Megan McLeod-Sprague & Seis Corona Dominate San Antonio Rodeo, Win $25,756

By Tanya Randall

Perennial contender Megan McLeod Sprague and her wicked gelding Seis Corona (“Jagger”) won first every single time they ran through the gate at the $188,572 San Antonio Rodeo, held February 6-22. They collected $25,756 at the second richest rodeo during the famed Texas Swing of winter building rodeos.

“I’m feeling pretty blessed,” said the Marsing, Idaho, barrel racer. “This is God’s work. It’s God’s timing. He’s given me the opportunity, and I’ve worked for it. I’ve had some things that have held me back in the past, but I have the opportunity to do it now. After 26 years of being a WPRA cardholder, I’m finally getting a chance to let it all hang out and that’s because of God. This is all in His time.”

Ironically, Megan’s big win came at the most challenging of setups for her and her extremely turny gelding. Both she and Jag prefer big outdoor or open patterns like Rodeo Houston. Megan hadn’t planned on using him in San Antonio instead opting to ride Cowboy Ta Fame (“Vice”) until Jag had excelled at the Fort Worth Rodeo, winning second.

“When he ran the way he did at Fort Worth, I thought, ‘Gosh, I have to give him a chance,’” said Megan.

They won the first round of their bracket in the tournament-

Seis Corona (“Jagger”) 15.3 h., 1,150 lbs.

BIT: Neil Merrill equal length purchase and shank with a small amount of gag, three piece smooth with a dog bone.

SADDLE: Tami Semas

SADDLE PAD: 5 Star

LEG GEAR: Polo wraps on all four

SHOEING: PLR on front, rims on rear

FEED: Total Equine

HAY: Alfalfa and Teff hay

SUPPLEMENTS: Injectable joint medications Legend and Adequan

ALTERNATIVE THERAPIES: Body work by her husband Buck Sprague plus Thumper massage unit, Sport Innovations, PEMF Therapy Blanket, G4orse Magnetx products. “We’re putting the time in on that horse. Buck has really decided himself to making that horse feel like a million bucks, and he really does feel like a million bucks.”

TRAINING/CONDITIONING REGIMEN: “I don’t ride him. I just pony him. He cannot walk. You know how they look coming down the alley. He does that bouncy thing coming out of his stall at 10 o’clock on a Tuesday morning! I have been trying to ride him more since his injury because I think the weight is good for him, but it’s hard to work on collection when his head is straight up in the air. He’s not easy that way. When he was in rehab down in Arizona, I learned about a band system (to help achieve collection when worked from the ground). I bought a band system and when I get home, I plan on putting him in the walker with that band system.”

style rodeo, where contestants advanced on total money won, with the fastest time of the rodeo, a 13.70. They followed it up with a 13.88 to win the second round. Knowing she was advancing to the semifinals, Megan opted to run Vice in the third round and clipped the first barrel due to the heaviness of the footing.

Following the first semifinals performance, the ground issues at San Antonio came to a head.

“I didn’t feel ground issues at all,” Megan said. Jag’s tight, wrappy-style kept on the firmer footing rather than the deep, trudging ground in the ruts. “The first two rounds, it never crossed my mind that the ground wasn’t great.”

Megan’s first run was immediately following the injury to Chelsea Moore’s Tres Socks (“Woodrow”), who ruptured his peroneus tertius, a supporting structure between the stifle and hock.

“I didn’t see what happened,” she said. “I saw her get off her horse and lead him out of the arena, but I had no idea what happened. I think that was a good thing because I would have panicked a little if I had!”

Although she felt Vice struggle and tip the barrel on her third run, it wasn’t until she watched the first semifinals that she became concerned, especially in regard to running Jag, who was making just his third rodeo since Reno last June due to injury.

“If there is anyone that doesn’t want to see a horse get hurt, it’s me,” she said. “I’ve been living it for months. My horse, nobody’s horse deserves to run on that. I wasn’t going to run Jag after watching that.”

The barrel racers took a stand and the committee and WPRA worked to improve conditions. Ricky Hibbler, who often works with Randy Spraggins, was brought in to help.

“Ricky Hibbler worked his magic,” she said. “It was unbelievable how much he changed the ground in two hours.”

Her husband, famed equine body worker Buck Sprague, had snuck down in the building to see the ground before Megan made her final decision on a horse.

“He called me when Ricky was working the ground and said this guy knows what he’s doing,” she explained. “You’re running Jag. He’s doing a great job. It might not be perfect but it’s going to be safe.”

