Golden Performance for Randee Prindle & Red Man Jones at Rodeo Rapid City

By Tanya Randall

Randee Prindle and Red Man Jones ("Scooby") turned in a jaw-dropping run in the second slack to win the $10,000-added Rodeo Rapid City, held February 2-4 in Rapid City, South Dakota. The victory was worth $5,433.

"It's nice that we were able to get to go rodeo, that's for sure!" said Prindle, who hails from Gilman City, Missouri. "The ground was perfect. You couldn't have asked for better ground. It was a really nice, smoothly run rodeo too."

Prindle wasn't sure she was going to make it to Rapid City because Scooby came up lame right after the books closed for the rodeo.

"I went to get him up to take him to the vet to get his Coggins done and he was three-legged," she explained. "I prayed it was an abscess and thank goodness it was! My backup horse right now is a 5-year-old that's been to maybe eight barrel races in his life. It was going to be interesting if I had to pull him out. I thought, well, maybe I won't get in because I wasn't ranked very high in the standings last year. We didn't find out I got in until after we found out it was an abscess."

At Rapid City, Scooby proved he was over his abscess with a blistering 11.80, a reported arena record.

"We've been having some issues, like hitting (the first) leaving it," she said. "I tweaked a couple of things and he went in and worked great! It was the same turn he usually has on first, took an extra step on second, the third, he ate up and went on."

Scooby also had to kick up his heels for everyone to see after his run, too.

"He's a brat!" Prindle laughed. "I think it was when I started to pick up. He was like, 'I don't want to slow down!' He decided he would throw a little fit!"

His antics weren't unexpected, she added, especially given the warm-up situation.

"We had to warm up at the fairgrounds and then haul to the arena," she explained. "Usually, I have to at least lope a couple of circles on him to get his little buck out. When he warms up you would think he's not even broke! He flips his head. We crossfire. We go every direction but the right one. I was very happy that he at least waited until after the timer before he threw his little fit."

"If there was ever a barrel race that he was going to do something dumb it probably would have been that one because it was like an hour between our warmup and our run. I'm happy he at least waited, but not at all surprised that he did that!"

Scooby is a well-known shyster, or as Prindle put it, "He likes to put me through Hell and back!" Prindle had purchased the 10-year-old gelding at the 2015 BBR World Finals Horse Sale. The Jud Little-bred gelding, by Brownie Jones out of Dinky's Purple Rain, by Dinkys Red Man, had caught the eye of Prindle's mom, Kim.

"She walked past his stall and saw that he had Jet Deck on his (pedigree) card," Prindle recalled, who sadly lost her mom the day after her winning run. "I literally went to the sale to pick out a 2-year-old to start because I knew there was no way I could afford a started horse. I wasn't even looking at him and she picked him out. We watched him slow work in the demo and said, 'OK, we'll try to get him.' I passed up the 2-year-old that I wanted so I was able to get him. It was a fluke."

Success for the pairing wasn't instant.

"I don't know how we started where we started from and got to where we are," said Prindle, who has a BBR World Finals 1D Championship and the 2020 American Semifinals Championship with Scooby. "When I first bought him, I thought at most he'd be a horse to check cattle on, but he's scared to death of cattle. It definitely feels like a dream."

Basically, it's Scooby's world and Prindle's just living in it.

"He's definitely a freak," she chuckled. "I think it's funny. People at the barrel races are always like, 'We need you to run this, this and this.' I'm like, 'You should never ask me anything.' Whatever Scooby wants to do, it what we're going to do. If wants to go out there and buck the whole pattern, I'm going to pat him on the neck and try again tomorrow! If he wants to go in there and lay a nice run down, that's what he'll do. There's definitely no me controlling him. We just get along and I'm a passenger right now!"

Prindle and Scooby have a few more pro rodeos scheduled before they look to defend their American Semifinals Championship. They're entered in Jackson, Mississippi, and a couple of Florida rodeos. Afterward, she'll evaluate her plans.

"I figure we'll see how I sit after I get back from Florida," she said. The win in Rapid has her 21st in the WPRA World Standings. "It will kind of depend on if I'm going to go rodeo some or if I'm just going to go barrel race. Right now, my calendar is booked with big barrel races every weekend until November. It's kind of up in the air. We'll see how it goes these next couple of weeks and go from there."

It's a harder decision than one would think. Prindle has some outside horses and will run six to eight head at a jackpot.

"I made good money at the big jackpots last year," she said. "It's hard to jump off that bandwagon and go rodeo. If I go to a jackpot I can sit there all weekend and take six or eight horses and run. That's the hard decision I'm going to have to make."

Reaching Success – Taylor Hildreth & Escalating Win Classic Equine Futurity

By Tanya Randall

Taylor Hildreth and the 4-year-old mare Escalating (“Janet”) took top honors at the $10,000-added Classic Equine Futurity, held February 5-7 at South Buckeye Equestrian Center in Buckeye, Arizona. The Futurity Championship paid $3,538, while their Open carryovers netted $1,197. They also won the open average.

