A Message from Equi-Stat

We realize producers are using several different programs to track their results. We can work with just about any of them. If producers are using Charlie Horse, they can utilize the Equi-Stat reporting function found under Administrative Functions. This will create a csv file that a producer can email directly to equistat@cowboypublishing.com.

If they aren't using a particular program, there are many different types of files that can be sent. We appreciate the use of excel. Using this database type of program will allow us to upload results into the database much faster. However, we will also accept Word and HTML versions of results. We cannot upload from PDF, please send HTML or excel. We do not accept photos of results. Just remember we need results from the producer, so we have a contact for more information.

We require results to have 80% registered names. We only figure the percentage on the horses that earn money and we DO NOT count any youth classes against the average. After many years, we are finally seeing that MOST producers are meeting this percentage. WAY TO GO EVERYONE! It's not as hard as everyone thought it was going to be!

We have complete show information, with that said, we need the name and date of the show, city and state held, registered or noted grade horse names, riders (with city and state if possible), owner (with city and state if possible), place, time and money earned. We also would like the number of entries for every class, as well as any added money. A flyer or entry form is always welcome too.

We do have an excel file (template) that anyone can obtain and utilize, if they do not have a program to use. Just shoot me an email and I will get that to you (tysha.pipps@cowboypublishing.com)! People can contact us with questions anytime. We want to make this as easy as possible for everyone.

Thank you so much!!!

Tysha Pippis; Lead Statistician, Equi-Stat

The Cowboy Channel airing '40 Nights of NFR'

The Cowboy Channel announced March 19 that the network will broadcast 40 nights continuously of the last four years of the National Finals Rodeo (2016-2019). The broadcasts began March 20 and will run through April 28.

The broadcasts will continue at 8 p.m. (ET), March 23 with Round 4 of the 2016 National Finals Rodeo with repeat airings each night at midnight. This will bring fans more than 120 hours of rodeo coverage that has only ever been seen on CBS Sports once. "40 Nights of NFR" will give fans a chance to relive some of their favorite, most recent NFR moments and see some of the greatest athletes in the world take home the coveted gold buckle.

"I think we are all still trying to come to grips with what has transpired in the last couple of weeks," said Jeff Medders, President and General Manager of The Cowboy Channel. "It seems like every day we are faced with a new challenge. Here at The Cowboy Channel we are striving to keep our viewers informed and entertained. We are excited to provide an escape in these tough times, and what would be better than '40 Nights of NFR'. We will start with Round 1 in 2016 and work our way to Round 10 last December. Our hopes are that when we hit night 40, the challenges we are facing will have begun to subside, and we will all be energized and ready for the summer rodeo season."

Daily programming for The Cowboy Channel will continue with Western Sports Round-Up (WSR) LIVE Monday-Friday at 6 p.m. (ET) and re-airing at 7 p.m. After WSR, The Cowboy Channel will lead into "40 Nights of the NFR" coverage at 8 p.m. with repeat airings at midnight.

"We're excited to have The Cowboy Channel offer rodeo fans 40 nights of the National Finals Rodeo," PRCA CEO George Taylor said. "This is a great opportunity for fans new and old to relive the passion of recent NFRs."

Please find a letter from WCRA President Bobby Mote in regards to the Stampede at The E below:

Dear Rodeo Community,

In light of the COVID-19 (coronavirus) pandemic and the most recent regulations and recommendations from the CDC, the World Champions Rodeo Alliance has announced the cancelation of all events and functions associated with the May 12-16 Stampede at The E in Guthrie, Oklahoma.

We took this action for the health and safety of our athletes, and their families, our staff, contractors, fans, and the entirety of the rodeo community as we engage in the ever-so-important social distancing measures to limit the spread of the virus.

Segment five nominations have been suspended. In the coming days, the WCRA will be refunding all athletes for these nomination fees.

We realize that these unprecedented times are tough and while we are saddened to make this announcement, we're pleased to continue nominations for segment six - $1.25 Million Days of '47 Cowboy Games and Rodeo, scheduled for July 21-25 in Salt Lake City.

The WCRA asks that everyone continue to practice healthy habits as outlined by the CDC. We are incredibly grateful for the support of our athletes, fans and the rodeo community as we face this unprecedented situation together.