“That really helped me because I was really upset. That was a huge discussion. We were all just going to trot through. We didn’t know what to do. When Buck called me and said, ‘You’re running Jag,’ it lit a fire in me that I didn’t know existed. It clearly worked.”

Megan and Jag won their semifinals performance with a 13.83 and went into Saturday night’s finals with a great chance at winning the rodeo. Brittany Pozzi Tonozzi and Wenda Johnson had $10,505 won and Megan was just $1 behind.

World Champion Kassie Mowry and Force The Goodbye were first out and posted a 13.75, Megan and Jag were second out and finished a whisker ahead in 13.74 to win the round and claim the title with the most money won.

“To think I’ve had this kind of success in pens that I didn’t think were Jag’s spots is pretty amazing,” said Megan.

A cowgirl from the cradle, Megan followed her mother Teri McLeod into the arena and later into WPRO leadership roles as circuit directors. In her early 20s, she had a good chance to make the National Finals Rodeo with RJ Primetime (“Pete”), who almost took her to a San Antonio title in 2009.

It wasn’t until Kyle Jack McIntyre called her in late 2021 that she’d have the horsepower and opportunity to give the NFR another go.

“Kyle Jack McIntyre called and told me, ‘There’s this bay Dash Ta Fame that you need to get your hands on,’” Megan recalled. “I wasn’t looking for a horse, but when Kyle calls and tells me that, I’m listening.”

Bred by leading barrel horse breeder Alan Woodbury, Jag, now 14, is by Dash Ta Fame out of Tell Em Bell, a Tres Seis daughter that helped Nikki (Steffes) Hansen qualify for the 2012 National Finals Rodeo. Megan Lewis purchased him as a 2-year-old and trained him. Judy Myllymaki and Luke and Heather Dunning had also put some time on the gelding.

“I watched some videos of him, and I liked him a lot,” said Megan. “He didn’t have a lot won, but he was just so talented. Megan did a great job with him even though his earnings may not have shown it.”

They spent January 2022 hitting barrels until they had an epiphany run at Dunn’s Arena in Arizona. “I thought to myself, ‘I’ve got to get to my spot. I don’t care if I run a 20. If I get to this spot around the backside of the second barrel, I’ll be OK!’ I won the jackpot by something phenomenal. That was the ah-ha moment for me. From that point forward, it’s been quite magical, honestly,” she said.

They finished 29th in the WPRO World Standings that year with $47,733. The following year they were 33rd with $45,285. Last year, Megan finished 23rd with $75,535 after losing Jag to injury at the Reno Rodeo.

After winning a round and placing in the aggregate at Reno, Jag came off the trailer so lame that Megan thought he’d broken his pelvis.

“It was devastating,” she said. “Looking back, I think he’d been hurt for a long time. We never did get an official diagnosis on his injury. We believe it was in his back, and it was so deep that no imaging could find it. There wasn’t a machine available to look that deep into his back. We believe it was a torn, strained or pulled muscle deep in his back. I think that had been happening for a long time.”

Although she tried Jag again at the Caldwell Night Rodeo in early August, Jag needed more time. She didn’t run him again until right before she left for the winter run in Texas.

“When I brought him back, I took him to a jackpot before I brought him to Texas," she explained. "I had to know if he could do it. I didn't know if he'd come off his rest okay. He kind of went out there and pony loped through it. I was like, 'Well, okay. If he doesn't come back, he doesn't owe me anything.'"

"When I got to Fort Worth, I got in the warmup pen the first night and a team roper rode by me and buzzed his rope, he grabbed his butt and took off as I was getting on. I almost didn't get on his back. The team roper was like, 'I'm so sorry! I didn't mean to do that!' Actually, that was the perfect thing to do, because he figured out he was at a rodeo. From that moment in time forward, he has not backed off!"

Megan, who is mom to 13-year-old Markie and 8-year-old Smokey, currently sits No. 1 in the World Standings with $47,717. Her next runs will be mid-March at Rodeo Houston.

Third Time's A Charm for Amy Stoltzfus & Sierra de Tres in Tucson Rodeo

By Tanya Randall

Amy Stoltzfus and Sierra de Tres (“Hepburn”) triumphantly conquered the 100th Annual Fiesta de los Vaqueros, held February 15-23 in Tucson, Arizona, in their 3rd attempt to compete at the rodeo.

“The first time I tried to enter Tucson, I didn’t get in,” said Stoltzfus. The rodeo is limited to 105 entries with the highest preferences given to last year’s and early 2025 season world standings leaders before dropping to circuit considerations. “The second time, I didn’t ride as good as I should. This time I just tried to stay very mindful in my runs, take things as they come instead of thinking too much ahead.”

