Triumphant Return – Sadiefamouslastwords & Mary Burger Earn $54,750 Rodeo Houston Championship

By Tanya Randall

Mary Burger, the 2006 WPRA World Champion Barrel Racer, claimed her second Rodeo Houston title aboard another one of her superstars-in-the-making Sadiefamouslastwords (“Mo”). She currently leads the WPRA World Standings and has essentially punched her ticket to her fourth National Finals Rodeo appearance.

“When I’d say my prayers every night I’d say, ‘I’ve worked hard, and I’m not asking to win, but God just place me as high as You think I deserve.’ I feel like my prayers were answered. I can’t believe it actually happened—that it was my turn again.

There’s so many top horses and riders. The competition is just to the limit. It’s so tough out there,” said the multiple Prairie Circuit Champion from Pauls Valley, Okla.

Burger was grateful to have her husband, farrier and driver Kerry at Houston by her side as well as her oldest son Todd.

“Having them there and sharing that with them is always special,” she said. She also wanted to thank the Rodeo Houston committee for their great hospitality for all the rodeo contestants, by providing everything from food to pre-bedded horse stalls.

Burger’s journey to Rodeo Houston, an event she won back in 2009 aboard Rare Fred, another horse she trained, began last fall when she set out to get enough money won to qualify for the limited entry rodeos this winter.

“That was one my goals for this year,” she said. “Even last fall, I wanted to go to a few rodeos to see if I could get into the top 3 or 4 to make Houston. I wanted to go to San Antonio too, because I hadn’t been there in a long time, but Houston was my big goal.”

It was Mo’s first appearance at Rodeo Houston, where the tiny course is basically set out in the wide open with not a fence in sight. They were out in the first set and placed in the first round, won the second and were just two out in the third.

“The first run he made there, I don’t think he was really focused,” said the veteran trainer. “Even in practice that morning, he was just having a good time and not paying a lot of attention. The first run was a little off the wall, but he still placed. His second run, he really worked good to win that round. The third round, we were down a little on the ground and he had a little trouble dealing with it; He’s just not that experienced with it.”

Burger and Mo’s $4,000 in earnings moved them into the Semifinals. They advanced to Championship Saturday by squeaking into last hole in the first Semifinals. After sneaking their way into the final four with the fourth fastest time in the Championship Round,

Ram National Circuit Finals Kicks Off Houston Livestock Show & Rodeo Wrap Up

The Ram National Circuit Finals Rodeo kicks off April 7-10, 2016 in Kissimmee, Florida at the Silver Spurs Arena, Osceola Heritage Park.

The Format: Two Preliminary Rounds, Semi-Finals and Finals. The 12 circuits are represented by two contestants in each event. They will compete in two preliminary rounds of competition during the first four rodeo performances.

Prize money is awarded to the top six in each round and to the top six overall in the individual contests. On Championship Sunday, the top eight per event compete in the Semi-Finals where they start evenly. The four best from the Semi-Finals go to the Finals, where, again, they start evenly. The contestant with the highest score or fastest time in the Finals is crowned the RAM National Circuit Finals Rodeo Champion.

More than $445,000 is awarded to winners in the preliminary rounds and overall after those two rounds, with first place earning nearly $6,200 for each round and the overall. The four best from the Semi-Finals share almost $150,000 and qualify for the Finals where they will share another $150,000. First place in the Semi-Finals and the Finals receives almost $7,500. In addition, each contestant receives $1,000 from Osceola County for qualifying and competing. Plus, each RNCFR Champion gets a $20,000 voucher towards a new RAM vehicle, a Polaris RANGER UTV, a pair of exotic boots from Justin Boots, a trophy saddle from Cactus Saddlery, and a buckle from Montana Silversmiths.

Non-Profit K9s4COPs to Help Texas A&M

Thanks to a joint effort of generous contributions from Houston attorney and Texas A&M University Board Regent Tony Buzbee ('90) along with 12th Man Board Trustee John D Schiller, Jr '81 and the Diamonds & Dirt Barrel Horse Classic, sniffing out potential danger will soon no longer be a concern for Texas A&M University and its campus police law enforcement officers. Through the generosity of Buzbee, Schiller and the efforts of DDBHC, K9s4COPs and its K9s4KIDs initiative has gifted two explosive detection canines to the College Station main campus worth $50,000. The K9 officers and the University police handlers will begin training next month at the Harris County Sheriff Department Training Academy.

