Tasty Treat -- Tiany Schuster's Sweet Choco Taco & Ryann Pedone Win $100,000

By Tanya Randall

When Tiany Schuster picked up Sweet Choco Taco as a 3-year-old, he was looking like anything but a $100,000 slot race winner. But, as jockey Ryann Pedone said "the stars aligned" and Choco topped the Diamond Jubilee Slot Futurity at the Diamonds & Dirt Barrel Horse Classic in Bryan, Texas, for a sweet $100,000.

Schuster, Krum, Texas, purchased Choco in late September of his third year. The gelding by Sweet First Down out of A Royal View, by A Royal High, was barely broke and very spoiled. Not long afterwards, Schuster sold the gelding but ended up with him again because of his ornery nature. She eventually got him started on the pattern, but Choco still needed some extra riding.

"We started him on barrels, and over the summer I sent him to Jarrett Pannell, and he rode him on cattle. Then we were able to get somewhere with him," she said. "His training was like completely backwards!"

With Schuster trying to rodeo—she's currently 18th in the WPRA World Standings-- she didn't have time to be hauling a young one to see the sights and get finished, so she tried to find a rider for him.

"I was grateful Ryann had a spot in her trailer and more grateful that no one else did, had the time, or wanted to," Schuster said. "I knew Ryann was the one. I needed someone just to believe, and she did. She did an amazing job no one will ever discredit that. She rode him perfect. Spot on. Tip of my hat to her for that and a bigger thank you for believing in my dreams."

Pedone picked Choco up in December after the BFA Futurity and took him with her to Arizona to get to know the gelding better.

"He was going really nice," said the Decatur, Texas, based trainer. "I'm not a jump-jockey so I did a few things to help him fit me. I let him build his confidence and get faster and faster."

As a 5-year-old, Choco ran in the derby at the LG Pro Classic and placed in both rounds. He also won the Triple Crown 100 Futurity bonus.

"He did it very easily," said Pedone. "I never called on the colt. I was just getting his confidence up."

Although he didn't place at The Patriot Futurity, the gelding did well enough to earn a spot in the slot race at Diamonds & Dirt.

"He was right there, where I thought I could call on him," said Pedone. "I took him to the D&D in Waco the weekend before because there's not a lot of pressure there. I ran all my futurity colts Friday night and he placed in the 1D. He did it very smooth and easy. It was a nice solid run."

Choco had off until Tuesday exhibitions.

"I just had a good feeling about him. I called on him and he showed up. Every horse that was entered in that deal had a shot, and I think all of us had a turn. The stars aligned and it was just my turn. I can't thank that horse enough. I owe that horse a lot. I thank the Good Lord for putting that horse in my life. That horse deserves all the credit."

Ironically, in 2013, Pedone tipped a barrel to win the $100,000 at the LG Pro Classic with Kiss Me Bill Compton, clocking a 14.7. Mark Bugni won it on IRA Grand Victory with a 14.9. This time around it was Pedone with a clean .7 and second place was Sue Smith and Dashes Centerfold with a .9.

"Everything lined up perfect for me that night," she said. "My dad just had that talk with me. I told him nothing was going right. I had a good BFA, but didn't win anything huge. I had a good Arizona but didn't win anything major. Lance Graves... the horses looked good and worked good, but just didn't win anything huge. My dad was like 'Ryann, everyone gets their turn. It's the ones that quit that miss their turn.' If you work hard and strive to get better,

The $3 million dollar barrel racer, Sherry Cervi

Already a living legend in the sport of barrel racing; Sherry Cervi added a little more to her legend by becoming the first barrel racer ever to earn over $3 million in her career.

Fittingly, Cervi crossed over the $3 million at Rodeo Houston riding her amazing home raised yellow mare Stingray (Mp Meter My Hay). Cervi started her winning ways at Rodeo Houston clear back in 1995, when she won her first Rodeo Houston title. Since Stingray started her career at Houston in 2008, her and Cervi have loved the atmosphere, winning over $200k together at Rodeo Houston alone.

