metallic Cat X Docs Stylish Legacy by Docs Stylish Oak), purchased for $42,000 by Jose Ortega, Burbank, Illinois, and sold by Rob and Sue Stevenson of Mineola, Iowa. The 2014 red roan stallion was the leading sale among cutting/cow horse bred consignments, averaging $15,050 for National Cutting Horse Association money earners and $10,050 for all categories.

Flag Ranch, Torrington, Wyoming, was a featured consignor, dispersing 72 horses, and gleaming two of the top sales. Hip No. 386, First Prize Diver (PYC Paint Your Wagon X First Prize Pearl by Mr Jess Perry) sold for $41,000 as a multi-disciplined roping/barrel racing competitor. The 2012 gelding was purchased by Richard Montero, Greeley, Colorado, while Red White N Smooth (Smooth As A Cat x Star Fillaree by Gray's Starlight) followed closely as Hip No. 398 for $40,500. Flag Ranch sold the 2012 stallion as a competitive roping horse to Robert Witte, Overbrook, Okla.

The Flag Ranch dispersal finished with an impressive average of $12,700 (stallions and mares), as did the Shawnee Session at $7,250.

The Triangle Spring Sale is slated for May 1-2, 2020 at Oklahoma City's State Fair Park. Consignments close March 20. For more information, go to www.trihorse.com.

redone. It's been one thing after another."

Breeding season also means pulling embryos out of her great mares.

"We're just kind of scooting along," she laughed. "I'm going to embryo transfer Birdie, Katniss and Mona. Garrett heads on a full sister to StreakinFlinginDisco and we are going to embryo transfer her. It's fixing to get really busy with breeding season. It gets pretty crazy around this time of year for sure"

Tonozzi says she plans on breeding several mares to her young stallion, A Guy With Proof, who is a three-quarter brother to French Covergirl ("Cosmo"). They share the same dam, American Proof, by Extra Proof, a grandson of Bugs Alive In 75. A Guy With Proof is by Frenchmans Guy, while Cosmo was out a son.

"I'm going to breed to my stud a lot this year because I really like his babies," she said. "I do look at incentives and stuff, but with these proven mares I'm going to breed to proven stuff. Like Steele Magnolias is going to be bred to Dash Ta Fame and Tres Seis. I'll breed to The Goodbye Lane. I stick to things that are pretty hot."

As for Katniss' dam, Streakin Six Babe, Tonozzi is hoping to get an Aint Seen Nothin Yet out of her this spring. The grand old mare is one of the all-time leading producers of barrel horses. Tonozzi has run three of her babies down the alley at the Thomas & Mack.

Jimmie Smith On a Hot Streak

BRR: Can you tell us a little about your last two weeks? From winning Reserve Champion at Ft Worth on Lena to winning Jackson on Lever Action then going back to make the SemiFinals at San Antonio on Lena?

Smith: It's been a whirlwind since Denver, and so much fun! It's all truly in Gods timing and it's never felt better.

BRR:What makes each of these horses so special?

Smith: Lena has made more dreams come true than I can count, and it's so awesome to have a "backup" (in quotes because Mini could also be a main horse haha) that can pull her own weight.

BRR:How are they different? How are they the same?

Smith: Lena is pretty chill, Mini is more on the muscle. But they both run left.

THE RUNDOWN w/Jimmie Smith

Lena On the Rocks "Lena" & Lever Action "Mini"

HEADGEAR: Mini runs in a tiedown

SADDLE: Tod Stone Saddles on both | SADDLE PAD: 5 Star

LEG GEAR: Professionals' Choice

BRR:How do you typically prepare for your runs on her mentally and warm up wise?

Smith: Warm up on both of them is pretty chill. And in the alley I say a prayer of protection over each of us.

BRR:With both horses working the way they are and you sitting up there in the standings, what are your plans moving forward in 2020?

Smith: ONE. RUN. AT. A. TIME. Yes we have an end goal in the back of our head, but plans change and things happen.

Famous Lemon Drop & DaCota Monk Dominate LGI Futurity & Slot Race

By Tanya Randall

Texas Ultimate Futurity Champions Famous Lemon Drop ("Barbie") and DaCota Monk added two more titles to their resumes at the Lance Graves International Barrel Racing Championships, held February 13-16 at the Lazy E Arena in Guthrie, Oklahoma.

The duo from Emory, Texas, topped the 65-entry, $20,000-added Futurity and won the 11-entry slot race for $11,821.

Following the Futurity win, Louie and Niki Saggione sold the 4-year-old mare to Matt and Bendi Dunn.

"Everything with Barbie has been like a dream, like a fairy tale" said Monk.

As she did before the Edna, Texas, futurity, Monk's wife Paula called for an event sweep.

"Paula did call for a sweep again on the way there and I told her to stop! 'Don't jinx me!' We nearly pulled it off though!" Monk chuckled.

Monk admits to feeling a little unsure going into the Guthrie event because of Barbie's nose-dive at the second barrel in the second round of the futurity in Kinder, Louisiana.

"Two hours after the futurity we were ready to go home, but I was wanting to wait until the adrenalin wore off so the vet could see her and see if anything was wrong with her because she wasn't showing anything," he explained. Dr. (Greg) Ford saw her there. He went over her and couldn't see anything wrong with her other than some muscle soreness under her belly."

When they got home after the four-hour trailer ride, Barbie did her usually 30-minute run and buck playing-gig in the arena. Monk said he took that as a pretty good indicator that she was fine, but they were going to take every precaution to make sure by following up with a check-up with her regular veterinarian, Dr. Don Lee of Double X Equine four days later.

