Dead Heat – Dustin Angelle & Cats Got Your Cash and Ivy Conrado & Cfour Tibbie Stinson Tie for RFD-TV's The American Semifinals Rodeo Championship

By Tanya Randall

They may have run two days apart, but red-hot Ivy Conrado and her great mare Cfour Tibbie Stinson and national-stage newcomer Dustin Angelle and Cats Got Your Cash finished in a dead heat in the sudden-death, second round of RFD-TV's The American Semifinals Rodeo to earn their berths to rodeo's richest one-day event in Arlington, Texas, this weekend.

Fort Worth Rodeo Champions Conrado and Tibbie were coming off a strong performance in the first set at the San Antonio Stock Show and were well rested for Thursday morning slack, having turned out of the Dixie National Rodeo in Jackson, Miss.

From the 138 qualifiers, only 30 advanced to the three rodeo performances. The top 10 fastest runners from the three performances advance to Arlington.

Conrado and Tibbie had the seventh fastest time, a 13.959. Had it not been for nasty slip at the first barrel, it was likely that the duo would have pressed long go winners Sabrina Ketcham and Easz Six's arena record setting 13.531.*

"I had to wipe dirt off of her face and her shoulder," said the Hudson, Colo., barrel racer who currently sits No. 1 in the World in the WPROA Standings. "She went completely down in the front end and still clocked really good. She slipped in the perf too. She lost her hind end at the third barrel and still managed to tie for first."

The split on their final time of 13.829 was worth $36,041. Combined with day money for winning the performance and a seventh-place paycheck in the long go, Conrado and Tibbie added $39,724 plus stallion incentive money through the BBR Select Sires Stakes to their career earnings.

Tibbie, a 7-year-old daughter of Eddie Stinson out of Little Fancy Granny, by Del Puerto Bill, has been resting since her Friday night run.

"I'm up at San Antonio in the semifinals on Tuesday and Wednesday," said Conrado, who wanted to thank her dad, Kelly, her vet Kelly Tisher, family friend Debbie Mikkleson and Busby Quarter Horses for the use of their therapy equipment. "If I make the short round I think I'm just going to run my backup horse on

Semi-Finals Crowns Champs, Sends Qualifiers to AT&T Stadium for RFD-TV's The American

On Sunday, almost 50 rising stars, retired veterans and weekend warriors secured the opportunity to rope and ride for $1 million next weekend. Their entry into the world's richest one-day rodeo on Feb. 28 was earned courtesy of their top finish at The American Semi-Finals Rodeo, held Feb. 17-21 at Cowtown Coliseum in Fort Worth, Texas.

These winners not only bested a field of more than 500 to earn a half-million dollars, but they also won the right to battle the best rodeo athletes in the world at AT&T Stadium on Feb. 28 during RFD-TV's THE AMERICAN, presented by Polaris RANGER. There in Arlington, Texas, they'll not only compete for a $1 million purse, but also the $1 million bonus reserved only for any "underdog" qualifier who beats the best in the business.

On Sunday, Steven Dent of Mullen, Neb., qualified for The American in both bareback riding and saddle bronc riding. That means that for the first time, the "king of the cowboys" Trevor Brazile will face a two-event challenger in the all-around contest at The American.

Also, The American is the only lucrative professional rodeo open to any athlete of any age or gender. On Sunday, for the first time, two of the top 10 finishers in the traditionally female rodeo event of barrel racing are male. Also, the barrel racing field includes a grandmother and a 13-year-old girl, all eligible to win $1 million.

The Semi-Finals itself is one of the top-10 richest rodeos in America. In team roping, Clay Smith of Broken Bow, Neb., and Paul Eaves of Lonedell, Mo., had barely qualified for the sudden-death Shootout Round in 10th place, but then stopped the clock in 4.81 seconds to win the round and leave Fort Worth with $27,268.

"We were just blessed to make it back today," said Smith. "Yesterday we practiced, and today I got a better start. Paul just cleaned it up. That's why he's a 10 heeler."

In tie-down roping, veteran Justin Maass came out on top to earn $19,226 after the early favorite in Fort Worth – six-time world champ Cody Ohl – missed in the finals.

"This is the biggest payday I've had in a long while," said Maass. "For an 18-year semi-retired veteran to have this chance along with 13-year-old kids, this is the best thing in the world."

Rodeo veteran Todd Suhn of Hermosa, S.D., won the steer wrestling and $23,064, while barrel racers Ivy Conrado of Hudson, Colo., and Dustin Angell of St. Gabriel, La., tied for the win in their event. Conrado earned $39,724 and Angell took home $36,041. Jake Vold of Ponoka, Alberta, in bareback riding, Clay Elliott of Nanton, Alberta, in saddle bronc riding and Mason Lowe of Exeter, Mo., in bull riding were other Semi-Finals champions.