Stingray had been getting a little rest after the 2015 NFR and came back on fire in Super Series 3 at Rodeo Houston, winning all 3 of their Rounds. Their win in Round 3 pushed Cervi over the $3 million mark. When asked what it meant to her to cross the $3 million mark, Cervi simply stated, "I'm very thankful I did it on Stingray at Houston!"

On the road to Cervi's $3 million, she has qualified to the NFR 18 times and won 4 World Titles. With the number of big money rodeos around the country right now, the $10 million dollar NFRs, and a bunch of good young prospects coming out of the Potter Ranch for Cervi to ride, in a couple years she may be the first to $4 million as well!

one day it will pay off. It's just a matter of being patient enough to keep trying and keep going 'til it does."

Pedone wanted to thank Ross Wright and Kristi Schiller and the whole crew for putting on Diamonds & Dirt—"I know it's a pain, but it's very much appreciated," Tiany Schuster for the opportunity to jockey the horse, Lisa Downs, Jack Johnson, Stacy Fennell, Kimmi Byler for providing a place to stay, her dad Lee Pedone, Jeye Johnson with Classic Equine and Martin Saddlery, Ally Hayes and Rosie Bradley with Oxy-Gen, her farrier Sid Myers, Dr. Don Lee and Dr. Cliff Honnas, her personal trainer Debbie Crall, and all her friends, family and owners for their continued support.

Pedone also wanted to acknowledge the family of the late Lara Dewees—"I just want to let them know that I'm thinking of them and they're in my prayers," and her dear friend and mentor Kim Landry. She was tickled to know that the video of her winning run got Landry's attention.

"That horse did a lot for me, to lay down the right run at the right time," Pedone concluded. "It was just one of those runs that I will forever cherish."

JL Jamaican Me Rich at the Diamonds & Dirt Dufur Quarter Horses Futurity

By Tanya Randall

Dave and Lori Zabel's JL Jamaican Me Rich came into his own under the supreme guidance of Jolene Montgomery at the Dufur Futurity at the Diamonds & Dirt Barrel Horse Classic in Bryan, Texas. Richie and Montgomery picked up $36,720 for edging out reserve champion JL Roc Paperscissors, owned, bred and trained by Jill Lane and ridden Mark Bugni, 31.939 to 31.944.

The championship was determined by the best two-run average of fastest qualifying time and finals time. Montgomery and Richie had the fastest qualifying time with their 15.787 second round winner, but it was still anyone's game in the finals.

"Once she ran, it wasn't like we had it won," said a very thankful Lori Zabel. "We knew it was down to the last horse. That excitement just added to it. We've watched many a barrel race, sometimes they've gone our way, sometimes they haven't. We're just feeling really blessed."

The Zabels, who hail from Horace, N.D., got involved with barrel horses five years ago.

"At that time my husband had collected cars," said Zabel. "When I got into barrel racing—of course I'm older and I bought more horse than I needed, but thought what the heck! Then Dave got connected with Randy Schuchard, who knew Kassie Mowry. So that got us hooked up with Kassie Mowry. One thing led to another and Dave ended up selling all his collector cars and bought horses."

The Zabels first big success in the futurity pen was with My Guy Can Fly, ridden by Kassie Mowry. My Guy is now in Zabel's string of open horses.

"It's expensive to have a lot, but it sure is fun when it works out,"

CONGRATULATIONS JOLENE MONTGOMERY! 2016 Diamonds & Dirt Futurity Champion

HORSEHAIRANALYSIS.COM

D&D Futurity Continued From Page 7

The Zabels have horses with Mowry, Montgomery and her sister-in-law Molli Montgomery. They let each rider pick out their own horses so as to better match their styles of riding.

