Speed Dial--Brazile and Dial It Fast victorious at San Antonio

By Tanya Randall

"Thank God for blessing me with this horse and this moment," stated a still stunned Shada Brazile of her horse Dial It Fast two days after her $16,866.25 victory at the $124,450 San Antonio Rodeo, held Feb. 7-23 at the AT&T Center.

The mother of two—Treston, 5, and Style, 2—and wife of all-around legend Trevor Brazile came from behind to win the championship, which was determined by money won, by a mere $163.75 over 2010 Wrangler National Finals Rodeo qualifier Sydni Blanchard and her super mare Pure Victory Dash.

From the very beginning Brazile, Decatur, Texas, was just happy to be there at the limited-entry rodeo.

"I was comfortable the whole time, knowing what a big opportunity it was to even be there and feeling blessed to have the opportunity to run at San Antonio," said Brazile, who is sponsored by Wrangler—she was in California for a photo shoot at the time of this interview--and Relentless brand products. "My horse was feeling good the whole time. He was real consistent. He ran strong. When someone hollered my name I thought they were mispronouncing Sydni's name. She made a really good runs in the finals. She stayed strong the whole time too. I just luckily edged her out."

The 50 contestants ran in five sets of three rounds with the top money winners from each set advancing to a two, two-go semi-finals. The top 10 making into the Finals were Blanchard, who had

Courtney Duncan and Ms Perky Bug set new world record at 16.5

By Julie Mankin

The time may have been announced in another language, but the outcome was the same – a new world record in barrel racing. It happened on Feb. 23 when a big, 9-year-old mare ridden by a 23-year-old American barrel racer in Brazil clocked a 16.586 on a standard WPRA pattern.

The race was part of the West Regional Championships held at Haras Rapheala in Porto Feliz, Sao Paulo. More than 1,300 fans attended the competition, which helped open the 5th Grand Prix Armand – the largest barrel race in Latin America.

"I am so thankful to God for this blessing," said rider Courtney Duncan. "It's only through Him that this was possible."

Duncan grew up in west Texas, where she learned to barrel race at 8 years old and was mentored primarily by Latricia Duke, who also has West-Texas roots.

"My high school rodeo horse that taught me what 'fast' feels like was Sugs Calico Dreamer, a Paint gelding that Latricia trained and took to futurities," said Duncan.

Duncan's father, Dale Rankin, once helped a pair of Brazilians named Paulo Dedemo and Fernando Costa buy a Paint racing stallion named Cherokee Indian. Then in 2007, when Courtney was in college at Texas Tech University (also her father's alma mater), her father arranged an internship for her on equine embryo transfer with his Brazilian friends.

Duncan lived with the Costa family for six months while studying embryo transfer at the Haras ZD Ranch owned by Dedemo. It wasn't all work and no play, however. Duncan also found time for barrel racing. She won the 2007 ABQM (Brazil's AQHA) National Finals on a Haras ZD mare named Bella Trouble.

Afterward, Costa decided to start a new barrel-racing reproduction and training facility, which he partnered on with Rankin. They established Rancho Colina Real, where they raise performance horses by Dashing Is Easy (standing currently at Vera Cruz SP Brazil) and Phoebe's Cartel.

In Brazilian, Colina Real means "real hill" and it's a beautiful barn with a state-of-the-art biotechnology lab situated in Vera Cruz, near São Paulo. When the Rankin family purchased Ms Perky Bug in

Sheza Go For Sure Passes in Canada

Leading barrel racing broodmare, Sheza Go For Sure, was euthanized on February 18 at the age of 28. Owned by Carole Lampron for the last 23 years of her life and bred by J E Callahan, Sheza Go For Sure was by Heza Go For Three and out of the Triple Chick mare, Blobby Chick. In 2011, she was ranked as the 17th Top Producing Broodmare by Equi-Stat and was one of the barrel broodmare royalty of Eastern Canada. Her barrel performers have earned over $175,000 and include, Sure Dash, Sure Down Dash, Wanta Be Famous, Hez On The Money, Sure Goes Down Easy, Sheza Hero, and Sheza Keep Her. Her legacy will continue on in her offspring.

