Molli Montgomery & Heavens Gone Wild Dominate Succeed Futurity at The Grand Prix

By Tanya Randall

Molli Montgomery and Heavens Gold Wild (“Ferris”) swept the $15,000-added, 157-entry Succeed Futurity at The Grand Prix, held February 19-21 at the 377 Arena in Stephenville, Texas. They claimed an astounding $65,197 for Ferris’ owners Hinton Performance Horses.

“I knew he had it in him,” said the multiple aged event champion from Dawson, Texas. “I knew it was there. He’s a good boy!”

They won the futurity by an astounding margin—nearly 6/10ths—after winning the rounds with incredibly consistent runs of 15.328 and 15.395 for $19,018. They also won the Futurity Slot Race with the 15.328 to earn $6,156 and swept the Breeders Challenge Qualifier Futurity for an additional $6,977.

“I knew that he would excel in a bigger pen,” she said. “He gets places really fast, and it’s hard to prepare when you get there that fast. That horse has a lot of power leaving a barrel and he can be a dead run the first step.”

Montgomery and Ferris ended up making three runs because Leslie Newman, who owns Ferris’ dam Legsgonewild, had entered her in everything.

“I didn’t even know I was in the Sweepstakes,” Montgomery admitted. She and Ferris clocked a 15.5 to win fifth and $1,829 in

BIT: L&W short shank Kathy James chain mouth with a parachute cord curb
 “I did make a bit change. (He was in a locked O-ring.) I felt like if he was going to get short on me, I needed a little more bridle to hold him off,” Montgomery said.

HEADGEAR: Rawhide tiedown for balance on the backside of the turns

SADDLE: Shiloh Contender - SADDLE PAD: 5 Star 7/8ths

LEG GEAR: 5 Star, front only - SHOEING: Steel rims on all four

FEED: Big V Feeds

HAY: Steamed Alfalfa. Hay from David Miller Hay Services

SUPPLEMENTS: OE Nutraceuticals Ultimate Oil, Big V Vita Pep, GastroGard

TRAINING/CONDITIONING REGIMEN: Loping circles and loping barrels. Riding five to six days a week. “One thing I have to do with him at home is pull on him a little bit more. He’s so touchy and sensitive that I handled him a little bit more around the barrels to desensitize him to it a little bit. I’ll pull on him and release, pull and release, so he doesn’t overreact in a run.”

SPONSORS: Big V Feeds, 5 Star Equine Products, OE Nutraceuticals, Double X Veterinary Services, JC Tax Service, PLLC, J&C Bits, Shiloh Saddlery, Equilume, Klint Rodgers CJF, Succeed, Salado Equine Medical Center (John Janicek, DVM), Equi-Source the $5,000-added Running Rose Performance 3D Sweepstakes. “I normally wouldn’t enter the Sweepstakes because I don’t want to put that many runs on my futurity horses, but she entered me, and I thought, well, I’ll cruise him through.”

Montgomery also won $5,957 on Heavens Wild Side (“Chanel”), Ferris’ full sister that won the Put Up or Shut Up Futurity and Slot Race in January. Both horses are by JL Dash Ta Heaven and out of Legsgonewild, a champion futurity horse by Tres Seis that Montgomery also campaigned for Newman. They’re both owned by the Hintons.

“The JL Dash Ta Heavens really fit me,” said Montgomery. “I feel like I get along with them. I fit the Tres Seis too. But the Heavens are a little extreme and I’m a little extreme, so we get along really well.”

Ferris, she said, is actually pretty laid back.

“He’s not a hot horse,” she said. “But Legs (his dam) was super calm. She was laid back. That’s a perfect mix for me. I love Dash Ta Heaven and I love Tres Seis. Those are my two favorites. Well, the only thing that would make it better is if I could add a little Fire Water Flit in there. You give me that—that’s my cup of tea.”

To date, Ferris has won $112,587 with Chanel banking $95,521.

