The American Dream Comes True for Sarah McDonald & Fame Fling N Bling

By Tanya Randall

Sarah McDonald and her great horse Fame Fling N Bling have had a relatively quiet winter until they bought down the house at RFD-TV's The American, presented by Polaris Ranger. Using their trademark paint peeling style, the duo from New Brunswick, Ga., left Arlington's AT&T Stadium $100,000 richer.

"I was so happy when I was in the Top 10 after the NFR and I would get to go to The American," said McDonald. While the Top 10 in the WPRA and PRCA are invited to compete as guests, the remaining field is made up of qualifiers who competed for their chance to make the big show and a shot at a share of a $1 million bonus in Arlington. McDonald herself qualified last year, but didn't make it through the Semifinals Rodeo.

"It's such an amazing opportunity," she continued. "There's 21 (contestants) and only two of them are going to have a really big payday. It's definitely tough. It's amazing the prize money they give away, and the prizes. It was great for the sport of rodeo."

Among the prizes that McDonald took home were an "amazing" belt buckle, a "beautiful" saddle, a rifle, a Yeti cooler and a Polaris Ranger—"even though I won't be home to drive it. My uncle's going to enjoy it for me!"

McDonald wanted to thank her uncle Stephen McDonald, who trained Bling, and Larry Ammons, who co-owns the mare, her boyfriend Wade Whatley and Bling's equine therapist Jess Harper as well as her sponsors Oxy-Gen, Cinch, Texas Landman, CSI Pads, Iconoclast, RockN Wilson's Leather, Horse Hydrator, Charlie 1 Horse Hats, Dusty Rocker Boots, Elgin Vet Hospital and PHT. McDonald's uncle and Ammons were both in attendance for The American.

"They were excited," she said. "I was happy to see them. I hadn't seen them since I left in January. They were happy to see Bling. It was awesome how they were there."

After jumping to the lead in the World Standings during last year's winter run, McDonald and Bling were hit and miss this year until a health issue was uncovered. After running in the first round of San Antonio, McDonald knew something wasn't right with Bling.

"I took her the vet and she had an ulcer on her epiglottis," she explained, "and it was preventing her from getting air while she was running. So, I had to get off of her."

McDonald climbed aboard Foxy Driftn Jewel, a Southeastern horse who belongs to Trip and Callie duPerier, for her remaining runs at San Antonio.

"I'm hauling her this year," said McDonald of the 14-year-old

Nonstop Drifter mare. "She's just really fun to ride. She's a push style also. She did great. She got us placed second in the second and third round and advanced us to the semis (at San Antonio)."

Meanwhile, Bling was healing.

"It didn't take long to heal," she said, "but I was like, 'This is not at a good time! The American's coming up!' Maybe she just needed a little break."

When Bling got cleared for riding again, McDonald spent a lot of time working on getting her first barrel and her timing back.

"That was on Thursday," she said. "Saturday, I had entered Sinton, Texas. I thought I'm going to go there and get a practice run. At the point, I didn't know if I was going to run her (at The American) or if she was back feeling good. She had to be on pretty heavy antibiotics. So I ended up going down there and she worked really good and felt more like her normal self. So I decided I was going to stick with Bling for The American and hope for the best."

McDonald and the extremely quick-footed A Streak Of Fling, Dash Ta Fame mare were the third fastest qualifiers after the long

Young Mother & Barrel Racer Passes

Barrel racer Lara Dewees of Dade City, Fla., died Feb. 28, one day before her 28th birthday, as a result of injuries sustained after her run at the Feb. 19-20 Southern Miss Coca-Cola Classic Rodeo in Hattiesburg, Miss. Dewees lost control of the reins, and was eventually thrown from the horse. She was transported to Forrest General Hospital, where she remained in a coma until passing away. A Go Fund Me account has been set up on her behalf to help her family with expenses. It can be accessed at www.gofundme.com/jtr7582s. -- Courtesy of www.prorodeo.com

Barrel Sire Holy Bart Passed Away

Last Tuesday, February 23, 2016, up and coming barrel sire Holy Bart passed away. The 2002 black stallion was bred by Robert Driggers and Jerrylee Belew. By perennial leading barrel sire Dash Ta Fame and out of High On Coaly by On A High. Holy Bart was a 1D barrel horse and sire who traced back to the blue hen mare, Esters Little Klu. He was owned, ridden, and stood at stud with John & Cindy Baltezare. Here is note from them:

It is with heavy hearts we announce our family and breeding program experienced a devastating loss overnight. Our beloved stallion, Holy Bart, lost a brave fight against an internal infection. This was unexpected and quick, and we are still reeling from the reality that he will not be with us any longer. Bart and his devoted medical team at Dakota Large Animal Clinic in Harrisburg, South Dakota fought a heroic battle. John and Cindy Baltezare

Watch Rodeo Houston live

One of the biggest rodeos of the winter, Rodeo Houston, kicks off tonight Tuesday, March 1 and runs through Sunday, March 20, 2016. Live coverage of the rodeo performances is carried on www.FoxSportsSouthwest.com, go there and look for the Houston Livestock Show & Rodeo logo in the middle of the screen. The day sheets and schedule are available at www.RodeoHouston.com under the Rodeohouston tab. All the other rodeo information is also available there on their website.

Iowan wins $1.1 M at RFD-TV's The American

Wade Sundell, 31 of Boxholm, Iowa, earned $1.1 million after an eight-second rodeo ride on Feb. 28 at AT&T Stadium during RFD-TV's The American, presented by Polaris Ranger.

The nationally televised rodeo annually invites the 10 best professional athletes in the world to compete for a $1 million purse, but the format also allows a handful of athletes to pay a fee to attempt to qualify throughout the season. A million-dollar bonus was reserved for any qualifier who could beat the best in the world on Feb. 28.

But Sundell, the 2015 reserve world champion saddle bronc rider, was also eligible for the bonus this year – if he could win his event for a remarkable third straight year as the “Triple Crown” champion. None of the qualifiers could unseat the elite athletes, and Sundell took home the entire bonus after an epic ride of 90.75 points on a Frontier Rodeo bronc named Maple Leaf.

“I think I was born for this place,” said Sundell, who also won $100,000 at RFD-TV's The American in AT&T Stadium in 2014 and again in 2015. “There's no backing up here; you have to let it all hang out.”

Sundell had to sweat the run of fellow Triple Crown contender Lisa Lockhart of South Dakota, who also won the preliminary round of her event and looked likely to split Sundell's million-dollar windfall. But by less than two-tenths of a second, Lockhart was edged to second in barrel racing, making Sundell the lone bonus winner.

His paycheck of $1.1 million on Sunday comes close to the $1.4 million it has taken him nine years of professional bronc riding to earn in his career. Sundell recently won the Cheyenne (Wyo.) Frontier Days rodeo on Maple Leaf.

“I'm always wound up, but I was really wound up when I found out I had that horse,” said Sundell, who was a high-school standout wrestler. He became the first saddle bronc rider to qualify for the NFR from Iowa in 2009, and has made repeat trips to Las Vegas every year since.

Every event champion also took home nearly $50,000 in prizes that included new Polaris RANGERS. In addition, The American paid out more than a half-million dollars through its Semi-Finals and its Contestant Patch Auction in Fort Worth, Feb. 17-21.

round at The American. Two-time winners Lisa Lockhart and her great horse An Oakie With Cash ("Louie") were leading the pack into the Final Four, hoping to cash in on a share of the $1 million bonus for the Qualifiers. If a previous two-time winner captured their event championship for a third time, they too had a chance at the bonus.

Saddle bronc rider Wade Sundell had already wrapped up a share of the $1 million bonus when he won his event. Sundell, who keeps a close eye on the barrel racing as an owner of several well-bred prospects, had to wait until Lockhart and Louie had a final say on just how much of the million would be his.

With McDonald and Bling denying Lockhart and Louie, who finished second for $25,000, Sundell was sole owner of the million and he got added assurance he'd invested wisely with his barrel horses. He owns several by A Streak Of Fling.

During her victory interview, McDonald said she was "riding for Lara Dewees," acknowledging the passing of fellow Southeastern Circuit competitor Lara Dewees, who tragically lost her life the morning of The American. "I think she was with us today," she added.

Dewees suffered a severe head injury at the Hattiesburg, Miss., pro rodeo, the prior week. She passed a day shy of her 28th birthday and left behind an 18-month-old son and fiancé.

