Leslie Willis & Gimme Damoney Sweep Lucky Dog BFA Futurity

By Tanya Randall

Longtime leading futurity rider and trainer Leslie Willis is in a little bit of uncharted territory with her most recent futurity champion—Gimme Damoney (“Trouble”). Unlike all her other champions, Willis didn’t train Trouble. She and her husband Jason purchased him at the BFA World Championship Futurity where he competed in the Juvenile with his trainer Abby Pursifall.

“I’ve never done well with a horse that Jason’s bought that was started by somebody else,” said Willis candidly. “I never realized how picky I was. I’ve always told people who have bought horses that I’ve started to give it time. Don’t give up. Give it time. Unfortunately, in our industry, we don’t have that time. Here’s your horse. Go make a run this weekend. I was telling Bo Hill that I’ve hit every weekend jackpot back home that I could go to just trying to figure out what it takes for me and this horse to try to get together. I’m not quite sure if I’ve got it completely figured out, but I did have it figured out for Texarkana!”

Willis and Trouble collected $3,710 for sweeping the 49-entry, $5,500-added BFA Futurity at the Lucky Dog Productions Texarkana race, held March 7-9.

She said her first round-winning run “wasn’t very pretty.”

“He got by his first barrel so bad that by the time I got the second and third barrel I was so mad at him,” she laughed. “I don’t even really remember turning them. He smoked his second and third though.”

“We had a little bit better first barrel the second time. Then it got to be, just don’t hit the next two, and we managed to get around them. He’s a neat horse in that you know if you get around them he’s going to cut the clock off.”

A race winner on the track with a speed index of 87 and earnings of $6,250, Trouble is a 4-year-old bay gelding by Tres Seis and out of Damoney, by Mr Eye Opener. His bottom side is loaded with wicked speed. Damoney, out of the stakes winning Special Effort-Easy Jet mare, Such An Easy Effort, is a half-sister to two-time racing champion Deelish and stakes winner Fearless Freda among others.

“With the Tres Seis, you have little hotter racey bottom than any other bloodline,” said Willis.

“I’ve had a lot of luck with the Tres Seis horses,” she said. “They’re all fairly good minded. It seems like you can cross them on a hotter bred mare and they’ll still ride and do their job.”

Willis, Chester, S.C., was one of the first to take a Tres Seis to the barrel arena with Sparkinson in 2009 and Time Well Traveled in 2010.

“Both of those placed in the slot races but they weren’t super-fast,” said Willis, who wanted to thank her husband for buying Trouble in spite of her skepticism. “They were going to make the same trip every time. They were a lot of fun. I won our state show just this last year on Time Well Traveled. You know when you go through the gate with him he’s going to make that same trip and not give you any trouble.”

Willis ended up with Trouble by coincidence. She and Jason had bought a yearling at the 2013 Fall Mixed Sale at Heritage Place in November and were asking his breeder Greg Hodnett about him. During the conversation, Hodnett mentioned he had a 3-year-old Tres Seis for sale.

“I’m fond of the Tres Seis horses” she said, “but you hear that all time—I have a nice horse to sell. I kept that in the back of

2014 Diamonds & Dirt Kicks Off This Week

The 3rd Annual Diamonds & Dirt Barrel Horse Classic is happening this week at the Brazos County Expo Complex in Bryan Texas, from March 10-16.

The action for this $700,000 event kicks off Wednesday, March 12, with the Open 5D and the $225,000 Diamond Jubilee Futurity Slot Race that evening. On Thursday, March 13th, the 1st Round of the Futurity will be followed by the Derby. Friday, March 14, will feature the 2nd Round of the Futurity along with the Sweepstakes. Don't miss the Amazing Bobby Kerr Mustang Act, K9s4Cops Police K9 demos and the K9s4Cops Dog & Pony Show that evening.

Then Saturday, March 15, the Open 5D continues followed by the Derby, Amateur, and Futurity Finals that evening. Wrapping up the action on Sunday will be the Open 5D.

There are many, many more activities happening throughout the weekend, including Cowboy Church on Sunday, a K9s4KIDs Zone with activities for the kids, the "A Night Of Diamonds" Saturday night, and there is a full trade show to shop all week.

For a full schedule of events and to keep up with all the action over the weekend, go to www.DiamondsandDirt.com.

The live webcast will be on The Horse Sports Network at www.HorseSportsNetwork.com. They also have contests going which you can be part of, just check out their Facebook page, Diamonds & Dirt Barrel Horse Classic or follow them on Twitter @DDBHC to get more details.

