Chloe Caroline Fruth 1996-2012

Maple Lake, MN - Feb. 5, 1996 - Feb. 17, 2012

Chloe Caroline Fruth was born on February 5, 1996 in Edina to Patrick and Staci (Adams) Fruth. She was a sophomore at Maple Lake High School and a member of St. Mary Help of Christians Church in St. Augusta. Chloe was a World Champion and 2-time State Champion Barrel Racer. She was an honor student who aspired to attend medical school. Chloe loved all things Victorian, antique shopping, and was an avid reader and book collector. She was most proud of her humor and communication skills with her horses. At age 10, Chloe, after receiving money from a benefit for her, wanted to give back to other children who endured cancer treatments. She created a "Chloe's Courage" Trophy that was given to children at the completion of their treatment at Minneapolis Children's Hospital where Chloe is considered a legend. Chloe idolized her brother, Bridger's, musical gift as well as his humor. Chloe would most want to be remembered by her morals, integrity, courage, sheer determination, her natural humility and most of all her amazing strength! She will be dearly missed and remembered always by those who knew and loved her.

Chloe is survived by her parents, Patrick and Staci; brother, Bridger; paternal grandparents, Ralph and Judy Fruth of St. Augusta; maternal grandparents, Vic and Jody Adams of Yates Center, KS; and countless other relatives and friends.

Chloe was preceded in death by her sister, LeAn on January 17, 1995.

In lieu of flowers, memorials are preferred to Chloe's Courage Fund.

Arrangements have been entrusted to Williams Dingmann Family Funeral Home, St. Cloud. For more information contact www.williamsdingmann.com.

AQHA Convenes First Animal Welfare Meeting

Recognizing that animal welfare is the single-most important issue facing the equine industry today, the American Quarter Horse Association Executive Committee has appointed the 12-member AQHA Animal Welfare Commission, which met February 6-8 in Dallas.

The Animal Welfare Commission's mission "is to provide a framework for its members to 1) identify issues negatively affecting the welfare of the American Quarter Horse, 2) discuss issues, and 3) recommend actions that will help to protect the American Quarter Horse from inhumane practices, and AQHA and its members from the negative impacts associated with those practices. The AQHA Animal Welfare Commission, in an effort to do right by the horse, will share discussion, action items and recommendations with alliance partners."

Jim Heird, executive professor and coordinator of the equine sciences initiative at Texas A&M University, is the chairman of the commission.

"This commission has the opportunity to move forward with what we feel we need to do," Heird says. "We have made some

THE RUNDOWN: SHAWNA BOURNE

HORSE: Ima Smasher "Smash"

Bay Mare, 14 Years Old, 16 hands, 1150 lbs.

BIO: 41 years old, 7th grade Science Teacher from Chapel Hill, Tennessee, Married to Tom Bourne with 2 sons, Blaze (3) & Braiden (2) Made the Southeastern Circuit Finals in 2006, Won the average that year and went to DNCFR in Pocatello, ID. Also made the Southeastern Circuit Finals in 2008 (Smash won Horse Of The Year in Southeastern Circuit) Won the Short Go at Fort Worth in 2009

HORSE HISTORY: I bought her when she just turned 2. She was just turned out in a pasture. I went over to breed an injured filly I had to a stud the people had and I saw Smasher, I just liked her. Smasher had a club foot but I wasn't worried because my Dad (Bobby Beard) is a great shoer and I knew he could fix her up. That was March and I called him back in September to see if he still had her and he did so I went and got her bought for $2000. She was bred at the time and had a baby as a 3 year old. Then we started breaking and messing with her. I have done everything with her and it was just easy. I went to a few futurities with her as a 4 year old. I made the Finals at the BFA in OKC and ended up in the Top 10 at the Derby in Ft. Smith the next year. Ever since then we have just been going to what prorodeos we can, Professionals Cowboys Association and IPRA and LoneStar rodeos.

I have a 2 and 3 year old and my husband (Tom) team ropes so we rodeo as a family and go to a few.

San Angelo Shootout - The "Shoot Out" February 25th, 2012 7:30 PM

The "Shoot Out," with prize money exclusively provided by Cinch Clothing, is a new step, in a new direction with Rodeo. Working in partnership with premier rodeos in the United States and Canada, the San Angelo Stock Show and Rodeo Association is taking the crowd favorite events of Bareback Riding, Saddle Bronc, Women's Barrel Racing, Bull Riding, adding the West Texas favorite of Calf Roping, and inviting 8 contestants in each event to go for a $10,000 title check. That's $50,000 alone in championship prize money, not including another $10,000 dollars in traveling funds spread out to the other 35 contestants for competing in our new event. That's $60,000 dollars in one nightly performance. Think of it this way, in a 2.5 hour event, Cinch Clothing is awarding over $400 dollars every minute.

Here is how it is going to go down:

Each event - 8 invitational contestants will compete once significant progress in the past, but we need to do more. The public and our membership demands it, our horses deserve it.”

The commission reviewed what AQHA has done with regard to animal welfare.

“We have the best education system for our judges,” says George Phillips, AQHA Executive Committee member and commission member. “We started the AQHA Stewards program ... while the program represents steps forward, as we move into the third year of having stewards, we need to make adjustments and improve it to do more in the name of animal welfare. On the racing side, AQHA has been involved with better regulation of medication and drug use in racing American Quarter Horses.”

Commission members then laid out what they consider the big issues in the American Quarter Horse industry with regard to animal welfare. Those start with treatment of the animal, and include penalties, the AQHA Steward program, equipment, communication and education, security, judges, and medication and drugs.