BFA Highlights on WPRT

The 2012 BFA World Championship Highlights will be aired on WPRT on the RFD-TV Network! Sponsored by Future Fortunes, the 1st episode will air Wednesday, Feb. 27 at 8:30 pm Central Time. Repeats on Thursday at 10:30 AM, Sunday at 9:30 PM and Monday at 5:30 AM. Episode 2 will air the same starting on March 6th.

Future Fortunes Announces Sire's Slots

Sire's Slots in conjunction with BFA World Champion Futurity! In 2003, when Future Fortunes was just beginning, no one ever imagined what it would grow into. As we head into our 10 year Birthday Celebration, we wanted to do something very special. We have come up with it, SIRE'S SLOTS! We believe this race is going to be a phenomenal marketing tool for our Stallion Owners! SIRE'S SLOTS is for 2013 FF Stallions only. If a Stallion was deceased while enrolled in FF, his foals are still eligible as long as the Stallion Owner is still enrolled. Stallion Owner does not have to own the horse. Check is written to Stallion Owner. If Stallion Owner does not make nomination payment by February 15, 2013, the slot will be available on a first request basis to an Owner of Stallion's foal. Check will then be written to OWNER of horse at time of Slot race.

What is SIRE'S SLOTS?

- It is a side pot that will run in the two long goes at the BFA World Championship in 2013. With over 400 entries in the Juvenile and over 400 entries in the Open Futurity, this is the perfect event to host this race. A 5 year old Futurity horse can make this event their 1st competition run since it is after December 1st of their Futurity year or enter the Derby their 5 year old year.
- Each Stallion can choose 2 horses that are entered in the Juvenile and/or the Open that he has sired. 1st payment of $250 per horse must be paid by February 15, 2013 to be eligible. Horse must be named by October 15, 2013. If named horse is scratched from the race, another horse can be picked by December 1, 2013. Horse will go with whoever names the horse first.

• Payback will be determined by a 2 run average. Horses that run 4 tenths off rarely draw a paycheck - but run 4 tenths off both goes and it could win the average! This would be a great race to reward those good, consistent horses!

• Freshman Sire Incentive. If your Stallion has never had a horse compete in the race at the BFA World Championship, he would be considered a Freshman Sire. If a horse ran in Juvenile but not Open, then Stallion is still considered a Freshman Sire for Open and vice versa. This Bonus is paid to Stallion owner only. We are offering SIRE'S SLOTS for both the Juvenile and Open Futurities at the BFA World Championship. If the Stallion Owner buys the Slot, that Stallion Owner can decide what is paid to the Owner of the horse.

Call 405-365-7415 for your SIRE'S SLOT Invitation!

dominated the rodeo to that point with an arena record of 13.68 and $7,368.75 won in the rounds, Angie Meadors on Frenchmans Flirt, Lindsay Sears on Sugar Moon Express, Sabrina Ketchum on Swivel Ta Fame, Kelli Tolbert on RF Firefly, Fallon Taylor on Flos Heiress, Kaley Bass on Wonders Cowboy Dan, Brazile, Jean Winters and Crickets Peppy Zan, and Randa Kellogg and Zaks Okie Ree.

Brazile and Dial It Fast ("Big Boy" or "Dial It") were first out in the Finals and her husband gave her a pep talk before her run. She said, "He told me right before the short round that 'I've won here and I've lost here, and at the end of day we're okay. The only thing you'll regret is if you don't try your hardest.' Then he looked at me and said, 'And, your horse is good enough.' That just gave me a lot of confidence for him to come over and believe in me."

Brazile and Dial It, a 7-year-old gelding by Dashin Is Easy out of the Easy Jet mare, Dial It In, turned in the only sub 14-second run of the Finals to claim the championship. Incidentally, it was the second straight barrel racing title won by a horse trained by Laticia Duke, Millican, Texas. Last year, Angie Meadors won the title aboard Hesa Bug Leo, also trained and futurity'd by Duke.

