Tricia Aldridge & Three Times The Fury Sweep Copper Spring Ranch Futurity

By Tanya Randall

Tricia Aldridge and Three Times The Fury (“Sway”) won their second straight and fourth overall futurity title with a sweep of the $15,000-added Copper Spring Ranch Futurity, held March 18-21 in Andrews, Texas. The futurity victory was worth $8,784 plus $1,436 for a carryover Open 1D win on Saturday for total earnings of $10,220.

“She’s exceeded all of our expectations,” Aldridge said of the mare she co-owns with Catherine Dudley. “She’s right at $135,000 in earnings. She won Copper Spring, The Patriot, Come & Take It and the OKC Slot. She’s been reserve at a couple of more. That mare has shown up to work every single run.”

After a wild short round run bumped them to fourth at the Elite Futurity the weekend before, Aldridge said her goal was to make solid consistent runs at Andrews. She had actually entered all three days and was looking at the first round of the futurity as her warmup run.

Sway had other ideas, winning the first round with a 16.85 on a WPR Standard Pattern.

“When I ran, they didn’t call out ‘new leader’ or anything, so I thought I was second,” she chuckled. “I went to town and got her some more shavings and got a brisket sandwich. When I got back, they were like, ‘You won!’ I thought that was great because she had some bobbles in her run. She hung on the backside of the third barrel and I knew that cost us some time.”

In the second round, Aldridge and Sway were last on the ground. It’s a draw position, she’s learned to love, especially after posting a victorious 16.760.

“I really think that mare likes the bottom of the ground better,” she explained. “It’s like a joke now because every single futurity I’ve drawn up top and bottom of the ground. I think I’ve run on the bottom of the ground so much it doesn’t scare me anymore. She came in there and ran a .7. It was beautiful. She’s such a good girl.”

Not surprisingly, Aldridge decided those two runs were enough and scratched her third run in Sunday’s Open.

“Since she ran an .8 and .7, I didn’t feel like she needed to run again,” she said. “I just went home. She just made two super solid runs for me. That was the goal—to have two solid, super consistent runs—and she came through for me.”

Those two personal best times on a WPR Standard Pattern upped Aldridge’s excitement for the upcoming Ruby Buckle at the Lazy E.

“She’s excelled everywhere,” said Aldridge. “She’s been at the top in those small patterns and she’s been at the top on the big patterns. She’s a super versatile mare. She’s just there to work.”

Bred by Amy Schimke of Wessington Springs, South Dakota, Sway is by Copper Spring Ranch’s late leading barrel horse sire Furyofthewind, out of the Tres Seis mare Three And Out. Aldridge purchased the mare as a 2-year-old.

“I love her style,” said Aldridge. “She stays very upright and I think that’s going to help keep her sound. She’s an incredible team player and loves her job. It’s always fun to win to see that mare shine her light like she has is a pretty cool feeling. That mare knows she’s a winner.”

THE RUNDOWN w/Tricia Aldridge

Three Times The Fury “Sway” 16.2 hand, 1,100 lbs.

“She has a lot of frame to grow into.”

BIT: Dave Elliot Spur Up 10 with a twisted mouthpiece with three pieces of chain in the middle SADDLE: Double J Featherlight until her Brazilian saddle comes in.

SADDLE PAD: SaddleRight

LEG GEAR: 2xCool Professional’s Choice

SHOEING: Aluminum on front, wedges on back

FEED: Purina Ultium with a little Purina Omolene 200

HAY: Alfalfa

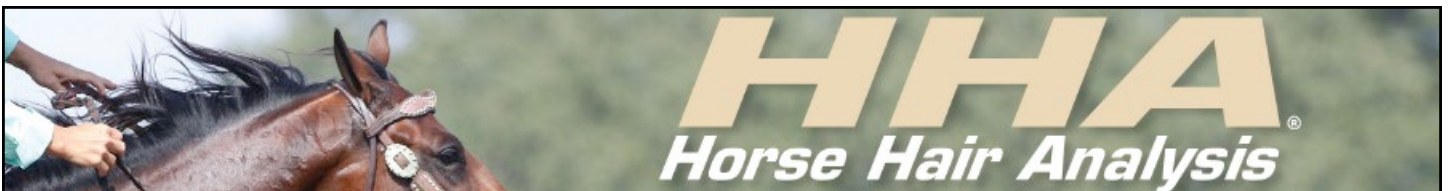

SUPPLEMENTS: Blue Blazes, Redmond Equine Daily Gold, Daily Gold paste when she saddles before a run; Succeed, Omeprazole