(Jolene) Montgomery gets the credit for picking out Richie at the 2014 Jud Little Ranch sale. The 2012 gelding, who sold as Dash Ta Tinkinator, is by JL Dash Ta Heaven and out of the Frenchmans Guy daughter Frenchmans Lana, a full sister to SX Frenchmans Vanilla.

"I went to the sale and picked out a few," said Montgomery. "I sent Dave and Lori some pictures. We settled on Richie and they bought him. It came down between him and the JL Dash Ta Heaven that Nicole Brown Monroe is running this year (JL Josie Bar). I thought I was wrong at the beginning of the year because the one that Nicole's running was doing really good and Richie hadn't come around yet."

Right after the sale Montgomery sent Richie to Brice Manning for some polishing before she started him on the pattern. The gangly colt was extremely talented, but had a hard time putting it all together.

"He's the most sensitive horse that I've ever ridden in my life," said Montgomery. "You barely move your hips in the saddle and he was ready to go somewhere. He's just light faced, light sided and a little on the nervous side and dirty fast. It just took a really long time. I knew he was super quick and talented; he would just get speed jammed. We took it really, really slow. Probably the first six times I ran him I high loped to the first barrel."

Having ridden and trained his sire, Montgomery wasn't too surprised.

"Dash Ta Heaven was pretty sensitive too," she said. "This colt is even more so; I'm guessing because he's a gelding. He's a little more nervous, but he has the same kind of athletic ability. It took Dash Ta Heaven a little while too. I can feel quite a bit of similarities."

Zabel said that Montgomery told them that Richie was probably going to take a little time and they were fine with waiting on the gelding.

"When Jolene first started him she said he was a little unsure and that she was just going to take her time with him," Zabel said. "We told her that's fine. Down in Buckeye, she pretty much just loped the pattern. Now everything just connected; it just clicked."

Montgomery had started to feel progress with the gelding by the LG Pro Classic in Kinder, La., mid-February.

"At Kinder, the last round, after four runs, he ran .2 and it placed him in the futurity," Montgomery said. "I knew he was close, but I really thought it would be little bit longer. At The Patriot, he was trying to be really good and just drug the second over and flipped the reins over his head in the process, I let him turn the third and eased out and he was still pretty fast. I really didn't expect it to come all at once like it did last week, but I'm glad it did."

Richie, who had his named changed after Zabel was inspired after drinking a Jamaican Me Happy wine cooler, placed in both rounds of the futurity in Bryan.

"The first run, he had a decent first," said Montgomery. "I two-handed him around it because he sometimes needs a little outside rein for support. The first is a little hard for him because he gets too round and he gets too fast to bring it all back. He had a good second and I got a little excited and smooched him to the third and that was not at all what I needed to do. He got a bit by the third."

They still placed eighth with a 16.153. They came back with a 15.787 to win the second round.

"His second run was just perfect," Montgomery said. "I don't think I could fault it anywhere. He was just really, really good. It was super smooth."

In the finals, they almost pulled over the first barrel. In fact, she was half-way to the second barrel before it settled back down.

"His last run we got a little tangled up at the first," she said. "It was the first time he tried to move in a little too close going to it and when I moved him over I forgot how sensitive he was and he moved over like 10 feet that's why we bumped it coming out. I just tried to stay still. He ran the rest the pattern by himself. He had a really good second and third. I just lost two or three tenths at the first barrel."

Zabel, who was also competing at Diamonds & Dirt, was jumping up and down in the stands before the last horse even finished the pattern when she realized that Richie and Montgomery had held on for the win.

"That was so awesome!" said Zabel, who also wanted to thank the Diamonds & Dirt crew for a great event. "What a blessing! I was joking with Jolene. She won all this money and I won $200 on mine, so thanks for the fuel money for me to get home!"

