A Youth Brigade Ties Up The American Semifinals at Dinosaur Classic in Glen Rose

By Tanya Randall

Top youth riders Dally Parker and Danielle Harmon tied things up at the American Semifinals Qualifier, held in conjunction with the Dinosaur Classic in Glen Rose, Texas. Parker and her super senior mount SR My Lucky Charm and Harmon with her young superstar Cashin On The Bayou (“Cajun”) each posted times of 14.881 to share the victory in the Qualifier and Saturday’s Open for $4,758 each.

Both young ladies have some strong mentors in their corners including Jolene Montgomery and Joy Wargo.

“Both Danielle and Dally are great kids with lots of try,” said Wargo, who has coached both girls. “They are both very focused and drive to be better horsemen and competitors. The girls are continually working hard to be better tomorrow than they are today. The sky is the limit for these two. I’m lucky to be able to help the girls when they need it.”

Having purchased Cajun from Wargo in 2012, Harmon leaned heavily on the Gainesville, Texas, trainer going into the Qualifier.

“Joy had (Cajun) the week before, because he was having some al-

Drawing from a past successful experience, Wargo got Harmon a little “mad” before her run.

“She tried to make me mad so I would ride more aggressive,” Harmon said. “I just tried to hit my marks and ride him like I was supposed to, and everything was good.”

Parker, who turns 12 on Friday, February 5, was nervous before her winning run.

“I tried qualifying last year and it didn’t work out real well,” she recalled. “This year I was a little bit more prepared and I worked a little bit harder for it. I was nervous because I knew this was the last one we were going to go to and I was just hoping that we’d qualify.

“I was really wasn’t focusing on being fast. I just wanted to qualify her. When she turned the third barrel clean and cut the clock off, I was just so excited. I just started crying. I didn’t know what to say.”

Balance, Timing, Rhythm - New BTR Barrel Saddle from Martin

The mechanics for making a barrel run are different for each horse and rider, and Martin Saddlery has a saddle for everyone. Their newest Barrel saddle, BTR, touts some truly innovative features that give the rider security without restriction in a streamlined package.

Some of the most intriguing new integrations are the "Short Twist" – an upgraded Hamley Twist that reduces the bulk under the rider's leg, and a patent pending SPRS (Stirrup Positioning Rig Slot) which keeps your feet forward like no other saddle. When you add a C-rig positioned to fit a wide variety of horses and keep the saddle in a more forward position and a flatter seat that lets the rider adjust quickly from the drop to acceleration, you get a saddle built for speed. The swell is secure, yet low-profile so it helps you keep your position without getting in your way. Available in a petite square skirt or a streamlined round skirt, BTR accommodates both horse and rider comfortably.

Martin Saddlery carefully crafts each saddle for uncompromising quality. Be sure to make the new BTR Barrel saddle your own in the saddle configurator at www.martinsaddlery.com.

RFD-TV's The American to feature Bullfighters Only

As part of its mission to showcase the world's best rodeo athletes, RFD-TV's The American, presented by Polaris Ranger, will feature the greatest freestyle bullfighters in the world during its televised $2 million event in Arlington, Texas, on Feb. 28.

Select stars from the new Bullfighters Only tour will perform for judges and fans during "the richest weekend in Western sports" – the PBR's Iron Cowboy and RFD-TV's The American, Feb. 27-28 at AT&T Stadium in Arlington, Texas. The BFO roster of competitors this season currently includes two-time PBR World Finals Bullfighter Cody Webster and five-time PRCA Bullfighter of the Year Dusty Tuckness.

"There's a remarkable amount of talent with the caliber athletes they have involved," said Randy Bernard, CEO of RFD-TV Events. "They don't stand down. It reminds me of the days of Miles Hare and Rob Smets. In my opinion, this will be the next major shining light in Western sports, and we're proud to bring it to The American."

During a competitive fight, the bullfighter has 60 seconds in which to impress judges with maneuvering style, control and level of difficulty. Meanwhile, the bull can earn up to 50 points for speed, aggression and intensity. The top fighters in the standings at season's end will qualify for the Bullfighters Only World Championship during the PBR World Finals in Las Vegas, Oct. 29 through Nov. 6, 2016.