Brazile owes Brittany Pozzi, who also has a World Championship with the Duke-trained Yeah Hes Firen, a debt of gratitude for pairing her with Dial It a little over a year ago. Pozzi was riding the gelding for Trip duPier and had him in the trailer with her when she stayed with the Brazile's for the Fort Worth rodeo.

"It was kind of one of those things that were meant to be," said Brazile. "I had lost two horses in two days last January the week before Brittany came to stay with us at our place. One got crippled out in the pasture and the other got salmonella. They were younger horses, but they were coming along really nice and I was ready to go on one of them. After that I was bummed a little bit, but at the same time I just had to trust that God had a plan.

"I didn't even want a horse at the time that Brittany had Dial It at our place. She told me about him and I said I didn't want to try anything right now. She went home and came back for the short round. She called me before she left and asked him if I wanted her to throw Dial It on the trailer and that I could just ride him at the house. I was like well, if you're going to bring him to me, I'll ride him, but I still wasn't really gung ho about it.

"I got on him and fell in love with him the first time I rode him around. I don't even think I loped the pattern; I just knew deep down inside this was my horse."

Brazile spent last year seasoning Dial It to rodeo life.

"We did a lot of seasoning last year," said Brazile, who qualified for the Calgary Stampede as the leader of the WPRA Tour Standings last year. "We had our ups and downs. It would be real good one week and bad the next. We worked through a lot. He was scared of bulls and things like that, the typical young horse stuff that you work through. I never lost faith in him."

Adding a barrel horse to Trevor Brazile's gold buckle express had/has its challenges though.

"He works three events and he normally likes one to two horses per event, especially the heading," she noted. "He made adjustments and let me throw a horse in the trailer. There were a few times that we had to have two rigs. Doing four events at a rodeo as a family is a lot. The last thing I wanted to do was do something that jeopardized his goals. He was very gracious and he made it all work. It takes a lot of help to get down the road with all the horses and kids."

Brazile got off to a slow start in January to due to an injury to Dial It's knee back in November.

"He cut his knee open—nothing major—but they take time to heal," she noted. "I hadn't run him in four months and the first place I took him to was Denver. We weren't so good there. It took us a few runs to get our timing back."

Brazile also made a headgear change, switching from a bonnet and Martha Josey Million Dollar Bit to a tiedown and Molly Powell Smooth Run.

At the first of February, Brazile and Dial It won the pro rodeo in Belton.

"He felt really good at Belton, but he felt amazing at (San) Angelo," she said. "We ran at the bottom of the ground and we got the first barrel and I just coasted him through and we still would have placed, but I got real excited after that because I figured out what I did. I didn't trust him going to the first barrel, so at San Antonio, going down the alleyway I just told myself to trust him that he was going to work."

That trust put her in the Top 15 in the World Standings.

2009 from trainer Lanita (Powers) Peirce through Bo Hill, the mare had already earned nearly $20,000 at futurities and derbies. The following year, "Perky" was sent to Brazil.

"I was still in college then, so Paulo Sergio Araujo competed on her and won $5,000 with a 17.259 on a standard pattern," said Duncan. "That's when we knew she could compete and win in Brazil." Upon Courtney's 2012 graduation from Texas Tech with a degree in Multidisciplinary Science Education, she and her husband, Joshua Duncan, moved to Brazil to train and compete for Rancho Colina Real.

"In September of 2011, I traveled to Brazil to run at a really big race," said Courtney. "It was my first time to ever compete on Ms Perky Bug. I told Fernando after we ran that I thought Perky could break the world record with a 16.5. I was sort of kidding then, because that time sounds so absurdly fast. But in the back of my mind, I really thought she could do it."

Back in December, Courtney had already clocked a 17.105 on Perky in an outdoor pen with deep ground. The same weekend, she'd also won a motorcycle by clocking a 17.245 to win a race with a 17.4.

