Mark Bugni & JL Roc Lost A Sock Win Third Straight Futurity, Royal Crown Champs

By Tanya Randall

Mark Bugni and JL Roc Lost A Sock ("Mo") swept three straight futurities at the South Buckeye Equestrian Center in Arizona. Bugni and the mighty Mo won the BRN4D produced MVP and Greg Olson futurities at the first of the year before capturing the $75,000-added Royal Crown Breeders Futurity, held February 13- 20.

"Who knew that was even possible!" said Bugni. "I can't believe we pulled off the trifecta and won all three of those futurities! I just appreciate all these Arizona futurities, and the people for putting them on and bringing all the great competition to Arizona."

It's hard to believe that last year at this time, Bugni had climbed aboard Mo for his owner and breeder Jill Lane to give his assessment. Lane, who raised the gelding by her homebred stallion JL Sirocco out of Reddy To Rebound, a Thoroughbred daughter of Lane's NFR sire Red, had hit a roadblock with his training and wasn't sure what the gelding's future held. After riding him a week Bugni knew that he needed him in his barn.

"I could feel something that was pretty mouth-watering even then," he said, "but to think about doing this one year later? No, this is a far reaching dream, but it came true!"

Their latest victory at the Royal Crown netted $33,233. The Futurity Championship was worth $27,872. Of that total, Lane got $22,140 as the owner, $2,866 on behalf of JL Sirocco and $2,866 as Mo's breeder.

They also collected $1,748 in Open 1D earnings and $2,727 in Senior 1D earnings on carryovers. The sweep of the Royal Crown Senior Incentive Races was worth another $876.

The first round of the futurity set the stage with just .006 separating two-time futurity champions Kassie Mowry and Force The Goodbye's victorious 17.144 and Bugni and Mo's second-place 17.150.

"I saw that run," he said of Mowry's 17.144. "It was just beautiful, flawless and smooth. I knew it was going to take something extra to outrun that."

Bugni said he felt that Mo didn't fire as strong as he could have and believes he made a mistake taking his exhibition run the morning of the first round because it confused Mo.

"I hate doing exhibitions on the same day because I think it confuses the colts," he said. "I think every colt comes to a point where they tell you they don't need exhibitions any longer and he hadn't reached that point yet. But, I do feel like that day, I realized that I don't need to do exhibitions with him any longer."

"Typically, they'll give you 60 seconds and it's so hard to judge what to do. I really like this horse to kick it through a little bit, kind of pick up the pace and maybe smoke a turn, get the feel of the ground and get that run on his mind. But in the 60 seconds, I feel like if you have a failure when you're kicking it through it's hard to get them pulled up and get that fixed really fast before you cross the time (limit). When they're fining you for going over your 60 seconds, I'm like, 'Oh my gosh! I don't want to throw any money in the garbage!'"

"I don't feel like it was the most productive exhibition ever. It was stupid of me to even think he needed one because he's been in that pen 100 times but I was worried they might have a different setup than the other futurities. It turns out it was exactly the same and I really didn't even need to be there."

In the second round, which ran reverse order, Bugni and Mo

JL Roc Lost A Sock, "Mo" 16.1-16.2, 1500-1600 lbs. "He moves like a big horse but turns efficiently like a little horse."

BIT: The Perfect Bit with the second to longest shank available and twisted, single-break mouthpiece.

SADDLE: Burns — SADDLE PAD: 5 Star

LEG GEAR: Classic Equine

SHOEING: Steel rims on all four. "I went ahead and put rims in the back for the Arizona arena specifically."

FEED: Purina Ultium Competition — HAY: Grass, alfalfa mix

SUPPLEMENTS: UlcerGard

TRAINING/CONDITIONING: "Just keeping him exercised and keeping the edge off—he stands in a little smaller pen here in Arizona than he did back home. He builds up a little more energy so I've got to ride him a little more often."

SPONSORS: Outlaw Equine, Burns Saddlery, Elite Hoof Care, RodeoRigs.com and Jill Lane Quarter Horses made their second run first, clocking a 17.023, but had to wait until Mowry and Force The Goodbye ran at draw No. 7.