Tickets for RFD-TV's THE AMERICAN, presented by Polaris RANGER, on Feb. 28 and the PBR's Iron Cowboy on Feb. 27 start at $20 and are available at the AT&T Stadium Box Office, all Ticketmaster locations and at americanrodeo.com.

Saturday so Tibbie can rest for hopefully two runs at The American on Sunday."

Her back up horse is VF A Classy Design, owned by Camie Haskins and Casey Herod.

While Conrado's name has been on everyone's radar in the professional rodeo world, Dustin Angelle is a newcomer to the national spotlight. Angelle, who grew up with a racehorse trainer for a father and barrel racer for a mother, started training horses when he was 16 and turned to the profession fulltime at 19.

"I was pretty satisfied with both of my runs," said the 23-year-old from St. Gabriel, La., just outside of Baton Rouge. "It was a different atmosphere for me. As a guy, I don't get to run in the rodeo atmosphere and I definitely enjoyed that. I wish we could do that a little more often.

"The setup was a little bit different. The first barrel was right in the pen. I knew if I could get in the pen and let her see that first barrel I wouldn't have an issue with that. She always works and she's very turny. Just coming out of Kinder I had a little bit of a health issue with her, so I brought a backup horse in case I decided not to run her at the last minute. Being that she got me this far, I felt she deserved to run."

Angelle and Cat just made the cut in the long go, finishing 25th with a 14.131.

"The first run I didn't over ride her; I just let her do her thing," he said. "I rode a little conservative and we were just hoping that I made it into the next round. I knew if I made it to the next round I could ask her for more. I just wanted to make sure she was fine after having a bit of a health issue the previous weekend."

Angelle has only made less than a handful of runs on Cat, who belongs to his clients Jeremy and Jenny Smith, who graciously let him ride the mare after the horse he had hoped to qualify had sold.

Although he was initially concerned about the jackpot atmosphere taking some of the run out of Cat, who prefers a rodeo environment, the duo qualified for the Semifinals a month ago at the Dinosaur Classic in Glen Rose, Texas.

"That would have been my second run on her," said Angelle. "My third run on her was at the Lance Graves Pro Classic in Kinder, two weekends ago. I had the second fastest time of the show on her."

Angelle said Cat has a big heart and personality. "She always tries and is really consistent," he said. "We've been fortunate to win quite a bit on her the last two years. The owner has won quite a bit with her in the rodeo pen. The past two months I've been fortunate to win about $7,000 on her in about four runs." He added $36,553 for the Semifinals Championship.

The Smiths bought the 12-year-old mare from Nichole Muligan about two years ago. Cat is a three-quarters sister to Catmans Sassy Seeker, who has taken Jenny Smith to three Southeastern Circuit Finals. Bred by Doug and Karen Johnson, Cat is by Catman Goldseeker out of Cash In On Katy, a granddaughter of Dash For Cash and Oklahoma Fuel. The mare was originally purchased as a backup, but this year, it's likely she'll be first string.

"She was always the backup horse," he said. "We decided this year that she wasn't going to be the backup horse, that this would be her year to stand up and do it. She's definitely proven that she wants to do it."

Angelle wanted to thank his partner and veterinarian Clay Espy for his help and support. "He's amazing with the horses. He checks the horses on a daily basis. He helps me hold them together. He does his best to keep them feeling happy and healthy." He wanted to thank the Smiths for "giving me the opportunity to be able to compete" as well as his family, clients and friends. "It definitely takes a whole group; it's not a person or two," he said.

*Note: Arena record on the current pattern used at the Cowtown

Coliseum. A faster run was recorded on a shorter set in the early 2000s.

RFD-TV's THE AMERICAN Presented by Polaris RANGER

Taking place at the Dallas Cowboys' AT&T Stadium on Feb. 28, 2016 (at 2pm CST), RFD-TV's The American is the richest single-day event in the history of rodeo. With $2.5 million on the line, the best athletes in the world will gather in Dallas to battle for the biggest single paycheck of their lives. The American invites the top 10 athletes from the 2015 PRCA, WPRA and PBR world standings and pits them against underdogs who advance from the American Semi-Finals, held Feb. 17-21 in Fort Worth. If a nationally ranked athlete wins, the prize is $100,000, but if a qualifier from the Semi-Finals – or an athlete who earned an exemption – wins THE AMERICAN, that contestant shares in a $1 million bonus pool.

For more information, please visit: www.americanrodeo.com/ and www.rfdtv.com. Follow us on Twitter @RFDTVAMERICAN and find us on Facebook: www.facebook.com/RFDTVTheAMERICAN (courtesy RFD-TV).

The weekend is full of activities at the AT&T Stadium with the PBR's Iron Cowboy on Saturday, February 27 followed by RFD-TV's The American on Sunday, February 28 @ 2pm CST. There will be a Fan Zone all weekend outside the stadium with a variety of activities. The RFD-TV's The American Fan Zone schedule can be found at www.AmericanRodeo.com.