From all of us at the WCRA, be safe and stay healthy.

Sincerely, Bobby Mote; WCRA President

A Weekend In The Life: Stevi Hillman's American Experience

By Stevi Hillman

This year's RFD-TV's The American was such a fun and memorable experience that I will never forget. Between getting to compete at such a cool facility, the opportunity to win so much money, and so many friends and family in the stands and watching on TV, it's the opportunity every rodeo competitor dreams about. With that said, I have to remind myself that it's just a rodeo, and I have to prepare and do my job just like I'm competing at any other rodeo or jackpot.

The week of The American was busy as usual, but since we only live an hour from AT&T Stadium, we got to come home every night. I was running DTF Texas Moon ("Moon") at the Patriot Futurity in Fort Worth, so I ran him in the first round on Thursday and the second round on Friday morning.

Since open arena at AT&T Stadium was Friday afternoon, we took Cuatro Fame ("Truck") and Twaynas Guy ("Shiner") with us to Fort Worth on Friday morning. I knew there was going to be an alley this year at the American, so I was excited to run Truck. The quick stop setup in previous years was not a good for him because like a real truck, he takes a little while to stop. Also, the diagram of what the barrel pattern was going to be setup like appeared that the barrels would be off the fence, another reason I was excited to run Truck because no matter what, he will hunt a barrel.

When we actually got into the arena and saw the setup, my emotions were mixed; while there was an alley, the way the alley was setup with the rest of the pattern was really challenging. Getting a good start and getting the right angle going to the first barrel is always important, but it was going to be extremely important there because of how straight the angle was... It was going to be really easy to hit the first barrel. Thankfully, the arena crew was open to suggestions and they widened the mouth of the alley so we could set up and give ourselves a better angle which helped tremendously. We were all very thankful they were open to changes to make it as fair as possible.

After practice, we stopped by Cavender's in the Fort Worth Stockyards for a reception and to pick up some of our swag for being a contestant. We got a chance to visit with some sponsors, thank them for their support, and meet and take pictures with some fans. We got home about 8:30 pm, took care of the horses, ate some dinner, and chilled the rest of the evening.

On Saturday morning, some of our best friends came to eat breakfast with us at home. Jake and Kylee Echevarria flew down from Idaho, to go to the rodeo and visit friends in Texas. I had to be at AT&T Stadium to check-in and go to a contestant meeting by 1 p.m. I didn't want Truck to stand around all afternoon and evening, so my mom went with me for check-in and the meeting and Ty brought Truck in around 6 p.m.

After the meeting I hung out and relaxed at the trailer for awhile and then signed autographs at the Nutrena booth for an hour or so. It was awesome to see how many people were there watching the Jr. American. I got the chance to meet A LOT of people! After signing, mom and I went to hospitality, and then we met Ty back at the trailer with the horses. Next, I did an interview with Kendra Dickson for 5 Star Saddle Pads at the trailer with Truck. When we were done with the interview, Kendra prayed with us... I love her! We estimated about what time we thought they would run barrels and we adjusted our normal routine so we would be ready at the right time. It's better for me if I do not get on Truck too early, so I have to fight the anxiety that I am late when I see other girls on their horses and warming up before me.

We were watching the rodeo on Ty's phone, so I knew our schedule was on point, but it's still hard for me not to think I am late. I warmed up Truck lightly in the warm up arena that was set up in the parking lot. We were some of the last to be there. We put Cloud boots on Truck and Shiner and walked them across all the concrete and pavement to finally get down to the arena.

Thankfully, we were able to stay in the back and not ride into the noise and lights until we actually made our run which is different than it's been in the past. Every other year, you had to sit and wait on the arena floor before you ran. It's so loud and the atmosphere is so electric, it's hard for horses to stay calm.

I was second to run in the first drag. After my run, I was excited because the run felt great, but with the pattern being different, I had no idea what a good time would be. After the second drag was over and I still had the fastest time, I felt certain I would advance and we went back to the trailer to try to get out of there before the traffic got bad. Unfortunately, we didn't make it in time. They shut our parking lot down and we waited almost an hour before they let us go. We got home late, but we were all in a pretty good mood to say the least.