"I actually stayed and watched. I figured I could be a witness to either my success or my demise," he laughed. "I knew if she just went in and made another run like the day before she was probably going to clock faster so I still didn't even know if I had a chance at it or not."

"It's amazing that you can stand up to that kind of competition and get a third victory in Arizona. It blew my mind that it actually happened.”

Mo’s career earnings now stand at $89,000.

“It’s a crazy stat to think about, but the last eight times down the alley, he’s won five and placed second three times,” he said. “What barrel horse does that?”

Bugni is anxious to see how Mo fares on the different partners he’ll face next. In March, he’ll go to the Dixie Classic in Hurricane, Utah, for its futurity and the $50,000 Future Fortunes Super Championship Tour. In April, it’s the Sand Cup and Valley Girls futurities in Moses Lake, Washington, before returning to Oklahoma for the Ruby Buckle in Guthrie.

How To Speak SIROCCO WITH MARK BUGNI

Mark Bugni has had a lot of success with the offspring of JL Sirocco, his longtime friend Jill Lane's son of Dash Ta Fame.

Bugni has ridden the stallion's top two money earners—JL Rocpa-perscissors, the Diamonds & Dirt Futurity Reserve Champion and Future Fortunes Juvenile Sire's Slots and Fortunes Round Champion, and JL Twisted Roc, the 2019 BBR World Finals 1D Champion. JL Roc Lost A Sock is right on their heels.

He says they're talented horses that love people.

"They have an incredible amount of speed in them and it's a low, smooth speed," he said. "They have a natural, efficient way of turning. They have a three-step turn and they're just gone and out of there. It doesn't feel like anything different from other horses but it does feel easy for them, and of course, the clock tells you that it's way easier for them than a lot of horses!"

His advice for those training Sirocco babies is to let them come into their own.

"I tell people I can cruise one through three-quarters speed all spring long and make a lot of money," he said. "I also tell people not to introduce the speed to them until they have a solid pattern because they go to the run really easy if you ask. If you ask them too early, you're going to have trouble getting the structure of the turn built back into them. But if you build that structure in the turn and let them come into their speed on their own, you're golden!"

Good Luck to Everyone!

Kassie Mowry & Famous Ladies Man Win Derby & $30,319 at Royal Crown Buckeye

By Tanya Randall

Leading aged event rider Kassie Mowry took home the mother lode from the Royal Crown Race, held February 13-20 at the South Buckeye Equestrian Center in Arizona. She won checks on all of her five of her horses, totaling an impressive $77,065.

"I was really pleased with all the colts," she said. "I was really impressed with how they all clocked, especially since we don't get to run on many standard patterns. I really didn't know what to expect, but I was really happy with how they all worked. They were all solid with no hit barrels. They went in there and tried to be nice."

Mowry was third in the $50,000-added Futurity on Force The Goodbye, owned by Michael Boone for total earnings of $19,563. She was fourth in the Futurity and won $17,995 on Sir Epic, owned by Dave and Lori Zabel, and eighth on her own KL Touch Of Heaven, earning $8,324.

The Dublin, Texas, trainer won the $50,000-added Breeders Derby aboard her great gelding Famous Ladies Man ("Emmitt"), also owned by Boone. They won the aggregate by 4/10ths to pocket $23,408 with $17,440 going to Boone and $2,984 each going to Emmitt's breeder Busby Quarter Horses and his sire Dash Ta Fame.

"He's such a good boy," said Mowry of the 7-year-old gelding out of Canadian Champion Barrel Horse Lady Perks, by Dash For Perks. He's a three-quarter sibling to 2021 WPRA World Champion Famous Lil Jet, who is also by Dash Ta Fame and out of Lady Perk's Blazin Jetolena daughter Blazin Black Beauty.

Emmitt won the first round of the Derby, and subsequently the first Open, with a 16.827 and followed it up with a second-place finish in the next round with a 16.906.

“Mike was like, ‘Did you know he was going to be that fast?’” laughed Mowry. “I said, ‘You didn’t see him at the rodeos I went to last summer!’ He clocked, and if I left the barrels up, he placed. That horse just tries so hard. He tries as hard as he can every time. I was thrilled with him.”