ALTERNATIVE THERAPIES: XLR 8 Blanket, chiropractic work by Kim Gillespie

TRAINING/CONDITIONING: We’ve been going so much there really isn’t a lot to do. I usually come home on Sundays and turn her out on Monday and Tuesday. On Wednesday, we’re usually loaded up and going again. It’s very hard. This week was nice because I did have a break between Waco and this one. I had a couple days to ride her, so we just slow worked and eased her around.

SPONSORS: Redmond Equine, Ranch Dress’n, Double X Equine-Dr. Don Lee.

Aldridge, who also recently acquired Sway's 3-year-old half-sister by Ivory James, is hoping that Sway will pass on her winning ways. They have been flushing the mare this spring with her first embryo by Aldridge's stallion Streakin Lil Wayne.

"We're just breeding her when she naturally comes in because I don't want to mess with her hormones too much," she said. "She won The Patriot when we were breeding her and we flushed in between rounds at Elite. She's been a freaking rock star."

Aldridge plans on taking Sway to the pro rodeos in Waxahachie and Nacogdoches, Texas, this weekend before she has a major event break before the BRR and Ruby Buckle futurities.

"That's the scariest time though because she hurts herself so much," chuckled Aldridge. "She's so good on the road though. She's meant to be a rodeo horse. She eats. She sleeps. If she's home though for a couple weeks and doesn't make run, that's when we go on suicide watch!"

Sway is still healing from a cut on her back leg during The Richest Dinosaur in Glen Rose, Texas, in early February. She got cast and hung her leg in the stall. Then shortly before the Elite Futurity in Waco mid-March, she cut the opposite of the same leg.

"Any time she gets a little nick on her it swells up and gets sore," Aldridge sighed. "I'm at the vet every week. She really hasn't had much work done to her (maintenance-wise), but I'm always there for her cutting herself or getting into something. At The Patriot, she hit the back gate and bloodied her nose! It's always that kind of stuff. She prefers flesh wounds. We talked about going to the Washington futurities, but we're scared to leave the vet!"

Not surprisingly, Sway has a padded stall at Aldridge's Sanger, Texas, home.

"We bought mats, and from four foot down, it's mats all the way around her stall," she explained. "If I turn her out, I have to turn away. I can't watch. When I turned her out when I got home from Waco, she literally rolled into my other mare. It's a five acre field! She's very true to form on what they say about winners!"

Deen & Outta Clear Blue Top Southeastern Livestock Expo & Rodeo in Montgomery

By Tanya Randall

2015 National Finals Rodeo qualifier Cassidy (Kruse) Deen is back in the winner's circle after the birth of her and husband Clay's daughter Rainy Raye on February 2. Deen rode the 9-year-old gelding Outta Clear Blue ("Leroy") to a $2,514 victory at the $5,000-added Southeastern Livestock Exposition & Rodeo, March 18-20 in Montgomery, Alabama.

"I'm glad to be back at it," said Deen, who currently sits 32nd in the WPRA World Standings with $5,621. "It's a Godsend that I found another good horse to get me down the road. They're hard to come by. I want to thank everyone for supporting me."

This past trip was her first back in the saddle. She made a run through Florida—Arcadia, Okeechobee and Lake City and hit slack at Montgomery on her way home. It wasn't until Montgomery that she and Leroy found their groove.

"Honestly, I feel like I was making just as good as or even a better run at Arcadia," she said. "I thought I was going to hit the third and I reached down to set it up. Then we toured the pen running home and that's not going to win you any money. Then I was just trying too hard. I thought I needed to go a little bit faster at the other two—Okeechobee and Lake City."

THE RUNDOWN w/Cassidy Deen

Outta Clear Blue "Leroy" 15.1 h, 1,250 lbs.