The next morning, we were a little slow getting up. We took care of the horses, watched church online and took it easy. We picked up Jake and Kylee on the way back to the rodeo for the short round. As we always do, we estimated what time we thought the barrels would start and adjusted our routine to fit the schedule. We also made a plan for what we wanted to do if I made the Final Four. It was business as usual with warming up and preparing for the run. I knew Truck could potentially be stronger since we had made a run in the same arena just hours before so I was prepared for that. Ty and I made our plan with how he would block me in the alley so I could try to get a good position before I let him go to the first barrel.

Truck fired and made another great run! I was so excited and grateful! After I knew I made the Final Four, we executed our plan for what we were going to do between the runs. We knew we had about an hour so there wasn't any time to waste.

I was last to run in the Final Four. We had our plan. It was just another run. I followed my same routine I always do. I knew Truck was definitely going to be stronger for this run. I just kept reminding myself to "drive by and step off." I didn't actually want to run past the barrels or step off, but when I say that to myself, I know what I mean and it makes me ride the way I want to ride. Truck stayed so honest and made another fantastic run. I couldn't understand the announcer so I wasn't sure if I won or not, but I was just so happy and proud of my big boy. The gateman gave me a high five and it was a blur after that. I got off Truck, hugged Ty and gave him a kiss, and I was whisked away to get in the Ranger and make my victory lap. I was so happy, thankful, excited, and relieved. I did several interviews as well as the press conference. From the time I ran until the time I was released was probably close to two hours. Ty took the horses home to take care of them and do chores. There were so many friends and family there to celebrate. I got a ride with some of them back to Weatherford and we had a celebration dinner at the Cantina.

I am so grateful for the experience. I have so many blessings in my life and thank God every day for his love. God is so good!

4x World Champion Sire PC Frenchmans Hayday Passes

By Tanya Randall

Four-time WPRA World Champion Sire and NFR qualifier PC Frenchmans Hayday, known throughout the barrel racing world as Dinero, passed away on March 23 at the Potter Ranch in Marana, Arizona. The sire of 2010 and 2013 WPRA World Champion MP Meter My Hay ("Stingray") and 2018 and 2019 WPRA World Champion DM Sissy Hayday ("Sister") was 24.

"He was very special to our family," said four-time WPRA World Champion Sherry Cervi, who rode Stingray to two of her titles. "My dad is passionate about horses like I am. When we talked on the phone Saturday, he couldn't hardly talk he was so choked up. The sentimental value that horse has to our family runs very deep. He was a special horse and I'm proud to have been a part of his life."

Dinero hit the ground on July 2, 1995, and was bred by Frances Loiseau, who owned his dam Caseys Charm, by Tiny Circus out of Casey's Ladylove, in partnership with Cowan Brothers LLC, the owners of his sire Sun Frost, thus giving him the Cowan's PC before his name.

Cervi's father, Mel Potter, purchased Dinero as a 2-year-old at the Cowan Select Sale in October 1997. He paid $65,000 for the colt who was a full brother to French Flash Hawk ("Bozo"), the four-time WPRA World Champion ridden by Kristie Peterson.

"I remember thinking I couldn't wait to get on him," said Cervi. "I wanted to ride him, for sure."

Dinero became a multi-event rodeo athlete.

As a 4-year-old Dinero was sent to a friend of Mel's to be trained as a calf horse. Fortunately, one of those roping on the young stud was Dillon Mundorf, who would later raise Sister, Dinero's second WPRA World Champion.

"No one ever competed on him but he did have calves tied down on him," said Cervi.

Potter primarily turned steers on the stallion, while Cory Petska heeled on him. He was 10-years-old and already a rodeo veteran when Cervi got her turn.

"I would run him a little bit but when Tinman got hurt I started hauling him," said Cervi. "I hauled him about two or three years."

In 2005, Dinero not only helped carry Cervi to the NFR, but helped a few team ropers as well. That year at the short round of the Snake River Stampede in Nampa, Idaho, Dinero helped Petska win the rodeo and Walt Woodward and Richard Durham place in the team roping before a quick saddle change allowed Cervi to run him in the barrels, placing fifth.

"I loved it. I told Cory I wanted to do that with Stingray one year, but he never would," she chuckled. Dinero ended up third in the PRCA / AQHA Heel Horse of the Year voting for his efforts.

