$50,000 Payday For Lanita Peirce and Famous Wahini at Kinder Cup Slot Race

By Tanya Randall

Everyone wants to talk about 43-year-old Shakira and 50-year-old J-Lo's half-time performance at the Super Bowl, but what about Lanita Peirce, who has a score of years on the pop stars, outrunning the field at the Kinder Cup Slot Race to win $50,000 on Famous Wahini?

"No one has asked me my age!" chuckled the past aged event champion and former National Finals Rodeo qualifier.

Peirce wasn't originally entered in the Kinder Cup Slot Race, held on February 1 in Louisiana. After she and Famous Wahini ("Lexi") placed fifth in the first round of the BFA Futurity with a 14.457, her good friend Bo Hill talked her into entering.

"Bo (Hill) is like, 'You have a nice mare. You just need to do it!'" she recalled. "I had only been in the one (slot race) in Oklahoma City. I thought I'm too old to ride with those guys and those kids. She's like, 'No, you're not. Just do it. I would if I had her.' I said, 'Ok, I'll enter her and you ride her!' She wouldn't do it so I had to ride her! It turned out great!"

Peirce drew Lucky No. 7—which incidentally had won her $500 the night before in the Coushatta Casino—so she took it as a good sign. They posted a victorious 14.232.

"She worked great," she said. "She got deep on the first barrel on my first run but I kind of let her go from too far back. She couldn't see the first barrel. In the slot race, I kind of held her until she could see because she can be going fast in just two jumps. It works and she had a lot better first barrel. I couldn't have asked her to work better."

Lexi's owner Mary Watkins, who has kept her horses with Peirce since 1985, was watching the webcast and saw her horse win.

"That's the first time she's ever really watched a webcast," Peirce said. "She was thrilled to death. I just want to thank my owner. She's stayed with me through thick and thin for 35 years!"

Many of the great horses that Peirce has made for Watkins started back 35 years ago with the foaling of the blue hen barrel horse producer Ms Wahini Bug. By Watkin's father Ralph Shebester's great stallion Bugs Alive In 75, Miss Wahini Bug was out of Wahini, by Nativo (TB).

An aged event finalist herself, Ms Wahini Bug would produce earners of more than $330,000 before Equi-Stat started tracking rodeo money. Along with leading sire Famous Bugs, one of her greatest money earners was Wahini Cash, a gelded son of Takin On The Cash, who ran out nearly $150,000 before rodeo records were kept.

Lexi, a daughter of Dash Ta Fame, is out of Wahini Cash's full sister Take The Cash Bug, one of Ms Wahini Bug's last daughters.

Unlike her brother, who ran until his untimely death to an infection in 2011, Take The Cash Bug had a short career due to an injury as a baby. The muscles in her hindquarters had healed incorrectly which left her with an altered stride.

"She didn't travel quite right but she was so fast I kept riding her," Peirce said. "For two years I took her off and on. She'd win something and then run over a barrel. I qualified for the world show twice on her but never got to go. I qualified for the circuit finals on her, won the first round and then tipped the second go. She won second in a round at the BBR Futurity. She just wouldn't stay sound.

"I finally took her to Dr. (Marvin) Beeman in Littleton, Colorado, and he watched for probably an hour in different dirt, sand, gravel, blacktop. He said I think this is it. He had me feel of that of muscle and it felt like fingers. It just won't let her get that leg up underneath her where she wants it. She's not lame but she can't use it like she wants to. She was very talented. If it hadn't been for that I think she would have been really something special."

It was Hill's husband Jeff Switzer that suggested she breed the

San Antonio Stock Show & Rodeo adds new twists

The San Antonio Stock Show & Rodeo was established in 1949 and has become one of the most prestigious stops on the ProRodeo circuit.

It won the PRCA's Large Indoor Rodeo of the Year 14 times in a row from 2005-18.

The 2020 Stock Show & Rodeo, which runs Feb. 6-23 at the AT&T Center, will have a new wrinkle with a Rodeo Wildcard on Feb. 21, adding an additional performance to the rodeo (totaling 22 PRCA Rodeo performances) at the AT&T Center.

The San Antonio Stock Show & Rodeo will be aired live on The Cowboy Channel beginning with the third performance Feb. 8 and running through the finals. Check out TheCowboyChannel.com for the complete schedule.

The top 10 winners from the San Antonio Stock Show & Rodeo Qualifier – another new wrinkle – in steer wrestling, team roping, tie-down roping and barrel racing will compete for a coveted spot in the San Antonio Rodeo finals.

