Consistency Pays For Vauna Walker & DTF Classey Chick at Royal Crown Futurity

By Tanya Randall

Two blazing quick runs within 3/1,000ths of each other gave Vauna Walker and DTF Classey Chick ("Mia") the futurity championship at the Royal Crown Futurity, held February 21-22 at the Brazos County Expo Center in Bryan, Texas.

Originally scheduled for February 17-21, the historic winter storm Uri forced Royal Crown to push back their schedule to allow contestants time for safe travel.

"I love the Royal Crown," said Walker, who won $24,589 at the event. "They worked really hard to make it good."

Walker and her husband and driver, Randy, made it to the Expo Center on Wednesday after a three-day trip from Arizona. Their most pressing concern was finding diesel. After seeing long lines at the station in Ozona, Texas, the Walkers called ahead to the next station to make sure some was available.

"It was uneventful until we got to Ozona," Walker said. "It made us really nervous but it ended up working out just fine. Through that Fredericksburg (Texas) area we hit some slush, but the temperature was just above freezing. We would have stopped if it looked like we were getting ice, but it really was good all the way across."

At Bryan, a facility that's been good to Walker in the past, she and Mia turned in two insanely consistent runs. They finished third in the first round with a 15.481 and won the second with a 15.484 to win the average and $15,381. They also picked up $1,345 with open carryovers for total earnings of $16,726.

THE RUNDOWN w/Vauna Walker

DTF Classey Chick "Mia" 15.2 hands, 1,150 lbs. "She's a big girl."

BIT: Medium shank Ed Wright Lifter with a three-piece dogbone

SADDLE: A custom trophy Robbie Phillips. "We had it made it wide to fit Mia's chunky shoulders. I love it. There are very few saddles that I've sat in that I just love like the Pozzi's. This one fits me and it fits her."

SADDLE PAD: 5-Star

LEG GEAR: Iconoclast on all four

SHOEING: Rims on all four

FEED: A little Purina Ultium and Outlast

HAY: Alfalfa hay and a little bit of grass

SUPPLEMENTS: PhytoSana CBD Crumbles; Ichon injectable for joints, monthly or more frequently when running more frequently

ALTERNATIVE THERAPIES: Back On Track products

TRAINING/CONDITIONING: "These two mares are really fun," Walker said. "I haven't run them since the last futurity the first weekend in February, and before that they hadn't run since the last futurity in January. They do really well if you just put the miles on them. I'll have a day, or a day or two if it's been three weeks between runs, that I'll do little drills. They're both really attentive so they don't get a lot of barrel work. We ride lots of miles in the washes and I take them to the ropings. That kind of riding seems to do them best. They're both the kind that could get pressured really easily because they're so serious."

SPONSORS: PhytoSana CBD, Best Fit Horse Care, Mike & Cindy Holland

"The first one I knew she was really going to fire," said Walker. "She just feels really good. She was running so hard to that first barrel. I bumped her and she came back to me and just dug around that turn. Truth is she about shook me loose and it took me to the next barrel to catch back up with her!"

Owned and bred by her mother-in-law Ruby, Mia is by all-time leading barrel horse sire Dash Ta Fame out of the multiple race winning mare Indebtedmiss, by Debt Relief. Walker has ridden five horses from that cross including standouts Dapper De Great, Lotta Fame Ta Claim and Dan I Am Famous.

She said that Mia is quite the character.

"She sounds like a stallion and looks a little like a stallion," she said. "She's a little bulky. I often refer to her as Chucky Monkey. She carries her weight really easily. She has a really loud whinny that sounds like a stallion. She does it when she gets nervous. I'll be in the staging area getting ready to run and she'll do that bellow. She's the kind of horse that you can't mess with much before you run her so I just ignore it. I know people look at her and think, 'What in the world?' She's actually done that bellowing stud noise on the way to the first barrel occasionally!"

Walker said that Mia's extremely confident and has been that way since she was really young.