The commission will present its actions and ideas for improvement to the AQHA Show and Professional Horsemen Committee at the 2012 AQHA Convention in March in Las Vegas. Also at the convention, AQHA Executive Vice President Don Treadway Jr. will present a report on the commission’s activity to the directors during the summit on Friday, March 9, and to the general membership on Saturday, March 10.

The commission is about “protecting the industry, our livelihood and, most importantly, the horse,” Heird says.

Roundup Shindig for Children’s Foundation

OKLAHOMA CITY, OKLA. (February 15, 2012) – Fighting life-threatening pediatric illnesses is a serious undertaking. But if you can get people interested in that fight by having a boot stompin’ good time, everyone benefits. That’s exactly what 370 Oklahomans did on Saturday, February 11 at the 2nd Annual Roundup Shindig at Riverwind Showplace Theatre. The western-inspired event raised more than $130,000 to benefit Children’s Hospital Foundation.

“Roundup Shindig was a fantastic event, including great food and entertainment but most importantly for a great cause. All money raised benefits sick kids in Oklahoma,” said Chip Keating, CHF Board Member. “The Children’s Hospital is first-class and I am glad to be part of an event that supports such a wonderful cause.”

Arguably the most unique fundraiser in the area, Roundup Shindig is well-known for its enticing western items featured in the live and silent auction, appearance from Miracle Cowgirl Mesa Jo, and succulent western dinner. Guests wrapped up the evening by dancing to live performances from the Terry Allen Band and Ty England Band.

“Wow, what a night! It was especially fun to see regular Oklahoma doctors, nurses, business people, hospital staff – all dressed up in their best western attire to raise funds for Oklahoma pediatrics,” said Dr. Kenneth Copeland, CMRI Paul and Ann Milburn Chair in Diabetes.

A night of exuberant bidding resulted in a $7,000 gift for a Complete 2012 Embryo Transfer donated by Royal Vista Southwest. All funds raised ensure that Oklahoma’s children receive the most exceptional pediatric care without leaving the state, including children in rural communities. CHF has helped fund specialized programs in rural clinics that offer easier access to its specialists and cutting edge research.

Led by Event Chair Vicki Tebow, this year marked an important return of the event as it tripled in donated auction items and increased funds. Elite Trophies/ Andy Golden donated the crystal sponsor trophies while Eventures provided décor. Roundup Shindig is truly a reflection of the devotion, talent and compassion of Oklahoma’s equine and agriculture industry.

Children’s Hospital Foundation is proud to honor sponsors for their tremendous contributions to benefit Oklahoma’s children.

Reality ProRodeo To Air in March

Sankey Rodeo Company will launch a seven-week reality television series March 11 on HRTV which will provide an insider's look at the Cowboy Sport, focusing on the lives of contestants Ryan Jarrett, J.R. Vezain and Sue Smith, along with four Sankey bucking horses.

The 30-minute show, Reality ProRodeo (<http://realityprorodeo.com>), will air each Sunday night at 10 p.m. (ET) from March 11 through April 22. Will Rasmussen is the show's host.

Ike Sankey, a veteran PRCA stock contractor, came up with the concept and hired a company from Missouri to handle the photography and editing.

Filming was done at the Sankey ranches in Joliet, Mont., and Cody, Wyo., and at rodeos in Sheridan, Wyo.; Cody, Wyo.; Spanish Fork, Utah, and Castle Dale, Utah.

"Along the way, each of the contestants tells their personal story," Sankey said. "They talk about their families, how they became involved in the sport and what they hope to achieve, as we follow them through the season.

"But the show is also focused on our livestock. We feature four horses (Domino Theory, Monopoly, Parlor Games and Sodoku), all out of Dominos. Three have been to the (Wrangler) National Finals Rodeo and the fourth will go. It's a chance to explore breeding programs and genetics."

HRTV is a 24-hour, television-based multimedia network dedicated to horseracing which features racing action from the world's greatest racetracks. HRTV also features other forms of equestrian competition, as well as original programming and award-winning documentaries covering a variety of racing and general equestrian topics. The live stream of HRTV is available on a subscription basis to high-speed Internet users worldwide at www.hrtvlive.com. The HRTV television network is presently available via cable, telco video and satellite in approximately 19 million homes in the United States.

Headin' For Home

by Sherry Morrison
Triple M (Mike Morrison Ministries)

I got two geese for my birthday! Big ones! Big and brown with bright orange beaks, feet and perfect orange eye liner! Don't ask my why I like critters, they just give me peace. Different animals/birds make me laugh, who knows why. And, I often learn something from them (and not always the HARD way). Mike is very logical and he sees the work involved in just HAVING critters. You know, basic stuff like cleaning up after them, feeding them, etc. So when the geese showed up in the hands of my friend, Sue, Mike was beside himself! They joined the small herd of chickens, numerous barn cats, two dogs and toooo many horses. Most of which Mike didn't think we needed!

I discovered very quickly that most people don't like geese. Usually it's because they were chased, pinched or wing beaten when they were small children. And the poop doesn't help either. Sue and I made sure they didn't bite too hard (I have 3 grandchildren) and tried to determine which was the male and female (they look identical) because I have to name everything. Upon failing that task, I named them Click and Clack (perfectly generic names). So why did

I bring all this up? They taught me something the FIRST day!

These two geese move in unison all the time! And when we herded them toward the barn and they got separated, the mayhem was immediate! There was so much hissing, honking and flapping it was almost deafening and things didn't settle down until they were back in perfect step...just like we need to be with God! I thought, WOW! If I stayed in step with God all the time, watching and imitating Him, my life would be perfect! And if I step out of His presence, I should be like those geese and do EVERYTHING possible to get back in harmony...I'm tellin' ya! Isn't that good?

Till next time...HONK! HONK!
