Black Hills Homecoming for Britany Fleck and Dasher Dude

By Tanya Randall

Making just her second run back on her great mare Dasher Dude ("Rootie"), Britany Fleck picked up a $4,850 victory at the $10,000-added Black Hills Stocks Show & Rodeo, held January 26-February 2 in Rapid City, S.D.

"I was nervous going in there (Ft. Worth)," said Fleck, a 2011 Wrangler National Finals Rodeo qualifier. "She ran great and felt really good, but we were a 16.9. We still made it back for our second (run), but we were off the pace a few tenths. So, I was little nervous making the big trip up there. It's a long ways and we hit bad roads along the way."

The super tiny pattern didn't faze Fleck—she won with a 12.40, 2/10ths ahead of Sammi Bessert and Terrible Tommy Twist, but she was concerned about how Rootie would handle the holding area.

"You have come under the bleachers and there's a tiny little holding alley," said Fleck. "It was below zero, so every team roper, calf roper, steer wrestler had their horse tied in there. My horse was so worked up by the time we ran. I think she just ran really hard so she could get the heck out of there!"

"She worked really good. She nailed all of her turns, was running hard. I was really excited when I saw the time. She worked great!"

Rootie, a 12-year-old mare by Texas High Dasher out of April Dell Dude, by Poco Dell Dude, was out for four months with severe bone edema (bruising) on her coffin, navicular and short pastern bones.

"She was really, really sore," said Fleck, who recently relocated to Desdemona, Texas, from Mandan, N.D., with fiancé Isacc Diaz, a three-time WNFR qualifier. "I had an MRI done on her and we did some treatments and gave her four months off. She seems to be coming back really strong, so I'm thrilled."

In hindsight, Fleck wishes she would have done the MRI sooner.

"I had her to four different vets and no one could give me answer," said Fleck, who now calls Desdemona, Texas, home. "I spent a lot of money trying to figure out what's wrong with her, when I could have just taken her and gotten it done in the first place. If I had done it sooner, I might have had her back for Denver, not just Fort Worth and Rapid City."

Although Fleck went home after the Pendleton Roundup last September, she still finished 21st in the World Standings and is eligible for the limited entry rodeos. She's up in Jackson, Miss., tomorrow and will make her second run in Fort Worth on Thursday.

Finalize and Plan-BFA Board on Task for 2013

The 2012 Barrel Futurities of America World Championship crowned the Champions, wrote the checks, presented the awards, and thanked the sponsors. Paying out nearly $800,000 and awarding over $200,000 in awards and bonuses, the BFA Board of Directors met January 20 & 21, 2013 to finalize the 2012 event and begin planning for 2013.

Citing positive feedback on the new alley set-up, schedule change, and the ground crew's efficiency, the Board sped through a routine agenda. Changes that may occur for the 2013 World Championship will be facility related as Oklahoma State Fair Park continues its construction projects. Notices will be posted on the BFA website regarding those changes.

The 2013 BFA World Championship boasts a Futurity purse of $70,000. Additionally, Future Fortunes is celebrating its 10th Anniversary, and is preparing great bonus opportunities for its members competing at the World Championship. The BFA continues to attract new futurity enthusiasts through its Futurity and Derby Amateur Finals. More importantly, the BFA World Championship rewards every age of barrel horse-MVP Juvenile(3 yr. Olds), BFA Futurity(4 yr. Olds), 4 Star Derby(5 & 6 yr. Olds), and Victory Farms 4D(all ages).

For further information about BFA, the BFA World Championship, and BFA-approved futurities, please go to www.barrelfuturitiesofamerica.com. --Submitted by Tamara Reinhardt

A New Horse for the World Champ

If you look closely at the Black Hills Stock Show & Rodeo results you may see that 2012 WPRA World Champion Barrel Racer Mary Walker was on a different horse than her 2012 Horse of the Year, Latte (Perculatin). She grabbed 6th place there for a $1,455 check on her new horse, Friscos Col George (aka Tonka). Tonka will be her second string horse to take the pressure off of Latte in 2013. He was purchased from Shada Brazile, wife of many time World Champion Trevor Brazile. Previously, the horse has also taken Libby Eppenaer to the pay window.