Pozzi-Tonozzi Tallying Up Another Win at 2016 Diamonds & Dirt

By Hope Sickler

Several time NFR qualifier and World Champion Barrel Racer Brittany Pozzi-Tonozzi is a force to be reckoned with when it comes to the cloverleaf pattern. Pair her with her amazingly talented 6-year-old Dash Ta Fame daughter, KissKiss BangBang (world record holder on a standard patter) and you can bet that the race is far from over until the dynamic duo runs down the alleyway. That was the case at this year's Diamond's and Dirt Sweepstakes race when Pozzi-Tonozzi and "Mona", as she affectionately calls the blazed face mare, turned in a blistering-fast time of 15.681-seconds.

"Mona" is out of CD Nick Bar who is by the late great Dr Nick Bar and Pozzi-Tonozzi has had the mare since she hit the ground 6 years ago.

"We have had a rough winter at the rodeos so I was very thankful to have won the Sweepstakes at Diamond's and Dirt," Pozzi-Tonozzi explained. "I knew that it was going to be a tough race in the Sweepstakes so we had to just go for it. That was the fastest time I have ran in that arena and I am very grateful that it happened when there was that much money on the line."

Prior to the Diamond's and Dirt Classic, Pozzi-Tonozzi decided to redirect her focus on "Mona".

"I have recently taken a different approach with her because we haven't been winning, which is probably more my fault than hers, so I decided to let my husband start heeling on her. We just started doing that the week before Diamond's and Dirt so it seemed to have worked!"

Having had previous success at Diamond's and Dirt, Pozzi-Tonozzi had yet to punch her Sweepstakes Championship ticket, until now.

"I have never won the Sweepstakes race before so I was very excited to take home the $10,000 paycheck along with a new Double J "Duke" saddle. I love that they have a Sweepstakes race there since it is something that you don't see at very many races. It is great to have so much money to run at that aged horses are eligible for," said Pozzi-Tonozzi.

With over $240,000 in earnings just at the Diamond's and Dirt Classic, Pozzi-Tonozzi feels pretty much at home at the event every year.

"The arena really fits my style and the way that I train my horses. It is a little bigger than some of the arenas that we run in and I like that because I train on a large pattern so that my horses have to work off of the barrels and not the fences. I won the first Diamond's and Dirt Classic Futurity on Ima Super Fly Guy and I won the first slot race on KissKiss BangBang. I want to extend a huge thank you to John and Kristi Schiller for putting on such a great event and for the support that they have given me over the years from rides back and forth to Houston on their plane and the coolest dog, Yorg, who was such a blessing while he was alive."

Twice As Nice for Kelly Burner & Suzytresseis

By Hope Sickler

In 2015, Kelly Bruner and her big brown gelding Suzytresseis left Bryan, Texas with a brand new Double J Trophy saddle along with some seriously deeper pockets after they were crowned the 2015 Diamond's and Dirt Derby Champions. Now fast forward one year later and it is safe to say that Bruner might be experiencing a little bit of déjà vu after she swept the incredibly tough field of derby horses aboard her big brown gelding once again to be crowned this year's Diamond's and Dirt Derby Champions.

"It is so surreal and I feel extremely blessed and grateful. To win such a prestigious title two years in a row is an absolute dream come true and such a triumph for "Suzy" and I," Bruner said.

Bruner bought the 7-year-old gelding by Tres Seis and out of Romancing Suzy by Power Of Romance off the track as a coming 4-year-old. Although he is smashing records left and right now, Bruner does note that "Suzy" had to overcome the track before he could really focus all of his attention and energy on the barrel pattern.

"When we got him, he was a little hyper from previously being on the track and living that lifestyle most of his life, we just took our time getting him to where he could relax and really enjoy what we were doing every day. It took him about a year to get over the track and once he did, it was like we broke through a wall."

Bruner also noted that "Suzy" has his own style of turning and one that she believes was his intention from the get-go.

"He is so turny and definitely has his own unique way of turning. I don't think it is something you can train, I think that it was just the natural way for him and it turned out that it was a very efficient and fast way of turning," laughed Bruner.