"She's been good to ride, good to train," she said. "She's never done anything bad, but she likes to run. She quickly decided she knew what to do and didn't need a lot of correction. Everything that I do with her slow, she'll kind of generalize that to fast, which really makes it fun. She's been a lot of fun and really willing. She's smart."

Walker said what she works on the most with the mare is her positioning so she has room for the barrels in the turns. "She has that ratey Dash Ta Fame-kind of turn," she said. "She feels like she's getting better at sticking her nose out and running to that spot to give herself enough room to get around them." Walker also placed fourth in the average on her homebred RV Bri-jett, a 4-year-old daughter of Blazin Jetolena out of DTF Mellowdoc, by Dash Ta Fame. Like her stablemate, Bri-jett was consistent with runs of 15.631 and 15.707 to earn $7,863 between the futurity and open.

"She's got a pretty interesting story," noted Walker. "The recipient mare was due the end of February and we got home (from Arizona) on January 23. We checked things and went to bed. Randy got up early because he was feeling uneasy. He walked out there and that mare had foaled in a blizzard. It was one of the worst snow storms we'd had in years. She was tiny—you could pick her up—but she never missed a beat. I've never seen anything like it. I figured she'd die, but we got her in and got her warmed up and she did fine."

The Walkers are headed back to Arizona for a brief rest before the C-N Futurity next weekend in Tulare, California.

An Epic Leader – Kassie Mowry Tops Royal Crown Derby & Slot Race

By Tanya Randall

Leading futurity rider and two-time Wrangler National Finals Rodeo qualifier Kassie Mowry and her Epic Leader geldings took home titles in the Derby and Slot Race at the Royal Crown, held February 19-22 at the Brazos County Expo Center in Bryan, Texas.

Mowry rode her own 6-year-old gelding CP He Will Be Epic (“Will”) to victory in the Open Slot Race with the fastest time of the event, a 15.150 on Friday night, to win $4,266. Their time carried over to the Open 5D for another $3,770 including incentive money for total earnings of $8,036.

Aboard Epic Guy (“King”), Mowry won the Derby for $7,235, picked up $3,322 in open carryover and incentive earnings, and picked up another $1,580 for sixth in the Open Slot for total earnings of $12,137.

She also picked up checks on six of the eight horses she took to Bryan for total earnings of $20,173.

For Mowry it wasn’t the drive to the event that was problematic, it was the disaster she was leaving behind at her Dublin, Texas, home. Although she had heat lamps on her water well, rolling blackouts left her without power long enough for it to freeze. She and Michael Boone were hauling water from the dairy next door to water 40 head of horses. Unfortunately, her house wasn’t without damage as well.

“I had a pipe leak in my house and I got in from watering horses and had ankle deep water in my bedroom!” she said. “It was awful! It took a couple of days for a plumber to come out. He got there right before I left to go to Bryan, so we could turn the water on and not worry about it free flowing into my bedroom! It was a nightmare and scary!”

all her time devoted to keeping the horses watered, riding them wasn't even an option.

"There were people there riding since Tuesday and I barely got there in time to get my one exhibition," said Mowry. "I felt so unprepared on my colts, but it was the best I could do just to get there."

Mowry started off winning the slot race with Will, who skipped the derby to carry Mowry at the San Antonio rodeo.

"I love that horse," she said. "He's just so neat. He has such a cool feel."

She purchased the Epic Leader gelding, out of Percilla, by Dash Ta Fame, from his breeder Claire Powell as a baby.

"I saw a picture of him," Mowry explained. "My shoer does Claire's horses and he showed me a picture of him. The reason I bought him was because he looked like FM Radio. He cost a lot and when I got him, he was so big for his age, I didn't know if he could be a barrel horse!"

Even though they're not related, Mowry said he has a lot of the same qualities as her great horse FM Radio did.

"He's very sweet, kind horse," she said. "You can't raise your voice. You don't wear spurs. I ride him in a big, fat smooth O-ring. For a big 17-hand horse, he's so light. He doesn't want to be in trouble. He'll do whatever you want. He's just a gentle giant."

