$63,000 Weekend for Ceri Ward at Royal Crown Buckeye, Wins Futurity With Slick Swingin Gypsy

By Tanya Randall

Ceri Ward and her trio of futurity colts had an exceptional weekend at the Royal Crown Race, held February 10-19 in Buckeye, Arizona. The Purcell, Oklahoma, based barrel horse trainer won $63,000 after taking top honors in both the 130-entry, $75,000-added Royal Crown Futurity for eligible horses only and the 94-entry, $10,000-added South Valley Equine Open Futurity.

"It's a great paying event and very well put-on," said Ward. "They tried very hard for the contestants, and the payout is next to none."

Her biggest winner was dual futurity champion Slick Swingin Gypsy ("Tatum"), owned by Ward and her husband Reagan. Tatum, a 5-year-old full sibling to Pink Buckle and OKC Futurity Champion Slick Swingin (LTE $219,454 QData), topped both futurities, placed in the slot race and won money in the opens for total earnings of $35,203.

Ward and Tatum were out of the money in the first round with a 17.564.

"I kind of took a bad start and missed my first barrel," she explained. Ward was having to contend with a completely different setup from the week before in Kinder, Louisiana, which is a short, enclosed run on heavier footing as compared to the fast first footing on a standard pattern in Buckeye. "He came right back to me and spun the other two. I just got up the pen on the first.

"I'd actually made that mistake twice in Kinder, but he's so fast and so quick, he made up for it. I was very frustrated with myself because I felt like I was mentally failing my horse, and he wants to be so good."

At dinner one night with leading futurity rider Ashley Schafer, Ward's husband asked her what her mindset was before she ran.

"Ashley was explaining how she wants a good start and then just reacts," Ward noted. "I'm a very planned person. I have a plan, a plan, a plan. The only thing I changed from go to go was my mindset. My plan was to have a good start, I took a different approach than I did the day before, and I reacted. He made an amazing run in the second go."

They won the round in 16.887. The Royal Crown Futurity victory paid $23,799, while the South Valley Equine was worth $6,820. Their round winning time also got them fourth in the slot race for $1,655.

Ward purchased Tatum, by 4.5 million dollar sire Slick By Design, out of champion performer and multiple champion producer Hip Swingin Gypsy, by Firewaterontherocks, from Pete Oen as a yearling. Oen, who had ridden the gelding's mother to more than $100,000 in earnings, had purchased him from his breeders J. Garcia Land Holdings LLC, through the Oklahoma City sale.

"I had seen that colt in the sale and liked him when Pete bought him," said Ward. "He was moving at the time and said he needed to sell some horses, so I bought him. He's beautiful and got a great pedigree, so I thought I'd try it."

A series of unfortunate events, including Ward's own broken back in 2019, led to Tatum getting a late start under saddle. Ward basically started the gelding under saddle herself. While she prefers to have someone else put the first 30 to 60 days on her colts, riding Tatum from the start was actually a boon.

"He was very fractious when I started," said Ward. "He was kind of wild to be around on the ground and when you were on him. He was very fractious and worried, but he always tried to do his best.

"It was probably for the best that I rode him from the beginning so he didn't have to adjust to anything. It was pretty much just what I do."

His barrel training was the easy part.

"He's always shown up to work," she said. "He's a good learner. He took to it pretty easily."

Tatum made his debut at the OKC Futurity, where he placed in the Rookie Futurity average, earning $5,625.

"He's been to five futurities," said Ward. "He's placed in at least one round at all five futurities and the top 10 in the average at all five. He's a good boy."

They picked up $10,705 for third at the Lone Star Shootout Futurity and fifth in their slot race in Hamilton, Texas. At the Golden Buckle in Waco, Texas, they added $8,031 for taking reserve in the Breeders Challenge Futurity qualifier and sixth in the futurity average. They had their richest win the week prior to Buckeye, taking home $31,298 at the Kinder Cup in Louisiana, after placing third in the slot race and fourth in both the Breeders Challenge and Open futurities.

His lifetime earnings stand at $81,000.

Ward also got to "jump ride" Back By Design ("Buckles") for the gelding's owner, breeder and rider Cayla Melby Small, who was in a wedding that weekend.

"I've rode behind Cayla and Jane (Melby, her mom), a couple different times," said Ward. "I've always won good riding behind them. That's a good colt and I was pumped."

Buckles, a 4-year-old gelding, is a full brother to Small's great mare Slick N Black (LTE $261,543 QData). Both horses are by Slick By Design and out of Melby's NFR mare RC Back In Black, by Ninety Nine Goldmine.

After taking her exhibitions, Ward entered Buckles in the warmup race.