The victory in the $27,500-added rodeo was worth $9,490. “I’m grateful for the opportunity to run at this kind of money,” said Stoltzfus. “I thought the ground was great. They’ve done a great job improving their ground over the past couple of years.”

Stoltzfus and her 12-year-old mare Hepburn were second in the first round and second in the short go on Sunday to win the aggregate.

“The first run I rode her like I was supposed to,” Stoltzfus said. “The second run, I knew the average pays good and I needed to get around them. I was going to do what I had to do to leave the barrels up.”

After successfully navigating the first barrel, Stoltzfus never changed hands for the second and third barrel. The off rein ride may have been “old school,” but it was effective on the extremely turny mare.

“I was actually going to get on another horse. She’s so turny.

THANKS: God and my husband Joe

I know I can hardly get her around the barrels two runs in a row. Megan Lewis and Fred Hunter help me some, and they were like, ‘Nope, you’re riding her!’”

Stoltzfus, the mother of four girls ages 19, 17, 5 and 4 with husband Joe, purchased Hepburn as a broodmare a week after losing a daughter Audrey at birth.

“I had saved up some maternity money,” she said. I called Megan (Lewis, whom she met while apprenticing with Judy Myllymaki) and said I wanted to buy a broodmare with this money. She had one in mind that she thought about buying herself. I wired the money for (Hepburn) a week after losing Audrey.”

Hepburn, a race-winning daughter of leading sire Tres Seis out of Startini, by Stoli, came from Chad Hart and Jody Nelson. They had the 4-year-old mare, who goes back to Denim N Diamonds, like the great barrel horse producer The Millenium Star, in foal to Freighttrain B.

“She was not a very good mother,” said Stoltzfus. “She tried to kill her baby. I actually had another mare that raised it.”

Not wanting to experience that again, Stoltzfus started riding the mare and trained her for barrels.

“She was just a natural,” she said.

Stoltzfus started running the mare at pro rodeos in 2021, and her reproductive contributions were limited to producing embryos. Hepburn currently has a 3-year-old by Furyofthewind and a 2-year-old by The Goodbye Lane and is expecting another by The Goodbye Lane any day now and a Chasin Misty in April.

A native of Pennsylvania, Stoltzfus splits her time between Beavertown in the Keystone State during the summers and Tonopah, Arizona, in the winter. She’s focused on the Turquoise Circuit Rodeos until she returns to Pennsylvania for her summer riding lessons and horse camps.

Sweetums N Salty

2019 Bay Mare, 15.2 hands

SIRE: TRAFFIC GUY - PE: $2 MILLION

Recently sired the Texarkana Showdown WINNER!

DAM: Splashy N Sassy (Dox Bueno Dinero)

Dam of 1D barrel horse, tie down money winner, youth rodeo money winners in goat tying, tie down, poles & barrels!

BROODMARE & RIDING SOUND ONLY.

This mare has been one of our favorites, she's been hauled a little in barrels and won over $3,000 in the tiedown but has an injury that keeps her from a performance career.

Sweetums is a big pretty mare, and she's as solid as they come.

She's very broke, very gentle. We've used her to halter break & round pen colts, our 16 year old son has won money in the tie down on her. She'd be a great ranch horse or trail riding horse, she's great to ride in the pasture.

*PRICE REDUCED!

Daughter of
TRAFFIC GUY

BROODMARE & RIDING HORSE FOR SALE

Sweetums has the look, mind and pedigree to raise some great colts, in any discipline!!

Nuttin Smoother

2017 Buckskin Mare, 14.2 hands

SIRE: A SMOOTH GUY, PE: $4 MILLION

DAM: By Bys Meter Maid (Dr Meter Reader SI 91)

Stakes Winning Race Family!

BROODMARE & RIDING SOUND ONLY.

We didn't plan on selling this mare, she is one of our favorites. Peanut is very broke, and easy to use.

Shes very quick and a catty. She's been breakaway roped on, our daughter hauled her as a 4 year old in the goat tying but she has injury that kept her from a performance career.

She'd be a great ranch horse or trail riding horse, she's great to ride in the pasture. She has a big smooth trot that really covers country!

She's a typical Smooth Guy, very gentle, very sweet but still has some punch! We've raised one A Streak Of Fling filly out of her, she bred easy, foaled easy and is an easy keeper. Her filly is just like her, easy to handle and gentle.

*PRICE REDUCED!