Mowry was also tickled that Boone was there to watch him run because he doesn’t often get to see the gelding, that he bought as a yearling, go. However, Boone wants no part of Emmitt when he’s not watching him run.

“He won’t even lead him around!” chuckled Mowry. “Emmitt is such a pill to handle. He’s so onery and Mike gets frustrated with him. I’m like, ‘There is a good side to this horse! just watch him!’ He’s like a little raptor. He’s ornery and he’s playful. He’s always full of energy.

“When I went to go number him (for the Derby), he was rearing up and acting so foolish. There was a round pen halfway there and I thought, ‘You know, I’m going to put him in it.’ He bucked and reared and played. Not what a horse that just traveled 1,000 miles would normally feel like. So, I let him blow some steam and then went and got his number.”

Emmitt is all business in the arena so as far as Mowry’s concerned he can do whatever he wants out of it—within reason of course.

“He wants to get your attention no matter how he has to do it, so Michael always leads something else!” she continued. “He gets annoyed by him, and I just let him do it, because he’s going to do it whether you get after him or not.”

Emmitt’s next big show will be Rodeo Houston. He won the second round of her Super Series in 2020 before the rodeo was canceled due to the COVID pandemic.

“He was on a roll and they shut us down,” she said. “I’m excited to take him. It’s such a weird setup and he’s got more runs under his belt in rodeo-type situations. It will be fun.”

Mowry, who was madly riding as many colts as she could as cold front blew in Tuesday, will run CP Will Be Epic, who is coming back from injury, and Epic Guy at the American Semifinals Long Round on Friday. Both of them have made it all the way to AT&T Stadium in the past.

She also has the next Royal Crown event on her schedule.

“I was really impressed with them again,” Mowry said. “Their event in Rock Springs (Wyoming last year) was one of my favorites and this one was comparable. They really went out of their way. There were a couple of days where the morning or evening shadow was going to possibly spook a horse off of a barrel and they just waited it out. Even though it was only 15 minutes, it probably seemed really long for them because they had run so many horses through the gate. It meant a lot to us to all have the same canvas—a clean slate. They were super nice and the ground was really even. It was just a great event.”

Sherry Cervi & MP Ray Of Fame Get First Pro Rodeo Win at Dixie National

By Tanya Randall

Multiple WPRA World Champion Sherry Cervi got her first pro rodeo win aboard her homebred, 7-year-old mare MP Ray Of Fame (“Money May”) at the $9,000-added Dixie National Rodeo in Jackson, Mississippi. The one-run victory was worth $5,745.

“She worked so good and I’m so excited,” said the Marana, Arizona, barrel racer. “That was her fourth rodeo. I took her to three last year and I feel like she’s ready to be given a chance. I’m so happy. I’m proud of her.”

Jackson is one of the tougher winter rodeos and one of Cervi’s favorites.

“For some reason I’ve always loved Jackson,” she said. “I would always try to go on Stingray (MP Meter My Hay) and I would go back when I was running Hawk (Jet Royal Speed). It’s just one of those rodeos that I really do like. It’s a good winter rodeo.”

Jackson is not the easiest of setups. It’s a small pen with some strange shadows due to the stage lights hanging from the rafters right at the mouth of the alley way. More than one horse has jumped the shadows coming in the pen, including last year’s winning horse Red Man Jones, ridden by Randee Prindle.

“There are a lot of lights that you don’t think about when you’re on a seasoned horse,” said Cervi, the all-time WPRA money earnings leader with more than $3.3 million. “Being on a colt, I was like, ‘Are there really purple lights in the alleyway or mouth of the alley?’

“You have high hopes for a colt—and 7 is not a colt, but to me it is. She is still a little bit green. I tend to let them mature a little bit. I’m so excited about Jackson. You feel like you have nice horses until you throw them out there.”

Money May is daughter of Dash Ta Fame out of Cervi’s two-time WPRA World Champion MP Meter My Hay (“Stingray”), by PC Frenchmans Hayday out of Miss Meter Jet, a three-quarters sister to Cervi’s World Champion Jet Royal Speed (“Hawk”). Stingray’s oldest is NFR qualifier Feel The Sting, who now stands at stud at 70 Ranch Performance Horses. A total Doppelganger for her dam, Money May is the first foal out of Stingray that Cervi kept for herself.