The roughstock cowboys from the semifinals who do not qualify for the finals will have one last chance to get into the finals in bareback riding, saddle bronc riding and bull riding through the wildcard performance.

The contestants with the fastest times in the timed events and top scores in the roughstock events will qualify for the Feb. 23 finals. There will be 11 contestants in each event in the finals.

"The San Antonio rodeo is one of the best we go to all year," tie-down roper Shane Hanchey said. "Yes, it is limited, but it also adds over $1 million, and with the format it has, I think that's the only way for that format to work, by adding the kind of money they are adding at San Antonio."

A year ago, Hanchey won the San Antonio Stock Show & Rodeo for the first time. Hanchey won the final round with a 7.2-second time, earning $15,000 for the run and an event-best $23,500 for the rodeo.

"San Antonio is one of those rodeos you put on your bucket list," Hanchey said. "It's right there with Houston, Cheyenne and Pendleton. It is such a prestigious rodeo. You know when someone is wearing a San Antonio buckle because you can spot it from a mile away. I'm anxious to go defend my title, and every year it seems like it gets bigger and bigger."

Steer wrestler Tyler Waguespack, who also won San Antonio last year, agreed with Hanchey.

"San Antonio is probably my favorite rodeo out of all of them to go to because you get multiple opportunities to win money and the committee and hospitality take care of you tremendously," Waguespack said. "It is one of the rodeos throughout the year that I try and get my parents and family to come and watch because of the great performance they put on there."

The rodeo qualifiers, which will be held at the Expo Hall, will take place Feb. 12 for steer wrestling, Feb. 13 for tie-down roping and Feb. 16 for team roping. The winners of those qualifiers will head to the PRCA Wildcard, Feb. 21 with an opportunity to make it to the San Antonio finals.

"I'm a fan that they are introducing a qualifier at a rodeo as big as San Antonio is," Hanchey said.

Waguespack likes the idea of more contestants in San Antonio.

"I wish they would open it up to even more people," Waguespack said. "I know San Antonio is a prestige deal and they have certain qualifications to get you in, but I think it is such a great rodeo that it would be outstanding if they could open it up to even more people. Anything that gives guys opportunities to compete I'm for."

The San Antonio Stock Show & Rodeo has become one of the largest and most prestigious single events in the city, with more than 1.9 million visitors entering the grounds each year.

The success of the organization is attributed to more than 6,000 volunteers who give countless hours to the organization. With community, donor and volunteer support, the organization has donated more than $210 million to the youth of Texas through scholarships, grants, endowments, auctions, a calf scramble program and show premiums. ## RFD-TV Canada, Cowboy Channel Announce Collaboration with Wild TV

On Feb. 3, the launch of RFD-TV Canada and The Cowboy Channel Canada was announced, bringing Rural Media Group's TV Programming to an all new audience in collaboration with Wild TV Network.

"The opportunity to launch new channels and grow our company with these great brands is instrumental for our growth," said Ryan Kohler, Wild TV CEO.

Kohler is well-prepared to lead his team through that growth.

"We have adopted a new culture, acquired a powerhouse sales team and increased our staff to accommodate even more new channels in addition to RFD-TV Canada and The Cowboy Channel Canada," he said.

"We believe the cable and satellite companies here in Canada are getting it right by offering more choices for subscribers. We can bring the outdoorsmen and women in the rural areas of Canada the best niche channels in the world. RFD-TV Canada focuses on agriculture, rural lifestyle, traditional music and entertainment. Together with The Cowboy Channel Canada, featuring Western sports and the most iconic PRCA rodeos in North America, we'll offer Canadians two more outdoor and rural lifestyle-themed channels to choose from."

Through RFD-TV Canada and The Cowboy Channel Canada, viewers can see live coverage of at least 18 PRORODEO TOUR final performances plus a taped highlight show for encore airings on both The Cowboy Channel and RFD-TV.

There also will be TV coverage of 10 PRCA Xtreme Bulls events, including the Xtreme Bulls Tour Finale with encore airings on both TCC and RFD-TV.

Patrick Gottsch, Founder and President of Rural Media Group, shares Kohler's excitement.

"For many years, Canadians have been requesting the rural-themed programming being offered by RFD-TV and The Cowboy Channel, which has proven to be so popular in the United States," Gottsch said. "The dedication to agriculture and to embrace the Western lifestyle knows no borders, and we are so pleased to be working with Ryan Kohler of Wild TV Inc. to finally bring these two cultures together to connect city with country throughout North America."