"She was super sweet and always talked to me. She was always nice to see. She was just doing what she loved. You never expect for something like that to happen. It could happen to anyone of us making a run," said McDonald, adding that she hoped this tragedy made rodeo committees more aware of dangerous conditions that could easily be remedied.

McDonald is currently on her way to Rodeo Houston. She's out in the second set, which starts on Friday. She's also entered in Bay City, Texas, next Tuesday.

"I haven't had the best year so far because I didn't know what was wrong with Bling until I found out," she said. "I'm just excited that she's back feeling good. I'm excited to be going to Houston. That's such a big rodeo and can really help out a lot. I'm just trying to enter smart. Hopefully, things will get back going for us."

High Money for High Point Performance Horses Slick By Design & Michele McLeod in San Antonio

By Tanya Randall

Three-time Wrangler National Finals Rodeo qualifier Michele McLeod is having one of the best winters of her career. Her latest victory was aboard the talented, black stallion Slick By Design, owned by Charlie Cole and Jason Martin's High Point Performance Horses of Pilot Point, Texas, with a $23,529 San Antonio Rodeo Championship.

McLeod, Whitesboro, Texas, wanted to thank Slick's owners Cole and Martin as well as the San Antonio Rodeo.

"That was a great rodeo," she said. "I want to thank all the committee members and volunteers. We were down there a whole week and they really did a great job facilitating that whole rodeo. Plus, it pays great and you don't have any entry fees. I got a $5,000 gas card and a yearling colt. They gave an Animal Athlete Award, so Slick won another $1,500, plus all the prize money."

Unlike traditional rodeos, San Antonio uses a tournament-style format with the overall champion being decided by the high-money winner. The rodeo was limited to 50 contestants, with five sets of 10 contestants competing in three performances. The top four from each set, or bracket, advanced to one of two, two-run semifinals. The top five money earners from each semifinal set advanced to the clean-slate finals.

McLeod and Slick, a 9-year-old son of Designer Red out of Dreams Of Blue, by Dream On Dancer, split second in their first performance with Fallon Taylor and Flos Heiress. They were just out of the money in their second performance, but came back to win their third performance. They concluded their bracket with $3,707 and earned a berth into the semifinals.

Katelyn, McLeod's middle daughter, also ran at San Antonio aboard High Point Performance Horses-owned gelding Apt To Be Special ("Toby"). She, too, advanced to the Semifinals. She and her mom had been up in different brackets, by the design of Charlie Cole, who figured it was wiser to have them split than trying to win money out from under each other. Unfortunately, they drew up together in the semifinals.

“(Katelyn) didn’t place in the first (semifinal) and in the second we were second and third, and she missed the finals by $30,” explained McLeod.

For the Finals, McLeod caught a lucky break, drawing up on top of the ground. They made the most of it with a victorious 13.80, the fastest time of the rodeo.

“That afternoon when I saw I was first out I was like, ‘Oh wow, things are falling my way,’” said McLeod. “I was so excited with the way he was feeling and running that I just kept trying to make just nice solid runs. When he ran the .8, I couldn’t believe it.”

Slick was pretty fresh considering he’d been off since last year’s NFR, but he’d made a lot of runs in a short period of time.

“He hasn’t been running back that long at all!” said McLeod. “We threw a lot of runs at him; it’s crazy.”

Slick had slipped in the alleyway during the 10th round of the Wrangler National Finals Rodeo and bruised his knee and didn’t make his first run of 2016 until the Sunday’s Valentine’s Day Race at Cowtown Coliseum in Fort Worth. His second run back was a Wednesday night performance at San Angelo, Texas, where he slipped and caught the second barrel. From Angelo is was on to the fifth set at San Antonio.

Immediately following the short go at San Antonio, McLeod and Slick had RFD-TV’s The American. They got a little up the arena on their first barrel, which kept them from advancing to the final four. Right after The American festivities, they left for Rodeo Houston, where she’s out in the second set and her daughter is out in the first set, which starts Tuesday, March 1.

After Houston, they will be home for a weekend and maybe go to the pro rodeo Marshall, Texas. The Mercedes, Texas, rodeo is the following week, before she returns to Houston—for either the semifinals or wild-card—and the Cinch Shootout that Michele is running in on Sunday. They’ll go straight to Rodeo Austin from there.