"K9s4COPS is hands down one of the country's best charities," said Tony Buzbee '90.

"Untold lives have been saved and millions of dollars in contraband have been confiscated due to their work. It goes without saying, I am proud to be a small part of it."

The 2016 Houston Livestock Show and Rodeo entertained more than 2.46 million visitors in total attendance with an authentic celebration of Western heritage.

"Thanks to more than 32,000 dedicated volunteers and 100-plus staff members, the Houston Livestock Show and Rodeo is proud to present a first-class experience for its more than 2 million visitors," said Jack Lyons, Houston Livestock Show and Rodeo chairman of the board. "Show spectators receive an up-close view of agriculture and Western heritage at this one-of-a-kind event."

Burger and Mo posted their fastest time of the rodeo, a 14.15 to win the $50,000.

"The semifinal run was just a little bit rough," she said, "but he lucked out and made it back. The first run of the Finals, it was good, not perfect, but good. We just sat back and thought we just need to let him run out there free and work smooth, and we'd be okay. Sure 'nuff, he did clock good. We were on the bottom of the ground most of the time, and being young, he sometimes didn't know how to handle it. I thought he just did exceptional. I was very pleased."

Bred by Jeff and Kristie Thorstenson, Mo, 7, is by Sadies Frosty Drift, a son of Frenchmans Guy now residing in Brazil, and out of the late Dash Ta Fame mare Porky And Bess. Burger got the gelding early in his second year after a trade with Brad Lieblong of Jonesboro, Ark.

"He was looking for an open horse and I happened to have one and we traded," Burger noted.

Unlike other horses that she's trained and sold in the past, Burger has held on to Mo, who was a sold earner as a futurity and derby horse.

"This one is mine and he's not going anywhere," she said. "All my life, I've had many, many top horses but always sold them. This one here, now that I'm a little older, I just decided we were going to have fun with him.

"I've had him since he was 2 and it's taken me five years to get him to this level. I've taken my time. He's an immature horse. He doesn't have a mean bone in his body, but he likes to have fun. He cuts up here and there. He's finally starting to settle in a little bit. I always knew he was capable because he's got that extra special shut-the-clock-off-type stride."

Burger, who has nine AQHA World Championship titles and countless aged event titles to her credit, started training horses a child in Indiana.

"I was 7-year consecutive 4-H Champion, so I've trained my own since I was 9 years old," she laughed. "Before that it was ride the ponies on the farm. I've trained them all my life from the very first horse my dad bought me."

Now, she doesn't have a single outside horse in her barn. She ran her last outside futurity colt in 2014.

"I'm not home enough to take any outside horses," she said. "It's hard when you're on the road. I'm trying to stick with my own right now. You can't really do what you need to do unless you tote them with you on the road. I've just been piddling with a 4-year-old, right now. He's Mo's traveling buddy."

Even though she doesn't have any commitments to outside horses keeping her at home, her husband's thriving farrier business limits her travel.

"We can load up pretty easily but he still has his customers," said Burger. "He's very conscientious of keeping up with them. We can get away sometimes 2 to 3 weeks, but if I was to go longer than that he'd have to fly back and forth. We'll do what we can do, but I'm not planning on getting to 80-90 rodeos. We can really do what we want to do. I want to get my circuit rodeos in and I've wanted to go back to Cheyenne. I just don't think it's fair to my horse to haul super hard. We don't want to anyway.

Next up for Burger will be the RAM National Circuit Finals Rodeo in Kissimmee, Fla., the first weekend in April.

"Kerry's way behind on work, so he's trying to catch up," she said. "I'm supposed to go to Nacogdoches and Beaumont, but Kerry's so busy trying to get his customers caught up I don't think we'll make it there. I'll probably turn out at them. I'm entered in Huntsville (Texas) and I'll probably stop there on my way out to Kissimmee."

Lisa Lockhart & An Oakie With Cash Bank at Rodeo Houston Super Shootout

By Tanya Randall

Lisa Lockhart of Oelrichs, S.D., and her great horse An Oakie With Cash ("Louie") took home top honors at the Rodeo Houston Super Shootout: North America's Champions, presented by Crown Royal. After advancing into the final four for the Super Shootout, they posted a 14.17 for a $25,000 payday.

