Sweet Domination for Lindsay Sears at Rodeo Houston

By Tanya Randall

Defending WPR World Champion Lindsay Sears had a game plan coming into Rodeo Houston's $200,000 Super Series, held Feb. 28-March 17 at Reliant Stadium in Houston, Texas. Those plans included careful management of her super mare Sugar Moon Express ("Martha") in hopes of giving her 2012 Wrangler National Finals Rodeo-bid a much-needed kick-start.

Her best-laid plans netted the Nanton, Alberta, barrel racer, a much need $59,900-win and placed her right back in the hunt for a third gold buckle.

"Houston was very good to me, thank Goodness," said Sears from her winter rodeo home in Ropesville, Texas, outside of Lubbock. "I kind of need it. It was looking a little scary there for a little bit. I was thinking I need to get a job because I wasn't winning anything. Nothing like a little desperation to change your attitude toward things."

Prior to Rodeo Houston, Sears had just $428 in earnings, when Ima Guy Of Honor ("Moe") placed in a round at the Fiesta de los Vaqueros in Tucson. She spent most of the winter on DJ Nick Bar while Moe healed from a non-competition injury.

"Moe got hurt at the house, playing with his friend across the

Pozzi Makes Her Flight to the Winners Circle

The first edition of the Diamonds & Dirt Futurity brought one big barrel futurity back into Texas. How fitting that the first big Texas futurity in years be won by a native Texan.

Brittany Pozzi has been a woman on a mission over the last several years, not only pursuing world championships in the rodeo world, but developing some of the top futurity horses in the country during her "spare" time. This weekend marked a very busy weekend where her two worlds collided. She not only made the Finals at Houston on Saturday but had two horses in the Finals at the Diamonds & Dirt Futurity as well. Two Finals, same day only about 4 hours and 100 miles apart.

But, with $50,000 on the line at Rodeo Houston and $30,000 to the average champion at the Diamonds & Dirt she had to make both.

First, Rodeo Houston, she and Duke had a good run but it was a measley .01 seconds too slow to make the Finals Shootout, so it was on to the Diamonds & Dirt.

She qualified two horses out of the 20 to the Finals, in the first go of the futurity, LK Watch Me Rock placed second. In the second go of the Futurity she won third on Ima Super Fly Guy and fifth on LK Watch Me Rock.

LK Watch Me Rock, owned by LeAnn Kay, ran a little longer in the short go but still managed sixth place in the Average. However, Ima Super Fly Guy fired his best run of 15.966 in the short go which catapulted him to an Average Championship and a whopping $30,000 paycheck.

All told, Pozzi rode $41,565 of winners in the 1st annual Diamonds and Dirt Barrel Horse Classic Futurity in Bryan, Texas. Even though she didn't get the big check ($50,000) at Rodeo Houston, she still walked away with $10,400. Not bad for a weekend of barrel racing.

We got a chance to catch up with World Champ Brittany Pozzi for a couple questions:

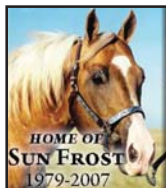

BRR: You went from Rodeo Houston to the Futurity, they were back to back, how were you able to get between the two?

Pozzi: John and Kristi Schiller chartered a plane for me so that i could make both finals. They went above and beyond and I really appreciate everything they did.

BRR: You have had such success at both rodeos and futurities. Which is the most challenging for you?

Pozzi: I think they are both challenging in different ways. The road

Houston Celebrates 80 Years

The 80th anniversary of the Houston Livestock Show and Rodeo set the paid Rodeo attendance with 1,283,419. Total attendance for all activities on the grounds ranks second in the Show's history, with 2,257,970 visitors.

"Mostly beautiful weather, Spring Break, amazing athletes, superstar concerts, unique family entertainment, and the world's best livestock show — we've created the winning formula for fun," said Skip Wagner, president of the Houston Livestock Show and Rodeo. "Thanks to the help of 26,000 volunteers, we are able to produce an incredible entertainment and educational venue."