BIT: Kerry Kelley Hemi with a slow twist, lifesaver mouthpiece

HEADGEAR: Tiedown

SADDLE: Martin Stingray

SADDLE PAD: Classic Equine Zone Pad

LEG GEAR: Iconoclast boots on all four

SHOEING: Rims on all four; shod by Lee Olsen

FEED: Bluebonnet

HAY: Alfalfa and daily turnout in grass pasture

SUPPLEMENTS: MVP Products, Summit

ALTERNATIVE THERAPIES: Occasional massage or chiropractic therapy and aquatred at LB Equine in Tyler

TRAINING/CONDITIONING: We just ride him out in the pasture. If I'm up somewhere, I'll slow work him around the barrels the day before. If I'm giving him a few days off, I'll let Clay head some steers on him. He's a pretty cool head horse too. It gives him something to do. He obviously likes to be strong so it gives him something to be strong at.

Searching for advice, Deen sent her videos to World Champion Hailey Kinsel, who had ridden Leroy for her during her pregnancy.

"I sent my videos to Hailey and talked to her. 'What am I doing wrong? We're not doing good again!' She said, 'I think you just need to slow down and trust that he's fast enough. Just make a smooth run and see what happens.' At Montgomery, I was like, 'Don't even kick him. Just go in and let him run and see what happens.' And, it worked out," she said.

Since she ran in slack, Deen spent the rest of the rodeo glued to the Cowboy Channel's broadcast.

"That was hard, to sweat the whole thing!" she exclaimed.

Deen, a Wyoming native now living in Wills Point, Texas, had purchased Leroy, a gelded son of five-time WPRA World Champion Sire PC Frenchmans Hayday out of the Sixes Pick, Special Effort mare Favorite Six, last March from his breeder Roy Gene Evans.

"My husband, Clay, used to work for Roy Gene and he had seen

Leroy when he was 3,” she explained. “They sent him off for some training and Clay went back to school. Last year, Clay’s dad saw a video of Morgan (Anderson) running him on Facebook and sent it to Clay and said, ‘I think this is the Dinero horse that Roy Gene has.’ It’s kind of crazy from there. He wasn’t really for sale, but Clay called and talked to Roy Gene. It just happened to work out we were able to buy him.”

Two months later, Deen found out she was expecting. She jackpotted and amateur rodeoed on Leroy to season him soon. She made her amateur rodeo finals on him and took him to a few pro rodeos as well.

“He placed at three of the four that I took him to and then it was time to get off,” she said. “He had never rodeoed a day in his life until last year.”

Ironically, Leroy would finish his year on rodeo’s biggest stage—the Wrangler NFR with Kinsel in the saddle.

“I knew that I was pregnant and he was just going to be standing around,” Deen explained. “I talked to her about the middle of September, beginning of October. I asked if she had a backup horse and what her plans were and if she needed another horse to run. She said, ‘Let me think about it.’ She tried him and really liked him. She placed at just about every jackpot she took to him before the Finals. She just felt really confident on him and got along with him good.”

Deen was in the stands to watch Kinsel ride Leroy in a round to spell her great mare DM Sissy Hayday. Ultimately, Leroy gets 1/10 of the average victory to his resume.

She said watching her four-legged child at the NFR was almost a bigger deal than running there herself.

“I was nervous but it was exciting,” she added.

While Deen ultimately has her sights on another NFR qualification herself, she’s playing it by ear for now.

“I definitely want to keep going as long as we’re doing good and he stays sound,” said Deen, who recognized her use of Wrangler, Med-Vet Pharmaceuticals and Equi-Brand--Classic Equine and Martin Saddlery products. “I would like to make it back to the Finals. I feel confident that Leroy can do it. It’s just a matter of seeing how it goes and him staying healthy.”

Sissy Winn & Flashy Red Flame Capture Goliad County Fair & Rodeo

By Tanya Randall

Sissy Winn and her 12-year-old mare Flashy Red Flame picked up a $1,434 victory in front of a packed Saturday night crowd at the Goliad Co. Fair & Rodeo, March 19-21 in Goliad, Texas.