"It wasn't terrible, but it wasn't a winning run," she admitted. "I sent my video to Cayla and we talked it over. We decided to 'change this' and 'do this different', and we came back and placed in the go and won third in the average. That's a testament to her training. To jump ride a futurity colt this early in the year and be able to win is great."

They collected $20,803 with $14,492 coming from third in the Royal Crown Futurity and $4,790 from their reserve championship in the South Valley Equine Futurity.

Brittany Pozzi Tonozzi & Jets Top Gun Fly to Royal Crown Buckeye Derby Championship

By Tanya Randall

Two-time world champion barrel racer Brittany Pozzi Tonozzi and the Busby Quarter Horses owned and bred gelding, Jets Top Gun, shot to the top with a $22,231 victory in the 148 entry, $50,000-added Royal Crown Derby, held February 10-19 in Buckeye, Arizona.

The pair also took the reserve championship in the 112-entry, $5,000-added South Valley Equine Open Derby for $6,273. Coupled with a second-place slot race finish and open race earnings, Tonozzi and "Bennie" pocketed $38,165.

"Why do we rodeo," laughed the 16-time National Finals Rodeo qualifier from Lampasas, Texas. She currently sits second in the WPRA World Standings with $25,974. "It's so nice to win so much money in one spot."

Tonozzi and Bennie were very consistent on the standard pattern in Buckeye, winning the first round of the derby in 16.826 and taking sixth in the second with a 16.993.

"I couldn't have asked him to be any better," she said. "He's such a nice horse, just an amazing horse. I've won over $50,000 on him in the last two weeks. I want to thank Busby Quarter Horses. Every time I've thrown a leg over him, it's been a great thing."

The 8-year-old gelding, by the Busbys' late 6.5 million dollar sire Blazin Jetolena is out of GL Famous First Lady, a Dash Ta Fame daughter of the great Dash For Perks mare Lady Perks. GL Famous First Lady is a full sister to Kassie Mowry's Famous Ladies Man (LTE $563,217 QData), who won last year's Royal Crown Derby in Buckeye.

Bennie is Blazin Jetolena's second richest offspring behind his all-time leader, multiple National Finals Rodeo qualifier Sheza Blazin Move. With the Royal Crown Derby victory, Bennie now has career earnings of nearly $400,000.

The affable gelding got his start under the saddle of Brice Manning as a 2-year-old before going to Janna Brown at 3. With Brown, Bennie won the Ruby Buckle Futurity in Memphis, the Ruby Buckle Futurity Reserve Championship in Guthrie and the OKC Derby Championship as a 5-year-old futurity horse. During his early derby years, he won the OKC Sweepstakes and Pink Buckle Derby Reserve Championship, placed at the American Semifinals Rodeo twice and placed at the Odessa, Texas, and Jackson, Mississippi, pro rodeos.

Tonozzi started riding the gelding earlier this year when Andrea Busby asked her if she would help season him to the rodeos. With her main rodeo horse Babe On The Chase ("Birdie") getting older and preferring indoor pens, Tonozzi jumped at the chance to run Bennie.

"I'm trying to limit the runs on (Birdie) and I have a good friend that said, 'Here, take and run him for a while,'" said Tonozzi. "It's been a lot of fun."

Tonozzi got her first run on Bennie at the Challenge of Champions in Fort Worth, Texas, where she finished second to Jordon Briggs' and her Busby-bred mount Famous Lil Jet.

"I had never run him before and just stepped on him there," said Tonozzi.

Prior to the Royal Crown, Tonozzi and Bennie picked up $22,598 for taking reserve in the Breeders Challenge Derby Qualifier and third in the Kinder Cup Derby. They also made a run in the third

"I ran Birdie the first two rounds," Tonozzi explained. "She did amazing and was going to have two runs in one day, so I decided to run Bennie."

Tonozzi said he ran a little green but worked well in spite of some trouble with the deep, shifty footing that caused him to pull a shoe.

His second rodeo run with Tonozzi came on the Monday morning after winning the Royal Crown Derby in Tucson, Arizona. At press time, they were currently in the top 12 but Tonozzi said they won't likely make the short round.

"I am planning on riding him at (Rodeo) Houston and maybe The American," said Tonozzi. "We'll just see. I learned long ago to never make definite plans with horses because they will change your plans pretty quickly!"

Tonozzi also picked up checks at Royal Crown on her homebred horses, by her stallion A Guy With Proof. A Guy With Alibi, out of Famous At Six, a full sister to her great mare Ima Famous Babe ("Katniss") won $10,328 in the futurities and Rock On Guy, out of a Firewaterontherocks mare, also won money.

