Dusky Lynn Hall and Chasin A Win Sweep Kinder Slot and Derby for $44K

By Julie Mankin

Dusky Hall has had to let her daughter Dusky Lynn's stirrups out lately, and at 12 years old, Dusky Lynn's interviews have her sounding less like a little girl. But the sixth grader just keeps winning – and this time on her very first futurity horse.

At the Equinety Kinder Cup on Jan. 27-31 in its new location in Perry, Georgia, Hall won almost $60,000 on three horses – the same two derby horses she had ridden to dominate the Put Up or Shut Up a week earlier in Unadilla – plus a brand-new filly that won't turn 4 until April.

"My dad joked, 'They're never going to let you come back to Georgia,'" said Dusky Lynn.

In Perry, Hall swept the Open Slot Race and Derby – plus shattered the arena record in Reeves Arena – on her tiny 6-year-old gelding Chasin A Win ("Spitfire" or "Spit" for short). Their 14.4 won the Open Slot race for $13,000, as well as the first round of the Derby, the first Open, and the High Rollers and Youth sidepots to rake in a one-run total of $25,795.

The pre-teen bested the likes of Brett Monroe, Ceri Ward and Jolene Montgomery. But she wasn't done. The little pair smoked an arena-record 14.271 in Round Two, which had Hall pumping her fist at the finish. It won that round, so she swept the Derby and won the average by four-tenths, worth $5,096, but also won that Open race plus the Big Spender, High Rollers and Youth sidepots for another $13,303. On Spit, Hall earned $44,194 not including incentive money.

"He's not even 14 hands tall, but he's really not that different to ride," said Hall. "He just really does it for me. He's just so nice and just, you know, Spit is just Spitters! I never doubt him. I know he can literally set the world on fire if he wants. He's already got like five arena records since May."

By the Chasin Firewater son Chasin Aces N Fame out of The Lion Queen by the High Brow Hickory son Highly Visible, Spit was always small, and that's why Jeanette Nelson called the Halls in April about Dusky Lynn running him for his owner.

"He is probably 13.3 hands," said Dusky Hall. "He's tiny and he needed a small jockey. But he'd won about $100,000 in Georgia with the girl who trained him when he was a futurity horse."

The first run Dusky Lynn made aboard the little sorrel was in Memphis, where he ran two near-arena-records back-to-back. Dusky immediately called the owner and told her she needed to buy the horse.

"Dusky Lynn thinks she can win the million on him at the American," said Dusky. "Their second race was at the Royal Crown inside the Lazy E where he outran Jarvis and slipped and fell and still clocked the fastest time of the event."

In Perry on her other derby horse, 8-year-old JH Firewater Honor ("Louie"), Hall ran a 14.8 and then a 14.7 to finish sixth in the Derby average for another $1,645 and fourth in the Hooey Jr. Patriot Qualifier. He earned roughly $3,000 in Breeder's Challenge money, as well. Louie is by Firewater on the rocks out of Packin Honor Jet by Packin Sixes. The Halls purchased the Chris Coffey-trained Louie last April, also, when Julie Murphy was winning on him at rodeos for Kristen Roby and Brandon Fortney.

"Dusky Lynn actually set an arena record on him when she was trying him," said her mother. "She's probably already won $250,000 on him. He's so consistent; he's really amazing."

Then there's Shyrley, the filly they've owned literally about 10 days. Dusky Lynn's good horses Wally and Dexter are 12 and 13, so her mother wanted to start a new fleet. She bought a futurity horse for her daughter named Tornado Lane and he was entered in the Georgia slot races, but he got sick at Hamilton. So, Dusky asked Bo Hill if she had any futurity horses ready, and boy did Hill. The filly is by Famous Bugs out of Disco Bling by Frenchmans Guy out of a Disco Jerry (TB)/Lady Bugs Moon mare.

"She's very easy to ride and that's why I liked her," said Dusky. "Bo trains with a one-handed style. We bought her on Wednesday, Dusky Lynn made one run on her Sunday and we left on Tuesday for Georgia."

Hall clocked a pair of pretty 15.0-second futurity runs on Shyrley, which placed them sixth in the Futurity Slot Race for $4,500 and eighth in the average of the Futurity for another $2,181.

"I was nervous because she's my first futurity horse, and I kind of sent her way past first at Unadilla," said Dusky Lynn. "But then I put Kinder Cup Barrel Racing Championship-Derby // Jan. 27-31, 2026, Perry, GA Derby Slot Race

Surprise Win For HP Epic Fame & Margo Crowther at Kinder Cup Futurity

By Tanya Randall

Winning on her daughter's horses is becoming a very successful venture for former National Finals Rodeo qualifier Margo Crowther of North Fort Myers, Florida.