“This year, because of Toby and Disco, I think we’re going to go to California for April,” added McLeod. “Slick will stay back here and I may fly back to run him at Corpus and Lufkin, and then go back to California. I think the bigger outdoor pens in California will be good for Toby and Disco.”

A Pearl Snappin Win at The Patriot

By Hope Sickler

One very exciting race held during The Patriot was the $10,000 added Invitational Barrel Race which was open to BBR Members who participated in a Qualifier for the 2016 American Rodeo. $10,000 was awarded to the winner and Abby Penson and her phenomenal mare Pearl Snappin were the lucky recipients when they blistered the cloverleaf pattern in 14.626-seconds.

Pearl Snappin, an 8-year-old mare by Ketchum Cowboy and out of a daughter of Peppy San Badger, is quite the athlete and has a resume a mile long.

"We bought "Pearl" as a 2-year-old from the Four Sixes Ranch and I started her on the barrels as a 4-year-old. She was very easy to train, taking to the pattern naturally," explained Penson.

"Pearl" has qualified Penson to the UPRA Finals 3 years in a row and won reserve champion and horse of the year this past year. She also qualified Penson to the College National Finals Rodeo this past year from the Southern Region where Penson attends A&M University-Commerce. "Pearl" has also placed at several large pro rodeos including Denver, Odessa and Corpus Christi to name a few.

This was Penson's first time running at The Patriot and she will be definitely going back, not just because of her big win but also because of the very organized and well-ran event.

"I thought it was a great event. Not many barrel races pay like this one or many rodeos for that matter. Just to make one run and have an opportunity to win $10,000 is such an amazing opportunity and every race that was ran during The Patriot paid great; you can't ask for more than that!"

The Invitational was at the end of the week during The Patriot and Penson was a little worried on how "Pearl" would run since she had been there all week in a stall.

"The afternoon before the race, I put all her Back On Track on and gave her Jailbreak GI by Oxy-Gen. I believe with "Pearl" that less is more. I don't have to warm her up a whole lot or do anything special. I just try and keep her calm and I treated our run in the Invitational as any other run that we have made," Penson said. Penson's game plan going into the Invitational was to let "Pearl" go work and stay out of her way.

"She ate up the first barrel! I knew from the moment that she turned the first barrel she was going to lay down a run. Her other two barrels were just as good as the first was and she ran as hard as she could on the way home and didn't stop until we hit the back

Martin and Frenchmans Perks On A Roll

By Hope Sicker

BFA Juvenile Champions Chris Martin and Frenchmans Perks have had a great start to their futurity year cashing in on another win at The Patriot when they came out on top winning the futurity against a tough field of futurity horses and futurity trainers.

The 4-year-old buckskin gelding by Frenchmans Guy and out of a daughter of Perks Alive is owned by Jason Gunner and hasn't made many competition runs in his 2 months of competing but when he has, he has surely made them count.

The Patriot Futurity had $5000 added and entries from the best in the business. Martin and the flashy gelding known around the barn as "Jet", finished strong in the long go of the futurity placing

"I had about the best week I could've ever asked for while at The Patriot! Both my horses did exceptional and I couldn't be happier or more grateful. It was a great week and I am blessed to have had the opportunity to run in The Patriot. I will for sure be back next year!"

"He ("Jet") stained a suspensory and suffered a splint bone injury last spring so prior to the BFA, he had hardly been hauled or even shown the barrels since his injury. We ran him in the Slot Race at the BFA and prior to that run he had hardly been anywhere for an exhibition. After he did so well at the BFA we sent him back to Selway Equine in Whitesboro to be swam. I was able to ride him maybe a few times before the Lance Graves and then after that we let him rest before coming to The Patriot," Martin explained.

Martin debated on running "Jet" at The Patriot but was going anyways because he had some 5-year-olds to run so he entered him.

He almost pulled him out last minute but "Jet" felt great and Martin thought he better run him.

"I never run him at home and with Diamonds and Dirt quickly approaching I wanted to make another run on him before we headed to Bryan. My plan was to let him pick his speed in the first round and then drop the hammer in the short round. He felt great but coming back to short round, I knew we had to make a good run with both Jolene and Kassie on top. They could jockey a donkey and win!"

