Just What The Doctor Ordered – Lockhart & Prime Diamond top RAM National Circuit Finals Rodeo

By Tanya Randall

Multiple National Finals Rodeo qualifier and two-time WPR Reserve World Champion Lisa Lockhart wasn't having much fun during the winter run until Prime Diamond ("Cutter") stepped-up to win her first RAM National Circuit Finals Rodeo Championship. The $26,154 victory vaulted Lockhart to fourth in the WPR World Standings with $51,177.

"I was pleasantly surprised to say the least," said the Oelrichs, South Dakota, barrel racer. "We came to Florida without a lot of expectations. Obviously, I knew he capable, but you don't have the expectations that you would on a seasoned, successful horse."

After riding "the struggle bus" for most the Texas winter run, Lockhart thought her luck had changed when she cracked out the beloved buckskin An Oakie With Cash ("Louie") to win two rounds in her pool at Rodeo Houston, but the joy was short lived. The 16-year-old Louie was forced to injured reserve, leaving Lockhart to ride her young backup horse Cutter in the third round.

"He did fine, but he was pretty lost," said Lockhart. "I wasn't too disappointed because even the most seasoned horses tend to get a little lost in that building! That being said, I didn't feel like for the semifinals (round at Houston) that was his thing. Kelly Conrado was gracious enough to let me on Tibbie (Cfour Tibbie Stinson)."

With Alan Woodbury's Rosas Cantina CC at the breeding farm and Louie recouping, Lockhart opted to run Cutter at the RAM since she figured she'd just head home to South Dakota afterward. She left for the Kissimmee, Florida, rodeo early and stayed with fellow competitor Sabra O'Quinn. The rest and Florida sunshine proved to be "just what the doctor ordered."

"My horses and I got to relax and enjoy some Florida sunshine," she said. "We were so happy, just loving it. It was awesome to relax and decompress. The whole scenario for about 10 days was about more than I could handle. We had the winter storm at home, boys' state basketball that I didn't end up going to because one of my flights was canceled, and then the Louie thing. To go to Sabra's and spend a few days with her before everything started was just what the doctor ordered. She even gave me some tips on Cutter and the first barrel. It was just awesome. I can't thank her enough."

In Kissimmee, Lockhart and Cutter placed second in the first two rounds of the tournament-style rodeo. Jessie Telford and Famous Cool Whip (Dash Ta Fame x Had A Kanita x Docs Rocky Top) won the first round with the fastest time of the rodeo, a 15.19. Frenchmans Bo Dashus x Royal Quick Dash) won the second. Yet, it was Lockhart and Cutter that led the field on two runs, going into the round of eight semifinals.

Home circuit favorite Ericka Nelson and GoodFrenchmanFriday (BHR Frenchies Socks x Joyces Gal x Direct Moon Jet) topped the semifinals, followed Cricket Ginter, aboard Dial A Little Fame (Dash Ta Fame x Dialalena Leo x Little John Dial) and Routier and Lockhart who tied for third. In the Finals, Routier and Missy were first out the gate with a 15.36, only to be bested by Lockhart and Cutter with a 15.30 one run later.

"He surprised me," Lockhart said. "He can run faster than I thought. It's pretty easy for him actually. He's so smooth he doesn't really feel like he's putting forth that much effort. He was just a good boy. He was quiet. He just didn't care about anything, so it was absolutely a blast."

Lockhart purchased Cutter, by Prime Talent out of the Hugo Streakin, Jody O Toole mare Hugo Diamond, as a 2-year-old on the recommendation of her good friend Lisa Anderson, who manages Copper Spring Ranch.

"She said, 'This one looks like something that you would like,' and that was it," she laughed. "I won some money over the Fourth of July that year and I just bought him sight unseen. I just looked at a picture.

"He's been my little pride and joy since then. He's been really easy and really quiet, real fun. I took my time with him. Probably took too long, obviously. He's now 8. Maybe it will work out in his favor."

Cutter has had a lot of exposure, which has been a bonus. "As far as seeing the sights and getting accustomed to all of that he has had quite a bit of experience with all of that," Lockhart noted. "He wasn't afraid of the stagecoach, because I had ridden him around in the warmup pen at the NFR and the stagecoach was there."

While he had travel experience, his actual competitive rodeo count is small. He won his first pro rodeo in Kimball, Nebraska, as a 6-year-old, but he didn't go to more than four circuit rodeos last year.

"It's so hard to take those risks," Lockhart admitted. "I don't feel like I advanced him a whole lot last year, but I did take him to some jackpots this winter. He is a lot further along, but I didn't think he was ready for what we just accomplished!"

Not surprisingly, after their strong finish at the RAM, Lockhart opted for at least one more run before she heads home. She'll run at Rodeo Austin on Tuesday night.