For the Derby with King, it was business as usual with two consistent runs. They placed second in the first round and third in the second.

"That was fun!" she said. "I'm just really proud of him for staying consistent all three days. Every time he went through the gate, he gave me a good shot and he clocked. He just had normal runs. When that horse is on all you have to do is stay in the middle of him because he's going to do his job."

King, the 6-year-old gelding bred and owned by Kristen Williams, is by Epic Leader out of the Frenchmans Guy mare Frenchilicious. He was the leading futurity horse in 2019 and won his first pro rodeo in 2020 as well as making it to the Final Four of RFD-TV's The American.

"The timing of all this is really good," she said. "He feels really good and we've got all this big stuff to go to right now."

Originally, Mowry was supposed to run at the rodeo in San Antonio on Monday and Tuesday, but her bracket got postponed to straight on top of the futurity. She had to trade so she could get the evening performances to have a chance at making both.

"I got home at 2 in the morning last night," said Mowry, who made each of futurity and derby runs before racing to San Antonio to run Will at night. They won enough to advance to the semifinals. "I'm by myself because Mike's at home tending to everything. I'm like mush for brains. I have PTSD from last week!"

There is no rest for the wicked as Mowry will finish up San Antonio this weekend and the long-round of the American Semifinals Rodeo is Monday and The Patriot is all next week as well.

"There's a lot going on right now!" said Mowry, who is sponsored by Equi-Brand—Classic Equine and Martin Saddlery—and Brazos Valley Equine. "I'm trying to keep it all together, but I'm freaking out inside."

She's grateful to have Boone at home taking care of things.

"I've got mares and babies and 3-year-olds, and I didn't worry about a thing with him there. I felt bad because I wanted him with me at the futurity. It always helps me to have him with me so much, but to have him at the house and not be stressed out about what I had at home...If he hadn't been there I couldn't have gone to Bryan with that much responsibility at home. I wouldn't have left."

Ochs and Return Of the Chicado Bank in Ft. Worth

This past weekend the last American Qualifier was held in conjunction with the 2D Super Race at the Cowtown Coliseum in Ft Worth where the SemiFinals for The American will be held next Monday (March 1, 9 am). Tammy Ochs and the royally bred Return Of the Chicado topped the 2D Super Race but did not carry over into the American Qualifier since they were already qualified. Her time of 13.6 in Cowtown is a smoking time, so we caught up with her going into her runs (she qualified 2 horses to the Semis) at the Semi-Finals for The American.

BRR: Can you walk us through your run at the Super Race in Cowtown? What did you find out from this run that will help you during the The American SemiFinals (also ran at the Cowtown)?

Ochs: I'm just trying to get nice clean runs. He's never rodeoed before, so this is all new for him. I took him in slack the rodeo a couple of weeks ago and he was scared in the alley and was a little lost at his first & almost stopped at the 2nd barrel. I ran him the next night and he was better but he was still lost at the first & clocked a 14.0. So I decided I wasn't trusting him going to his 1st and I needed to just send him in there. So last Friday I ran him again at the rodeo and everything started coming together and we ended up second with a 14.0. So on Sunday I just tried riding the same way and it seemed to work. It's taken me a long time to get with him because he's so fast and absolutely loves what he'd doing.

I believe for the SemiFinals we're just going to try to make another clean run.

BRR: Tell us about your horse. Any funny quirks? Any special things he likes or dislikes?

Ochs: Steve loves to lick people. Not sure why but he does. And he tries to do things to just aggravate me when I am brushing or trying to saddle him.

BRR: Most of the horses you run are bred by Jud Little, what about those horses fit you and your style?

Ochs: All 3 of the horses I have here were bred and raised by Jud Little. I have Steve, Its Rainin Heroes (Judette) and One Frosty Corona (Stallion, Frosty). They all run completely different & I just have to remember who I'm on.

BRR: What are three unique things you must have with you to travel?

