Left Without A Doubt -- Ashley Schafer & Born On Derby Day Win Elite's HHA Futurity

By Tanya Randall

Kinder Cup Futurity Champions Ashley Schafer and Born On Derby Day captured their second straight championship with a $10,411 victory at the $20,000-added Horse Hair Analysis Futurity at the Elite Extravaganza, held March 10-13 in the Pavilion Arena at the Extraco Events Center in Waco, Texas.

"I honestly had no expectations going in," said the leading futurity trainer and rider from Comanche, Texas. "I was shocked because I switched her left."

Although Derby had won Kinder running to the right barrel first, Schafer already had a hunch that she needed to switch the 5-year-old mare to the left. It wasn't a surprise feeling as she knew from riding similarly bred horses that she might be softer and rounder to the right.

"A lot of the Streakin-bred horses that I've ridden—grandsons and daughters and own sons and daughters, they're a little stiffer to the left than to the right," she explained. Derby, from the Spitz Quarter Horse program, is by NFR qualifier Freckles Ta Fame and out of KR Last Fling, an A Streak Of Fling mare that Schafer rode to several futurity championships. "To me, you can get away with that more at the first barrel because you can take a different angle, V that turn and it can be really fast. It's not as forgiving in your second turn because you have to take one more step. I think if a horse is significantly different in either direction, you need two turns to their 'round' side."

Schafer said horses are just like people and have a dominant side.

"When I first started riding Derby I could feel that she was stiffer to the left and softer in the rib cage to the right," she continued. "I started to the left, but then, through training, she balanced out where she felt the same on both sides to ride around. Instead of sticking with the left, I decided to go to the right on her."

Derby made her competitive debut at the OKC Futurity running to the right. While she did well, making the finals against horses that had run all year long, a bobble at the second barrel cost her. It was a situation that repeated itself at her next two futurities—the Lone Star Shootout in Stephenville, Texas, and The Richest Dinosaur in Glen Rose, Texas.

"She doesn't try to hit the barrel, but if she starts the turn too early and her rib cage is stiff she can't get around it without taking an extra step," Schafer explained. "If you start your turn too early and their rib cage is soft you can still wrap the barrel and make it work."

After Glen Rose, Schafer knew she needed to make the switch but didn't have the time to do so before Kinder.

"She's never been bad or told me no, it was just that I had to ride her so perfect for it to work for her," she said. "I didn't have time to switch her before Kinder and of course, she ended up winning the futurity. I was like, 'Oh man! People are going to think I'm nuts if I switch her!' I just knew in my heart it was going to be better for her."

Schafer even consulted the "Lefty Guru" Craig Brooks about making the change.

"He said trot her or lope her through once and then go ahead and send her through, if she turns the first barrel and picks that lead up really easily going to the second, you know you have a lefty," she said. "I did and she had a good first, caught that right lead and spun the second. I was like, 'I think I have a lefty on my hand.' My husband, who was at the arena, said, 'Yeah, I think that's going to work.' I knew that was good advice from Craig. I really appreciate his words of insight."

Derby had one run to the left at jackpot prior to Waco and placed in the 3D.

"I just cruised," she said. "I didn't get an exhibition. I hadn't been to the arena before. I had no expectations. I just wanted to get a run on her to see if it was going to work for her. Even though she was slow, I liked the way her turns felt. I even talked to my husband about it, and he said, 'You know the horse best. You need to do what feels right.'"

Schafer figured the recent switch would cost her money at Waco, but Derby proved her wrong.

"She had other ideas in mind. She decided that she wanted to be a winner either direction," said Schafer, who purchased the mare as an embryo from the Spitz.

Their second run to the left was a 15.163 that placed sixth in the first round of the Futurity.

"The first round she had some bobbles, but the good thing is she's always listening to me and she always responds to me. She never tells me no. I just guided her the best I could and she listened and went where she was supposed to but it wasn't like she just took over and did it for me," Schafer said.

The second round, Derby took over turning in the fastest time of the futurity a 14.801.

"She said, 'I've got this.' I just let her do her thing and she was awesome!" Schafer chuckled.

Schafer didn't even chase her out of the pen on her run home.

"I could feel that she was really running out of the pen, so I just let her instead of asking her," she said. "The main thing was I didn't want to scare her because I was throwing a lot of things at her. It was her third run to the left."

