San Antonio's Hometown Rose – Hailey Kinsel & DM Sissy Hayday Pocket $24,000

By Tanya Randall

Hailey Kinsel jumped to the No. 1 spot in the WPRA World Standings with a $24,000 championship at the San Antonio Stock Show & Rodeo, held February 10-26 at the AT&T Center. It was the third San Antonio title for the three-time WPRA World Champion, who hails from Cotulla, Texas, just 90 miles to the southwest of San Antonio.

"It's awesome!" said Kinsel, who leads the Standings with $45,101. "That's the place I grew up watching and going. When I was a kid, especially in junior high and high school, we'd go multiple times. I wish I could have been up there every single night and I wasn't going for the concerts!"

Her legendary mount DM Sissy Hayday ("Sis") is also South Texas bred and born. The daughter of five-time WPRA World Champion Sire PC Frenchmans Hayday ("Dinero"), out of Royal Sissy Irish, by Royal Shake Em, hit the ground in Three Rivers, Texas, just 80 miles south of San Antonio, at the home of her breeder, Dillon Mundorf.

Kinsel and her mother Leslie picked up the mare at the 2013 Texas Best Sale as a well-broke 2-year-old before sharing the training load. Now at 11, Sis is a three-time WPRA World Champion, three-time American Champion and the all-time leading barrel horse with earnings in excess of $2.3 million.

Given all their success, Kinsel shockingly made a bit change on Sis prior to San Antonio's $180,000 tournament-style rodeo. She opted for a fatter twisted wire, dogbone Hollis gag with a rope curb over the Johnson Hackamore that she'd literally won millions using.

The Hollis had long been a part of Kinsel's program. She made her first "cruise throughs" with the bit as a 4-year-old and made her first competition run in it as well. For more control in the alley and at the first barrel, Kinsel switched to the Johnson Hack, but always went back to the Hollis for tuning and open arena time and practices at rodeos.

"At San Antonio, I just decided this is where I was going to make the change," Kinsel explained. "It's always a little bit gutsy to make a change when things are going well. It's not like anything's been broke to fix, but it was just how can we get a little bit better, a little more consistent, just improve a little bit off of what we've been doing."

Kinsel and Sis turned in the two fastest times of the entire event and earned the title via most money won. They made their first runs in the last three-run bracket against the likes of defending San Antonio Champion Brittany Pozzi Tonozzi and her home-bred champion Babe On The Chase and recently crowned Fort Worth Champion Wenda Johnson and her speedster MacGyver Moonflash.

Kinsel and Sis placed fourth in the first round with a 14.08 and came back to win the second go with a 13.98. They missed the money in the third round, but their $4,000 was enough to advance them to one of two semifinals.

The duo dropped the hammer to win their semifinal with a 13.70, the fastest time of the rodeo. In Saturday night's Final, they turned in a 13.76, the second-fastest time of the rodeo, to win the round and claim top dollar.

Sis obviously felt great with the bit change.

"With the walls at San Antonio, she doesn't exactly need a whoa at the first barrel,” Kinsel added. “It’s more just about position there. We went with it and it went well, so we’re probably going to stick with it even more.”

Per Kinsel’s standard protocol with her prized mount, Sis will have limited, if any, runs before her runs at Rodeo Houston’s Invitational Super Shootout and her runs in the final Super Series Bracket, March 12-15.

She’s also been running DH Jess Stellar (“Jules”) this winter. They’ve picked up $1,600 after placing at Belton, Texas, and Jackson, Mississippi. Their only other run was in bottom ground in Los Fresnos, Texas.

“I’m going to get on her in some of the coliseum-type setups that are the noise level that she can handle,” added Kinsel.

For now, she plans on running the Hodges Farm bred and owned mare for The American Contender Round at Cowtown Coliseum. (This is the long go between the invited WPRA Top 10 and the contenders advancing out of the Semifinals Rodeo). Jules currently holds the arena record there with Janna Brown from last year’s American Semifinals Rodeo at 13.387.

“If we advance to Sunday, we’ll wait and see how it’s set up and go from there,” she said. “I’d love to give Jules a chance there too, but it’s super loud and Sis handles it really well. I’ll play that out and see how it goes.”

Knockout Runs For Steely Steiner & Hillbilly Bombshell at Tucson Rodeo

By Tanya Randall

Sophomore WPRA member Steely Steiner got the biggest win of her young professional career with a $10,369 victory at the $20,000-added La Fiesta de Los Vaqueros—the Tucson Rodeo—in Arizona. The 20-year-old from Weatherford, Texas, was aboard the 8-year-old mare Hillbilly Bombshell.

"I was so excited," Steiner said. "I knew that Bombshell was going to eat up that size of pattern. I was excited to get outside again because I love big outdoor rodeos. The crowd was amazing. It was an amazing rodeo."