Hello Again takes Smith to top of bareback leaderboard at Fort Worth

By Susan Kanode

For the Fort Worth Stock Show & Rodeo

FORT WORTH, Texas (Feb. 5, 2013) — After missing the 2012 rodeo season, Jared Smith said "Hello Again" at the Fort Worth Stock Show & rodeo on Tuesday.

Smith's collarbone was separated from his sternum during the 2012 Texas Circuit Finals. The injury was one that required time and patience to heal and that gave the Florida native a chance to regroup and get as healthy as he has been in his five-years of competing in the Professional Rodeo Cowboys Association.

He got on a horse appropriately named Hello Again owned by Bad Company Rodeo to score 83 points and take the lead in the first round of competition in the Will Rogers Memorial Coliseum on Tuesday night. Smith, who now calls Cross Plains, Texas, home is feeling as good as he ever has.

"My focus has changed and I'm not sore every time I get on a bucking horse," he said. "I'm craving getting on them now. I always loved riding the good ones, but now I'm ready to get on anything." The first round of barrel racing is over and Jane Melby from Burneyville, Okla., is the big winner in that event so far. Melby won $4,566 for her time of 16.38 seconds. The second round which features the 91 fastest times from round one started Wednesday afternoon.

The fastest time so far in that round is Natalie Foutch from Eldora, Iowa, who placed third in the first round with a 16.45-second run. Foutch stopped the clock in 16.39 seconds and now has command of the overall standings with a total time of 32.84 seconds on two runs. Second is Wrangler National Finals Rodeo qualifier Carlee Pierce from Stephenville, Texas with 33.27.

There are two performances of the World's Original Indoor Rodeo® at the Fort Worth Stock Show & Rodeo on Wednesday at 2 and 7:30 p.m.

"I'm not going to enter any of the really little ones," said Fleck of her travel plans. "I'm going to try to be smart about it from here through June, but it's hard not to go in February."

Even though Fleck now resides in Texas, she designated the Badlands as her circuit.

"We have a lot of good rodeos up there over the Fourth, and I tend to hit a lot of them," she said. "I like their circuit finals. They have really great people up there and it's a really great circuit."

She'll also be in the state for her Nov. 1 wedding.

Headin' For Home

by Mike Morrison
Triple M (Mike Morrison Ministries)

If you've listened to the news, read any newspapers or heard people talking nowadays, it would be an easy thing to get into fear and depression. It seems every day there is a new tragedy somewhere in the world. There's fierce storms that bring devastation to whole communities, businesses going under and bankruptcies, shootings and kidnappings, nations threatening war, and epidemics of sickness. If that's not enough, there are people set on taking God out of everything.

But, take heart! Jesus said these things would happen but God is still in control. Scripture tells us over and over "fear not." Jesus said in the world we would have tribulation but, to be of good cheer, because He has overcome the world. (John 16:33) What the devil intends for evil, God can turn to good!

Things might look black and impossible from where we stand, but don't give up. Turn everything over to God. He's the One who made the world and everything in it and He's the only one who can fix it and bring order out of chaos. Jesus said He'd never leave us nor forsake us. The important thing is to make Jesus your Lord and Savior and then you can be assured of eternal life when your days on earth are over. Make sure your spouse and children are saved, too, and then turn them over to God and rest in knowing that He has them in the palm of His hand. Corrie Ten Boom said, "Never be afraid to trust an unknown future to a known God."

Read your Bible and pray about everything. Commit your way to the Lord and boldly say the words of Hebrews 13:6, "The Lord is my helper, and I will not fear what man shall do unto me."