“I was so proud of her winning the 1D average in the open,” said Hildreth, who trains out of Olathe, Colorado. “It kind of surprised me.”

Hildreth and Janet made a “confidence” run in the first round, clocking a 17.417, which placed fifth behind Jessica Miller and UR Famous In Red’s victorious 17.224.

“I wanted to make sure I rode correctly,” she said. “I’d been working on a few things on myself. I went out there with zero expectations.”

Hildreth knew Janet would be more confident the second day so she let the mare go faster.

“On Sunday, I could just tell she wanted to go in there faster and do good,” she said. They finished second in the round behind Sharin Hall and Hello Stella’s 16.899. “I made sure she got where she needed to go and she did the rest. She’s a pretty cool mare. She loves running barrels and that makes it fun. It felt effortless. It was just a really nice run.”

Bred by Jose Antonio Flores, Janet is by $2.5 million barrel horse sire Tres Seis, and out Kickin Escalation, by Check Him Out. She had eight starts on the track as a 2-year-old, placing second twice and third twice for earnings of $6,370 for Greg Torgerson of

THE RUNDOWN w/Taylor Hildreth

Escalating "Janet" 15.1-15.2 hands, 1,000 lbs.

BIT: Short shank Neil Merrill gag with a smooth three-piece mouthpiece

SADDLE: Coats

SADDLE PAD: 3S Custom Equine Pads from Shaun Sandoval

LEG GEAR: Kavallerie Pro K Support Boots

SHOEING: Plain steel all the way around

FEED: Triple Crown Perform Gold

HAY: Grass, alfalfa hay

SUPPLEMENTS: ProVision Probiotics, Excel EQ Pro Elite, MVP Air-Way EQ

ALTERNATIVE THERAPIES: Bemer blanket, Back On Track on the chilly nights, Cloud boots during hauling and while standing tied.

TRAINING/CONDITIONING: "I don't work her on the barrels a whole lot. I keep her fit. I do a lot of slow work—walk, trot, lope the pattern, just making sure she gets her feet where I need them to be. I lope a lot of perfect circles around the bushes here in the desert. I do more of 'drilling' out there. I just really work on driving her hind end underneath her, staying strong through her circles, keeping her ribs and shoulders soft. When I do go back to the pattern, I try to keep it really literal."

SPONSORS: Excel EQ, ProVision Probiotics, Med-Vet Pharmaceuticals

Richfield, Utah, who just sold the mare to Jodie Neudorf of Grand Prairie, Alberta, Canada, at the Classic Equine Futurity.

Hildreth got the mare in July of her third year.

"She had a decent start to her," Hildreth said. "I just put a little of my own touches on her and then started hauling her to exhibition."

For the most part, Janet just had to learn where Hildreth wanted her to place her feet.

"She seems to be the type of horse that likes to be worked very literally," Hildreth explained. "If you do a lot of bigger circles and put her feet in other places that doesn't really work good for her. I just try to get her feet to the same spot every time. She's very sensitive and super smart. If I need to make a correction it needs to be pretty subtle. She seems to figure it out pretty quickly."

She added the mare's maturity from the racetrack helped her catch up with the rest of her futurity hopefuls.

"In her case, that really helped her," she said. "She was really mature, hauling her from the get-go was a breeze. She's very business minded. She really wants to go do her job. It always helps when they love to run barrels too. That makes the process a lot easier."

LGI Postposed until June

Due to the extremely cold temperatures expected this week in Oklahoma the Lance Graves International has been postponed from this week to June 3-6. Their Facebook post from the Lance Graves International Barrel Racing Championships page below has all the details:

"Attention barrel racing friends, fans and LGI February 10-14, 2021 contestants! Due to mother nature's tantrum in Guthrie Oklahoma the LGLP and Lazy E Staff and crew have decided that it is in the best interest of our contestants safety to post pone this week's upcoming LG International event to June 3-6, 2021! Thank you Lazy E for ALWAYS keeping the cowboys and cowgirls best interest at heart by willing to work out necessary changes whenever needed! Contact Lazye.com about your stall and Rv rentals and refunds and contact the office at twistedsistersproductions.com about pre entries that were submitted for transfers to June 3-4 event or refunds. Many checks were just processed so please allow them a 2 week period for all those checks to process then return. Again, we are disappointed not seeing everyone this weekend but ultimately the safety of our barrel racing community is our first concern and we feel this decision is in the best interest of everyone. Thank you all so very much for your many years of support and trust and for your support of our LG Legacy Project non profit organization. LG"

RODEOHOUSTON Cancels

On Feb. 3, the Houston Livestock Show and Rodeo announced the cancellation of RODEOHOUSTON competitions, concerts and entertainment, carnival, and other attractions and activities, which were recently rescheduled for May 4-23, due to the ongoing health situation.

The Junior Livestock and Horse Show competitions will still be held in March, as private events, upholding the rodeo's mission of promoting agriculture and supporting Texas youth.

The Junior Market Auctions and Champion Wine Auction will still be held in May, also as private events. These events will follow all state and local health and safety guidelines. Several factors contributed to the decision, from a community health and safety perspective, as well as a financial one.