"Oh man! I was so excited about Goliad," said Winn, who hails from Chapman Ranch just outside of Corpus Christi, Texas, on the Texas Gulf Coast. "We don't have a lot of South Texas pro rodeos. We have four or five that are a couple of hours from my house. It was really exciting for me to win Goliad. It's not my hometown, but it's really special to win a rodeo closer to home."

Winn had been on a rodeo run through the Southeastern Circuit and had run at Montgomery, Alabama, before Goliad.

"It was a long drive, like 12 hours, so we split it in half," she explained. "I thought, 'Oh man! I hope Flash has got it.' When I felt her heartrate come up when we were in the back, I knew it was going to be a fast one. 'Don't mess it up!'"

Winn and Flash were third out on the ground, but she said it was amazing the whole way through with the committee dragging after the fifth runner.

"Sherry Cervi was last out and ended up third," noted Winn. "It was really fair. It was the best it's ever been. The committee really put a lot of work into it. I'm like, 'Thank you!' This is awesome that more rodeos are doing it. It just makes it so much fairer."

Winn and Flame have been partners for the past five years. She purchased the mare from her breeder and trainer Nancy Mayes and her daughter Mitzi Duke. Flame is by Red Western Native out of Ahsome Blossom Flame, by Mr HG Flame.

"I got her when I was a freshman in college," Winn explained.

 Slick By Design x Kellies Chick (Darkelly)

2021 FEE: $1,000

"It's been a minute. We've grown as a team. It's really easy to know what she's going to do because she's going to turn. All I have to do is ride her up into her turns."

It was Flame that made Winn's pro rodeo dreams a reality.

"I always wanted to pro rodeo but never thought that I would even place," she said. "She's just so fast."

A 2020 honors graduate from Texas A&M University, Winn has spent the past five months splitting her time between her horses and studying for the LSAT so she can go to law school.

"It is a beast!" she admitted. "I take my books with me and when I have time off I study for a couple of hours. I try to break it up so it's not so stressful."

Like everyone going down the road, Winn would like to make the NFR, but she's cautiously optimistic. She currently sits No. 30 in the WPRA World Standings with $5,394 and has pro rodeos in Waxahachie, Nacogdoches, Levelland and San Angelo, Texas, in the upcoming weeks.

"I have two really good horses and they're happy and their sound," she said. "I'm going to try to go to as many rodeos as I can and just see what happens."

THE RUNDOWN w/Sissy Winn

Flashy Red Flame "Flash" 14.2 h, "She's little but she's built like a brick."
BIT: Dave Elliot combo. "There's not much to it. It's pretty light."
SADDLE: Martin Guardian
SADDLE PAD: 5 Star Pad
LEG GEAR: Classic Equine on all four
SHOEING: Shod by Bob Hodges
FEED: ADM Patriot
HAY: Cubeit
SUPPLEMENTS: Simply Equine Herbs & Oxy-Gen products
ALTERNATIVE THERAPIES: PHT, ActiVet Pro laser, PEMF Complete therapy, Theraplate and conditioning at Kimmi Byler's HorseSwim.com
TRAINING/CONDITIONING: Right now, it's pretty light since we're making so many runs. I just make sure she stays soft and is listening to me. I don't really try to go through the barrels a lot. Every once and in a while, I'll breeze her, but I mostly do a lot of pasture riding. She likes the pasture better than the arena.
SPONSORS: Charlie 1 Horse Hats, Simple Equine, Oxy-Gen, HorseSwim.com, Tanner Equine, Panhandle Slim/Rock N Roll Cowgirl

3 Time NFR Qualifier Xtrared passes

The hard trying, scrappy 3 Time NFR qualifying mare, Xtrared recently passed. Throughout her career she was ridden and owned by Christina Richman. Together Richman & Xtrared (better known as Stitch) won wherever they went. Eventually qualifying for the NFR in 2010, 2011, and 2012. Xtrared was a 2002 chestnut daughter of Thoroughbred sire Red and out of the Twaynas Dash mare, Attract. Her female family traced back to quarter horse racing blue blood Trippy Dip (TB) as her 3rd dam. Stitch was bred by perennial leading race horse trainer, Blane Schvaneveldt. Together Stitch & Richman won at about every big rodeo across the country including being Reserve WNFR Average Champions of the 2011 NFR. Together Richman estimates they won in excess of $550k. Richman has 5 Stitch foals to pass on her legacy. . . .