She won the 2025 Southeastern Circuit Finals Rodeo on Saylor's Packin Fame ("Savvy"), who belongs to her youngest daughter Saylor since they were born an hour apart on the same day. Now, she's won the $30,000-added, 188-entry Kinder Cup Futurity, held January 27-31 in Perry, Georgia, aboard HP Epic Fame ("June") that belongs to her oldest daughter Stella.

"Stella's 13 and I thought it was best to get the mare a little more solid," said Crowther, who won $23,374--$15,083 in the futurity and $8,291 in open carryovers.

The Crowthers purchased June for $29,000 as a broke 2-year-old from Keyla Costa at the 2023 Ruby Buckle Sale in Guthrie, Oklahoma. June is by 6.8 million dollar sire Epic Leader and out of Highpoint Performance Horses' Chrome Plated Fame ("Johnnie"), by Dash Ta Fame.

Johnnie, who recently placed at the American Semifinals Qualifier in Buckeye, Arizona, and the National Western Pro Rodeo in Denver with Sherry Cervi, has career earnings of $265,977 per QData. She is a full sister to 2025 futurity standout HP Hotrod and AQHA World Champion Senior Barrel Horse Rockette Ta Fame, the granddam of Sabra O'Quinn's great Slicks Lil Amigo. All are out of the nearly $1.5 million dollar producer Rods Last Ladybug, by Sharp Rodney.

"We brought her home from Ruby Buckle and let her grow up a little," Crowther explained. "We sent her to Brandon and Emily Cullins for a little bit and then I got her back. It's really crazy, I've probably rode her 10 times in a year. She hasn't had much. She's just super natural."

Other than Stella riding June, the mare spent most of her time exercising in the Freestyle Horse Exerciser.

On her initial competition outing, June and Stella won the 2D Youth at a memorial race. Recently, Crowther was second in the second round of the futurity at Brandons Barrel Bash in Ocala. They were second overall in the Open out of 300 on their third run at the event.

"That was when I was like, 'OK! Wow! She kind of knows what she's doing!'" said Crowther. "It took her until the third day to really figure it out. And probably for me too, to have some expectations of her and not just sit there."

Brandon Purdue, who produced the event, told Crowther that she needed to go to the Kinder Cup. Crowther initially dismissed the idea because "she didn't want to go that far" not realizing it was in Perry this year instead of Kinder, Louisiana.

Initially, Crowther thought she'd just enter the slot futurity, roll her time to the first go of the Futurity and turn out of her second run to come home.

"Originally I thought this was going to be perfect," she said. "I really couldn't be gone and needed to be home for the weekend." When their first run was less than desired, Crowther opted to run in the first round of the futurity. Their 14.951 finished out of the money in 13th.

"She did okay," she said. "It was kind of exactly what she did at Brandon's. A lot of it was probably me too. Again, I've literally rode her 10 times."

Crowther also said June's style is also out of her comfort zone. "It's completely different," she said. "I wasn't confident on her." Their third run, which was the second round of the futurity, was a blistering 14.412 to win the round.

"I was last on the ground on my first run (in the futurity)," Crowther explained. "She wants to make a move on the backside, which I love and have worked really hard to make her do like Sissy (Shes Packin Fame, her NFR horse) and all my horses do. She tried to do that on the backside of the third on her second run and she slipped.

"My third run, she made the move leaving the third and that's where she made all her time. I was first out and her third was so quick."

Crowther stays very busy with her children—she and husband Casey also have a son Sawyer—and she tries to rodeo too, so June's futurity career is something she's undertaking on the fly.

"I think the best thing with her is to not have a plan," she laughed. "I'll go when it fits in my schedule. I think it would be fun to go to some of those bigger futurities. There's so much money to be won; it's hard not to go when you have one that can be a contender."

RR Money Maker Delivers for Austin Hodges in Kinder Cup Slot Futurity

By Tanya Randall

RR Money Maker carried Austin Hodges to a $20,000 Slot Futurity Championship at the Kinder Cup, held January 27-31 in Perry, Georgia.

As the second to last runners in a field of 35, Austin and “Fast Freddie” broke through the stranglehold of 14.9s to win the event in 14.768.

“The horse is really special,” said Austin. The 5-year-old RR Mistakelly gelding is out of his wife Merrill’s 2015 WPRA Junior World Champion Smoke More Money (“Silly”), a Paint mare by Smokenchicolena. To have this horse out of Merrill’s mare—to breed, raise, train him, everything in the book—it means a lot to us.”

Freddie, who won $21,744 after Freddie placed in the first round of the $30,000-added Futurity too, is one of several nice horses that Silly has produced including Merrill’s $100,000-plus earner She Wood Smoke U by Woodbridge and Holy Smokes, a JL Dash Ta Heaven that earned $25,000 before being sidelined by a suspensory injury.