"He felt super on the first one," Lockhart said of her qualifying run aboard Louie on Sunday. "Our second run in the final four didn't feel as good but the clock was faster. I could definitely pick it apart more, but you know, that's just barrel racing. You never know. I thought it had more mistakes and wouldn't be as fast...fooled us. He kind of faded on me at the first barrel and I was worried about the third barrel after tipping it the day before...you don't want to make the same mistakes."

The Super Shootout is an individual and team competition comprised of champions from renowned rodeos in North America. Lockhart represented the Calgary Stampede by virtue of her 2015 Championship. She also picked up an additional $2,500 because the Calgary Stampede Champions were the winning team.

In addition to the Calgary Stampede, participating contestants also represented champions from the Cheyenne Frontier Days (Sherry Cervi got the call as she finished second to Lockhart.), Fort Worth Stock Show & Rodeo, the National Western Stock Show (Denver), Reno Rodeo, Rodeo Houston and the San Angelo Stock Show & Rodeo.

"What a rodeo!" Lockhart said. "More than anything, they refer to their contestants as athletes. They refer to us as rodeo athletes and that alone, as small as that may seem, that word speaks so loudly. We're never called athletes and the fact that they reach out to us and call us athletes is so rewarding. It makes you feel so good. They take of their "athletes" and we so appreciate it. It's a phenomenal rodeo."

Lockhart, who is sponsored by Priefert, Polaris, DeTye Vet Supply, Platinum Performance, Circle Y, Woody Performance Horse Feeds, Cowgirl Tuff and Classic Equine, has had a relatively quiet winter since she was without Louie for most of it.

"I had run him in the long go at Denver and he'd gotten injured," she explained. "That was it since the middle of January. He reinjured his stifle a little bit, so he got some time off. I was off of him the whole winter. It was pretty exciting to at least have him back for The American."

With Louie out, Fast An Gold ("Chism") got the call at Fort Worth, San Antonio and San Angelo. Chism will also get the call this weekend at Redmond, Ore., the first stop on the Elite Rodeo Athletes (ERA) Tour.

"It was just a lot of runs in a short period of time (on Louie)," Lockhart said. She was out in the last set at Rodeo Houston and between her three qualifying runs, a semifinal, final and two additional runs in the Super Shootout, Louie had seven runs in about a week's time.

"I'm very excited about the next three weekends and the ERA Tour. After that I'll focus on my kids and getting them ready for high school rodeo, and," she adds after taking a deep breath, "I've got a daughter graduating at the end of May so I've got some other things on line."

Even with the $12,500 she won during the regular Rodeo Houston (The Super Shootout doesn't count toward any standings.), Lockhart knows she going to be behind the eight ball in her quest for another NFR qualification.

"Obviously, I've not had a great winter by any means, so we're going to have to beat it up and down the road some if we want another NFR," she admitted. "I'll probably will stick close to home until the Fourth of July just because I will be busy with kids, so it will be crunch time come this summer."

Headin' For Home

by Sherry Morrison
Triple M (Mike Morrison Ministries)

EASTER. The most glorious event we celebrate each year. We, as Christians, know that when Jesus died on the cross, went into hell and paid the price for sin, it bought our freedom. We do NOT have to pay for the sins we have committed. Jesus already paid that price for us. That is a fact that can sometimes just tilt my HEAD. My HEART gets it, but my head struggles. I am a performance oriented personality. You know, you have to DO something to GET something. And of course, along with that goes the thought that I have to DESERVE what Jesus did for me, so I try REALLY, REALLY hard to be a good little girl. But alas. I fail.

I don't know why Jesus loved us all so much that He agreed to come here, live the life of a man, die on the cross, get raised from the dead and now "ever lives to intercede" for us. Hebrews 7:22-28.

BUT....HE.....DID! And the ONLY thing that is required of us is to make Him the Lord of our lives and accept that free gift of everlasting life. Romans 10:9 & 10.

So, on Sunday morning....get yourself up. Get to church. Thank Him for all He has done for you. You'll be glad you did!