Following are highlights from the 2012 Show:

RodeoHouston

- RodeoHouston committed more than $2 million to its contestants in 2012.
- The 2012 RodeoHouston BP Super Series, an international, invitation-only rodeo, featured the world's top 40 cowboys and cowgirls in seven events.
- With the entire purse provided by RodeoHouston, and no entry fees required by the athletes, contestants competed for a share of $1.6 million in prize money in the Super Series, and each event champion walked away from Reliant Stadium with at least $50,000, a RodeoHouston trophy saddle and a champion buckle.
- 2012 RodeoHouston BP Super Series Champions, with total money earned, are:
 - tie-down roping: Adam Gray – Seymour, Texas – $56,300
 - barback riding: Kaycee Feild – Payson, Texas – $53,650
 - team roping: Cody Graham – Everton, Mo., and Monty Petska – Turlock, Calif. – $110,400
 - saddle bronc riding: Cody Wright – Milford, Utah – $56,700
 - steer wrestling: Wade Sumpter – Fowler, Colo. – $53,700
 - barrel racing: Lindsay Sears – Ropesville, Texas – $59,900
 - bull riding: Beau Schroeder – China, Texas – $56,200
- The Cinch RodeoHouston Super Shootout®: North America's Champions presented by Crown Royal closed the 2012 Show Sunday, March 18. This ground-breaking, invitation-only, one-day event featured champion athletes from 10 of the best rodeos in the United States and Canada. Contestants competed in bareback riding, barrel racing, bull riding and saddle bronc riding. With a total purse of $200,000, the Super Shootout is the richest one-day rodeo event in the world.

Each champion walked away with $25,000 and a champion buckle, plus a $2,500 bonus from Crown Royal and a $1,500 voucher from Mattress Firm.

• 2012 Cinch RodeoHouston Super Shootout presented by Crown Royal Champions are:

- bareback riding: Will Lowe, RodeoHouston
- barrel racing: Lindsay Sears, 2011 WPRA World Champion
- bull riding: Bobby Welsh, RodeoHouston
- saddle bronc riding: Taos Muncy, Rodeo Austin
- Super Shootout Team Award: RodeoHouston

• United sponsors the High Flyin' Award, which awards two airline tickets for the first 19 performances, plus a year's worth of airline travel to the overall winning contestant with the highest flights, hardest spills, roughest crashes and toughest luck. Bull rider Tyler Smith of Fruita, Colo., was the 2012 overall winner.

fence at the beginning of January,” she said. “I gave Moe the month of January off and rode my old horse DJ Nick Bar. I rode DJ at San Antonio and rode Moe at Jackson, San Angelo and Tucson.”

At Houston, Sears planned on using both Martha and Moe.

“Martha had from the second week of January off until Houston,” said Sears, who currently sits third in the WPRA World Standings with $60,328. “I rode Moe the second and third round of my Super Series, just because I was up toward the bottom of the ground. I had just made that decision before I got there; that I didn’t really want to run her if I was further down than fifth on the ground in the Super Series. So after the first round, I stuck to my game plan and got on Moe. And, it worked out. He worked really great and won the average for me. He got me set up for the semifinals and made it easier for Martha.”

Sears and Martha won the opening round of the fifth and final Super Series, and she and Moe took second in the second and third rounds en route the average victory in her bracket.

“When you are in that last set, it’s just a lot of runs for a horse,” she noted. “I made that decision that I wasn’t going to do that to her because she’s been on quite a bit of break. It just didn’t seem like a good idea. She had two days off between her first run in the Super Series and the semifinal, and then another two days off between the semifinal and the finals. It made it nice. It made it so she didn’t have a ton of runs, back-to-back-to-back.”

At Houston, each competitor runs in a three round bracket with an average. The top four money earners from each bracket qualify for the semifinals. The field is split for two semi-final performances with the top four from each day advancing to the finals. The remaining barrel racers run again in a wild card round for a second chance at the Super Series Finals.