In the first round of the Diamond's & Dirt Derby, Bruner lit the scoreboard on fire with the fastest run of the entire weeklong event with a 15.654-second run.

"Our first round run was great. He turned all three barrels awesome and I knew he was going to be fast because all of our turns were so incredibly tight. When I heard a 15.6 I was thrilled for having such a great run. It was smooth and fast, just what we wanted."

Coming into the short round on Saturday evening, Bruner kept her game plan intact and made sure she was ready to give it everything she had because she knew that "Suzy" was going to make a run for the money!

"He smoked the first and the second barrel. I barely bumped the third barrel just above my knee and it teetered for just a second, thankfully! I urged him home because I knew that we were going to be fast again," said Bruner.

With another sub-16 second run of 15.75, Bruner's aggregate time on two was 31.404-seconds which claimed her and "Suzy" the Diamond's and Dirt Derby Championship once again.

"I am very happy and overwhelmed with so much joy. What made this win so sweet was that both my parents were there to witness it. They were there last year when I won it but I did not get the chance to get them in the picture with me. This year I made sure that both my mom and my dad were in that picture with me. My dad is a World War II veteran and he is 89-years-old and loves to come and watch me and all the competitors run barrels. I am very grateful that they were able to be there for it."

Bruner and "Suzy" loaded up and left Bryan, Texas with over $7,300 in their pockets along with a beautiful Double J "Duke" trophy saddle, a gorgeous Twisted J Ranch leather jacket and lots of smiles.

"I would just like to thank all the support that I have especially Dr. Reece Hand and my husband, who do everything that they can to keep "Suzy" comfortable and running his best. Also thanks to Kelly Conrado for the continued advice.

Remembering Ruth Haislip

Champion barrel racer, leading horse breeder, veterinarian and devoted wife and mother Ruth (Smith) Haislip of Acampo, Calif., passed away March 13, 2016 from complications of interstitial lung disease. She was 63.

Haislip was a fierce competitor, having qualified for three National Finals Rodeos. She was compassionate about caring for all her four-legged patients, even though all who knew her can attest to her immense love of cats. Haislip was passionate about the horses she raised and her boys—her husband of 36 years Jim and their two sons Garrett and Tanner.

She possessed an undeniable fortitude to manage all aspects of her life—horses, veterinary medicine and her family. Haislip was a doer, who didn't take no for an answer. She was an inspiration to many.

Raised in Benson, Ariz., Haislip caught the horse bug early and she hooked up with a local lady who took her under her wing and hauled her to jackpots. In 1969, she won the Queen's Contest at the Arizona High School Finals Rodeo.

She competed in college rodeo one year while working her undergraduate degree at the University of Arizona. At U of A, she was part of their 1973 National Championship Rodeo Team and won the Miss College Rodeo title. Haislip used her remaining years of eligibility while attending veterinary school at Colorado State University and was the Rocky Mountain Region Champion Barrel Racer in 1977.

A Gold Card Member of the WPRA, Haislip first bought her card while living in Colorado and hauled with Becky Carson. After moving to California, she competed until her veterinary practice required more of her time. In the late 1990s, Haislip once again found the barrel racing spotlight with a homegrown superstar.

A negative experience after purchasing a horse with borrowed money during her undergraduate career at the University of Arizona that inspired her to raise her own horses. She made the bloodlines of her great college rodeo horse the foundation of her program.

Wild N Groovy, a mare purchased from the same breeder as her college horse, would start her on the path to become a leading breeder. Her greatest offspring was Go Royal Scarlett, who would carry Haislip to three straight NFRs, from 1998 to 2000. Started by her husband Jim and patterned by good friend and NFR qualifier Marilyn Camarillo, Scarlett was a natural born barrel horse. One of the first images of Ruth and Scarlett to appear in national barrel racing media was of her in the winner's circle at a futurity in Morgan Hill, Calif.—her son Tanner on her hip, her oldest son Garrett on Scarlett's back.