I figured it was one more opportunity before I go home and don't have any plans until the summer run, which will be end of June, first of July. It's time for the kids' college rodeos and high school rodeos.

THE RUNDOWN w/Lisa Lockhart

Prime Diamond, "Cutter" 15.1 h, 1,100 lbs.

BIT: L&W medium shank lifter gag with a chain mouthpiece

SADDLE: Martin Lisa Lockhart Fearless

SADDLE PAD: Classic Equine Felt with Navajo top or a Zone Pad

LEG GEAR: Classic Equine Legacy all four, No Turn bell boots

SHOEING: Steel rims on all four

FEED: Woody's Sale Prep

HAY: Alfalfa and orchard grass mix

SUPPLEMENTS: Platinum Performance CJ, Osteon and Longevity

ALTERNATIVE THERAPIES: Back On Track, PHT Magnet wraps, Soft Rides "I don't use them all the time, but definitely in transit, I take advantage of that sort of thing."

CONDITIONING-TRAINING REGIMEN: Lockhart said she mostly rides Cutter to keep him shape, however, he still at the point where she has to a little slow work on the barrels. "Not a lot," she said, "just reminders here and there. He's not rock solid yet, we definitely have to do a little bit."

SPONSORS: Martin Saddlery, Classic Equine, Platinum Performance, Cowgirl Tuff, Woody's Performance Horse Feed, De-Tye, Priefert, Polaris Ranger, B Bar Heart Performance Horses, Rodeo Rigs, Outback Customs.

And, I get to enjoy the tail end of calving season." She knows the setup will be a little more challenging for Cutter than Kissimmee.

"I thought Kissimmee would be great," she said. "It's not too big, not too small. There's just certain pens that are scary or make horses worrisome. I felt it would be a great setup for him. Austin is going to be a little bit more for him—more people, the blue walls. It's going to be a lot tougher for him. It's not as user-friendly for a unseasoned horse, but we're going to throw our hat in the ring anyway."

Lockhart want to thank everyone for their support and offers of congratulations.

"I'm so thankful for the messages," she said. "It's so fun when something out of the ordinary happens. Things happen for a reason. I wouldn't have got on Cutter if Louie hadn't gotten hurt. It's going to be hard going home with no where to go for a few months, but I think I'll have more confidence in him when I do come back out."

Emily Hannaford and Chasin A Firefly Soar at Bluebonnet Feeds Futurity

By Amy Wilson

A random Facebook post in December 2017 caught Emily Hannaford's attention because she was already a fan of Chasin Firewater barrel horses. The 2014 buckskin filly Chasin A Firefly, who's by Chasin Firewater and out of Famous Alibi by Dash Ta Fame, was in Louisiana and Hannaford lives in California. "They had a bunch of horses and just didn't have time for her," Hannaford remembers. "I messaged them and there was like 100 people who had messaged about her I felt like so I thought, there's no way I'll get her!" But it was obviously meant to be. Hannaford got Fly and sent her to a guy to ride for 60 days to get her "more broke and confident" since she was very green. "I didn't even have an arena where I was living at," Hannaford said with a laugh.

After she and her husband downsized to a new place because they wanted to be able to enjoy life and travel before starting a family, the 26 year old then was able to start Fly on the barrels. "I just took her real slow and didn't really have any expectations for her as far as competing very much or pushing her at all," she said. Fly is only her second futurity horse, but has proved to be extra special. "She just came on. The best way I can describe her is she's a horse that you show her something the first day and by the next day it's like she studied overnight and she's ten times better. She just makes it easy which is so fun," Hannaford explained. "She's the funnest horse I've ever been blessed to ride."

Fly has only been to six races so far, but she has placed or won at all of them, including the Bluebonnet Feeds Futurity in Queen Creek, Arizona this past weekend. "This was big for me to come out of my comfort zone and go to Arizona, but now I have the bug and want to go everywhere," she said with a laugh. "Everyone being so gracious and supportive and my friends being genuinely happy for me was really, really special for me."

Hannaford and Fly were 17.462 in the first round to place second. "It's a really long ways to the first barrel with how they have the wings set up. The last two places I've been, the barrels have been immediately on the other side of the wing so I anticipated that she might want to go a little soon. But she has the funnest first barrel because you can just send her and she finds it no matter what," Hannaford explained. The second round they were 17.589 to place fourth. "I rode like a monkey," she said laughing. "She's so forgiving and wonderful and I love her for that," Hannaford said complimenting Fly. They won the average by nearly 3 tenths to earn a little over $5200 for the weekend. "It paid great. Everyone there was so, so nice. The atmosphere and everyone involved – sponsors, vendors, everyone – was so generous and so nice," she said thankfully.

