San Antonio Surprise for Angie Meadors and Heza Bug Leo

By Tanya Randall

"I'm still in disbelief," said multiple Wrangler National Finals Rodeo qualifier and newly crowned San Antonio Rodeo Champion Barrel Racer Angie Meadors. "It was awesome."

The victory at the San Antonio Rodeo, held Feb. 9-25 at the AT&T Center, was worth $18,340, and it moved her to 5th in the WPRA World Standings. Unlike other rodeos, San Antonio was held in a bracket-style format with each of the 50 contestants running in three-run sets. The four high-money earners in each set advanced to a two-run semifinals, with the top four advancing the lucrative finals. The purse was guaranteed at $131,000 and contestants paid no entry fees.

On finals' night, Meadors was walking down the tunnel to get ready for her run when she found out that her boyfriend Kolin VonAhn won the team roping.

"The night was already set," she said upon learning of VonAhn's victory. "I just want to go make a solid run and try to get a check. I wasn't even thinking about winning. I was just thinking about getting done and being able to go celebrate with him."

Although Bugs made what Meadors said was his worst first barrel check in the finals.

Bugs' owners Trip DuPerier and his daughter Callie, the 2010 WPRA Junior World Champion, were on hand for the victory. It was the first time that the DuPeriers had ever met Meadors in person.

"I was so happy I finally got to meet them," said Meadors, who is sponsored by Formula 707, Purina, Cowgirl Tuff and MGM Grand. "I finally got to put a face with the voice on the phone. That was the first time he'd ever watched me run Bugs in person, and I win their hometown rodeo. It was really cool too because Jana Bean was also running another horse of his, so he had two horses in the Finals."

Initially, Meadors had planned to run Mulberry Canyon Moon, because the mare had more experience in buildings than Bugs. However, the decision was made to take Mulberry to the reproductive center to get her embryo obligations fulfilled and out of the way.

"I really didn't know how Bugs would work," said Meadors. "I ran (Frenchmans) Jester my first run at San Antonio and ran Bugs the rest of the time. That pen worked really well for him. He got better and better with every run."

Meadors was also entered at San Angelo, a three-hour hike to the west, at the same time. She made her first two runs at San Antonio and then headed to San Angelo for barrel slack first thing in the morning. She returned to San Antonio that evening for her final run in her set.

"I was making the short at San Angelo, but somebody bumped

Hatch Sizzles To The Touch at La Fiesta de los Vaqueros

By Tanya Randall

WPRA Rookie Reiney Hatch had a lot to celebrate on the long road home to Ukiah, Calif., from the La Fiesta de los Vaqueros in Tucson, Ariz. The 19-year-old college sophomore left the storied event, held Feb. 18-26, with rodeo championship worth $7,740.

"It was a really good weekend," said Hatch, who made the all night drive home to be back in time for Monday morning classes at Mendocino College. She's a business management major and hopes to get her real estate licenses as well.

In Tucson, Hatch rode her 9-year-old gelding Sizzle To The Touch, whom she bought out of Louisiana as a 4-year-old.

"My first run, I was a little nervous," she said. "A lot of times in a big pen he'll really get to running too hard. Sometimes I'll get too much of a hold of him and he'll run by a barrel, but I rode him just like I should. That run gave me a lot of confidence.

"On my second run, his first two barrels were nice and I got behind him on the third barrel and he bowed out on me."

Before the short go, Hatch had a momentary panic when she discovered Sizzle missing a shoe. Luckily, she was able to get it replaced just in time.

"That made me a little nervous," said Hatch, who is sponsored by Morinda Care. "In the short go, he was running really hard for me with the crowd and noise. He turned his first and second better than any of his other runs. I got behind him on the third and he bowed out a couple of steps on the backside. It really cost us, but we still placed."

The victory has Hatch contemplating a run for WPRA Rookie of the Year, and with the spring run coming to her backyard, she may just have a chance. The 2010 California High School Rodeo Association Champion Barrel Racer filled two permits last year, so she could buy her card to be eligible for this season's rookie titles. Hatch grew up in a non-horse household, but her neighbors' horses proved too tempting.