It was through the wildcard round that Sears rival for the Championship, Carlee Pierce, qualified for the finals. Pierce and the fabulous buckskin Rare Dillion (“Dillon”) made the most of her second chance, clocking a 13.92 to best the 13.93 arena record that Sears and Martha set in their semifinal.

In the finals, the ten contestants ran again to determine the top four that would compete for the $50,000 first-place check. The top four making the Shootout were Sherry Cervi, Carlee Pierce and Lindsay Sears and Trula Churchill, who tied for third and fourth. The remaining six contestants didn’t go home empty handed with each taking home $500 for making their final run.

Sears and Martha drew up second gunner and posted a 14.13. Pierce and Dillon ran next and were close with a 14.14.

“In the first round, she felt a bit unsure and didn’t fire like normal,” Sears told announcer Boyd Polhamus following her victory. “I knew that she gets stronger on back-to-back runs, and she gets sharper, tighter and faster, so I was scared the whole way on that last run.”

Sears and Martha’s Houston heroics weren’t over yet. They still had the Cinch Super Shootout, presented by Crown Royal, on March 18. Although it didn’t count toward the World Standings, the two-run shootout had a purse of $53,200 with the winner taking $25,000 and every contesting pocketing at least $1,600 for making a run.

Sears got into the Shootout by virtue of the 2011 World Championship. Others running were 2011 Champions Cassie Moseley, Rodeo Austin; Britney Fleck, San Antonio; Kellie Tolbert, Cloverdale; Brenda Mays, National Western (rodeo champion Brittany Pozzi was all ready eligible so it dropped to the next contestant); Sydni Blanchard, Calgary Stampede; Sherry Cervi, 2011 Shootout Champion; Kay Blandford, Fort Worth; Kim Schultz, Cheyenne Frontier Days; Jody Sheffield, Rodeo Houston; and Robyn Herring, Reno Rodeo.

Sears and Martha set the pace with another 14.13 to qualify for the round of four along with Tolbert, Mays and Cervi. Their 14.09 in the finals added another $25,000 to their war chest.

Martha and Moe will get another vacation, as Sears has no rodeo planned for the immediate future. Sears did say she'd run at the Lubbock pro rodeo. She plans on running her young Smoke N Sparks gelding, Win N The Cash, that's been rather accident prone throughout his young career.

Rather than head on the spring run, Sears will spend most of next month helping her boyfriend, champion steer wrestler Lee Graves, who is undergoing stem cell treatments on his ankle.

"I guess you can say rodeo is going to be on the backburner again for a while," she said.

Thank Goodness again for Houston.

"I don't like putting all my eggs in one basket but that's kind of what happened," Sears laughed. "I kept telling myself all winter that I was saving myself for Houston. I was kidding until I got there and I needed to pull something out of the hat. I just got lucky. It worked out. You couldn't have planned any better, but if you tried it again, it would never happen. I got lucky. That's all it amounted too. Martha helps out a lot in those situations. She increases your luck."

and keeping your horse sound is difficult when your rodeoing. With the futurities, just the fact that you are riding a young horse makes it challenging.

BRR: You have achieved great success in rodeos and in futurities. What drives you to continue to compete at both when due to the grueling schedule most people choose to just go in one direction?

Pozzi: I love both types of competition and I enjoy taking a break from the rodeos and going to the futurities. I really like the challenge of the young horses and I don't mind the schedule. I think I would be bored if I didn't have a lot going on.

HAY: Grass

ADDITIONAL HORSE CARE: My girlfriend, Katti Pinnix, treats him with the MagnaPulse therapy 30 minutes to an 1 hour before we run.

WHAT IS IT LIKE TO HAVE A GREAT HORSE LIKE HM CORNERSTONE? Usually the futurity horses I have get sold by the end of the year or the owners take them home and start running them so to have a nice consistent Derby and Open horse that I can count on has been really nice. He has taken me to the next level and has helped me feel like I can compete with the elite futurity competitors. He is the kind of horse that is a factor in any type of setup anywhere in the country.