Hannaford wanted to express how appreciative she is of Horse-shoe Park and everyone involved, "I am beyond impressed with the facility. They sanitize all the stalls and everything before every event. And you can tell, everything is clean! The whole place was immaculate when we pulled up." She continued, "The people in the office were so nice – everyone has been so nice and very accommodating. All of our shavings were already in our stalls waiting for us. The facility is wonderful – there are like four arenas. The ground is phenomenal. I love this facility and I really hope they keep having big stuff here because I will definitely be back."

THE RUNDOWN w/ Emily Hannaford

Chasin A Firefly "Fly", 15.1 hh, 1,200 lbs.
 BIT: L&W with a twisted mouthpiece
 SADDLE: Double J Pro
 SADDLE PAD: 5 Star
 LEG GEAR: Classic Equine
 FEED: Nutrena Safechoice and Purina GastroCare
 HAY: Alfalfa & grass
 SUPPLEMENTS: Performance Microbials and Formula 1 Papaya
 ALTERNATIVE THERAPIES: Flexineb – it helps her a lot with her allergies.
 CONDITIONING–TRAINING REGIMEN: If I'm not prepping for a race, I like to do a lot of jogging and big circles loping. I try to pick at least one day a week where I breeze her down the arena and work on when I sit that she comes back to me and relaxes. I don't work the barrels very much on her because she really doesn't need it.

Hannaford, who's a small animal vet tech, also gives a lot of horseback riding lessons. Her mom, who had shown pleasure horses but sold them to have kids, was delighted that her youngest, Hannaford, was interested in horses. Hannaford started riding when she was four and was competing at 8 or 9 years old. Now living in Templeton, California, she continues to learn in her journey of training futurity horses. "I'm blessed to have a great support system and a lot of people who live by me who are very, very accomplished horse people," she said. "And I live on that barrel horse facebook page when they post those videos of the trainers. I really love Mollie Montgomery – she's an idol of mine. I always watch what she does."

She originally became interested in Chasin Firewater barrel horses because of her friend, Brittany Barnett's mare. "I swear that horse could fall down on all three barrels and she'd still win the race by almost a half second. She was just a freak. No matter what happened, she always clocked. I was like, 'I want one of those!'," Hannaford said. "So I found my first Chasin - a little sorrel mare. And she was the same way, just so gritty and so much try it's incredible. And the most insanely fast thing I've ridden in my life." That was Hannaford's first futurity horse and now three years later, she has Fly. "Fly is a lot more gentle, a lot more easy going, go with the flow personality. So they're actually totally opposite personality-wise. But she's just as talented. They do not lack heart. Whatever you ask them to do - anything - they will give 110% everyday. Neither of them have any quit in them," she explained.

Hannaford would love to go to the BFA derby after the JB Futurity in fall and said, "My big long term goal with her is that I've always wanted to have a really good mare that's worth pulling embryos on. I've always been drawn to mares more and see so many in the history books that go on to produce talented babies." She continued, "I've just always wanted a mare like that - one that people really like. I'm hoping that's Fly for me."

Not only does Fly get attention by shutting the clock off, but she's catches everyone's eye with her unique color. "I have people ask me all the time what she is because she's a funny color of buckskin. She's really, really dark and she almost turns black in the summer which in my opinion is opposite - I think she should lighten up," Hannaford said. "I think she's just beautiful. She's been such a blessing."

Headin' For Home

by Sherry Morrison
Triple M (Mike Morrison Ministries)

Have you ever encountered a problem, looked and looked in your head for the answer and came up short? Ya, me too. The other night, Mike used the analogy of the bull and the cape/matador.

Here is this bull running after the cape when all the time if he just shifted his focus to the matador, the fight would be over...for the matador/devil.

As Christians, we often keep looking at the problem. We are fighting the PROBLEM and the ANSWER just seems to be out of range. So we look in our head again...and again...and again. No victory, just frustration.

Now, if we would just shift our focus to the answer, which by the way is in the Bible, we could skewer the problem (the matador/devil) and move on! We get so distracted. If our FIRST response is, "What does the Bible say about my finances/big toe healing/marriage?" then we wouldn't be so exhausted trying to figure it out in our head!

Our God 'always causes us to triumph!' 2 Corin. 2:14. Be the bull this week! And by the way, we are live streaming our Tuesday night Bible studies on Facebook at 7:20 P.M. MST. Go to: Triple M – Mike Morrison Ministries. We'd love to have you join us!

Mike and Sherry Morrison pastor "Church at the Barn" in Gillette, WY. They also travel to other areas ministering at barrel races, ranches, rodeos, churches and home Bible studies.