The two networks launch Canada-wide on Shaw Direct TODAY, with planned expansion to the rest of the cable and satellite companies across Canada later in 2020.

mare to Dash Ta Fame, getting a three-quarter sibling to their stallion Famous Bugs.

"I was like, 'I don't know. That's a lot of money!'" Peirce chuckled. "But, we did and we decided that we were going to keep this baby. I priced her a time or two, and I priced her for a lot when she was yearling and nobody bought her. So, we ended up with her and it's been great."

Lexi broke to ride by Peirce's son Lance Powers before she got some additional training with Carter Metcalf.

"She was pretty waspy," Peirce chuckled, noting that Lexi has a bit of the stereotypical Dash Ta Fame female traits. "She's was pretty easy to start. You show her something and she's got it. You better not show her wrong or she'll do it wrong. She wants to please you. It took me a few months before I let her go because she was just a feel-good, play-around type.

Lexi made her competitive debut at the OKC Slot Race, running second to champions Pete Oen and FC Strait Ruffian by 1/100th of second to win $25,000.

"She's just now, I feel like, getting to her speed because I had kept everything under control these past few months leading up to Oklahoma City," she said. "I know how those racehorses can be. Sometimes, they scare themselves. You just kind of have to sit on her. She's so easy to go forward. I've never whipped her. If you lean up, she's going to go."

By A Hair -- Kelsey Treharne and Victory Farm's VF Eddies Alive Win Kinder Cup BFA Futurity

By Tanya Randall

Two one-thousandths of a second was the margin of victory at the 3rd Annual Kinder Cup BFA Futurity, held January 31-February 2 in Kinder, Louisiana. Kelsey Treharne and VF Eddies Alive ("Alvin") narrowly edged Sidnei Pereira Jr. and VF Cream Rises, 28.665 to 28.667 for the championship title.

Both horses were bred and raised by Danny Ray's Victory Farms in Ada, Oklahoma, started under saddle by Riley South and trained by Treharne. VF Cream Rises had just sold earlier in the week to Brazilian Ademir Joje Rorato.

Treharne and Alvin collected $7,932 for the BFA Futurity Championship, $1,165 on open and sidepot carryovers and $10,000 for finishing fourth in the slot race. Their total event earnings, not including bonuses from Triple Crown 100 or Future Fortunes, was $19,097.

"I was so proud of him! He stayed really solid," said Treharne, who wanted to thank Victory Farms, her helpers Kiley Wells and Meagan Raty, her sponsors and the entire "village" that keeps her going.

Treharne and Alvin started off their Kinder experience, winning the first round by 2/1000ths of a second over Jolene Montgomery and Busby Quarter Horses' Jet Fuel Only, 14.270 to 14.272.

"The first round he worked really good," Treharne said. "He was really honest and soft and felt great."

Their next run was Saturday night in the Slot Race, where they turned in a fourth-place 14.302.

"I kind of overshot my first barrel," Treharne explained. "It was my fault. I was coming in hot and I didn't help him—but as soon as I helped him he came right around, but it was like a tick too late."

They wrapped up the BFA Futurity Championship with a fourth-place finishing 14.395 in the second round on Sunday morning.

"The second go of the futurity he was smoking a run," she said. "He felt like he was scrambling a little bit on the backside of the third. He's a really strong horse and he pulled off the backside of the third. I nearly went on the wrong side of the second barrel. I was trying to get him over but keep him running. I knew if he did that we'd still be alright because he's so fast. It scared me a little bit."

Pereira Jr. and VF Cream Rises nearly caught them in the average after turning in the fastest time of the futurity, a 14.063 to win the second round.

Treharne got both horses from Victory Farms nearly a year ago. She says she knew from the start they were both going to be nice horses, especially Alvin.

"He was so easy," she said. "His fourth day on the barrel pattern was like he'd been on the barrel pattern for four months. He just wanted to be a barrel horse. Probably the biggest struggle with him was after I started running him. He got really strong. I had to figure out a different bit and headgear for him.

"As far as starting him, he was just easy. You knew right away he was a good one—both of those horses really. Alvin was probably a little better early on, but that mare caught right up. Alvin was just kind of a freak."

Alvin is a second-generation product of Ray's breeding program at Victory Farms. The gelding is by leading sire Eddie Stinson out of futurity champion and producer VF Burrs Alive, by Burrs First Down.