On Feb. 23, she bested that by nearly a second.

"I barely remember anything about the run; it was so fast!" said Duncan. "Most of what I remember comes from watching videos of it. I knew Perky was running hard to first, and after we turned third, I thought, 'Phew, we made a clean run' and everything in between is a bit of a blur.

"As we ran home, I actually had my eyes shut tight because I was riding so hard. It was only after we passed the timer that I looked up and saw my time. When I saw the clock, I knew that Ms Perky Bug had outrun Nicole Aichele and Biankus French Girl's 16.643. As much as I hate to cry, I began bawling like a 2-year-old kid. I was truly overwhelmed by the goodness of God."

Duncan gives most of the credit for the record-breaking run to God and her "amazing family; loving and supportive husband; fantastic team at Rancho Colina Royal; and the truly magnificent Ms Perky Bug."

She's also quick to commend Peirce.

"Lanita trained and competed on most of Ms Wahini Bugs' offspring and every single one has done well," said Duncan. Indeed, seven or eight have been outstanding. Get of Ms Wahini Bug have earned more than $500,000 on the cloverleaf pattern, including Wahini Cash ($146,359), Famous Bugs ($49,844), and Ms Shoo Bugs ($48,069).

It was back when Peirce's then-husband, Marty Powers, was working for Ralph Shebester that the amazing maternal line fell into her hands. Shebester owned Bugs Alive In 75, and soon Lanita was managing the sire's talented daughter, Ms Wahini Bug, for Ralph's daughter, Mary Watkins. That relationship is still going strong after 27 years.

Ms Wahini Bug won on the track and on the barrels at futurities, derbies and rodeos once Lanita stepped aboard. And her own dam, Wahini, is one of the all-time leading dams of winning barrel horses, as well as a multiple ROM/AAA producer. Another of Wahini's get, Wahini Cash, took Lanita to more than $100,000 in rodeo earnings.

Peirce trains her horses with a method, but said Perky tended to straighten up just a little quicker leaving the turn than Wahini Cash, which is part of what makes the black mare so fast.

"She's a real eye-catcher, conformation-wise," said Perky's trainer. "She's very athletic and was doing awesome at 3 years old. When I started her, I lived across the road from Billy Etbauer and his wife, Holly, was like, 'Oh my gosh, that mare is unbelievable.' They had this big arena that was like two acres and the barrels were way off the fences.

"That mare just put herself in the right place," explained Peirce, who's remarried now and lives in Miami, Texas. "She reminded me of Wahini Bug – a full brother to Ms Wahini Bug – that was the best horse I ever rode probably. He had that same gift of judging; of being in the right place, and the arena didn't matter. He won second at Cheyenne with me, and outran them at Lincoln, Neb., with an 11.9. Not very many horses can do that. I'm pretty sure that mare, can, too."

This spring, Peirce is running a 5-year-old half-brother to Perky by Blazin Jetolena at the futurities. Later she also hopes to bring back from injury a full sister to Wahini Cash by Takin On The Cash. She has all of Mrs. Watkins' mares now, including 29-year-old Ms Wahini Bug, who seems finally to be done having babies.

Of course, Perky also carries the blood – and black color – of her sire, Dash For Perks – the decade's No. 2 sire of barrel horses to have earned more than $50,000. Thus, her other half-siblings include Mary Walkers World Champion Perculatin (Latte), Lady Perks (winner of nearly a quarter-million dollars in Canada and three-time champion at the Ponoka Stampede); IBRA champions and big-money earners Cash On Perks and Winning Perks; and Fancy Man Perks (who qualified PJ Burger for the NFR and earned another $40,000 at jackpots in 2008).

A video of the history-making run made by Ms Perky Bug and Courtney Duncan is available at: www.youtube.com/watch?v=qzu1OAF1wMQ.

UNOFFICIAL: Top 10 Fastest Times

Compiled by the Barrel Racing Report

When a barrel racer scorches 16.586 on a standard pattern, it is bound to get everyone remembering the fastest times they have seen or heard of. In an effort to keep some historical reference of those great runs we have put together an UNOFFICIAL List of the Top 10 All Time Standard Pattern Times to best of our knowledge and research.