“We bred Stingray in Arizona and I went to the Dodge (National) Circuit Finals in Guthrie, Oklahoma, and the next day we flushed her at the James Ranch,” said Cervi. “When she came out Palomino—she’s a little mini-me of Stingray—she’s just so special to me just because I finally got my own.”

Zach Curran started Money May under saddle and rode her for 30 days.

“He came down to Arizona and rode her for me, because I was scared to send her off,” chuckled Cervi.

As far as Money May’s barrel training, Cervi took her time with the mare because talented, Dash Ta Fame fillies have a reputation for being a little challenging.

“I think that’s why I wanted to be really aware of how I started her,” Cervi admitted. “How do I want this horse to run in competition? That’s how I trained her. I just tried to give her a really good foundation. I don’t know that I can really take credit for training her because those great ones just have that willingness and want to be good.”

Cervi. “I talked to her a lot because I didn’t want to mess her up. Dena really helped me because she’s rode so many more Dash Ta Fames. I love Dena’s style and we talked a lot about it. I didn’t want to push her. She’s sassy but I think those good ones all have those quirks and I’m okay with it.”

Cervi ran Money May at less than a handful of futurities as a 5-year-old, but she placed at all of them. Last year, she hauled her with the intention of seasoning her.

“I was waiting for slack or the perfect situation,” Cervi admitted. “With rodeo there’s never the perfect situation. Finally at Laramie, Wyoming, in the performance, was her very first rodeo. I was probably one or two out of placing. I was happy with how she handled the crowd and everything. I took her to two more places last year, and this year, I decided my goal to season her and Bernie—he’s (an) Alone Drifter out of Bernice (MP Jet Royal Money—Stingray’s full sister) that I futurity’d with her that same year.”

The next big test for both of Cervi’s young horses will be the American Semifinals in Fort Worth, Texas. She also got an invite to compete at Rodeo Houston.

“I’m just taking it one run at a time,” said Cervi, who has world titles in 1995, 1999, 2010 and 2013. “I got into Houston, but I’m not sure who I’m going to run there. I’m just going to try to keep her going this summer. I’m going to try to go a little bit but still take care of responsibilities at home.”

Since her last NFR qualification in 2016, Cervi has spent more time focusing on family and training the young horses that she and her family have raised. She’s also produced several successful youth championship races in underserved areas like the West Coast and Great Lakes Area. She hasn’t missed the countless hours driving on the rodeo road that produced 19 trips to the National Finals Rodeo.

“That’s an understatement,” she chuckled. “I love rodeo and I love competing and I always will. The last few years, due to different circumstances, I needed to spend more time in Wisconsin”—where her family runs cattle and has cranberry bogs—“and do some stuff with family. I truly believe that this horse came into my life at the right time. She’s a gift from God.”

HEADIN' FOR HOME

by Sherry Morrison // Triple M (Mike Morrison Ministries)

I keep telling Mike that spring is here! It's 50 degrees! He looks at me and rolls his eyes. But I'd rather have my confession, than his! LOL!
I will use the scripture to my advantage from time to time. Do you? Believing spring is here can be supported by Romans 4:17.

One time years ago, Mike and I got into a 'heated scussion! And afterward, I was doing the whole, silly silent treatment deal. He asked me if I was going to forgive him? I said, "The Bible says I have till dark!" That's Eph. 4:26. He said, "THAT'S NOT HOW THAT IS SUPPOSED TO WORK!"

He's right. The wakeup call, for all of us, should be that the Word of God is final authority for all of our GOOD actions. It's final authority for what we believe. It's final authority on how we act and speak. And when it's not, we need to repent.get it off of us and be free!

Friends, let's get rid of all that holds us back and run the race to win! Hebrews 12:1. Start today. Use the scripture to win every battle the devil brings. God is good.

Mike and Sherry Morrison pastor "Church at the Barn" in Gillette, WY. They also travel to other areas ministering at barrel races, ranches, rodeos, churches and home Bible studies.