From Christina Richman's Facebook:

"Oh my sweet girl, although I know your in peace & pain free in a better place I am selfishly having a hard time without you here. We spent 18 wonderful years together where you took me to the highest of highs & helped me through the lowest of lows. My best friend. I hope I did enough to make sure you know how much you mean to me & I pray you know that I always tried my hardest to make every decision with your best interest in mind, for the times I failed you I am sorry. You gave me everything you had & I am forever grateful. Grateful for all the wins, the memories you gave me, the friends I made because of you, the rough times that made us stronger together, the 5 beautiful baby's you've given me & most importantly that giant heart you had that made all those things possible. Everything I have is because of you. I will miss seeing that face, watching you play with your tongue, telling you to settle down when you get mad that I moved a horse that was next to you without your permission & you trying to bite me when I put your blanket on. I will miss your attitude. I am incredibly thankful you have left me with some amazing baby's. I already feel like they are trying to pick up my pieces right now like you always did. I promise we will try our hardest to carry on your legacy. Rest In Peace Stitch I love you so much!

P.S. please try to be nice to our sweet Flo Jo until I get to see you guys again & mediate the situation."

***The Barrel Racing Report would like to send our thoughts and condolences to Christina Richman on the loss of her very special mare. They were always a fun team to watch whenever they ran. . . .

At some time in your life, you probably had someone believe in you when you didn't believe in yourself.

BARREL RACING REPORT NEWS

$12,000 Raised in Honor of Garrett Nokes

Almost $12,000 was raised during the Mid-Plains Community College Spring Fundraising Rodeo recently at the Kiplinger Arena in McCook, Neb. Proceeds will go toward a combination of scholarships, practice equipment and team travel expenses. The event was dedicated to Garrett Nokes, the college's former head rodeo team coach who passed away Feb. 14. Nokes, who qualified for the 2005 National Finals Rodeo in steer wrestling, passed away after a horse accident. He was 45. Nokes finished fourth in the 2005 world standings with $127,775. He earned $740,031 in his PRCA career, $440,113 in steer wrestling, $279,803 in tie-down roping and $15,170 in team roping. The rodeo included a presentation featuring a saddled rider-less horse, led by Nokes' son Parker, who rode around the arena while Garrett's bio was read. Some of the activities also raised money for the Nokes family. That included the sale of a steer and T-shirts - which are ongoing. Anyone interested in purchasing a Nokes memorial T-shirt may contact Wranglers booster committee member Brenda Peters at petersb@mpcc.edu or call 308.345.8117.

HEADIN' FOR HOME

"Classic" by Sherry Morrison // Triple M (Mike Morrison Ministries)

We love you and pray God's blessing over you this week!

We are Facebooking live from The Barn on Tuesday and Saturday nights. Join us from home and get built up in the Word!

Mike and Sherry Morrison pastor "Church at the Barn" in Gillette, WY. They also travel to other areas ministering at barrel races, ranches, rodeos, churches and home Bible studies. Check out our schedule online. You can also download all Bible studies by visiting our website: m-m-m.org or contact us at: PO Box 2439, Gillette, WY 82717, 307/685-2272.

Phil. 4:6-7 says, "Be anxious for nothing, but in everything by prayer and supplication, with thanksgiving, let your requests be known to God; and the peace of God, which surpasses all understanding, will guard your hearts and minds through Christ Jesus!"

Whew! Thank you, Jesus, we needed that! What a time we are living in. But God, who is the same yesterday, today, and forever is already in front of us. He's preparing our way. And the good news is, we are in charge of Homeland Security. Yes. You and me.

2 Chron. 7:14 tells us in part, that if we repent and pray, God will heal our land! I'm all over that, how about you?

WE INVITE YOU TO JOIN OUR FACEBOOK LIVE STREAMED BIBLE STUDY!

TUESDAYS @ 7:20 PM