WHAT MAKES HIM SO CONSISTENT? For the most part, I think it is him, he is just a good minded horse. We do our best to not run him too often and keep him enjoying what he does. Another part of it, we let him come into it on his own and didn't push him. Also, since I started riding him a year ago, we go through the same routine all the time and I have ridden him enough to know when something is wrong and then I can fix it before we get to a race.

WHAT DO YOU THINK OF HAVING ANOTHER BIG FUTURITY AND OPEN RACE DURING THE SEASON? As a guy, we can't rodeo so our only chance to win big money is at these big open shows. So, having another big open show gives us another chance to win more money for our owners and helps us attract new owners. The barrel racing industry has a lot of good people in it and having these big shows and supporting them keeps barrel racing growing and keeps people in the industry.

FUTURE PLANS FOR HM CORNERSTONE? Next, we are headed to the BBR Finals in Oklahoma City and then onto the Ft. Smith Derby. After that we will hit the bigger open shows back East.

NOTES: HM Cornerstone has now won the 2011 NBHA World Championship, the 2011 BFA Futurity and now the Diamonds & Dirt Open and Derby along with the fast time of the weekend.... For the fast time of the Diamonds & Dirt they won a Rolex and two crystals, one for the Open Victory and one for the Derby Victory and a saddle.....If you see an unshaven Kebo Almond in a Short Go somewhere, it is because he is superstitious, not out of razors! He shaved a few times and hit barrels so, for now, he runs unshaven.

MAJOR LEAGUE PROTECTION

POWERED BY ZOOMBANG TECHNOLOGY

Introducing the Zone™ Series Pad

Made Exclusively by Classic Equine®

ZONE
SERIES

NOW THE TECHNOLOGY DEVELOPED TO PROTECT PRO ATHLETES IS AVAILABLE TO PROTECT YOUR HORSE

Zoombang is scientifically tested and proven to protect against impact injury. Zoombang is a patented polymer material that provides truly intelligent protection. At rest, Zoombang acts as a liquid to assure perfect fit and malleability. But on impact, it immediately transforms to a solid state, reacting proportionally to the energy applied. As a result, Zoombang only becomes as rigid as necessary to absorb and dissipate incoming shock.

Zoombang is widely used for its protection against injury in contact sports, law enforcement, and military applications. The NFL, NHL, MLB and NASCAR rely on Zoombang to protect elite athletes. Now equine athletes can benefit from the same protection. After all, they deserve it.

HOW ZOOMBANG™ WORKS

SOFT AT REST
ZOOMBANG is soft and fluid-like to the touch

REACTS TO IMPACT
Upon impact ZOOMBANG molecules stiffen and lock to a solid-like state providing maximum protection

SOFT AT REST
After impact, ZOOMBANG returns to its fluid-like state

Headin' For Home

by Sherry Morrison
Triple M (Mike Morrison Ministries)

It's beginning to look like spring! Praise God! Baby everything showing up! Love this time of year!
I've been praying about what to say this month. I had an idea for quite a while but I think a better, God idea is in my face nearly every day.....geese.

We've had them for a month or more now, you remember Click and Clack don't you? Geese are naturally territorial and have claimed the barn and most of the corrals for themselves. It doesn't matter to them that, Mike and I are the boss of them. Never enters their little pea brains! When I go up to feed, the honking, flapping, hissing and threatening begin....very loudly. And they act like they are going to do you bodily harm. And I think "SERIOUSLY???????" It kinda makes me laugh! I weigh...uh, well, never mind that....and they weigh 15 pounds or so...in a fight I think I can take them! But they don't know that. They think they are BAD!

God said to me, "that's just how the devil acts!" He is "as a roaring lion, seeking whom he may devour". 1 Peter 5:8. He threatens, he lies, he tries to scare us into thinking he can do all sorts of harm to us...loud and obnoxious. But he is sooooo whipped! Jesus defeated him on the cross and gave us authority over him IN EVERYTHING!

And that's what God wanted me to remind you of this month. When the lying devil tries to scare you or intimidate you, you grab the Bible and say "SERIOUSLY???????" You are no match for this child of God!!! And you whip him with the Word! No sweat!