Ochs: I have a Bemer Vet Pack for the horses I won't leave home without. My Elite Nutrition Supplements are a must. And I have to double check to make sure I have my riding boots if I'm not wearing them. I went to a show last year and forgot them and had to borrow a friend's (boots) that were too small.

Return OfThe Chicado "Steve" 15.2 hands, 1,100 lbs.

BIT: Chain Mouthpiece. Most of the bits I use have been handed down from a really good friend who passed away 4 yrs ago, Al Pace.

SADDLE: Martin BTR

SADDLE PAD: Reinsman Saddlepads

SHOEING: My shoer is Earl Schmucker. He is so good with us. Shows up whenever we have a problem.

FEED: Yoder Brothers grain of Non GMO Products

HAY: Alfalfa/Grass mix hay

SUPPLEMENTS: Elite Nutrition Supplements from Odon, IN

TRAINING/CONDITIONING: I do a lot of lunging with my horses, especially if I don't have the time to ride. Since the weather has been good now, all the horses are getting worked about 45 minutes a day.

THANK YOUS: I'd like to say thank you to my Husband (Rex), my son (RJ).

Without them 2 I wouldn't be sitting here in TX.

I have a great supportive family and great friends that have also helped us out a bunch. A special thanks to some people in our life that had a big influence on us Larry & Vickie Conroy and some that have passed away.

Randee Prindle & Red Man Jones Top Jackson & Kissimmee Rodeos

By Tanya Randall

Of the four richest rodeos of the 2021 winter run, Randee Prindle and Red Man Jones ("Scooby") have won three of them. They started out with a Black Hills Stock Show & Rodeo victory in Rapid City, South Dakota, and recently added victories at the $8,000-added Dixie National Rodeo in Jackson, Mississippi, and $5,500-added 146th Annual Silver Spurs Rodeo in Kissimmee, Florida.

Prindle, who hails from Gilman City, Missouri, now sits fifth in the WPRA World Standings with $12,040.

"He's feeling good and working great," said Prindle of her 10-year-old Jud Little-bred partner Scooby. "Hopefully, we can keep it up!"

They started their rodeo run at slack in Jackson on Wednesday, February 10, where they set the arena record for the new pattern in 13.89. The victory wasn't without Scooby's now legendary antics.

"He spooked at the shadows coming in, like a dork," laughed Prindle. Overhead lighting had caused the hanging banners to leave shadows across the arena floor between the alley and the timer. "It really threw us off going to the first barrel. We were really straight, like dive-bombing it. But, he worked good. Even running out, he attempted to jump the shadows on the ground."

The victory was worth $3,965.

From Jackson, Prindle and Scooby went to Ocala, Florida, where they picked up checks at the Pac West Barrel Race. They spent the following week in Kissimmee until their Saturday run in Dade City.

Prindle and Scooby won the Kissimmee rodeo by 2/10ths with a time of 14.47, worth $2,844.

"For Kissimmee, he actually went in there and worked perfectly and didn't do anything stupid," said Prindle. "I was pretty impressed with him there."

Scooby, by Brownie Jones out of Dinkys Purple Rain, by Dinky's Red Man, wasn't even bothered by being last on the ground in the first set in slack on Thursday, February 18.

"He handled that really well. I didn't think he would clock good since he's an arena princess. If the ground isn't perfect, he doesn't do that well, but he handled it really nicely."

Prindle was actually entered in Perry, Georgia, too but chose to say in Florida due to the weather.

"He went off his food and water off and on all week when I was down in Florida,” Prindle explained. She actually went to Tractor Supply and purchased panels so Scooby could be outside, and by the next day, he was eating and drinking much better. “Wednesday night he finally started to eat and cleaned up his food for the first time in days. It got really hot that day, 80 something down in Kissimmee, and up and Perry it was 40 something and raining. He’s tied up a couple of times on me whenever the temperature fluctuates a lot, so I just figured with the temperature being 40 degrees cooler and him not eating or drinking much all week, I felt like I was just asking for a tie-up. So instead of driving up there to run my 5-year-old I figured we’d just chill out in Florida for a couple more days.”