The American will be carried live on RFD-TV at 2 pm CST. Keep checking on RFD-TV for more information on the TV coverage.

EQUINE 7

OFTEN IMITATED NEVER DUPLICATED

"Oxy Mare is an important product I always keep in my trailer. I do believe that when a mare begins her cycle, it can affect her performance." Oxy Mare is a great tool to help ease any unwanted side effects from cycling. I immediately use this product when I notice any of my mares starting to cycle, whether I'm on my way to a show, attending one, or on my way back home. It is extremely easy to use and has great results! When using Oxy Mare, you will not even notice your horse is in heat! Thank you, Equine 7!

"Oxy Sox is an essential part of my daily program. Foot health is very important to me and my horses traveling down the road. I feel Oxy Sox improves circulation and decreases any inflammation I have found in the hoof wall or the heel. When I am on the road, I feed Oxy Sox daily to prevent any issues that can arise from unwanted surfaces such as gravel or rock."

Pamela Capper & Sheza Smooth Flight Pick Up Much Needed Win in San Angelo

By Tanya Randall

The $20,000-added San Angelo, Texas, PRCA Rodeo is one of the winter rodeo favorites because it's open to all WPRA card and permit holders. Pamela Capper of Cheney, Wash., and her home-bred mare Sheza Smooth Flight ("Jessie") made up for their abnormally quiet winter with a $12,893 Championship.

"We hadn't done too well anywhere else," said the five-time Columbia River Circuit Champion, "but at San Angelo she turned on the flames. We'd been making good runs, but it just seemed at that rodeo everything seemed to click all three of those runs. The horse was right on; I was right on."

All barrel racers got their first run on February 1 in the 1st Community Credit Union Spur Arena. The top 120 from the first round progressed to the performances in the Foster Communications Coliseum. Mary Walker and Perculatin topped the round in 15.59, while Capper and Jessie tied with Tiany Schuster and Jsyk Im Famous for fourth.

"The first go on the big pattern, I was just trying to make the best run I could that day," said Capper. "My horse had got a little cut the day before, so I thought, 'Well, we're just going to have to do the best we can.' She pulled through with a really nice run. It surprised me."

In the second round, which is run slowest to fastest amongst the qualifiers, Capper had to trade to an earlier performance to avoid a conflict with San Antonio. She ended up making her second run on February 6. They missed the money in the second round, which was won by former National Finals Rodeo qualifier Tana Poppino and Doc Hickorys Cross, but they came back to win the short go and

"We made it to the short go, and she really laid down a run," said Capper, who added that being first out on the ground in the Finals was an advantage. "She really likes that building. It just seemed like every time we went to make run in San Angelo, everything just clicked. We had gone to a couple of other rodeos before we came back for San Angelo for the finals. I don't know what it is but she just seemed up and ready to go."

Capper raised the 14-year-old brown mare, by noted Northwest barrel horse sire Dinner Flight out of Lady LasMOOTH, by Smooth Move. She's working on the next generation with Jesse's babies. She has babies by Frenchmans Easy Doc, KG Do It For Fame, Dekalb and Judge Cash.

"They're just now starting to come into riding age," she said. "I'm really excited."

Next up for Capper is Bay City, Texas, before Rodeo Houston and then the RAM National Finals Rodeo in Kissimmee, Fla. She's also got Huntsville and Austin, Texas.

Headin' For Home

by Sherry Morrison
Triple M (Mike Morrison Ministries)

Well here we are, 6 weeks into the new year. How's it going for you? Lost all that weight? (Me neither). Mended that relationship? Saved a million dollars? (Me neither.) So what's the hold up??? Let's all say it together....I'M TOO BUSY!! I heard someone say that 'busy' is: being under satans yoke. Yuk! I don't want to be THERE. I want to be FREE!

I want to be free from worry. Phil. 4:6 is the answer.
I want to be free from sickness. I Pet. 2:24 is the answer.
I want to know what is going to happen. Isaiah 46:9-10 in the NLT is the answer.
I want more money. Mal. 3:8-11 gives us the benefits of tithing.
God's word has ALL the answers you and I will ever need. But we need to take the time to read it so we have the answers before we even have the questions! It just takes time. Getting up a little earlier and reading the word will jump start our days and prepare us for any challenges that may come up. KNOWING that God said in Eph. 3:20 AMP, "God is able to carry out His purpose and do superabundantly, far over and above all that we dare ask or think, infinitely beyond our highest prayers, desires, thoughts, hopes or dreams," will make us pretty sassy! Nothing will be impossible for us. Not weight, debt, fear or sickness. We are covered in His love and we KNOW it! Take THAT devil!

Mike and Sherry Morrison pastor "Church at the Barn" in Gillette, WY. They also travel to other areas ministering at barrel races, ranches, rodeos, churches and home Bible studies.