"He watched her walk and trot for an hour, flexed her and x-rayed her. We couldn't find anything wrong with her," he said. "All I did was exercise her after that. I never cruised her through the barrels. All I did was walk and trot her through just really slow"

Having not made a run on her since her tumble, Monk said he didn't know if Barbie had any mental hang-ups from the incident. "I didn't know if she was scared at the second barrel," he said. "Our first run at Guthrie, I was a little worried. I didn't know if she was going to go in there and turn it or stay away from it. She turned it. Bless her heart. She's all grit."

His plan was to approach his first run like a jackpot run. The strategy worked brilliantly with a 15.205, the fastest time of the entire event, to win the round and slot race, which was determined by the fastest of the two futurity runs of those entered.

"She just felt really good," he said. "When she nailed the first barrel, I was like 'I've got it.' When I saw the time, I didn't really know what to expect because the barrels had been moved from the warmup race the night before. A .5 was winning it when I went to run and when I saw the .205, I was like, 'Oh my gosh!' We were all pretty shocked!"

While Monk was wanting to run another .2 in the second round, he knew he just needed to be clean. Barbie's owner, Louie Saggione, was right on the money saying she just needed a .4 or a .5 to win the average.

While Monk's biggest concern was staying clean, he had to contend with Barbie's approach to the first barrel to do so.

"Both days, she kind of getting flat coming in," he explained. "I hadn't got to run her since Kinder, where the barrel is right there when you come in. I don't know if that's what she was doing or the angle to the first was really straight, either way, she'd come into the alleyway and start for the right really hard. She wasn't really fighting me but she wasn't letting me help her. She was wanting to cut in pretty good."

BIT: L&W with 1" gag with a twisted wire three-piece mouth with a copper roller, roper curb chain. "She's always been super light. I started her in O-rings and a junior cowhorse. During the week, I ride her in bosal because she gets so sensitive, I try to keep bits out of her mouth."

SADDLE: Circle Y treeless | SADDLE PAD: Wade pad

LEG GEAR: Legacy or Iconoclast

SHOEING: Rims on all four

FEED: Nutrena 12/8 pellet | HAY: Free choice alfalfa

SUPPLEMENTS: Wild Gold Omega 3 Camelina Oil

ALTERNATIVE THERAPIES: Cold water spa and aquatred

CONDITIONING-TRAINING REGIME: "She's really fun to ride and easy to keep in shape. I mainly ride her outside. I might trot through the barrels once a well. She's just been so fun."

SPONSORS: JW Brooks Custom Hats, Steve Davis-The Rein Man, Tim & Cindy Wright Bits, Wild Gold, Stillwater Equine-Dr. Katie Leash, Posh & Perks Custom Designs & Apparel.

"My goal for her second run was to get her to go more to her spot, but she did the same thing. I thought she was going to come back on the backside really hard like she usually does so I lifted my leg. When I did, it shot her off and I had to fight her over a little bit (for the second). The run was a little bit more...not perfect for her. When she did that at the first barrel, I just knew I had to stay clean. I was really trying to stay away from the second barrel and she did. I like pretty, but I also like to win."

Their 15.494 was second in the second round and gave them the average victory for $6,871. The slot race win was worth $4,950. They also picked up $944 for placing in Sunday's open on a carry-over from the second round for total event earnings of $12,765. All totalled, Barbie has won more than $40,000 in the first four months of her career.

Bred by Shannon Akerstrom of Porter Valley, California, Barbie is by First Down French out of the Dash Ta Fame mare A Famous Lady. Niki Saggione purchased the 2-year-old mare off the internet. She was the first futurity horse for the Saggione family, who train, compete and broker horses in the team penning and sorting industry.

Monk wanted to thank the Saggione family for the opportunity to train and ride Barbie.

"Especially Niki," he said. "She's been a big part of Barbie's life, finding her and everything. She's pretty special."

Monk also wanted to thank his wife and daughter Alissa, his sponsors and his sister Brittany Hill for keeping horses rode and barn managed while he's gone.

He's looking forward to continuing Barbie's journey for the Dunns at the upcoming futurities. So far, they're planning on running at The Patriot in Fort Worth, Texas, the Elite Futurity in Waco, Texas, and Barrel Bash in Chickasha, Oklahoma, with the $30,000 Select Stallion Stakes Bonus.

Headin' For Home

by Sherry Morrison
Triple M (Mike Morrison Ministries)

Phil. 4:6 tells us not to worry, but pray. For me, easier said than done. But is that my excuse this week? Nope. I desire to do what God says, so I have to meditate on that scripture until it becomes second nature.

Then, when I get the opportunity to worry, I have what it takes to fight those thoughts.

As a Christian, we will have lots and lots of chances to practice fighting the good fight of faith. Every day.

We can, NOT fight and lose. We can be ignorant of what God says, and lose. Or we can fight and WIN! A 'good' fight is the one you win! I'm signing up for that fight!

Just like in barrel racing, where we are constantly trying to hone our skills and learn more, we should also learn more of God's Word. It's burden removing and yoke destroying! And makes us better barrel racers...

Mike and Sherry Morrison pastor "Church at the Barn" in Gillette, WY. They also travel to other areas ministering at barrel races, ranches, rodeos, churches and home Bible studies. Check out our schedule online. You can also download all Bible studies by visiting our website: m-m-m.org or contact us at: PO Box 2439, Gillette, WY 82717, 307/685-2272.