Schafer and Derby were the best of the 122-entry event by .08 over Kortney Kizer and Coronaslucky Twonite. Less than 3/10ths separated first through fourth in the aggregate. Schafer also got fourth on Swoon Ta Be Famous, a 5-year-old Dash Ta Fame, Frenchmans Guy gelding that belongs to Robin Kuhnhein, and placed in the second go on the Spitz's French Streakof Fame, a 4-year-old Streakin Boon Dox out of Freckles Ta Fame's sister, Famed French Kiss.

All totaled, Schafer pocketed $18,013.

"It worked out a lot better than I thought it would," she chuckled.

Looking back, Schafer said she probably should have made the switch on other horses as well—one of those being Derby's dam, KR Last Fling ("Laramie").

"That was really early in my career and she (Laramie) had started out really well," she said. "It's like anything else, the longer we do this the more we learn. Also getting to ride those horses—I had the full sister last year Famous Cash Can—kind of the same thing. She was awesome and won $105,000 to the right, but when I think back on it I probably should have switched her too."

"With Derby, knowing the mother and knowing the sister, knowing where I was at with her, I decided I own her and I'm going to switch her."

It's this part of the training process—though often extremely frustrating—that keeps Schafer intrigued.

"I love trying to problem solve," she said. "As frustrating as it can be sometimes, it feels so good when you figure it out. Just like with Derby... I totally did not expect that. I was thinking I probably wouldn't even place because I was doing that. But when a plan

Hello Stella & Sharin Hall Win First Derby Championship at Elite Extravaganza

By Tanya Randall

All-time leading futurity horse Hello Stella got her first derby victory at the Elite Extravaganza, held March 10-13 in the Pavilion Arena at the Extraco Events Center in Waco, Texas. The 5-year-old mare, owned, bred, trained and ridden by Sharin Hall of Pilot Point, Texas, topped the $10,000-added Elite Derby for $5,839.

Combined with carryover earnings from placing third in the first open race, winning the second and sweeping the 1D of the Adult sidepots, Stella earned $8,911 in Waco. She's now less than $5,000 shy of $600,000 in career earnings.

"I do feel like everybody expects for us to keep doing what we're doing," said Hall, "and of course, we want to, but that does add a significant amount of pressure. I've just had to train my brain to not focus on that—or anyone's expectations—and just focus on riding my horse. If I do that, she pretty much takes over the rest because she has such a good work ethic.

"If you look at it from their perspective though, they don't know what we're running for. She just goes in there every time because she loves it and she does it because she wants to. I honestly feel like she wants to please me too. When you think about that...it's just amazing to me the amount of heart and try these horses have."

In the first round of the Derby, Hall was focusing on making a "business run." They stopped the clock in 14.848 to win the round.

"Her first run I just focused on being really correct with her—my body position and my cues," she explained. "I feel like we had a really pretty run. I might have got her by the second a little bit, but it doesn't really affect her too much when I do that because she just stays forward. I really just wanted to be clean and smooth and make a business run, and that's what we did."

EQUIBRAND™

The second round, Stella dropped the hammer to win the round with a 14.604, the fastest run of the entire event.

"It shocked me that she ran a .60," Hall said. "It was just very efficient. She's just so quick out of them. She was just a little bit tighter on the barrels. We almost knocked the second coming out of it. It rocked a little bit but stayed up, thankfully. I was just thankful for another clean run."

Hall has been dealing with a resurgence of shoulder issues lately and jarred herself pretty good at Waco.

"I was recommended to not even ride, but I did enough therapy on my shoulder that I was able to," she said. "I was pretty pain free on the first run, but the second run—I think it happened on the first barrel, I must have braced a little bit when she made a move and it jarred my back, so it was difficult getting off her and to move around, it was pretty stoved up."

Shoulder injuries were what prompted Hall to get her real estate license and cut back on her outside training horses. Because of her age—they say she's too young for the surgery—shoulder replacement isn't an option yet so she's been getting stem cell injections and doing physical therapy at Freedom Health to stay riding.

"I'm working on being as healthy as I can," she said. "I'm getting some really good results because I'm doing a lot of regenerative medicine."

A horse like Stella makes it easy to battle through pain to stay riding. While the daughter of leading sire The Goodbye Lane out of the proven performer and producer Go Go Fame, by Dash Ta Fame, has some rodeo experience, winning checks in the WCRA at Las Vegas and Fort Worth, Hall plans on seasoning the mare a little bit more this year in between the bigger aged events.

