Sheffield Cinches Up $50,000 Win

THE RUNDOWN: JODY SHEFFIELD

HORSE: Skip The Finances "Zoey"
Bay Mare, 7 Years Old, 15 hands

BIT: Snaffle Gag Bit

HEADGEAR: None

SADDLE: Neil Merrill Barrel Saddle

PAD: Classic Equine ESP Pad

LEG GEAR: Classic Equine front boots & bell boots, nothing on back legs

GRAIN: Ultium & Oats

SUPPLEMENTS: Just some basic minerals, Stride 180 Joint Supplement

HAY: Grass/Alfalfa Hay

ADDITIONAL HORSE CARE & SHOING: Eventers for her front shoes and regular rims on the back feet. Once in a while I use magnetic blankets and when she needs it I use the Accuscope machine. I also haul her in Soft Ride boots if she is going to be hauled very hard.

TRAINING & RIDING STYLE: She is just a push kind of horse, she rarely ever overruns or hits a barrels. When we aren't competing, she doesn't see the barrels very often. My husband (Jesse) ropes on her and we try to get her in the mountains. Zoey likes to keep busy so we try to do things that challenge her mentally. They say idle hands are the devil's playground and that definitely pertains to her so we try to keep her as busy mentally as we can.

BRR: Was this the Biggest Win of your Career?

Sheffield: By far! I am really proud of winning Pendleton because it was my first big win but monetarily this was definitely the biggest!

BRR: Can you explain what it was like when you Realized you had just won the $50,000?

Sheffield: I, like everyone else thought Sherry was going to win it since she had won every round going into the finals. I was still leading after I watched Lisa and Brittany so as we waited to watch Sherry go I was just happy to be second.

When Sherry missed her first barrel a little, Brittany Pozzi turned around and told me, "You just won Houston!" I said no she will still get it but, when the time came up I had won.

I had a really good day leading up the Finals, the first run (qualifer for the Finals) they had removed a wall behind the third barrel so Zoey went a little wide on the third, it was in the middle of nowhere but I knew my horse would be ready for her third the second run. Zoey learns from every run so I knew she would be ready in the Finals. I felt really good about where I was with my horse and my runs.

I was thrilled to be out first in the Finals, I was up first 3 times through my series, first in my semifinals, first out on the ground in both the prelim and Finals Shootout.

I am not sure if it has really hit me yet but I did deposit the check today. It is just overwhelming to think about all of it and it is just coming to me bit by bit. It is pretty surreal to me right now.

BRR: What is it like knowing you have basically locked up your first NFR birth?

Sheffield: To think that I get to run in the Thomas & Mack is amazing, a dream come true. That one run Saturday turned around a lot of things in my life. It is just all very exciting.

BRR: How does this win change your rodeo plans for the year?

Sheffield: The win will allow me to stay in my normal circuit rodeos and just add a few of the other rodeos that I've been wanting to go to. If I would have won second & the 20k or so then I would have had to decide if I was going to rodeo hard and try to make the NFR or stay home at the circuit rodeos and see what happened. So it was a real blessing that I won the $50k so I can stay with my plan!

NOTES: Not only is Zoey a hard working 7 year old barrel horse, she is also a rope horse and a grandma! Jody's husband Jesse heeled on Zoey's mother and also heels, heads, and has even tied down a few calves on Zoey. Also, Zoey was bred as a 2 year old and has a 4 year

360 Degrees of Equine Excellence

Copper Spring Ranch starts with a thoughtful and well-designed breeding program that begins with the meticulous selection of bloodlines. We rely on today's top-performing stallions and exquisite brood mares to produce the perfect progeny — horses with a combination of speed, toughness and intelligence. We remain committed to each of these outstanding animals, nurturing foals with gentle hands and taking the time to provide them with a solid foundation. Our genetics guarantee Copper Spring Ranch horses will be ready for the performance arena, whether it's the rodeo circuit, ranch work, show world or even pleasure riding.

The ranch's state-of-the-art CSR Equine Sports Medicine Center leads the way in the Rocky Mountain west with the most advanced digital equipment and medical technology. Our reproductive specialists handle on-site breeding, embryo transfer and cooled semen.

Headin' For Home

By Sherry Morrison
Triple M (Mike Morrison Ministries)

We have an enemy in this life. He is called the devil. He attacks all of us in many ways. But God in His infinite goodness has given us all the weaponry we need in His army to fight the devil and win...every time. Our weapons are not carnal, they are MIGHTY. 2 Cor 10:4. They are...the Word of God, the Name of Jesus and the Blood of Jesus. All of these can be used at our will.

When our son Jake was about ten, he and I came home one snowy winter afternoon to find a great big skunk in the front yard. I had just gotten a new 38 revolver and thought I'd just shoot it...mighty hunter that I am. I jumped out of the pickup and fired 3 shots. The skunk was LAUGHING at me! He even stretched up big and tall going through the fence, how could I miss? I did...two more times! By this time Jake was so disgusted with me. His dad can shoot the eye out of a squirrel at 3 million feet so what was my problem?

I reloaded and hollered for Jake to get back in the truck! We'd cut the skunk off at the pass on the other side of the creek we saw him loping through, still laughing! All the way over the dam and around the corner, Jake kept up the "Dad wouldn't have missed him the FIRST time! We careened around the corner and headed up the hill. Well, lo and behold, the skunk was loping up the road. I very briefly thought about stopping and shooting...very briefly...I gunned it and run him down! My weapon of choice that day was a one ton Chevy four wheel drive. It did the trick!

Mike came home that night and said, "Sher, there's a great big dead skunk up here on the road!" I just grinned...

Friends, we can run the devil down EVERY TIME. Just pick one of the proven weapons God has given us.