“My goal this year is to win five futurities,” said Montgomery. “I’ve won two. I’m hoping I can win Pink Buckle. I want to do what Ceri (Ward) did and win $192,000 (at Pink Buckle). That’s insane. That’s life-changing money.”

AN ADVANCED VIEW ON TIEDOWNS

Looking back, Molli Montgomery noted that almost all of her great horses have run in a tiedown.

"I don't know if it's my style or what, but they need a little something to push on, on that backside (of the turn)," she said. "They have to have a little something to bump to bring them back. I think I get them a little too broke to that inside pull, so I go to pull on them, I need that tiedown there for them to hit and bump back in. If you watch the run, you'd say, 'Oh, they don't really need it,' but then you take it off and you're like, 'Oh! They needed it!' Mainly I have it on there for a little bump. They touch it and then they come back."

She said it's like running straight lines to the walls in gym class as kids. A tie down is the difference between stopping and jarring your legs to turn and go the other direction at the wall, verses using your hands to softly bump the wall, push off and run again.

"I feel that's what the tiedown does," she said.

She said the softer, more reactive horses are the ones that typically need a tiedown as opposed to a horse that is responsive, but not super soft that will lean on the bit just right and take a pull.

"Most horses that need a tiedown are more broke than the horses that don't," she said. "I don't think people understand that. My most soft horses are the ones that need a tiedown. They're super reactive."

London Gorham & Tiny Bit Of Pressure Win Grand Prix Derby and $40K

By Julie Mankin

London Gorham stands 5'7" tall and, at 18, lives in Stephenville now, so she laughs when people still think of her as a little girl. They're remembering the Cotulla native when she was 10 and ran barrels in AT&T Stadium during The American on live television.

But on February 19-22 at 377 Arena in Stephenville, Texas, she beat all the big girls, and handily, at the 5th annual version of The Grand Prix on 7-year-old Tiny Bit Of Pressure ("TBop").

By $1.8 Million Sire No Pressure On Me and out of SF Tiny Bit Of Fame, TBop boasts a sire by futurity-champion barrel horse Leo Nick Bar out of industry legend SX Frenchman's Vanilla. And his dam is a Dash Ta Fame daughter out of a mare carrying old-school Three Bars and Depth Charge DNA.

Gorham, whose grandfather is rodeo Hall-of-Famer Phil Lyne, not only outran the likes of Sherry Cervi, Stevi Hillman and Mindy Holloway (on an NFR horse) to win the Rodeo Austin qualifier, but also won the average of the Pro Series Tack Open Derby & the Breeders Challenge Grand Prix Derby to rake in $40,220! A little piece of that money will be headed into Fort Worth with Gorham, she said, so she can buy herself a new pair of "city boots."

The event had $92,000 added and the turnout was huge, including 166 in the Austin qualifier and nearly 200 Derby horses. That arena is just a 30-minute drive for Gorham, but making two great runs on this particular horse almost brought her to tears. And not just because she got into Rodeo Austin. She isn't even going to enter Austin, nor buy her WPRA card until maybe next season (she just entered to win money).

It's because after obtaining the lanky 4-year-old gelding from Bill Kennedy in 2023 during his standout futurity year with trainer Andrew Coelho, it took Gorham a full two years to make a single good run on TBop.

"He was either bowing off or hitting barrels or running off instead of finishing second and it was just hell," said Gorham. The process of getting a new horse and rider team together always takes time but TBop was taking it to the extreme.

After getting help from Coelho, some time with Kyle Leleux working on the horse and switching the horse to the left and some helpful suggestions from Whitney Godinez on how to work him; the tide started to change!

"I rode with Whitney Godinez one time last winter and she told me how to work him. Then, I took him to one last race in Santo, thinking in the back of my mind it was his last opportunity. He went in and broke the arena record," said Gorham.

She'd started working TBop by loping squares around the barrels. Then, still running left, he became outstanding, even breaking the arena record with a 14.2 at Glen Rose a couple of months ago.