"I entered the pro rodeo in San Angelo," she said. "It's good ground. I'm looking forward to that. This month is kind of slow. I just had the Elite on the books. I might hit a few rodeos just to get our feet wet and see how it goes. I'm probably going to a Bar-

THE RUNDOWN w/Sharin Hall

Hello Stella "Stella" 15.2 hands

BIT: Sharin Hall's SH 03

SADDLE: SH Pro Series Lite

SADDLE PAD: SH Pro Series Orthopedic

LEG GEAR: Professional's Choice 2xCools on all four

SHOEING: Aluminum Kerckhaert on front, St. Croix Lites on rear

FEED: ReNew Gold Senior and special soaked mash of organic alfalfa, organic beet pulp, rice bran, flax seed and Daily Gold Stress Relief at night. "That's her candy to go to bed on," Hall chuckled.

HAY: All the grass hay she wants 24/7; Alfalfa morning and night.

SUPPLEMENTS: Horse Hair Analysis and Med-Vet Pharmaceuticals

ALTERNATIVE THERAPIES: PEMF, PHT, Hidez, Easy Boot Clouds and Therplate

TRAINING/CONDITIONING: "She always gets a day off after I run. She'll get rode the next two days and then another day off. She'll probably get rode two to three times a week if I run on the weekends."

SPONSORS AND THANK YOUS: SH Barrel Horses, SH Pro Series Tack, Team MVP, Cowgirl Tuff, PEMF Complete, Dream Hidez, PHT Products, Equine Aqua Spa-Whitesboro, Texas, Renew Gold Feeds, Supple Steeds, Horse Hair Analysis, Therplate by Rene Audsley, Tom Hutchins, DVM, Jarrod Morrisfarrier, Laura Gunn Marketing.

rel Bash, the BBR (Finals) and the Ruby Buckle next month. This month is kind of chill. I tried to give her a little break. She gets lots of little breaks in between the bigger stuff and lots of therapy. Like whatever she wants, she gets!"

Hall hasn't started Stella's reproductive career year.

AIRWAY EQ

"Air-Way EQ has helped maintain my horse's respiratory health, I've noticed clearer sounding airways and greater lung capacity. I use Breathe'O2 paste pre-race, he sounds great warming up and really fires without feeling winded."

Confidence in every run starts with supporting your horse's digestive health.

A horse in excellent digestive health can run its best in every race. They...

- Eat better and maintain weight.
- Stay relaxed living on the road and in high-stress rodeo environments.
- Maintain focus in the alley.
- Stay strong and correct on the pattern.

And you can be confident their digestive systems are able to handle the challenges of the demanding pro rodeo life. Feed SUCCEED® Digestive Conditioning Program® once a day every day to support the health of the entire equine digestive system. It's a natural, proven approach to maintaining a healthy GI tract, delivering all those benefits of good digestive health.

HEADIN' FOR HOME

by Sherry Morrison // Triple M (Mike Morrison Ministries)

Do you enjoy a challenge, or do you prefer smooth sailing? That's a hard one. Smooth sailing is obviously the easiest path. BUT if we never challenge ourselves to grow, where will we be in a few months, or years? We'll be stuck. Stuck, stuck, stuck.

Everything we do in life, we need to grow. The only thing I can think of where we need to remind childlike, is our faith. If you ask a Christian if they love God, they will tell you, yes, of course! But let's look at it a little closer.

Do you use your talent for the world's benefit, or for God? If all your spare time is used giving to the world, and you do nothing to help at your church, is God first? Do you use all your extra money to entertain yourself and you won't give at church, is God first? Can you get to any school practice or event, rain or snow or sleet or hail? But when it's time for church and it's cold or the roads are slick, you stay home, is God first?

We all know the answer to these questions is...no, God is not first. Yikes! That hurt! God gifted us like no one else. He needs us. He needs our best. Our best is not for the world only, it's for HIM! Since He gave us the very breath we breathe, this shouldn't be hard!

This month, let's put God first in a place where we know we have put Him 2nd, or last. I know we will all see blessings flow! It will be a challenge, but we will not be sorry!

Mike and Sherry Morrison pastor "Church at the Barn" in Gillette, WY. They also travel to other areas ministering at barrel races, ranches, rodeos, churches and home Bible studies.