With two young sons a priority along with her veterinary practice, Ruth set out in 1998 with the goal of seasoning Scarlett to rodeo competition. They qualified for their first NFR that year having only rodeoed since June. Scarlett was only 6.

Ruth and Scarlett returned to the NFR two more times in 1999 and 2000, having never gone to more than 45 rodeos a season.

Fellow barrel racer Renee George recalled hauling with Haislip. She said she was one of the most organized people—she had to be with as many irons in the fire as she had, but Christy Burleson had to chirp in that she did show up for slack at Industry once and had to borrow jeans because she forgot to bring hers.

"She had everything planned," said George. "We would only drive so much and let those horses out. She had it exactly figured out. She knew when and where for every trip. She always planned ahead where we were going to stay so the horses could get good rest. We never stayed at rodeo grounds. We'd show up in time for the rodeo but never before then. She didn't want to be around too early with all the commotion.

"I had so much respect for her. It was such a joy hauling with her and I learned so much, things that I'll treasure forever. She was a wonderful person. I loved hauling with her. We used to share a lot about the Lord while we were driving. We'd stop at Target and buy a new worship tape and sing worship songs. Now if we ever got tired, she'd stop and say, 'Now we have to put in Cher.' I thought that was so funny, but it did keep us awake!"

By 2001, the long roundtrips to fit in big rodeos in between her practice and family had taken its toll.

Wanting to spend more time at home with all her boys, Ruth became a circuit cowgirl. She and Scarlett had won the California circuit championship from 1998 to 2001, having made nine trips to the circuit finals rodeo.

Haislip continued to be a force at the California barrel races, too, with other horses she raised out of Wild N Groovy. Ima Royal Lady Jane, Scarlett's full sister, helped Liz Pinkston qualify for an NFR and won many races with Haislip. Oh Sweet Star, who was by AR Star, a stallion that the Haislips co-owned with Marilyn Camarillo, won a lot with Ruth as well.

After retiring Scarlett to fulltime broodmare duty in 2008, Haislip along with her husband Jim developed a powerful program around the mare much like they did her mother.

"She loved raising horses," said Haislip's friend Stacey Freitas. "She loved the babies. They were like her kids. She said she had to sell them when they were really young because it was too hard after they were older. She had decided to sell an older one and we made a sale video. When I asked her what she wanted the ad to say, she burst into tears. She loved all her horses."

While she didn't like parting with her equine children, Haislip was immensely proud of what her horses had accomplished and she didn't want the barrel racing world to forget how great Scarlett was and miss out on how good her babies were. Haislip did her part keeping her horses in the limelight, even climbing back in the saddle herself. Now, it's assured her breeding program will not be forgotten.

Royal Star Commander, who now belongs to the Murray family of Fort Worth, Texas, qualified Deb Guelly to the 2015 NFR. Commander, whom Ruth loved for his quirky nature and for being Scarlett's first foal, also won the BFA Derby in record fashion and qualified for RFD-TV's The American.

Royal And Famous was a top futurity horse for the Matthews family's Mission Ranch in Wynne, Ark., and is now standing at stud. A Streak Of Scarlett sold at the 2015 BFA Sale for $100,000 as a yearling stallion prospect.

"That night of the sale, she was so excited," said Jim. "She kept talking about it. She just said 'Our program is finally starting to work.' She just glowed."

Ruth, herself, ran Famous Scarlett, affectionately known as Jewel. The mare reminded her so much of her great mother and the fit was instant. Ruth and Jewel qualified for the 2015 California Circuit Finals. They last competed together at the BFA World Championships in Oklahoma City.