"He's not forgiving," she said. "He's very honest in a run and doesn't try to hit a barrel, but my riding has to be perfect. It took a long time and a lot of hard work, but it definitely paid off. I wouldn't spend two years on anything else ever again, but I'm glad I did with him."

In Stephenville, Gorham placed second in the first round, sandwiched between Dusky Lynn Hall's Chasin A Win and Jimmie Smith's Brickk, with a 15.436 to earn $2,948. It also placed fourth in Saturday's Open for $1,990.

Gorham's second run of 15.394 placed second in that Derby round for $2,948, and second in Sunday's Open for $2,695, in addition to winning the Austin Qualifier. And it let her win the Derby average, worth $7,088.

THE RUNDOWN w/London Gorham

Tiny Bit Of Pressure

BIT: chain combo with leather curb, but warmed up in O-ring and draw-reins

SADDLE: custom-fit Robbie Phillips

SADDLE PAD: custom Best Ever/Louis Vuitton

LEG GEAR: Classic Equine

SHOEING: I don't know; I let the farriers do what they do

FEED: mixture of Triple Crown Senior, Renew Gold and Balancer

HAY: a lot of alfalfa

SUPPLEMENTS: All my horses get Succeed every day, and I give L-Lysine and run on Lasix.

ALTERNATIVE THERAPIES: He gets the Bemer almost every day. And he has a paralyzed flapper so I nebulize with dex.

TRAINING/CONDITIONING REGIMEN: He's on the walker 30 minutes and gets loped 20 minutes, daily. I might walk the pattern to make sure he stays correct. At an exhibition, I'll lope squares around barrels and if he tries to rush, I'll figure-eight back around them.

THANKS: My mommy, even though she wasn't there to yell for me.

"I haven't run him two days in a row very often that I haven't hit a barrel the second run," said Gorham. "So, it wouldn't have felt this good on any other horse."

"I really appreciate everyone's help in making TBop so great. It really took an army!" shared Gorham.

Prior to this weekend Tiny Bit Of Pressure sat at $147,480 for LTE and with the $40,220 they won this weekend, it puts the 7 yr old gelding at $187,700 in LTE. This team will be one to watch when Gorham decides to buy her card and hit the road!

Technicolour Magic for Josey Murphy at Dixie National in Jackson, MS

By Tanya Randall

Josey's mom Julie was the barrel racer of the Murphy clan while she was the breakaway roper. She'd finished twice in the Top 25 in the WPRA's Breakaway World Standings and had only chased cans at three pro rodeos until this year—the year after her mom passed.

Taking the reins of her mother's horse Technicolour Magic ("Mikey"), whom the elder Murphy had trained and campaigned for the Kenny family of Canyon, Texas, Josey has won three of nine pro rodeos and placed in five others.

Josey and Mikey's biggest win, a $6,883 championship at the $11,500-added Dixie National in Jackson, Mississippi, came 10 years after her mom struck a deal with the Kennys to train a barrel horse for the family.

"No one can tell me that my mom didn't have a hand in my win at Jackson," said Josey. "I know she's watching."

The late Julie Murphy, who passed November 29 after a brief return battle with cancer, made both horse and rider.

"I've learned everything I know from her," said Josey. "The knowledge she had with horses, the bits, horse's styles, how they moved, it was impeccable. I'm honored that I got to spend so much of my life with her. If I hadn't been around her and what she did for a living, I don't think I would have had the opportunity to have or ride Mike the way I do today."

Mikey, an 11-year-old gelding by Technicolours, a Frenchmans

Guy, Hot Colours son, out of a multiple race winning Second Down Kelly, Marthas Six Moons mare, was sent to Julie after his first 60 to 90 days of riding.

"She always knew that Mike was going to be something special," said Josey. "He's quirky. He's funny but he's very athletic. Mike just has that drive. He wants to win."

Jade Kenny rodeoed on Mikey briefly one summer before turning him back over to Julie to run or sell.