Above all, the health and safety of the community is the rodeo's top priority, and after much consultation with local and state officials and medical experts, rodeo officials concluded that canceling the 2021 event was the right decision.

Top 10 Announced for The American Rodeo

RFD-TV's The American Rodeo presented by Durango Boots announced today the top 10 cowboys and cowgirls in each event who will be competing at this year's richest weekend in western sports taking place March 6-7, 2021 at AT&T Stadium.

"The American Rodeo is the only place to see the top 10 best cowboys and cowgirls in the world compete under the same roof, on the same night, other than the NFR," said Randy Bernard, The American Rodeo CEO. "This rodeo is life-changing with the amount of money that is available for these athletes to win in one weekend and brings out a level of competition you just don't see at other rodeos."

The following are quotes from several top competitors for this year's event:

"The American is like no other!" said Shad Mayfield, Tie-Down Roper. "It's been an amazing feeling to get to compete at the highest level against the best for the highest amount of money and I am really looking forward to it this year."

"I'm glad that a rodeo like The American is sticking their neck out in the midst of what's going on to allow us to make a living," said Will Lummus, Steer Wrestling.

"I'm thankful for The American because in a time of uncertainty, they always press forward for the sake of the Cowboys and Cowgirls, helping us fulfill our American dream," said Tim O'Connell, bareback rider.

The 2021 American Rodeo Top 10 Contestants are as follows:

Bareback: Kaycee Feild, Tim O'Connell, Jess Pope, Tanner Aus, Cole Reiner, Orin Larsen, Clayton Bigelow, Richmond Champion, Mason Clements and Tilden Hooper. (Leighton Berry qualified for the Top 10, however due to injury at Sandhills Stock Show & Rodeo, he is unable to compete and therefore Tilden Hooper, the #11 in the world standings from NFR is taking his place)

For this year's competition, the American Rodeo extended an exemption invitation to tie-down roper Caleb Smidt and barrel racer Dona Kay Rule. Due to an unfortunate turn of events last year and testing positive for COVID-19, both Smidt and Rule were sent home and unable to participate in the 2020 National Finals Rodeo (NFR) and interfered with the opportunity to be invited to compete at the 2021 American Rodeo as a Top 10 contestant. Rule accepted the exemption invitation and will be joining the Top 10 barrel racers in the world to compete for $100,000 at AT&T Stadium. Smidt, thankful for the exemption opportunity, decided to turn the invitation down and try to make the finals on his own and win a shot at the $1 million qualifier cash bonus.

The 11-day rodeo competition kicks off on February 25th in the Fort Worth Stockyards for slack and semi-finals and the finals take place over the weekend of March 6-7, 2021 at the Dallas Cowboys' AT&T Stadium in Arlington, TX. The American Rodeo unites the top athletes in the world from the PRCA and pits them against underdogs who advance from The American Rodeo Semi-Finals, together to battle for the biggest single, life-changing paycheck of their lives. All events will be broadcast live on The Cowboy Channel and RFD-TV.

Tickets for The American Rodeo at AT&T Stadium March 6-7, 2021 can be purchased at SeatGeek.com. Standard ticket prices range from $20-$150, encompassing four pricing tiers for every level of rodeo fan. Due to current COVID-19 restrictions, only a limited number of tickets will be sold on a first-come, first-serve basis. Tickets will be sold in seating pods of 2, 4, or 6. Tickets to The American Rodeo Semi-Finals March 3-5, 2021 at Cowtown Coliseum in the Fort Worth Stockyards can be purchased at CowtownColiseum.com. Standard ticket prices range from $25-$55.

HEADIN' FOR HOME

by Sherry Morrison // Triple M (Mike Morrison Ministries)

I get these wild hairs when I'm not barrel racing, and one of them is painting/remodeling/driving Mike up the wall!! You can pick any of the descriptions and be very accurate. LOL!

So, it's the kitchen/dining room this round. I've been on the hunt for something new and fresh to put up on the walls and yesterday I found just the thing! A sign! It reads, "I dream of a better world where chickens can cross the road without having their motives questioned." I stood in the store laughing out loud and I was getting some stares.

I mean, WHO ON EARTH IS LAUGHING THESE DAYS? I am. You should be. But it's the remodeling part I would like you to consider. What does the Bible say about remodeling? Nothing as far as I can tell (lol) but there is a Bible principle that we should consider.

In Matthew 7:24-27, Jesus is telling us to build our house on the rock (Him) and when the storms come, and they do, your house will stand. But if you build your house on the sand, your house will fall.

Friends, we need to put our faith and hope squarely on Jesus. And the storms that are blowing right now will pass and we'll still be standing. But let's say we built our house on the sand. We're doing things we want, how we want, when we want, and we only think of Jesus in passing. Bad deal.

Now, the winds are blowing and the rain is coming down and we know we've messed up, so we start to remodel. It's very difficult to do, but it can be done!

Let's don't be out in the rain trying to fix stuff. Let's be safe and sound in Him.....painting our kitchen in comfort!