ProRodeo Hall of Famer Mel Potter Passes Away

Mel Potter, a 2022 ProRodeo Hall of Fame inductee, passed away on Feb. 22. He was 90.

Potter competed in the inaugural National Finals Rodeo in 1959 in Dallas and remained an active PRORODEO competitor as a team roping header as recently as 2017. At 75, he competed at the Great Lakes Circuit Finals in 2010.

Born in Wisconsin Rapids, Wis., before relocating to Arizona, Potter spent a decade (1964-73) as a stock contractor with Rodeos Inc. and served on the PRCA Board of Directors. Potter was named the 2015 Legend of ProRodeo for his contributions to the sport.

"Rodeo was his hobby but it was also his passion," Potter's daughter, Sherry Cervi, a world champion barrel racer, said. "He loved his horses and breeding. He was in the breeding business also and getting to see his horses that he had something to do with raising or breeding getting to run at the NFR, it really made him happy."

Potter began competing in the Rodeo Cowboys Association, now the PRCA, at 16 in 1951. His competition journey continued for more than six decades.

In addition to qualifying for the first NFR, Potter also won some big rodeos in his prime in tie-down roping, including the Calgary Stampede (1962), National Western Stock Show Rodeo in Denver (1959), Sandhills Stock Show & Rodeo in Odessa, Texas (1958), Helldorado Days Rodeo in Las Vegas (1957-58), and the Klamath Falls (Ore.) Great Northwest Rodeo (1957).

Potter competed in tie-down roping, steer wrestling, team roping and steer roping during his PRCA career. As a team roper, he has paired with cowboys like Bum Post, Bob Padilla, Eddie Schell and Dale Smith.

Potter and his wife, Wendy, operated the Potter Ranch in Marana, Ariz., with their middle daughter, Jo Lynn, and her husband, George Alexander. The ranch has produced some of the sport's top timed-event horses since 1973. Wendy competed in the NFR in barrel racing in 1970 and '72.

Potter also owned the Potter and Son cranberry marsh in Bancroft, Wisc., which has been in the family since his grandfather started the business in 1889. The marsh is part of the Ocean Spray co-op and his grandson Ryan is still involved in the business.

"I've had an interesting life, and it has been like an 80-year vacation," Potter told the PRORODEO Sports News in October of 2015. "Everything I've done I have enjoyed doing, and I have just had fun.

"I have a great family, and I've gotten to know so many great people. To me, the best thing in my whole life is all the people who I've met and become friends with. It's hard to believe it has happened this way for me."

Potter is survived by his wife Wendy, daughter and son-in-law Jo Lynn and George Alexander and their children Patsy, Roy and Ryan, daughter and son-in-law Sherry Cervi and PRCA World Champion Team Roping Heeler Cory Petska, and his grandchildren.

The funeral will be held at 11 a.m. (MT), Feb. 27 at the LDS Church in Mirana, Ariz. --Courtesy of ProRodeo.com

Tucson Rodeo Wraps up its 100th Year!

The Tucson Rodeo, also known as Fiesta de los Vaqueros, wrapped up its historic 100th year with a sold-out crowd and thrilling competitions Sunday.

More than 11,000 spectators filled the stands on the city's south side to witness the final day of events, marking one of the largest turnouts in the rodeo's history.

Since its inception in 1925, the Tucson Rodeo has been a symbol of the city's frontier spirit, originating during the Prohibition era as a way to celebrate Western heritage. A century later, it continues to captivate audiences with classic rodeo events.

The 101st Tucson Rodeo will return in 2026 the week of February 21.

HEADIN' FOR HOME

by Sherry Morrison // Triple M (Mike Morrison Ministries)

How about those Executive Orders that President Trump has been signing lately? Without exception, in my opinion, they are beneficial to the citizens of the U.S. America first! I get almost giddy when I hear of a new one. What a breath of fresh air. Someone who truly cares about us is working hard to improve our quality of life.

Ahhhhh, but let's not forget what God has done, is doing and will do for His children! Everything God does is for our benefit. Every instruction, every blessing, every correction is for us. AND, they will last our lifetime. They don't come every four years. They do not change and they are eternal!

Can you think of any God Executive Orders? Was walk in love one of the things you thought of? It was probably first. What about Heb. 10:25? Do not forsake the assembling of ourselves together, as is the manner of some. Are you going to church?

And then Mark 16:15. Are we going into all the world and telling others about Jesus? As we celebrate all President Trump is doing, it is not, nor will it ever be, as wonderful as what our very good God does for us daily!