His former stablemate VF Cream Rises is also by Eddie Stinson and is a half-sister WPRA World Champion Perculatin ("Latte") as they share the same dam, Curiosity Corners, by Silver Lucky Buck.

Kelly Allen & Miss Regality Rule In Kinder Cup 5-Year-Old Futurity

By Tanya Randall

Kelly Allen and her 5-year-old mare Miss Regality (“Queenie”) took home $5,250 for their 5-Year-Old Futurity Championship at the Kinder Cup, held January 30-February 2 in Louisiana. The $7,500-added 5-Year-Old Futurity continued to grow in its second year, drawing 63 entries.

“It’s my favorite futurity all year,” said Allen, who trains out of Stephenville, Texas. “It’s well ran and the ground is good. I always seem to do well there.”

Allen and Queenie placed fourth in each round with runs of 14.634 and 14.548, respectively, to win $3,409 in the Futurity. Their open carryovers, which included a 2D victory on Sunday, was worth an additional $1,841.

“She’s a lot of fun to run,” she said. “You just push her. Run her up two handed to her turns and then hold on because if you don’t she’ll bounce you out of the saddle.”

THE RUNDOWN w/Kelly Allen

Miss Regality “Queenie” 15.2 hands, 1,150 lbs.

BIT: Chain mouth 0-ring

SADDLE: Shiloh and Burns saddles

SADDLE PAD: SaddleRight

LEG GEAR: Classic Equine all four

SHOEING: Light steel rims on all four

FEED: ReNew Gold

HAY: Cubeit alfalfa cubes

SUPPLEMENTS: Oxy-Gen pastes pre-run

ALTERNATIVE THERAPIES: Back On Track products, chiropractic care

CONDITIONING-TRAINING REGIME: “Probably 60 to 70 percent of the time I just exercise her. If I do work the barrels, it’s not much. Honestly, I breeze her. I’ll breeze her and stretch her and get her to move her front feet out. That’s my trick to her. It’s not really working her; it’s just getting her to move out.”

SPONSORS: Oxy-Gen, Pure Image, Olive Insurance Agency, Redmond Equine

Bred by Joe and Dee Lynn Braman, Queenie is by A Regal Choice out of 2008 BFA SuperStakes Champion Miss JB 055 (“Peaches”), by Fire Water Flit.

“She’s like riding a bike with square tires,” laughed Allen, who got the mare in fall of her third year. “She’s just like her momma, Peaches, was, kind of rough and frontend-y. It’s a workout to trot her and lope her. She took the barrels really easy. It wasn’t hard for her, but it was kind of hard for me because she’s really rough. I thought about giving up on her because she was so rough and didn’t feel athletic, but when you run her, she becomes athletic oddly enough.”

Allen had also trained and ridden Queenie’s half-sister Miss JB 133 (“Rapunzel”), whom she tragically lost last year after a fall at the pro rodeo in Eagle, Colorado.

“If I was blind and rode them both I probably couldn’t tell the difference,” she said. “They’re both extremely good minded. They’re the best minded barrel horses that I’ve ever rode. They’re laid back. You have to get them fired up to run. They’re both rough. They’re both very sweet, very sound. You ride them both the same. I’ve used the same bits on them. It’s weird because they have different daddies. Peaches just stamped them.”

Headin' For Home

by Sherry Morrison
Triple M (Mike Morrison Ministries)

For me, it is a constant battle to not have road rage...other drivers getting in my way is a surefire way for me to practice asking for forgiveness!

One church night, I ran to town to pick up ice for the refreshments afterward and I was cutting it close timewise. I was to the store and headed back in real good time when this guy ssllloowwllly pulled out in front of me.

I had to slam on my brakes! He then proceeded to stop when the light turned red. (I would have made it through it). When the light turned green, he did a proper turn into the left lane, and then signaled to get into the right lane, effectively blocking me off from darting past him. Driving the SPEED LIMIT, I followed him, saying a lot of unkind things! You guessed it...I was SAFELY behind him ALL THE WAY TO CHURCH!

Hypocrite that I am, I immediately started praising Jesus that I didn't flip him off or some other stupid thing! After all, I'm the Pastor's wife! Bet you haven't ever done that, right?

Romans 6:11-18 helps us to get our head on straight. Jesus paid the price for sin. Verse 18 says we are set free from sin. But we are free to pick how we act. Sometimes I pick wrong. If that happens to you, too, let's practice picking the right thing, being the righteousness of God. Have a blessed week!
