Winter Forecast

*Big building rodeos are going full guns;
here's what could happen.*

By Julie Mankin

Want to know something scary (in a good way)? Mary Walker had the best winter building run of anyone in the WPRA last year – and she had only earned $5,301 at this exact same time last year. This time around, she's already raked in $17,211 and is literally spanking the rodeo industry by almost five figures. Sherry, bar the door. Seriously, with a look back it's easy to see that having a good winter is crucial to a world-title dream. It's not essential, as Michele McLeod and Christy Loflin proved last year. But it's a big deal. In 2013, three other cowgirls had great winters in which they banked more than $20,000 each. It might surprise you to know that second-best went to Lisa Lockhart, who never enters enough rodeos during the remainder of the year to capitalize. Then there was Taylor Jacob, who rode her winter high all the way to her first Finals. And of course, there was Sherry Cervi, who used a $20,000-plus winter to help her win a fourth world title.

Here's another indicator of the significance of the winter run. Last year at this exact point, only five of the eventual 2013 NFR qualifiers were even in the top 20. However, by late March when all the dust had settled and the coliseums went back to hosting ball games, 10 of the eventual top 15 were in place.

But here's a glitch, too – nearly all of the gals who placed deep at Odessa and Denver did not make the 2013 NFR. Same story at Rapid City last year and Jackson, Miss., too, where only the first-place winners seemed to go on to the bright lights of Vegas. So what's new for 2014? For starters, RodeoHouston is sanctioned. As an open rodeo last year, Houston crowned Nancy Hunter the champion and paid her $53,000. If it had been sanctioned then like it is now, Hunter would have entered the NFR in 12th place – just ahead of Jean Winters – with $74,717 in season earnings. Then again, second-place Cervi would have been able to count her $29,900, too.

That leads us to the question...who is eligible to enter rodeos like this, anyway? As Fort Worth and Rapid City get ready to wrap up, here is the breakdown on the limits and dinero up this winter. Which qualifications do you think are most fair?

• Odessa (Jan. 3-11) added $8,000 and accepted all card- and permit-holders. Winner Christy Loflin earned $4,813 this year.

• Denver (Jan. 16-26) added $35,250 and was limited to 108 girls (20 from the 2013 Mountain States Circuit standings; 12 from the 2013 WPRA Tour standings; 11 from the 2014 standings on Dec.

9; and 65 from the 2013 standings). Mary Walker earned $7,906 this year.

• Fort Worth (Jan. 24 – Feb. 8) adds $30,000 and is limited to 210 girls (17 from the Jan. 1 standings, 151 from the 2013 standings, 4 from the Jan. 1 Texas Circuit standings, and 38 from the 2013 Texas Circuit standings). Taylor Jacob earned $14,976 last year.

• Rapid City (Feb. 4) Champions' Challenge adds $16,000; invites 10 girls and pays five places with first place earning $5,440. Monies count toward the world standings.

Rapid City (Feb. 1-8) adds $10,000 and accepts card-holders only with no limit. Britany Fleck earned $4,850 last year.

Jackson (Feb. 6-12) adds $10,000 and accepts all permit- and card-holders. Taylor Jacob earned $6,286 last year.

• San Antonio (Feb. 6-22) adds $150,000, charges no entry fee, and is also a Wrangler Tour rodeo. Fifty girls can enter (5 from the Jan. 14 standings; 43 from the 2013 standings and 2 from the 2013 WPRA Tour standings). Shada Brazile earned $16,866 last year.

• San Angelo (Feb. 14-28) adds $20,000 and is also a WPRA Tour rodeo. Anyone with a card or permit can enter and run in slack Feb. 10, after which 120 make the performances. Fun note – they drag after every 5 in slack with big drags every 50. Mary Walker earned $14,592 last year.

• Tucson (Feb. 17-23) adds $20,000. Eighty girls can enter (64 from the 2013 world standings and 16 from the 2013 Turquoise Circuit standings). Cindy Smith earned $9,014 last year. Scottsdale (Feb. 27) adds $16,000 to its separate Champions' Challenge, in which 10 girls are invited and the winner earns $5,440, which counts toward the world standings. The race pays five places

Rancher Relief at Black Hills Stock Show

Rancher relief is the central theme for several events at this week's Black Hills Stock Show Rodeo in Rapid City, S.D., at the Rushmore Plaza Civic Center and James Kjerstad Event Center. Livestock auctions, concerts, a rifle raffle, and a dance highlight the rancher relief effort at the 56th annual stock show. "The Stock Show is not possible without the ranchers," Black Hills Stock Show marketing and livestock coordinator Kadee Hande told the Black Hills Pioneer. "We're doing everything in our efforts to help." All proceeds are earmarked for the South Dakota Ranch Relief Fund. The South Dakota Stockgrowers Association, South Dakota Cattle-men's Association, and South Dakota Sheepgrowers Association established the relief fund to provide support and relief assistance to the agriculture industry after winter storm Atlas devastated the area last Oct. 4-7, 2014. --Courtesy of www.prorodeo.com

ProRodeoLive.com, the radio and Internet broadcast partner of the PRCA, is about to begin another busy season of live rodeo coverage.