RFD-TV to broadcast the Timed Event Championship, Wednesday March 12

Lazy E Arena's hosts 30th Anniversary of Ironman of ProRodeo, RFD-TV to showcase Championship in a prime-time special Wednesday

Rural Media Group is proud to announce the 2014 Timed Event Championship will be showcased in an RFD-TV prime-time special on Wednesday, March 12 at 8 p.m. (EST) / 7 p.m. (CST).

The Timed Event Championship is the most challenging rodeo event in the world, dubbed the "Ironman." Twenty invited contestants compete in heading, heeling, tie-down roping, steer wrestling and steer roping. To make the challenge even tougher, the cowboys make a run in each event every performance. In three days, the contestants will compete in five rounds, making 25 runs total.

Time to Ride "100 Day Horse Challenge" to Launch June 1

The American Horse Council's initiative offers $100,000 in cash and prize incentives for engaging newcomers in horse activities.

Time to Ride, an initiative of the American Horse Council, today announced an aggressive grassroots effort designed to engage 100,000 new people with horses in a 100-day period.

The 100 Day Horse Challenge is a nationwide campaign intended to expose at least 100,000 new people to horses while providing $100,000 in cash and prizes to participating stables, organizations and businesses. The program will enlist 1,000 stables, horse clubs, venues, organizations, or individuals to register as an official Time to Ride "Host" and compete in the 100 Day Horse Challenge, which kicks off June 1. Participating hosts will be divided into small, medium, and large divisions by size, and challenged to provide a horse experience to as many new participants as possible.

Individual cash prizes up to $25,000 as well as stable equipment, feed, veterinary supplies, and more will be awarded to the hosts that garner the greatest number of new, verified horse enthusiasts.

The Challenge is open to the first 1,000 hosts capable of growing the horse industry – including stables, instructors, clubs, events, recreational riders, equine service professionals, veterinarians, shows, facilities, racetracks, and more.

Hosts can register starting in April for the Time to Ride 100 Day Horse Challenge at www.timetoride.com. Registration deadline is May 15. For more information, please visit www.timetoride.com or e-mail Christie@timetoride.com.

my mind. When the horse exhibited out there at Oklahoma City and clocked a pretty fast time, I looked Greg's number up and bought him over the phone."

Willis said "it's been a bumpy road up until now" with Troubles.

"I've hit my share of barrels," she explained. "He's got a different kind of style. I like to make one round at the barrel and he's one that wants to stick a back leg and roll back over. It's been a little bit difficult. He's not a horse that you can safety up on."

"Like after I won the first go, my instructions from Jason were 'Don't worry about it; Go fast because you can't safety up on him.' You just go through the gate, hope you get around them and hope it's fast!"

Willis also picked up $1,127 in open money with Trouble at the Lucky Dog, an event she attended for the first time.

"It was a neat show, and oh my gosh, did they have a lot of entries," she exclaimed. "With all the roll overs and everything, we were trying to figure out how to enter. They were very nice and helpful."

Headin' For Home

by Mike Morrison
Triple M (Mike Morrison Ministries)

Mac Hammond has a large ministry in Minnesota which has seen many, many miracles, acts of God and answers to prayer. He teaches often on our authority, given to us by Jesus, to speak to our health as clearly outlined in the Bible.

Hammond recently distributed some prayers he encourages believers to say often with true faith. This is just part of them: BRAIN, function as the mind of Christ. There will be no confusion, no lack of understanding or memory loss. The memory of the just is blessed.

HEART, beat normally with no arrhythmia, no irregularity, no clots, no heart attacks, no stoppages. LUNGS, you are clear and un-congested and my entire cardiovascular system functions perfectly just as God created it.

STOMACH, you're going to function normally without ulcers or indigestion. I have no digestion problems and my intestinal track functions normally with no polyps, no diverticulitis, or any other infirmity.

JOINTS, I command you to function well with no pain, rheumatism, arthritis or bursitis. I command full range of movement in my knees, hips elbows and every part of my body. My muscles, cartilage, ligaments and tendons function as designed. They are strong, doing exactly what they are capable of doing, all to the glory of God.

God created this natural world with the words of His mouth. Since we are made in His image and likeness and granted His dominion, we have the right and authority to speak the command of faith which can change circumstances. Believe your words have power when spoken in faith. Remember and act on what Don Gossett (author, evangelist and teacher) said, "What you say is what you get!"

Mike Morrison and his wife Sherry are ordained ministers in their own nondenominational church in Gillette, WY. They also travel widely as circuit riders ministering over a large area of the western states.