Of course in barrel racing, since there is no one governing body and no one official traveling to verify patterns, we cannot declare these as official so they are unofficial. We like to use them as a way of remembering the history of barrel racing as we move forward. The conditions of barrel racing make it very difficult to keep any standardized records but we hope people will enjoy looking at these historically great runs.

Most of the runs are available on youtube.com and there is no arguing they are all great runs. We are researching a couple of other runs as well but if you know of a run that belongs on this list or have information, just email us at info@barrelracingreport.com and we will look into it. We hope that you will all help us keep a fun list to recognize some of the great runs in barrel racing history.

Next week, we will bring an Unofficial Top 10 Times on a Standard Pattern from Brazil with the help of a few friends in Brazil.

RESPONSE

for winning 2012 WPRA Rookie of the Year and finishing #23 in the world standings.

"I'm really liking Revitalize™! I've had my young horse out on the road with me on it and it's kept her from stressing so badly and going off her feed because of it. I know it works because almost every time I hauled her before, she would go off her feed. At the end of the season it even helped Fanny (Fantasia Fame) with this too.

I use the Cetyl M® Joint Action Cream for Horses on my horses' hocks, stifles, and pasterns every time before I run. I think it really helps to loosen them up if they've been standing around and are real tight or have been in the trailer for a long time. I also have my three main horses, including Fanny, on Cetyl M® granules for Horses and I think it has significantly reduced their maintenance." -Emily Efurd*

Walker banks almost $15K at San Angelo

By Julie Mankin

She often says that Latte just keeps getting better, and it's hard to argue with Mary Walker.

The defending world champion barrel racer rode Perculatin ("Latte") to sixth in the first round at San Angelo, Texas, then came back to win both the second and short rounds; thus nailing down the average title by nearly a half-second on three runs.

The hefty paycheck of $14,593 pushed her all the way to the top – just $152 from reclaiming the No. 1 spot in the world standings over Jane Melby, who won Denver and placed third at Fort Worth.

As for Walker, it's been a heckuva February. The only rodeo where she hasn't earned money was her virtual hometown rodeo, Fort Worth, and that fact makes her "so mad." Before raking in so much dough at San Angelo, she'd placed at San Antonio ($3,931), Jackson ($1,257), Kissimmee ($2,034), Okeechobee ($1,953), and Rapid City ($1,455).

That last win came aboard Walker's new backup horse, Tonto, which she bought from Shada Brazile after the NFR.

"I saw Shada run him at Kansas City and she placed there," said Walker. "She let me borrow him for a backup in Las Vegas, then let me bring him home and try him for a while. He's 13 and has a little age on him, but is in good shape and is just a neat little horse." Tonka is registered as Friscos Col George. The double-bred Gay Bar King gelding was raised and trained by Libby Eppenauer Swenson before Brazile bought him as a backup horse in the past year or so.

"He's much different than Latte – quicker and shorter," said Walker. "You better be on your toes to make sure you don't fall off. Hopefully he can help take some of the stress off Latte."

Indeed, Walker was planning to run Tonka while Latte gets a week off before RodeoHouston. In the meantime, she's also been sharing him with traveling partner Nikki Steffes. In fact, Nikki is the reason the duo ventured out to Rapid City.

"I thought I'd have an easy winter," said Walker. "But we went to Denver for 'Colorado versus the World,' then to Odessa, back to Denver, and snuck out to Rapid City, so I can mark that off my bucket list. It was 10 below and ice and snow."

Rapid City was a circuit rodeo for Steffes, a South Dakota native, so that's why they braved the cold. Later, they chose Florida over going to Tucson, which proved to be a good call when it snowed that week in Tucson.

"When Nikki got home from the Finals, she didn't have a horse," Mary explained. "The owner of Nilla chose not to continue their relationship, so she didn't have anything to ride. I said, 'You come to Texas and stay with me and we'll look for you something.' I've enjoyed having her down since the first of January. I'm pretty sure her new second address is ours."