The hardest part was getting there as a winter storm was hitting Texas right as Steiner and her mother NFR qualifier Jaime (Richards) Steiner were leaving. Thankfully, her mother, who grew up in the Northwest, was doing the driving.

"It was quite the drive to get there," said Steiner. "We left on Wednesday morning when the storm came in and it was starting to get bad. Abilene, Sweetwater was pretty much a snow storm but we drove out of it. We drove through a dust storm in New Mexico and then we drove through another snow storm in Arizona."

The richest outdoor rodeo during the lucrative winter run, Tucson is one long go with a 12-head short round to determine the aggregate champion. Steiner had her first run in the Friday afternoon performance. She and Bombshell posted a 17.38, which held through the final performance on Saturday to lead the field into Sunday's short go.

With the rodeo committee dragging the course after six runners, Steiner and Bombshell were fifth on the ground instead of 11th in the short round. They made a picture perfect run to win the short with a 17.23 to claim the aggregate.

"I was running out of the arena and you could hear the crowd," she said. "I knew she worked really well, but I didn't know how fast she'd be. I heard the crowd and pretty much knew I had won it."

"I'm so grateful. This horse has been a little bit difficult and I'm so proud of her. This was her first ever short round so it was really special."

Bombshell has been in Steiner's barn since December of her fourth year. The daughter of Frenchmans Guy was bred, raised and trained by Sue Smith, who won multiple futurities on her dam Daisy Duke Dash, by Dash Ta Fame.

"She was definitely more challenging," said Steiner. "She just wasn't very confident in herself. She would look at the crowd, look at the ground, and didn't want to run into walls, but we knew she was really, really talented. She wanted to work and wanted to please, but she just had to know how to do it right. It was a little difficult in

BIT: Original Neil Merrill that her mom Jaime Steiner used on her NFR mare Tiny Artillery.

SADDLE: Capitol Saddle. Her father's family owned and operated Capitol Saddlery in Austin, Texas, for many years. This saddle was actually one of her mother's.

SADDLE PAD: 3S

LEG GEAR: Classic Equine on all four

SHOEING: Steel rims on all four

FEED: Nutrena Pro Force Fuel, Empower Topline Balance

HAY: Alfalfa

SUPPLEMENTS: Full Bucket Probiotics, Gut X, oil

ALTERNATIVE THERAPIES: Chiropractic care, Magna Wave, magnet and Back On Track blankets

TRAINING/CONDITIONING: I like to gallop her out. She'll sometimes get a little short, so I like to open her up a little bit. I don't like to work her on the barrels. I just do a little bit of tuning every once in a while to make sure she's sharp.

SPONSORS: Steiner Ranch, LLC

THANK YOUS: My whole family. They were all out there. They don't always get to watch me so that was pretty special. Also, a special thank you to my grandma (Sue Richards). She didn't get to be there, but she's always supporting me from home.

the beginning, but she's definitely been worth it."

Steiner, who was a rookie in 2021, is shooting for the NFR this year. She has a loaded trailer with Bombshell, her half sister Teena Turner, by Blazin Jetolena, Hittin Fame and XS Dirty Lil Secret, a home-raised and trained gelding out of Jamie's NFR mare Tiny Artillery.

"I learned so much last year," she said. "I think that's what's really going to help me this year. I learned a lot about my horses and I got them ready for this year. I'm really excited."

This was actually the second winter rodeo victory in the Steiner family. Her younger brother Rocker is a PRCA rookie this year and won the bareback riding at the National Western in Denver.

While her mother is busy hauling with her, Steiner's dad Sid, the 2002 PRCA World Champion Steer Wrestler, is going with Rocker.

"They love to watch us compete," Steiner said of her parents. "We're excited that the time has come for both of us to compete at these rodeos. It's been super fun."

Next up for Steiner is Rodeo Austin and a few smaller Texas circuit rodeos before heading to California for the spring run. She currently sits 22nd in the WPRA World Standings with $12,140.

"I love the results I have seen from feeding these pellets! My horse's overall attitude and health are excellent!

I have been feeding Fortitude Equine to JK Reckless Lady, and her Dash Ta Fame daughter, and it has improved their attitude and health. I highly recommend this supplement for horses that are high strung or lack focus."

The American 2022...How's it work?

In 2022, The American Semifinals Slack was held Friday, February 25, 2022 at the Cowntown Coliseum. The Top 30 from the Slack qualified back into the Semifinals Performances. The next morning Saturday, February, 2022, the Buybacks round was held and the Top 4 from the Buybacks qualified to the Semifinals Performances. So a total of 34 qualifiers from the Semifinals Slack & Buybacks will then be in the 3 Semifinals Performances at the Cowntown Coliseum as well. The 3 American Semifinals Performances are happening on Tuesday March 1, Wednesday March 2, and Thursday Wednesday March 3 all at 7 pm central time.