She also raised the Royal Crown Futurity first round winner Seis On The Chase, by Tres Seis out of Birdie. The 4-year-old stallion was ridden by Ashley Schafer for Joe and Kelly Tovar. All in all, horses bred by Tonozzi won $21,301.

"Royal Crown ran a tight ship," said Tonozzi. "They gave everyone plenty of time to get exhibitions. The ground was really even throughout the entire race. I was super impressed with how well it was run and how friendly this staff is. It was a very well run event. As a stallion owner, I'm proud to be a part of that event as well."

Sherry Cervi & MP Ray Of Fame Shine at The American Western Region Final

By Tanya Randall

Frigid temperatures didn't stop Sherry Cervi and MP Ray Of Fame ("Money May") from bringing the heat at The American Contender Tournament Western Region Finals, held February 18 at the Wasatch County Events Center in Heber City, Utah. They collected $13,951 of the $47,252 up for grabs.

"Outside of being a little chilly, it was a really good rodeo," said the four-time WPRA World Champion, who noted that it was -9 the morning the event started. "The barrel racing was really tough."

Cervi and her 8-year-old mare were sixth in the first round of the Western Semifinals, held February 16-17 in the same venue, with a 15.703.

"I didn't ride her as well as I would have liked to in the first round," said Cervi, who qualified to the Western Region Semifinals via points from her sixth-place finish at the Contender event in Las Vegas, Nevada. "My next two runs I let her do her thing and get out of trainer mode. She worked really good."

They won the second round of the semifinals with a 15.348 to finish second in the two-run aggregate. Tamara Barnhart and Guys Sweet Design, who won the first round, took the Semifinals title, earning $4,633.

The top 10 on two runs from the Semifinals advanced to the Final. Cervi and Barnhart were joined by Taylor Hanson, Kim Schulz, Lakken Bice, Faith Furrow, Kristi Youngblood, Karsen Jackson, Suzanne DePaoli and Jennifer Kalafatic.

Those placing 11th through 30th got an automatic advancement to the $80,000-plus Wild Card Round, held March 8 in Globe Life Field in Arlington, Texas.

For those outside the cut, the Redemption Round offered an opportunity to advance to either the Region Final or the Wild Card Round directly. Emilee Drawver and Shawnee Williams were the fastest two runs from the Redemption Round and were the final two in the Region Finals.

As it did for two other contestants at the previous Region Finals, the Redemption Round worked handsomely for Drawver. She advanced, along with Cervi, Barnhart and Hanson to The American Contender Tournament Final on March 9 at Globe Life, by finishing in the top four of the Region Final.

The remaining Region Finalist, places fifth through 12th, and places third to sixth in the Redemption Round, go to the Wild Card Round.

"I like the format," said Cervi, who turned in a 15.222 to win the $10,000 first-place check in the Region Final. "It pays a lot better. I made three runs but you got paid for those three runs."

"I like that we're going straight to Globe Life. There's a lot of cool stories and opportunities to win a lot of money. It was a little hard to understand, but now being in the whole process I understand it a lot more and can explain it a lot better too. I feel like now that more people understand it, it will be a lot easier to get behind and feel confident in entering next year."

Cervi is looking forward to running at Globe Life.

"I didn't realize it until I got to Heber City, but they set the same exact pattern in Tulsa, Lexington and Heber City," she noted, while commending the Better Barrel Races crew for their expertise on the ground. "It's going to be the same pattern going into Globe Life, which I think is really cool."

The only thing Cervi has to do is trust her young mare.

"I have to remember that she's not a baby and she's ready," Cervi said of Money May. "I need to have as much confidence as she does."

Money May, by $30.2 million barrel horse sire Dash Ta Fame, is the first foal out of her two-time WPRA World Champion mare

MP Meter My Hay (LTE $1.1 million QData), by PC Frenchmans Hayday, that she got to keep for herself.

Cervi took her time training the mare. She ran at a few 5-year-old futurities and has gently eased her into rodeo competition. Last year, the very same weekend as the American West Region, Cervi and Money May got their first big pro rodeo victory at the Dixie National in Jackson, Mississippi.

Unfortunately, Cervi's plans to rodeo more last year were curtailed by injuries to her horses.

"Last summer she got hurt, so I gave her eight months off," said Cervi, who splits her time between Arizona, Texas and Wisconsin. "Vegas was my third run back. I'm just excited to be back on her."

She said that Money May, who looks like Stingray's clone, has a lot of similarities with her mother. Her style is a little rounder compared to Stingray's stiffer style. Both mares are super confident and have an exceptional handle that allows Cervi to place them where she needs. The biggest difference is Money May hasn't been tested on true rodeo ground yet.