As a WPRA Rookie last year, Julie made the Southeastern Circuit Finals on Mikey and JH Firewater Honor, who now belongs to Dusky Lynn Hall. Sadly the elder Murphy didn't get to compete at the Circuit Finals as her cancer returned aggressively and she passed away a few weeks later.

"They gave me the same option," Josey said of the Kennys. "It's up to you if you want to run him or sell him."

Josey had run Mikey once before in September 2023 at a college rodeo. She had just returned from roping at the pro rodeos in the Northwest.

"I had never been on him," she said. "My mom wasn't there. He was doing cartwheels warming up! I thought, 'Oh Lord, I'm going to fall off!' We ended up getting third!"

Josey had limited time on Mikey's back until she started going this year. In fact, her winning run at Jackson was her 10th time competing on him.

Not surprisingly, the younger Murphy rides a little more aggressively than her mother and she's taken a little different approach to riding and tuning Mikey.

"We've rearranged some things," Josey said. "I'm a very aggressive rider. My mom, she would kick a little. She would drag over some barrels from time to time. For me, I just know if I can get him past the barrels, I don't have to worry about being fast. He's not a barrel hitter; he doesn't shoulder. He's just very setty and wants to turn. Sometimes it is a bit of a challenge to get him a half-stride or full stride to where we need to be. He loves his job and he loves to turn."

To keep Mikey running free, Josey saves his tuning for exhibition runs that she makes as much like a real run as possible.

"I'll make him think we're making a real run," she explained. "If I feel him try anything, get a little short or a little snug on the second or third, I will get him with my inside foot and inside rein and go to the fence and do counter arcs. I'll fix it right then and there."

Josey explained that Mikey tends to be a little "boogery" along with being ratey and wanting to do his job, which can be a problem from time to time.

"He doesn't shoulder in but he's very boogery," she said. "He might stare at people, and he might look at the banners. When he was up and coming, Mom would exhibition and then run him, it was a disaster. She realized that he would spook at the barrels when she exhibitioned. She finally stopped exhibitioning him and just started running him and he stopped looking for those boogers he saw in going slow."

Josey said for now her tuning tactic is working.

"I think we're on the right track," she said. "We're just going to keep doing our homework and see how it goes. I think he's going to be one of those that I have to stay after him, keeping him tuned."

Josey and Mikey collected $9,724 over the weekend after taking third ($1,981) at the Georgia National Rodeo in Perry and placing thirteenth at two Florida rodeos: the Brighton Field Day Festival and Rodeo in Okeechobee and Silvers Spurs Rodeo in Kissimmee.

Starting out the year, Murphy's goal was to make the Southeastern Circuit Finals, and she's likely earned enough to qualify already. She just needs a few more rodeos to make the 15 rodeo eligibility count.

However, since she and Mikey got on a heater, she's thinking a little bigger.

"It kind of started being a thought after the Homestead and Lake Charles rodeos that maybe I should consider trying to make the NFR on him," Josey said. "The Kenny's gave me the option to run Mike, and if I wasn't going to run him they were going to sell him. I figured I might as well give it a shot and see where it leads. "I knew the horse could do it because he's so athletic and loves his job. But I didn't realize ... when we outran Tricia Aldridge and Kassie Mowry and those top girls, that we really might have a fighting chance."

Josey said she's going to start saving Mikey for the summer and only run at the bigger rodeos closer to home until then.

"I'm just going to keep my fingers crossed that the good Lord lets me ride him throughout the summer," she said.

She has the full support of family and friends. Brice Jenkins even offered her his late wife Camelia's horse as a backup.

"His wife passed away from breast cancer as well a year and a half ago," she said. "He called me up and said, 'I want you to try to make the NFR. You can come get Camelia's barrel horse. I told myself that no one but our son would ride him, but God put it on my heart. I knew you only had Mikey and I want you to have this horse, so you have two horses to go on this summer.'"

Josey said that none of this is coincidental.