"I started out riding English," she said. "When I was 8, we moved to a different barn and I started running barrels and roping." Veteran California barrel racer Cathy Vallergera has helped Hatch along the way.

"She's helped me since I was 12," Hatch said. "She trained my first barrel horse for me and I've been riding with her since then." Vallergera also helped Hatch finish out Sizzle.

Bred by Chester Kight, Sizzle is by Sizzle Six, a three-quarter brother to WPRA World Champion Sixth Vision, out of Double The Touch, by Touch of Joy. James Commander had the gelding loping the pattern when Hatch saw Sizzle advertised on the internet and had to have him.

Hatch will continue to rodeo as long as she can make it back for her college classes. So far, her professors have been really great to work with, she said.

"I had my math professor when I was in high school," she said. "She's followed me the whole time. She even had on her Facebook page how I did. I thought that was really cool."

Former Wrangler National Finals Rodeo qualifier Fallon Taylor also had a really cool experience in Tucson. She finished second in the average with a horse that was first getting broke to ride during last year's rodeo!

Flos Heïress ("Baby Flo") is one of two full sisters that Taylor is currently campaigning. Both are by World Champion sire Dr Nick Bar and out of Taylor's NFR star Flowers And Money, by On The Money Red. Baby Flo is a 6-year-old and Flos Nicknack ("Nicknack") is 8.

"She's been pretty incredible," Taylor said of Baby Flo. "I'm kind of partial to her because she is the youngest one."

The second-place finish was worth $5,628 of the $41,673 total purse. The La Fiesta de los Vaqueros committee generously added $19,350.

Taylor, who has a barrel horse training and brokering business in Whitesboro, Texas, had no choice but to turn to her two mares while her stallion Nicks Huachuca ("Chuck") recovered from a near-fatal injury. After the Odessa, Texas, rodeo in 2011, Chuck pulled the hard hoof capsule completely off his foot after catching his shoe on a wire fence.

"We're on the downhill side of his recovery," said Taylor, who is sponsored by Fame N Kane blinged apparel and accessories. "His foot has grown back and he's gained a lot of weight because everything isn't being metabolized to go to the foot anymore. He's doing really good, but there were a lot times I had to ask myself is he really going to be okay or am I doing this for me?"

Since she was entered in rodeos, Nicknack got thrown into the fray and Baby Flo had to learn a lot in a hurry.

"Both are equally nice," she said. "Baby Flo really likes the big outdoor pens. I'm going to the California rodeos with her because I think she will really like it. I want to keep her loving it."

In the big pen in Tucson, Baby Flo had her first experience with deep, heavy footing during the first round. She and Taylor were more than a half-second back with an 18.0. They got a performance for their second run and a little better footing helped them place in the round.

"I don't know how I made it back to the short round," said Taylor. "She was running with everything she had and we won the short. I didn't think it was possible to come from that far back to get second. I was very grateful though."

Taylor plans on running Nicknack at the Texas rodeos in March and saving Baby Flo for California. "She's never done anything but her job," she said of Baby Flo. "She's never done anything wrong. It is always touch and go though, because you're always wondering if this is too much too fast."

JULIE WHITECALFE

Tomboy Dancer
"Dolly"

Congratulations to our winner, JULIE WHITECALFE of Garrison, North Dakota!!! After speaking with Julie and her family, they have decided to use the Free Embryo Transfer on their mare TOMBOY DANCER. Julie is new to Royal Vista Southwest and we look forward to working with her and her fine mare this season.

When asked about their mare and future plans, Julie replied:

"Tomboy Dancer, affectionately known as Dolly, has been a member of our rodeo family since she was three. She started her career as a five yr old and never missed a summer being hauled until we retired her last fall at the age of seventeen. Dolly is an amazing athlete with a heart of gold and has personality for days. She loves to travel and always skips into the trailer as if to say 'Come on guys we're late!' She gives a 110% every time she enters the arena and even puffs up when she's made a good run. Dolly shines as a breakaway and heeling horse but is an outstanding hazing, goat tying, barrel horse as well. We have always wanted a baby out of Dolly but have never had the chance to make it happen. With this great opportunity we plan on breeding Dolly to PC Frenchmans Hayday aka Dinero, in hopes of our next super star."