Unfortunately, they faced mud at their last rodeo in Dade City, Florida.

“I didn’t send him in hard enough to first and we got it, so I just pulled him up,” Prindle explained. “It was pretty like suction cup mud. If I would have had time after watching the first runner, I would have switched horses, but there just wasn’t enough time.”

Prindle now has a tougher decision to make—rodeo more or continue with the big money jackpots where she has dominated.

“I figured if we weren’t sitting pretty good after these last rodeos that we’d just go to the big barrel races,” she said. “But, now it’s like, ‘Well, crap!’ We’re going to try some more rodeos, but we’re going to take it one rodeo at a time. When Scooby has had enough rodeos, we’ll stop and go jackpot.”

Next week, Prindle has the American Semifinals, where she and Scooby are the defending champions, and The Patriot. After The American, she’s headed back to Florida for another rodeo run.

“I’m pretty much going to be gone for the month of March,”

she said. “I’ll be in Texas, then home for a day and then down to Florida. I’ll be gone for 10 days and then back home for a day before we head to Arizona for that big barrel race they’re having out there.”

Optimism for Cheyenne Frontier Days

There's optimism about 2021 Cheyenne Frontier Days happening. In the recently released 2020 Cheyenne Frontier Days report, CEO Tom Hirsig kept open the possibility of the event returning this summer after the COVID-19 pandemic canceled the event that had run for 123 consecutive summers. "We are optimistic for 2021, this will be a year it takes the whole community to get on board to make Cheyenne Frontier Days happen," Hirsig wrote in the report. "We have challenges but our organization and our community have a cowboy spirit that will never be defeated. We are looking forward to a great 125th celebration honoring the legendary Chris LeDoux."

Reno Rodeo Makes Plans for 2021

Organizers of the Reno Rodeo plan to have the event return this summer, and tickets went on sale Feb. 22. The Reno Rodeo was canceled last year due to the pandemic. The Reno Rodeo is set to return June 17-26, pending COVID-19 restrictions. Fans will have two options for purchasing tickets: Online at mynevadatickets.com, ticket service and handling fees apply or in person at the Lawlor Events Center ticket office Monday, Wednesday and Friday from 10 a.m.-2 p.m. (PT). No handling charge or service fee. Masks, social distancing and capacity limitations will be required in accordance with local mandates.

HEADIN' FOR HOME

by Sherry Morrison // Triple M (Mike Morrison Ministries)

I'm sure you've all heard the saying, "The older I get, the smarter my parents are." Sure is true for me. I can also look back and remember how smart I THOUGHT I was. Now, not so much! Lol!

Mike and I know a missionary in Mexico. Wayne Myers. He is now well into his nineties and preaching often. He was called there when he was a teenager and has been there since. He has all these one liners and words of wisdom. He has walked with God and knows a thing or two. How you can feel the love of God flowing out of him! You just want to be around him.

Once he said, "Some people need a helping hand. Some need a gentle shove. And some need a sanctified kick in the . . .!" Yep. Found out that's true.

Experience and success can go hand in hand. If you've lived long enough, practiced hard enough at something, and learned from your mistakes, you'd think a young person would want to listen to what you have to say. They don't always.

But, I'm not writing this to them. This is to all of us. No matter your age, your gender, your job, or your upbringing, we all need to be growing in God. You never ARRIVE and learn no more. Wayne said, "If you are the same today, with God, that you were yesterday, you're backsliding."

My first reaction was, 'I AM NOT!' It's a true statement though, whether I like it or not. God is calling you and me every minute of every day. We need to spend time with Him. We need to choose what He would choose. Say what He would say. Do what He would do. Any day that we just do our own thing and put God on the shelf, we are backsliding.

Let's humble ourselves and seek Him like never before! We'll all be glad we did!

Mike and Sherry Morrison pastor "Church at the Barn" in Gillette, WY. They also travel to other areas ministering at barrel races, ranches, rodeos, churches and home Bible studies.