"I've gone out there a couple of times to try to make the NFR in the breakaway," she said. "Never in a million years did I think I'd get a chance in the barrels until this moment. I want to give it a shot because I don't have anything to lose. I don't want to look back and say I wish I did this. It really is a God thing."

PRCA Mourns passing of Oaklynn Rae Domer

The Rodeo world was shaken when it learned of the passing of 2024 WPRA World Champion Breakaway Roper Kelsie Domer and her husband Ryan's toddler daughter on Feb. 19.

Oaklynn Rae Domer was 3.

The funeral service for Oaklynn is scheduled to take place Thursday, Feb. 26, 11 a.m. (CT) at the Double N Cowboy Church (7202 Highway 6, Dublin, Texas, 76446). The service will be live streamed on the Double N Cowboy Church Facebook page.

The graveside service is scheduled to take place Friday, Feb. 27 at 4 p.m. (CT) at the Auburn Cemetery in Cherokee, Okla.

Donations for family expenses and scholarships in Oaklynn's memory for rodeo athletes at Southwestern Oklahoma State University or Northwestern Oklahoma State University may be made to Rope Like A Girl. Mail donations to: First Financial Bank, Attention Rope Like a Girl Foundation, 718 Elm Street, Clyde, Texas 79510. Account ending #3030. Please make checks payable to Rope Like a Girl Foundation, and know that they are tax deductible.

Tickets on sale now for 5th Annual Resistol Rookie Roundup Hosted by The Cowboy Channel

For the fifth consecutive year, Resistol, in partnership with The Cowboy Channel, will host the Resistol Rookie Roundup at the historic Cowtown Coliseum in the Fort Worth Stockyards. The 2026 event will take place March 20-21, with performances beginning daily at 7:30 p.m., and will feature an updated competition format designed to further spotlight rodeo's rising stars.

The Resistol Rookie Roundup will invite the top 10 first-year cardholders from both the Professional Rodeo Cowboys Association (PRCA) and Women's Professional Rodeo Association (WPRA) in each event. Contestants will compete in a two-go-round format with an overall average.

Athletes will compete for a total purse of $100,000, with earnings counting toward their PRCA | Bill Fick Ford World Standings for Wrangler National Finals Rodeo (NFR) qualification. The Rookie Roundup champions will receive an entry into the Teton Ridge American Rodeo semi-finals regional event in Lexington, Kentucky.

The Resistol Rookie Roundup has become a premier launchpad for the next generation of professional rodeo athletes, introducing fans to future stars while equipping competitors with the tools needed for long-term success. In addition to competition, rookies will participate in media training, mentorship sessions with top rodeo athletes, professional headshot sessions for the PRCA website, and exclusive filming with The Cowboy Channel. Each contestant will also receive a gift bag from The Cowboy Channel and its sponsors, as well as a new Resistol straw hat.

"The Resistol Rookie Roundup is about investing in the future of rodeo," said Resistol President Devin Marcum. "These athletes represent the next generation of champions, and we're proud to provide them with the opportunity to compete at a high level while learning the skills it takes to succeed inside and outside of the arena."

Following the event, The Cowboy Channel will produce a series of roundtable discussions hosted by mentors, including former Resistol Rookies of the Year, World Champions, and NFR qualifiers. These segments will air while the rookies spend the summer competing in the Rookie Race for the coveted Rookie of the Year title.

The Resistol Rookie of the Year Award is one of the most prestigious honors in professional rodeo, as PRCA and WPRA members are only eligible to earn the title once in their careers.

Tickets for the 5th Annual Resistol Rookie Roundup are on sale now and can be purchased through the Cowtown Coliseum website.

Texas Precious Metals Joins WPRA Corporate Partner Family

The WPRA is excited to announce Texas Precious Metals as our official precious metals partner. Through this partnership, members and fans alike will be able to purchase and begin collecting pure silver coins featuring women's barrel racing and breakaway roping. Texas Precious Metals will also be featured at the 2026 National Finals Breakaway Roping as the clock sponsor and go-round sponsor.