"Money May is learning to run on firmer ground," Cervi said. "Stingray was really good at that. I just haven't put Money May in that many situations on true rodeo ground, but she's learning how to handle it."

Cervi ran at Tucson slack on Tuesday morning but opted to ride her gray mare MP A Bed Of Roses ("Myrtle"). She's headed to Texas for The American and plans on entering more of the Texas spring rodeos before heading to Wisconsin.

"I have goals to rodeo on her more, but we'll just see," she said. "Life has a way of changing that. We'll go to Wisconsin again in May and put cattle out and get that all situated, and hopefully venture out for the summer."

BARREL RACING REPORT NEWS

Western Horseman named PRESENTING PARTNER FOR 2023 Patriot Las Vegas and its new $1,000,000 Patriot Vegas Barrel Race Finale

The Patriot Event announced today that the world's leading Western lifestyle magazine, Western Horseman, has been named as the official Presenting Partner of the World's Largest Equine Events - Patriot Vegas. This prestigious event will be returning to Horseman's Park in 2023. With the new agreement with Western Horseman, it promises to be the "Royal Flush" of Western Events during the NFR. The Vegas event will encompass all events, but will primarily involve Barrel racing and Team roping. With over 3000 entries at the 2022 Patriot Vegas, it has quickly become one of the Nation's leading events. Couple that with the induction of Western Horseman's partnership and their ability to capture the western world's lifestyle, the event will host one of the country's most Prestigious Barrel Races that projects a million-dollar payout with unmatched coverage.

"We have long been fans of the Patriot events as they offer an opportunity for all ages and skill levels to compete for outstanding payouts," says Morris Equine Group brand director Dani Licklider. "We're very excited for Western Horseman and Barrel Horse News to partner with the Halls to promote the sport of rodeo and spotlight the top-notch athletes and events this year."

"We have named Robin Hofmann, the Queen of Hearts, as the managing director. I believe she will help us develop a truly special Vegas experience, with limited number of contestants. A 4D race with so many ways to win huge dollars, all during the NFR in Las Vegas," said Kevin Hall, of Patriot Event. "The combination of our Host Casino and Clark counties new covered 6- million-dollar arena sets the perfect stage for an Epic experience in Vegas! The road to Vegas will be unique and fun. We have hand selected 30 events across the country to qualify their racers into the Patriot Vegas Finale race. The upcoming Patriot Fort Worth will be the first qualifying event, followed by a mix of events from multiple associations including; BBR, NBHA, West Coast Barrel Races and WPRA. We are super excited to release the full schedule in the next few weeks, but the books are already open for the very first qualifier."

"I am so honored to be included in the formation of this program for The Patriot owners, Kevin & Andrea Hall. Barrel racing is evolving as a sport and the demand for lucrative payout events is at an all- time high. The Patriot is poised to deliver these types of events at rodeo vacation destinations such as Reno, NV, Cheyenne, WY and Las Vegas, NV. I will be bringing Select Stallion Stakes on board, as well. We already offer a $20,000 Bonus in Fort Worth. We are excited to announce there will be a $10,000 Bonus in Reno, a $10,000 Bonus in Cheyenne and a $15,000 Bonus in Las Vegas.

HEADIN' FOR HOME

by Sherry Morrison // Triple M (Mike Morrison Ministries)

Do you believe the weatherman? This morning he came on with the news that the weather is going to be kinda rough the next few days. Wind. Snow. And very cold. He encouraged people to make provision for themselves and their livestock. I'm going to be prepared. If you have livestock, I'll bet you are getting ready, too.

Well, if you have confidence in a man or woman you don't know, HOW MUCH MORE SHOULD WE HAVE CONFIDENCE IN OUR GOD? God created us and everything around us. Do you suppose He has a clue?

I can tell you from experience that some Christians don't pay much attention to what God tells them. They stumble around in their own abilities and wonder why things aren't going well.

It's because without God we are limited to our own ability and truly, WE don't have a clue. He has instructed us in the Bible just how to win every time. He has told us to watch and be prepared, Jesus is coming. Matt. 24:42-44.

His instructions to walk in love, tithe, go to church, and not to fear, mostly go unheeded. Ah, but when we listen to His words and DO THEM, we will be safe, warm, fed, free and rich in our land! We're ready!

Mike and Sherry Morrison pastor "Church at the Barn" in Gillette, WY. They also travel to other areas ministering at barrel races, ranches, rodeos, churches and home Bible studies. Check out our schedule online. You can also download all Bible studies by visiting our website: m-m-m.org or contact us at: PO Box 2439, Gillette, WY 82717, 307/685-2272.