Word of Haislip's passing shocked the barrel racing community. Immensely private and in possession of incredible fortitude, Haislip quietly battled interstitial lung disease, which forced her retirement from the veterinary profession in the summer of 2015. Ever undaunted, Haislip continued to compete at the highest levels of barrel racing until she was forced to focus solely on her health. Just weeks before her passing, she turned down an invitation to compete at the RAM National Circuit Finals Rodeo.

"She was tough," said Jim, her husband of 36 years. Just eight days after a lung biopsy to discover Haislip's ailment, she ran at the ACBRA Finals and won three saddles while running two of her horses Famous Scarlett (Jewel) and Frenchmans Royal Guy (Tuff).

"The surgeon had her back in six days after the biopsy to check on her and take the staples out," recalled Jim. "He asked how she was doing and she said she was getting ready to go to Salinas. He asked, 'For what?' She said, 'Well, I'm going to go to a barrel race.' He got so mad he threw her records up in the air and walked out of the room!"

Even in early December, when her situation was become increasingly more difficult, Haislip was looking forward to traveling "at a leisurely pace" with her husband to rodeos she had never been to before. Just this past summer, the two had taken a 3,500-mile Fourth of July run together.

"We started in Reno and went to Oakley, Utah, Cody, Red Lodge, Livingston and then did 16- 18-hour drive to Oregon for Molalla. The heat was terrible. We laughed said we may have well stayed in Arizona. Next year let's just do Window Rock and Prescott. We sat in the truck and had fun, and kind of got to re-know each other. Even the three days we spent in the truck to Oklahoma City in December...it was a lot of fun."

A force of nature, Ruth was one of those rare individuals who was moving 90 miles an hour while standing still. She leaves behind a winning legacy through her family and the horses she raised.

"Ruth was one of our greats," said past WPRA President Carolyn Victor. "She did it all, a wife and mother of two boys, a practicing veterinarian, and many times NFR contestant, all at the same time. She was an amazing woman, who gave it all at whatever she did. She will be greatly missed by all who knew her, but her legacy will live on through the great horses that she and her husband, Jim, raised. So sad to see her leave so soon."

A Celebration of Life will be held April 2 at Pioneer Equine Hospital in Oakdale, Calif., at 1:30. The California Circuit is working to have Haislip's name placed on the PRCA's Wall of Honor. Donations for the Wall of Honor maybe sent to Marguerite Happy, WPRA CA Circuit Director, 30370 Bouquet Canyon Rd., Santa Clarita, CA 91390.

Headin' For Home

by Sherry Morrison
Triple M (Mike Morrison Ministries)

Spring is in the air! Baby everything's and green grass! New beginnings! When we ask Jesus to be our Lord and Savior, "Behold! Old things have passed away and all things have become new!" 2 Cor. 5:17. That's pretty good news for us experienced people!

So if we are talking about new beginnings, let's talk about friendships. Who you associate with is very important to your wellbeing and to God. Just like everything else in our lives, God has instructions for us to keep us on the Blessing side of things. I Cor. 15:33 in the Amplified Bible says, "Do not be so deceived and misled. Evil companionships (communion, associations) corrupt and deprave good manners and morals and character." Yikes! I don't want that! I want the Blessing! But if our friends are constantly leading us down the wrong path, we are just naturally going to be out from under the Blessing and under the curse. It's our choice. If we want to be successful in this life, we have to choose those paths that get us to where we want to be without a whole lot of meandering around in the world's way of doing things.

To be strong in the Lord, we need to meditate on His Word. Psl.

1:1-3 says, "Oh, the joys of those who do not follow the advice of the wicked, or stand around with sinners, or join in with mockers. But they delight in the law of the Lord, meditating on it day and night. They are like trees planted along the riverbank, bearing fruit each season. Their leaves never wither, and they prosper in all they do."

The successful person will listen to the right counsel, surround himself with the right people, delight in God's way of doing things and meditate in His Word. The result of all of this is remaining fruitful in life, prospering in everything and not withering!

New beginnings. Let's develop good friendships, and for petes' sake, let's not be the bad friend!!