WHAT TO WATCH

WEEK OF FEBRUARY 23, 2026

SAN ANTONIO STOCK SHOW & RODEO	FEB. 23-27, 8 PM FEB. 28, 1 PM, 8:30 PM ET
LA FIESTA DE LOS VAQUEROS - THE TUCSON (ARIZ.) RODEO	FEB. 26 - MARCH 1, 4 PM ET
NORTH MS PRCA RODEO CORINTH, MISS.	FEB. 27-28, 8 PM ET

"We are excited to partner with Texas Precious Metals in celebrating WPRA athletes and providing a truly valuable keepsake," stated Heidi Schmidt, WPRA President. "We are honored to have them join our team for the National Finals Breakaway Roping as well."

Texas Precious Metals was founded in 2011 with a simple mission: to provide real value in the precious metals market through fanatical customer service, low premiums, and superior speed. Based in South Texas, the company specializes in buying, selling, and securely storing physical gold and silver for clients across the country.

Over the years, Texas Precious Metals has expanded its lineup of commemorative bullion through partnerships with organizations such as the PRCA, UFC, and Texas A&M University. The partnership with the WPRA is a natural addition to its Pro Rodeo collection, celebrating the athletes and traditions that define the Western way of life.

"We are honored to partner with the WPRA and support the extraordinary women who embody the grit, discipline, and integrity of women's rodeo," stated Tarek Saab, Cofounder & CEO, Texas Precious Metals, "This partnership reflects our commitment to the Western lifestyle and to the athletes who carry it forward with strength and class."

Texas Precious Metals is also a presenting sponsor of the Cinch Playoffs Governor's Cup in Sioux Falls, S.D., the last weekend of WPRA's ProRodeo regular season.

Rodeo Live is back on February 28 for the Finals of the San Antonio Stock Show and Rodeo

We'll be on site in the Ultra Club by Michelob Courtyard, bringing you live coverage and expert analysis ahead of the final day of rodeo action. Coverage begins at 7:30 PM Eastern as our team breaks down the biggest storylines, highlights the top contenders, and shares who they believe has what it takes to walk away with a title.

Hosts Janie Johnson, Tim O'Connell, Sierra Spratt, and Luke Branquinho set the stage for the final performance at one of the most important rodeos of the year.

As a cornerstone of the Texas Swing, the San Antonio Stock Show and Rodeo brings together the best athletes in the sport, with more than $1.5 million on the line. What happens here can change the course of a season.

Can't be there in person? Watch live on the Cowboy Channel or stream on Cowboy Channel+ and YouTube.

HEADIN' FOR HOME

by Sherry Morrison // Triple M (Mike Morrison Ministries)

Isn't it interesting that we have so many interpretations of words and phrases in our world? What do you think of the phrase, "biker gang"? Oh, that can bring up all sorts of thoughts and opinions. How about "cowboy"? Or "dude"? How about "pansy"? You can see that they all have a positive and a negative meaning, depending on how they are used.

Here's a good one. "Christian". Depending on your belief system, this word can bring up thoughts of Jesus, hope, love, and peace. But to others, it can mean hypocrite, or a weak person.

What can we, as Christians, do to be sure that when others see us, they are reminded of the former. 2 Cor. 5:20 tells us that we are ambassadors for Christ. What does an ambassador do? They represent something.

So, if we are representing Jesus, we'd be more like Him every day. They'd see the love, hope and peace in us!

Oh, by the way. I saw an "e-biker" gang a few days ago. About 9 young guys, 13-15, I'd guess, riding their e-bikes on the bike path. They all had helmets on and were laughing and having a great time! It made me smile! I wanted to join them!

As Christians, let's see if we can get others to join us!

Mike and Sherry Morrison pastor "Church at the Barn" in Gillette, WY. They also travel to other areas ministering at barrel races, ranches, rodeos, churches and home Bible studies.