ProRodeoLive's Steve Kenyon will be in Rapid City, S.D., Feb. 4 broadcasting the first Wrangler Champions Challenge, presented by Justin Boots, of 2014, and ProRodeoLive will be visiting the Fort Worth Stock Show and Rodeo Feb. 6-8, providing complete live coverage of the rodeo's final six performances.

February 18-22 ProRodeoLive will broadcast the semifinals and championship round of the PRCA's nine-time Large Indoor Rodeo of the Year from San Antonio, Texas.

ProRodeoLive.com is entering its seventh year of producing fully live radio/Internet play-by-play style broadcasts of professional rodeo's biggest events, including the Ram National Circuit Finals Rodeo, the Cheyenne (Wyo.) Frontier Days, the Pendleton (Ore.) Round-Up and the Wrangler National Finals Rodeo in Las Vegas. --Courtesy of www.prorodeo.com

Wrangler Million Tollar Tour Schedule

The 2014 Wrangler Million Dollar Tour, presented by Justin Boots, schedule has been released, and includes 19 top rodeos, which start this month in San Antonio, Texas, and run through August. These same 19 rodeos combined to pay out a total of $6,745,804 in 2013.

and there is no entry fee.

• Austin (March 2-16) adds $30,000 and is also a Wrangler Tour rodeo. Fifty-six girls can enter (9 from the Jan. 31 world standings; 36 from the 2013 standings; 3 from the Jan. 31 Texas Circuit standings and 8 from the 2013 Texas Circuit standings). Carlee Pierce earned $8,783 last year.

• Houston (March 4-23) adds $200,000 and the entry fees are $500 – but the committee generously pays them. Forty girls can enter Houston. They unofficially will include the past four Houston champs (Sherry Cervi, Jody Sheffield, Lindsay Sears and Nancy Hunter); the defending Canadian champ (Lisa Lockhart); the defending Colorado Springs champ (Michele McLeod); the defending San Angelo champ (Mary Walker); the defending All American champ (Victoria Williams); the top three from the Dec. 1 standings (Pam Capper, Fallon Taylor and Brittany Pozzi); and the remainder will include girls down to 38th in the 2013 standings if the committee doesn't extend a handful of special invitations.

There are plenty of other great rodeos in Florida and Texas this winter, and Michele McLeod has been taking advantage already, having crept into second in the world standings while placing at five small Texas rodeos. Victoria Williams, too, snuck over to Florida and capitalized on the momentum she brought in from her big $12,000 win last fall at the All American Finals. There are plenty of fresh faces gunning for big money, from Cheyenne Kelly to Samantha Lyne and former NFR barrel racer Shelley Morgan -- but they'll have to get through the likes of Cervi, Lockhart and Jacob first. Game on!

Headin' For Home

by Sherry Morrison
Triple M (Mike Morrison Ministries)

We were down in the arena the other day and Mike was fixing a bridle for me. HE ABSOLUTELY WILL NOT MULTI-TASK! (And all the men said, "Amen?!").

I was standing right next to him just a visitin' away and I reached out and picked up our arena cat! I honestly do not know what the heck happened but with the speed of lightning, she spun around in my arms and fastened her claws into the wrinkles on my face!!! Yeeecooow!

Now.....can you picture this?! Here I am STANDING NOT 4 INCHES from Mike with a cat hanging from my head making little girl noises and trying really hard not to fling the cat off me! (It's a really natural thing to want to DROP the cat, but her claws are really sunk in deep!) My eyes are batting and I'm taking deep breaths furiously thinking how I'm going to get her off!!! Mike is focused on the bridle.....oblivious to what's going on RIGHT NEXT TO HIM! I finally ease her up and she came unhooked....oh the urge to drop kick her the length of the arena! I'm blotting blood off my face and FINALLY Mike looks up, his job successfully complete and says, "Wow, bet that hurt!"....oh the urge to drop kick him the length of the arena!

Okay, so what does this have to do with our VERY GOOD GOD! It occurred to me that Mike was NOT an ever present help in my time of need!! But that is not the way God is. In Psalm 46:1 it says, "God is our refuge and strength, mighty and impenetrable to temptation, a very present and well-proved help in trouble." Amplified Bible.

Though this is not a serious event by any means, I want you to know that no matter what you are going through, GOD WILL NEVER LET YOU DOWN! He's always there, closer than you think. Nothing is too difficult for Him and you ALWAYS have His attention! Enjoy Him!

Mike Morrison and his wife Sherry are ordained ministers in their own nondenominational church in Gillette, WY. They also travel widely as circuit riders ministering over a large area of the western states.