"We are so excited to bring freestyle bullfighting back to rodeo fans, and to compete at the richest one-day rodeo in the world means that much more for our fans and our athletes," said Aaron Ferguson, founder of Bullfighters Only.

For more information or to buy tickets to the PBR Iron Cowboy or RFD-TV's The American in Dallas, visit americanrodeo.com or call 800-745-3000.

A Colorful Legacy - Making your Legacy a fashionable one

Since 1994, countless riders across numerous disciplines have counted on the Legacy System to help protect their Equine Athletes and keep them running their best. Legacy has been a part of many successes, from ropers to barrel racers and every sport in The Legacy System, by Classic Equine provides superior protection for the serious competitor.

Its patented design "cradles" the fetlock, drawing its inspiration from the horse's own support system, allowing for natural motion and support. The Legacy is breathable, lightweight, and flexible, mirroring the critical support systems of the fetlock, with added support to help safeguard against injury and strain. Classic Equine maintains their dedication to providing the best products that the customer wants. True to this expectation, new for 2016 they are proud to introduce the Legacy System in Zebra Colorburst, and also in Teal, to meet customer demand!

A Better Way To Keep Horses Cool

Anybody who has hauled and stalled horses has faced the same dilemma. The weather is hot and the horses need a breeze, but hanging that box fan in the stall poses no small problem.

Say goodbye to the baler twine and hello to a new innovation. Classic Equine introduces, new for 2016, a way to cool your horses that's as easy as hanging up a haybag. The Fan Bag fits a standard box fan and contains straps to easily and quickly mount it to any stall. It is made of tough nylon to stand up to abuse and will not inhibit airflow. Keeping horses cool is a breeze!

Classic Equine is committed to providing products that fit the equine enthusiast. To check out the new Designer Bags and accessories, or to see what else is new for 2016, visit www.classicequine.com.

Young Riders

Harmon, a freshman at Wylie High School in Abilene, Texas, started running barrels a few years ago after her friend and fellow barrel racer Hannah Hammond talked her into it.

"We were on vacation in Costa Rica and she was watching her videos on her iPad," said Harmon. "She said 'Maybe, you could give this a shot.' I thought it was a little scary looking because it looked like Hannah was going superfast on her horse. Then I kind of considered it, so we were talking to her trainer Sheila West and started taking lessons."

While Harmon's parents David and Cecilia didn't have horse backgrounds, Parker, on the other hand, had a leg up in that department with her parents Zack and Misty.

"I just saw all the professional barrel racers like Sherry Cervi and Charmayne James, and I just wanted to do it," said Parker, who is a homeschooled sixth grader in Pilot Point, Texas. "I love it. My mom used to rope when she was young and my dad used to ranch. We've always been involved with horses."

Horsepower

Cajun, a 2008 sorrel gelding, was purchased by Wargo as a yearling from Jud Little's Production Sale for $2,400. From one of the first foal crops of Bugemforcash (Cash Not Credit x Flyin Hi Babe x Bugs Alive In 75), Cajun was out of Sheza Bayou Gal, by Mr Record Maker. Sheza Bayou Gal was a top money earning futurity horse and later saw rodeo action with National Finals Rodeo qualifier Denise Adams.

Under Wargo's saddle, Cajun was a finalist at the 2011 BFA Juvenile Futurity, LG Pro Classic Futurity, Ecurie 5-55 Futurity and the Old Fort Days Futurity. He was in the Top 10 of the Junior Barrels at the 2012 AQHA World Show before being sold to Harmon at the end of the year.

Initially, Harmon seemed to have settled on another horse before trying and loving Cajun.

"I was used to a push-style horse," Harmon related. "I tried another horse that was that style but faster and I fell in love with him. Joy was like 'No, you need to try another one.' So I tried Cajun. I just fell in love with how quick he was. I had never ridden a horse that could move like that. I loved the way the rode around the pattern."

Harmon uses Cajun for her Region 3 High School Rodeos and the larger jackpots.