Silly produced two foals by RR Mistakelly, a bay (Freddie) and a sorrel (Mista Money) born three days apart.

“We were still dating when they were born,” said Austin. He and Merrill wed three years ago. “She picked him and I picked the sorrel. The sorrel started out really nice, but then he got EPM. Freddie is the only one that hasn’t any problems that we’ve actually got to go on and do with.”

“Merrill did all the hard work and training on Freddie. Everything that he is, I’ve got to thank her for.”

Austin started hauling Freddie as a 3-year-old and shined at the futurity showcases—high stakes exhibitions that simulate an actual race environment but with no payout. Brett Monroe advised holding the gelding until he was a 5-year-old.

“Brett Monroe told me if I hold him over to a 5-year-old that he’d be pretty special,” Austin said. “He was clocking really nice as a 3-year-old, but I held him over. His brain got more developed and he started listening better. He’s probably one of the quickest-footed horses that I’ve ever stepped on.”

Freddie started off well placing tenth in the aggregate at the Jingle Bell Classic Futurity but then Austin started having trouble with the gelding’s second barrel. Thankfully, he had his dad, Jamie, a multiple futurity champion who actually won the LG Pro Classic Slot Consolation on KN Panellapie 10 years ago before the event became the Kinder Cup, for help.

“He started doing something behind the second barrel,” Austin explained. “We were in a little bind. My dad said he could fix it, to bring him to the house and let him stay for a few weeks. He stayed there with dad.”

At their next event, Brandon’s Barrel Bash in Ocala, Freddie won the second go of the futurity by 2/10ths and finished fourth in the aggregate.

Even though things were better, Jamie advised his son not to enter the slot race at the Kinder Cup.

“My dad said whatever you do, do not enter that horse in the slot race,” said Austin. “It wasn’t that he’s not capable, he didn’t need me to get amped up and he didn’t need to get amped up. We were

Then Austin called his grandpa, Kenny Hodges, the patriarch of the family’s aged event addiction. When Austin explained that the producers were allowing slot race competitors to keep their times for the first go of the futurity or run again, Kenny thought he should enter the slot race.

Austin even called family friend and past aged event champion Alan Fletcher, who was responsible for naming Fast Freddie after watching the gelding work, for reassurance. He too told Austin to enter.

“The whole time I’m entering this thing, my wife’s in the back-seat with my daughter, going, ‘We don’t really have the extra money. We don’t need to enter that thing’... I entered it anyways,” chuckled Austin.

His dad didn’t find out he was entered until Kenny spilled the beans, when he told his son he had to get home from church to watch the slot race because Austin was in it.

“Daddy said, ‘Do what?’ Kenny said, ‘He didn’t tell you.’ Daddy said, ‘The last I talked to him he wasn’t supposed to be in that thing!’” Austin laughed. “God blessed me and we won the thing!”

Austin wanted to thank Merrill, who is pregnant with the couple’s second child, for doing all the hard work with Freddie and making it possible for him to train horses after working alongside his father at the family’s plumbing company all day.

“If it wasn’t for her I wouldn’t be able to do half the stuff that I do, between work and riding these nags,” he said. “I’m super thankful for my wife.”

Kara Kreder & Buh Bye Baby Leave With Prairie Circuit Finals Rodeo Championship

By Tanya Randall

Kara Kreder and her talented young gelding Buh Bye Baby ("Batson") topped the Prairie Circuit Finals Rodeo, held January 30-31 in Pawhuska, Oklahoma. The win earned Kreder $9,199 and the right to represent the circuit alongside six-time year-end circuit champion Emily Beisel at the NFR Open in Colorado Springs this July.

Kreder, who currently lives in Decatur, Texas, and 6-year-old Batson won the opening round and finished second in the next to win the aggregate.

"The first run, I sent him a little too slow to the first, but it was on after that," she said. "He went in there and hit his spots. He runs so hard across the pen; he's got a big stride. He makes it so fun. I can run him one-handed a lot, which is nice."

Batson, who was bred by Cole and Marcie Wilson, is by The Goodbye Lane out of TS Famous Prospect, a daughter of Corona Prospect out of a Dash Ta Fame mare. Kreder got the gelding late in his third year from his owner Tammy McDonald of Bozeman, Montana. McDonald, whom she had purchased another horse from, tried to get her to buy Batson for months.

"He spent most of his 3-year-old year turned out on 200 acres in Montana," said Kreder. "She'd send me pictures and tell me to come get him; he's so bored. Later in the year, she sent me a message, saying 'Hey it's about to get cold here. What if I just send you this colt and you ride him. If you like him, I'll make you a really good deal on him.' The first day, I was like, 'This is such a neat horse.' He was so chill. I went to riding him and had ridden him a week and knew I had to have him. He's been a pleasure. He's not one time told me no even when I've put him in situations where he had every right to."