The Top 10 from the Semifinals Performances will then go against the 10 invitees (Top 10 in the World from 2021) and an exemption, a Jr Rodeo Champion from 2021 for The American Rodeo Finals Contender Round on Friday, March 4, 2022 also at the Cowntown Coliseum. The Top 10 from the Contender Round will then move over to The American Rodeo Finals in AT&T Stadium on Sunday, March 6, 2022 at Noon. The Top 4 from the Finals will then move into the 3pm Championship Round.

If a Top 10 Invitee wins The American they pick up a $100k check, but if one of the Qualifiers wins not only will they win the $100k they will also have a chance at an additional $2 Million! The Qualifiers who win their event at The American will split the $2 million. So it is possible a barrel racing qualifier could win $2.1 million if they would win the barrels and be the only qualifier to win an event!

Hall of Famer R.E. Josey Passes

Hall of Fame Calf Roper and roping and barrel racing clinician R.E. Josey passed away on February 24. He was 91.

Affectionately known as "Josey," R.E. was the husband of World Champion Barrel Racer Martha Josey. The couple shared 56 amazing years together.

Josey grew up in a farming and ranching family in the Texas Panhandle. As a young man, he left his job in the oil industry to rope calves professionally. Although he narrowly missed qualifying for the National Finals Rodeo, he found his true niche as a trainer and clinician.

He won three AQHA Calf Roping World Championships—Major Chalfant in 1970, Toebars in 1972 and Sliver Creek Jack in 1974. Toebars, a son of Oteo, won 35 of 40 AQHA Shows with Josey in the saddle.

Shortly after their marriage, Josey and Martha began conducting clinics across the country and later held weeklong camps at their home in Karnack, Texas. Over the past half century, the couple taught more than 150,000 students how to rope and run barrels.

Kincade Henry, one of top PRCA calf ropers this season, grew up roping at the Josey Ranch. He took to Facebook to thank Josey for the impact he had on his life.

"Thank you for everything you've done for me, my family and thousands of others," wrote Henry, who also dedicated his win in the Wildcard Round at the San Antonio Rodeo to Josey. "You always told me that I owe you half my winnings; I believe I owe you a lot more than that. Thank you for putting a rope back in my hands. I hope I make you proud this year. . ."

In addition to teaching breakaway and calf roping, Josey taught the finer points of horsemanship for both ropers and barrel racers. At barrel racing clinics, he was typically stationed at the first barrel—the all important start to a run that the Joseys' dubbed "The Money Barrel."

He was also a great mental motivator. One of his favorite sayings was to tell nervous barrel racers to get off their horse and run around singing the National Anthem. He'd say, "You might feel silly, but when you win a few, everybody is going to be doing it!" Josey had a way of making everyone feel special.

Leading trainer and futurity rider Janna Brown grew up going to the Josey Ranch and later worked there during college.

"What a great man and huge influence on so many, including myself," Brown wrote on Facebook. "I'll never forget him asking me to sign his hand when I was 9-years-old at the Jr World; he told me he would never wash his hands again! From my college days working out there, I can still hear him say, 'Get the money' and 'Straighter longer!'" For his skills as a competitor and extensive contributions to future generations, Josey was inducted into the Texas Cowboy Hall of Fame in Fort Worth, Texas, and the Ark-La-Tex Sports Museum in Shreveport, Louisiana.

Donations in his memory may be made to the Josey Ranch Scholarship Fund by calling the ranch at 903-935-5358.

HEADIN' FOR HOME

by Sherry Morrison // Triple M (Mike Morrison Ministries)

How do you learn? How do you teach? Every time I get on my horses, I go through this check list. Soft? Move your feet? Follow my feel. Mike gets frustrated with me because I say, "He can't do such and so." He wants me to say... "yet". Okay.

In my heart it is not a condemnation of the horse, it's what I want to work on with that horse. But to Mike, I'm declaring them unfit and hopeless.

After all these years, we have yet to come to a compromise of words that works for both of us. If all is well on my checklist, we move on to the next level. If not, we reinforce what I thought they knew.

Sometimes we have to do that with ourselves where the Word of God is concerned. I know about healing. I know about prosperity. BUT I got up the other morning and I got blasted! So, day after day, I had to go over all the scriptures for healing. I had to stand on what I believe.

When you don't feel good it's hard to stay focused. But it would be stupid of me to disregard the Bible every day and then call on God when I'm attacked. It's like remodeling in a hurricane. It can be done but it won't be easy. Why? Because there's not enough in there to execute the maneuver.

If I don't spend the time on my horses teaching them the basics, they won't have any. And consequently, it will be very difficult to win. I want to win. I'm spending the time. I'm spending time in the Word so I know I have the basics there as well.

How about you?