Cervi says she has several favorite memories of runs she made on the stallion.

"I loved running him at Pendleton," she said. "He was so much fun because you knew he was going to stand up. The ground wasn't a thought on him. He ran so fast and was such a blast. I don't think I've entered it but once since I ran him there. That's probably one of my most fun barrel racing experiences in my whole career—running him at Pendleton."

Dinero handled the double duty of competition and breeding with ease.

"He handled it really well," she said. "It never phased him. I remember one time we were headed to Red Bluff and were in the middle of nowhere between Nevada and California and we got a call that someone needed shipped semen today. So, I called ahead to find a vet clinic to see if they would collect him. I had shipping boxes with me because we knew we were going to have to ship while we had him with us. We stopped at some random vet clinic,

'DINERO'

Dear Dinero,
Today we cried as you passed away
Left with so many things, we meant to say
"Thank you" was the phrase we tried to find
As Potter Ranch became the legacy, you left behind
The sire of champions, who broke the mold
Even your coat was made of gold
Many of your colts have become a sensation
Making you the barrel racing stud of this generation
Four world championships in a ten year span
And to think people made fun of your tail as you ran
When you get to the other side, you can strut through all the gates
Go take your place in the pasture, with all the other greats
You deserve it; you don't have to question what you've done
We'll keep adding to your legacy with another daughter or a son
Now is the time for the hardest part to say
Goodbye Dinero; Goodbye PC Frenchman's Hayday
We love you - Potter Ranch

collected him and shipped it and kept going on to Red Bluff. He did that all spring in between competing. Every Monday, Wednesday and Friday we had to find a vet to get him collected.”

When Dinero’s competitive career was over, he’d won nearly $400,000 between barrel racing and team roping. His versatility carried over into his offspring with NFR qualifiers in the barrel racing, team roping and steer wrestling.

As a barrel horse sire, Dinero had offspring earnings of more than $4.5 million, making him the No. 3 Sire of All-Time as ranked by Equi-Stat, the statistical division of Cowboy Publishing Group, with only a fraction of the foals as the two stallions ahead of him.

In addition to his two World Champions, Dinero sired NFR barrel racing qualifiers LK Sheza Hayday, MP Quick Money and MP A Man With Roses. He also sired 2019 WPRA Rookie Champ, BFA

Derby Yearend Champ and 2016 NBHA 1D Teen World Champ Diva Deniro; BFA Super Stakes and Canadian National Finals Rodeo qualifier LK Shezapeasadinero and multiple futurity champion TS Hayday Returns, just to name a few.

“It’s awesome to see someone else do well on them,” said Cervi. “I know how proud my father is. He is so passionate about his horses. It makes me happy for him because I’m pretty sure there were people who thought he was nuts when he bought Dinero. He had a vision and he stuck to it and it paid off. He believed in that horse. I’m very happy for him and his breeding program for what Dinero has done. I think his legacy will continue on through his daughters and I think there’s some really good sons out there too. It’s exciting to be a part of that.”

HEADIN' FOR HOME

by Sherry Morrison // Triple M (Mike Morrison Ministries)

We love you and pray God's blessing over you this week!

We are Facebooking live from The Barn on Tuesday and Saturday nights. Join us from home and get built up in the Word!

Mike and Sherry Morrison pastor "Church at the Barn" in Gillette, WY. They also travel to other areas ministering at barrel races, ranches, rodeos, churches and home Bible studies. Check out our schedule online. You can also download all Bible studies by visiting our website: m-m-m.org or contact us at: PO Box 2439, Gillette, WY 82717, 307/685-2272.

Phil. 4:6-7 says, "Be anxious for nothing, but in everything by prayer and supplication, with thanksgiving, let your requests be known to God; and the peace of God, which surpasses all understanding, will guard your hearts and minds through Christ Jesus!"

Whew! Thank you, Jesus, we needed that! What a time we are living in. But God, who is the same yesterday, today, and forever is already in front of us. He's preparing our way. And the good news is, we are in charge of Homeland Security. Yes. You and me.

2 Chron. 7:14 tells us in part, that if we repent and pray, God will heal our land! I'm all over that, how about you?