Kreder, a multiple International Finals Rodeo qualifier, held Batson until his fifth year with the original goal of going to some futurities, but when Blazin A Famous Lane, her indoor horse, was injured, she needed an honest horse for the buildings.

"He kind of got thrown to the wolves," she said. "I had qualified for the Women's (Rodeo World Championships) and the WCRA in Corpus (Christi) and few other things and I didn't really have another horse that was ready for the buildings. Batson, I knew was honest. If I ran him, I knew I wouldn't hit a barrel. I had no expectations. I just thought it would give him some experience, and he just stepped up to the plate and handled everything like an old pro."

Kreder was very appreciative of the efforts of the Prairie Circuit to host the Circuit Finals, which was originally scheduled for Mulvane, Kansas, in November, but was postponed due to the equine herpes virus outbreak.

"We only had 45 days for them to plan this and put it all together," she said. "The committees did a wonderful job. They had the ground really good there. It was even throughout. The first day the majority of us placed in the first drag and the second day the majority of us placed in the second drag."

Kreder said the biggest challenge was the weather with the lingering frigid temperatures.

"The only thing negative I can say about the weekend was we froze our tails off!" she laughed. "We rode our horses from the stalls with blankets on over our saddles. Thankfully the barn was TRAINING/CONDITIONING REGIMEN: "He doesn't need much work on the pattern. I might trot him or lope him through once a week. Mostly it's a lot of exercise. I galloped racehorses on the track when I was a broke college kid, and I always took that to heart how they would get them in shape: a lot of galloping, not short loping or trotting. I do like to gallop them out, a little faster than a lope, not a full-on breeze. I also ride in the pasture as much as I can.

heated. We'd warm up, run, pull saddles off and then put blankets on to back out in to the tundra. We survived it; it just makes you tougher."

Wrangler National Finals Rodeo inducted into Las Vegas Magazine Hall of Fame

Las Vegas is known as the entertainment capital of the world. When describing what makes Las Vegas great, one inevitably has to talk about a bit of everything: shows, attractions, restaurants, nightclubs, individual properties, the list goes on and on.

In that spirit, Las Vegas Magazine presented its 2026 Hall of Fame class which included the Wrangler National Finals Rodeo in the Sports category on Jan. 28 at Area 15 in The Portal.

The inductees also included Donny Osmond (Shows/Productions); Hoover Dam (The Great Outdoors); Atomic Liquor (Bars/Lounges); Shark Reef Aquarium (Attractions); Electric Daisy Carnival (Festivals); Stadium Swim (Dayclubs/Nightclubs); MGM Grand Garden Arena (Performance Venues); Bellagio (Properties/Resorts) and Benihana (Restaurants). This was Las Vegas Magazine's 7th annual Hall of Fame celebration.

Tracy Renck, PRCA's Manager of Communications and Media, was present for the event as were several members of the Las Vegas Events staff, including LVE President Tim Keener.

In 2025, the National Finals Rodeo celebrated its 40th year in Las Vegas at the Thomas & Mack Center.

The NFR took place in Oklahoma City, Okla., from 1965-84 and had a 20-year run of success in the Sooner State. Las Vegas courted the PRCA to move its biggest event to Sin City.

The PRCA took a chance and appealed to athletes with bigger payouts. Now, 40 years later, payouts have only increased and more and more cowboys and cowgirls have etched their names in PRORODEO history.

Once the PRCA Board approved the move to Vegas, the PRCA hit the ground running to organize the first NFR in Las Vegas in 1985 at the Thomas & Mack Center with the help of Las Vegas Events. And as they say, the rest is history.

The NFR has 379 consecutive sellouts at the Thomas & Mack Center and the total

HEADIN' FOR HOME

by Sherry Morrison // Triple M (Mike Morrison Ministries)

And by Mike. . . .again! LOL! Okay. Have you and I ever felt like doing the right thing has profited us nothing, while it looks like the evil are getting rich? Of course we have.

But let's see what God has to say about it. Psalm 37:1-3 in part tells us, "Do not fret because of evildoers, nor be envious of the workers of iniquity. For they shall soon be cut down like the grass, and wither as the green herb. Trust in the Lord and do good!"

So, as Christians, we need to know this. And this is from Mike's message. "Life is a judged event. The Lion's return is a timed event." If we rodeo, we know what that means.

Our heavenly Father is a just judge. No one is going to get away with anything. He sees it all. And the Father knows when Jesus is coming and it will be right on time! We'll be ready, right? We'll be looking for Him. Our reward will be great! Live well, knowing that we are doing the right thing, at the right time, with the right people!