HORSE: PT Nonstop Perks "Pink"

Bay Mare, 4 Years Old, 15.1 hands, 1100 lbs.

HORSE HISTORY: We raised her, we had her dam and we had the stud she was by, PT Perks. We actually raised him as well, Danny Kingins owned him, and he was out of the Plenty Tiny mare that our ranch (Plenty Tiny Ranch) is named after. Pink started out a little bit slow but the last couple months she has really put it together. We didn't have her entered in the slot race in OKC, but she won 3rd in the 2nd go of the Juvenile. She has been really consistent, has a good temperament and is pretty easy to ride for a 4 year old. She has tied up on us twice so we switched feed, but other than that she had been pretty easy. She has probably earned around 28-30k so far this year.

2012 PLANS: We are headed to the Diamonds & Dirt Futurity in Bryan, TX, then to Lewisburg, Ohio (IBRA Futurity), the BBR Finals, then Ft Smith. After that it will slow down a while until the fall when the Jud Little Futurity kicks off the fall futurities. We usually give them a few months in the summer to rest while we get the 3 year olds for the next year ready. We start exhibiting the 3 year olds after Ft. Smith. Our schedule really just depends on how she is doing.

THE RUNDOWN: TALMADGE GREEN

HORSE: I Know I Can 2 "I Know"

Gray Gelding, 4 Years Old, 15.1 hands, 1050 lbs.

HORSE HISTORY: Victory Farms bred him and raised him and I bought him at Kinder last year (2011). In July of 2011, Gerald & Paula Williams bought him from me. He is really still figuring out what his style is. Although he had only been on the clock once before, he placed at OKC. Then he barely caught a barrel to win the Double J Futurity (I Know did end up running the fastest time of the futurity). Overall, he has been to OKC, the Southern Rebel Futurity, Double J Futurity, LG Pro Classic, and the Southeastern Arena Futurity. He has pulled a check everywhere except in Kinder (LG Pro Classic). Going into Kinder I thought maybe I Know I Can 2 need a little more pocket, but that just threw him off. I have ridden quite a few On The Money Red's and they like to run a little straighter and with less pocket so I went back to that this weekend and he won it. He is a really, really easy laid back horse with lots of personality. The first barrel he has his own deal on, but on the second two barrels you could just hold the saddle horn and ride. It's so easy for him, you don't really feel like your running that fast of times, he just does it so easy. He has won between 7-8k so far his futurity year.

NOTE: His dam, De Streaker, is also the dam of one of the all-time leading barrel futurity horse's and multiple NFR round winner, Mulberry Canyon Moon.

ADDITIONAL HORSE CARE: None. My blacksmith, David Bush, shoes him with rims on front, flats with outside trailers on back. We shoe every 5 weeks, when it is colder it's every 6 weeks. Just shoe him flat and keep it simple. After they get older you can't fix them so just keep them flat.

WHAT QUALITIES DO ALL GOOD FUTURITY HORSES POSSESS? What I always try to do with the different bloodlines is to let them run the style they want so they can be successful. I have won money with On The Money Red horses, Dash Ta Fame's, Rare Jet's and other bloodlines. Each bloodline has a style that seems to fit them. I always try to watch other people and note what the bloodlines are. It helps me see what style each horse prefers so that I'm prepared when I have one with a similar pedigree. The biggest key behind my success is that it is easier to change my style to fit the colts rather than change the colts to fit my style.

For instance, this year I have what I think are 4 good colts out of different bloodlines with different styles. If I tried to make them all fit my own style I would only have 1 good colt instead of 4. I always say when it comes down to crunch time, you are going to do what's natural. I believe the same is true with the horses. So, if I allow the colts to do the barrels in the style that's natural they are going to be happier doing their job and will last longer. You can train them all you want but they are born with the mind to do it!