Martin posted a 14.779 in the short go, the fastest run of the futurity and edged out Montgomery and Mowry.

"He felt great. I am very thankful to my entire team that keeps us strong and healthy and I look forward to the rest of the year on "Jet." We will go to Diamonds and Dirt, Ft. Smith and the BBR Finals. I would also like to qualify for The American on him but that is not at the top of my priorities right now. Right now my focus is keeping him feeling his best and making sure he is ready for each run that he makes," said Martin.

Jane Melby Dances To Victory at the Patriot

By Hope Sickler

Former NFR qualifier and champion barrel racer Jane Melby and her daughter's 9-year-old gelding LTF Jets Last Dance were crowned the 1D Shootout Champions at this year's Patriot.

This was the second year of The Patriot, which precedes the coveted RFD-TV's The American Rodeo held at AT&T Stadium in Arlington, Texas. The Top Guns Patriot 4D Shootout Barrel Race had $10,000 added and was overflowing with talented horse and rider teams.

"Silver" as they affectionately call the grey gelding is owned by Jane's daughter Cayla, who herself is a decorated barrel racer at the young age of 18.

"I had only ridden "Silver" once before The Patriot which was at last year's semi-finals for The American and I almost fell off he turned so hard," laughed Melby.

Melby and "Silver" ran in the Invitational prior to the Shootout, which she noted that she didn't ask him to go fast enough.

"I watched my video from the Invitational in slow motion to see what I could change to be faster in the Shootout and it definitely paid off. "Silver" is a very unique horse. He seems to favor Cayla more than myself because she has spent a lot of time with him but now I am thinking I need to start spending more time with him as well!"

Melby was last year's 3D Shootout winner so winning the 1D in the Shootout at The Patriot this year was very exciting for Melby and her team.

"Mentally I knew that I had to ride really hard and feel his ("Silver's") front legs reach in the turns. He really plants his inside hind leg in the turn and I needed to remember to keep forward motion throughout each turn," said Melby. "He left his barrels hard and ran across the pen great. I felt like I was on "Blackie," my NFR mount in 2013."

Melby posted times of a 14.982 in the first round and then a blistering 14.68 in the short round. She cashed in over $8300 for the win on LTF Jets Last Dance and also another $1600 on another mount Famous N Lucky.

"The American and The Patriot and all the events involved are all so great for the horse industry. I cannot thank Randy Bernard, BBR and the entire staff enough for such a great event. I will definitely keep coming back to these events. 20 horses came from my barn to The Patriot between the youth open and invitational. It is a very busy week for us but an even more fun one!"

Headin' For Home

by Sherry Morrison
Triple M (Mike Morrison Ministries)

We just returned from Arizona where we were privileged to minister at a church there. We have known the associate pastor for many, many years. What we didn't know was that the church was in a retirement community. Now, that is not a problem for us, it just was kind of odd that when we got there, I only met ONE other person that was younger than me!

After the first night, we were driving back to Tucson and we started talking about it. When people would introduce themselves to us, they would ask us if we knew their children in Wyoming, Montana, Colorado...and some we did know! But the funny part was, after we spent the evening talking to people that averaged about 78 years old, it put a spring in our step! Oh yah! Mike even joked that in that church he could pick a fight...AND WIN! LOL! (He really wouldn't do that, but it was funny!)

Age is relative. And God has a plan for us in every season of our lives. AND He wants His church to be a FAMILY. If only high school kids go to your church, you are going to have a lot of energy, but no wisdom. If only 78 or older are there, you are going to have a lot of wisdom and less energy. See how this works? Every year of our lives, we have a purpose. So if you are a teenager and reading this, go talk to someone who's been around. You'll learn something. (No, God did not impart total wisdom to you at the age of 18).

If you are older, give some of that wisdom out to help someone younger! It's fun! (Of course, I'm talking metaphorically here!)

And if you are in between, enjoy the energy you have in your body and the sense you have in your head!

Prov. 4:7 says, "Wisdom is the principal thing; therefore get wisdom. And in all your getting, get understanding." And Prov. 4:20-22 says, "My son, give attention to my words; incline your ear to my sayings. Do not let them depart from your eyes; keep them in the midst of your heart; for they are life to those who find them, and health to all their flesh."