"He's a good horse and I wanted to save him for the big stuff," she said. "I only go to jackpots if I need a tune up."

Parker's mount Charm is decorated veteran of the sport. The 21-year-old mare was bred by renowned Colorado horsewoman Norma Seward of Wray, Colo. Charm is by the Easy Jet son Comprendre out of Norma Deck, by Rillito Deck. Most barrel racers learned of the Rillito Deck line through his son Lay A Patch, whose daughters have featured prominently in Mel Potter's broodmare band.

Kelly Conrado, who paired Parker with Charm, said the mare was one of the best barrel horses to come off of the Seward's ranch.

"Marci (Norma's daughter) won on her," Conrado said. "I won on her. I took her to Arizona for Marci as a 5-year-old. Bailey Bear-don won on her. Jenna Whitaker won on her. Paige (Conrado) won a bunch on her. Paige rode her for the first time when Marci let her use her at a CJRA rodeo when Paige was 10. Now Dally has won on her She's won first often, not just a check. Charm has made many dreams come true for many people."

He added, "I'm so proud for Dally to have accomplished her goal. Dally has put in a lot of work and Jolene Montgomery has done a world of good for her confidence."

Mindful of the mare's age, the Parkers save Charm for the bigger shows.

"We don't run her a lot," said Parker. "She hadn't been run in two months, since the last (American) Qualifier. She doesn't go to a whole lot of shows."

Parker said Charm gets exercised three days a week.

"To get her in shape, we just long trot her in the pasture," she said. "She doesn't get anything special. She just hangs out with all her buddies and is a horse."

SPECIAL CATALOG SALE

featuring Sons & Daughters

Welcome to Cowboy Country!

At Billings Livestock, we built our business on quality using horses! Good horses are made by good horsehands and we're proud to live and work in the heart of the west where horses continue to play a big part in our everyday lives - from ranching, rodeo, roping, to recreation!

We invite you to attend our big, February sale - it's three days chock full of better end horses! Watch the horses in our indoor preview Friday, Feb. 26 - we'll run barrels, show the cutters on cattle, preview the saddle horses, and - we'll have plenty of steers for the rope horses! We want you to buy with confidence - attend the previews, visit with the owners, and see just what the horses can do. At BLS, buy with confidence! We're the sale with the soundness and bred mare guarantee, too!

Head west - you'll like it out here! Get your plane tickets, haulers can be arranged! Please keep an eye on our website, we update it with horses daily and feel free to call us - we'll be glad to guide you! Come see us! Bill and Jann Parker

Headin' For Home

by Sherry Morrison
Triple M (Mike Morrison Ministries)

Life has a habit of moving on, whether we are ready for it or not. My friend's mom went home last week and my stepmom went home Sunday. Our dads are 94 and 90. This has been so hard on them. We were talking about how to help them and she said, "Old people just need a purpose."

In a FLASH, the Holy Spirit said to me, "RE purpose them!!!!!" ("Repurpose" is the new thing. You take something old and use it in another beautiful way!) I got all excited and told her we should write a book! But silly me! It's already been written. It's called the Bible!

2 Cor. 5:17 tells us that "if anyone is in Christ, he is a NEW CREATION; old things have passed away; behold, all things have become new."

In Jesus we become brand new people. We don't get old. We don't retire, we refire. When we do go home to be with our Lord, we merely switch addresses. We know of an old pastor who said, "We should live our lives with one foot in heaven and one on this earth. Then when it's time to go, we just shift our weight."

I am not saying that when those we love, leave, that it's easy peasy. I'm saying that, with God, it makes the transition smooth. He is our comforter. He never leaves us or forsakes us, Hebrews 13:5. I praise Him for that.

Mike and Sherry Morrison pastor "Church at the Barn" in Gillette, WY. They also travel to other areas ministering at barrel races, ranches, rodeos, churches and home Bible studies. Check out our schedule online. You can also download all Bible studies by visiting our website: m-m-m.org or contact us at: PO Box 2439, Gillette, WY. 82717, 307/685-2272.