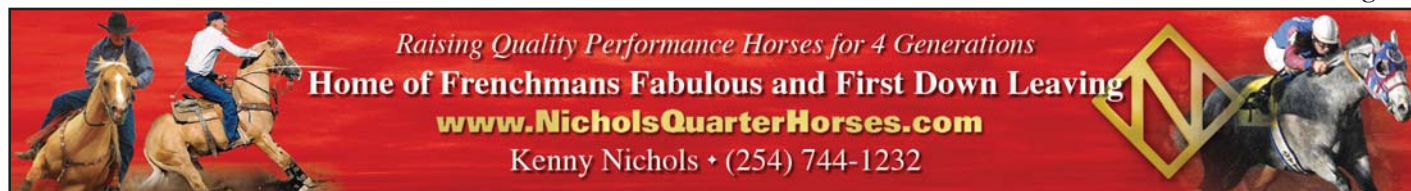

Anymore, I can look at a colts conformation and get close to guessing what style he will run. I just start them in the style I think that will fit them. I Know I Can 2 has a lower neck set so he has more of a four footed style where as a horse with a higher neck set might be a little stiffer and get on their back end more.

If I had to pick one quality that all the really good futurity horses I have ridden possess it'd be that they always had their mind on the job when we come down the alley. They are in my hands, they are focused, and that let's me focus on the job ahead of me.

If the horse is broke you can help yourself get out of trouble. If they aren't broke and you get in trouble you are just along for the ride! If they are broke whether at futurities and rodeos you can get yourself out of trouble and still place.

MAJOR LEAGUE PROTECTION

POWERED BY ZOOMBANG TECHNOLOGY

Introducing the Zone™ Series Pad

Made Exclusively by Classic Equine®

ZONE
SERIES

NOW THE TECHNOLOGY DEVELOPED TO PROTECT PRO ATHLETES IS AVAILABLE TO PROTECT YOUR HORSE

Zoombang is scientifically tested and proven to protect against impact injury. Zoombang is a patented polymer material that provides truly intelligent protection. At rest, Zoombang acts as a liquid to assure perfect fit and malleability. But on impact, it immediately transforms to a solid state, reacting proportionally to the energy applied. As a result, Zoombang only becomes as rigid as necessary to absorb and dissipate incoming shock.

Zoombang is widely used for its protection against injury in contact sports, law enforcement, and military applications. The NFL, NHL, MLB and NASCAR rely on Zoombang to protect elite athletes. Now equine athletes can benefit from the same protection. After all, they deserve it.

HOW ZOOMBANG™ WORKS

SOFT AT REST
ZOOMBANG is soft and fluid-like to the touch

REACTS TO IMPACT
Upon impact ZOOMBANG molecules stiffen and lock to a solid-like state providing maximum protection

SOFT AT REST
After impact, ZOOMBANG returns to its fluid-like state

Headin' For Home

by Mike Morrison
Triple M (Mike Morrison Ministries)

“What’s on your Bucket List?” You hear that question quite often now that the movie came out by that name. People joke around about the things they wanted to do before they “kick the bucket” but for many, they waited too long and it’s too late now to fulfill those dreams. Age, health, and responsibilities have come between them and their desires.

Maybe some of those dreams wouldn’t have been good if they had acted upon them. Keep in mind that God has a good plan for your life and if you follow His will, you’ll be fulfilled and happy even if it doesn’t appear glamorous or exciting.

Also, some people had to wait until children were grown or until retirement to do some of the things they always hoped to some day. One report said 64% of the greatest achievements in the world were accomplished by people over the age of 60. Walt Disney once said, “If you can dream it, you can do it.”

If God is in your plan, it will work, but without God, you can do nothing (John 15:5). With God all things are possible (Matthew 19:29). The Bible is full of miracles but they still happen today. In the early 1920s there was a racehorse named Humorist who won the English Derby but died shortly after that. An autopsy was done on the horse and it was learned that he had been born with only one lung! He should never have been able to race much less be a winner.

Ask God to help you know His will and then do it. Don’t limit yourself by limiting God. Joyce Meyer said she’d rather ask God for a whole lot and just get half of it than not ask for anything and get all of it! Ask God to help you be satisfied with who you are and where you are and He’ll do it. You can be happy no matter what if you have Jesus in your heart. Romans 8:31 says, “If God is for us who can be against us?” We win!