Steffes runs Tonka when Walker doesn't need him, and is trying new horses in the meantime.

As for Latte, imagine what he can do with more rest. After all, 10 runs in a row in Las Vegas didn't even faze him.

"He could have made 10 more runs in a row," she said. "When we got home, he actually bucked and played. He did really well out there. He pulled a shoe in the fourth round, but my shoer happened to be flying in anyway, thank goodness, so away we went."

Incidentally, San Angelo is one of Walker's favorite rodeos even when she doesn't make enough money there to buy a nice car. For one thing, San Angelo doesn't turn anyone down, so some 231 girls were entered and got to make their first run in slack. Then the top 96 come back for the performances that make up the second round before a Saturday afternoon short round.

"My aunt lives not far from there and she and my cousin got to come," said Walker. "It was really fun; I hadn't seen them in a long time. We have so many friends at that rodeo. It's a circuit rodeo and the crowd is great – I think it was sold out almost every performance. It's just one of those rodeos where they treat you well and we had a good time."

Henry Gives Credit Where Credit Is Due

BRR: Tell us a little about your horse, his history and his approximate lifetime earnings.

Henry: I raised him from a baby. In fact, my daughter, Cami, gives the barn name to all my babies when they are born and obviously he was born on Saturday! I sold him as a 2 year old. Jen Conner had bought him but felt like he was too big and too much horse for her. When he was 3, I asked her if she would trade him back for another colt the same age and she did. I am very thankful to her for trading me back. She had him broke by Craig Brooks and he was trained for the barrels by Byron Forehand. I also felt like he was too big and powerful for me so I sent him to Brett Monroe to start the futurity year. I took him home from Brett a few weeks ago to do some slow work but had intentions of him still riding him in the futurities. I made a really good run on him the week before Unadilla so Brett told me that he thought I should try to run him myself. So I did!! I would like to thank Brett for all his help with him and encouragement. I would also like to thank Byron Forehand for helping me with him too. Appox. LTE $15,000

BRR: Tell us a little about your runs in the futurity and open.

Henry: Saturday has so much speed that he doesn't know how to use yet that I ride him very conservative. On the first run, I tried to bump him down going to the first but when he hit the draw reins he almost stopped and popped up. Then he slipped a little at the second. He still placed 6th in the First go. The Second go I was just hoping to make a smooth, clean run. I was shocked when I saw his time. I rolled my time over so it ended up winning the open and being the second fastest time of the whole weekend.

BRR: What are your plans for your horse for the rest of the year and beyond?

Henry: I am planning on running him at the Diamonds & Dirt Futurity and Ft. Smith. I really haven't planned anything past that.

Headin' For Home

by Mike Morrison
Triple M (Mike Morrison Ministries)

“Don't you know that things only get worse?” That negative statement was made by someone who should have known better because our words are powerful containers that carry either blessings or curses to us. Proverbs 18:21 tells us that death and life are in the power of the tongue.

In Matthew 12 we are warned that by our words we are justified and by our words we are condemned. We do get what we say so we must be extra careful of what comes out of our mouths. Jesus encourages us in John 16:24 to “ask and we will receive that our joy will be complete.”

Jesus came into the world and paid for the sins of mankind so that we might have eternal life and an “abundant” life here and now. (John 10:10) We should praise and thank God often for His great mercy and love in giving us this priceless gift. When we complain, we are being ungrateful for God's blessings.

Read 1 Thessalonians 5:16-18 which tells us to rejoice always, pray without ceasing and in everything to be thankful for this is the will of God for us in Jesus. Things might look bad for a time, but trust in God and He will work things out better than you can imagine. Just keep saying what God said in the Scriptures and you will have peace. God cannot lie so depend on His Word to bring you through.

“Many are all the afflictions of the righteous, but the Lord delivers him out of them all.” (Psalm 34:19) All glory and honor to God!!
