Mowry & Force The Goodbye Conquer Rodeo Austin

By Tanya Randall

All-time leading rider Kassie Mowry picked up her second win of the Winter Run of lucrative building rodeos with a $15,545 championship at Rodeo Austin aboard her 6-year-old gelding Force The Goodbye ("Jarvis").

"He's just been so much fun to season," said Mowry. "Gosh! I wish they were all like that!"

Jarvis, who is by The Goodbye Lane out of VF Forcit First, by Burrs First Down, has been to a little more than a handful of rodeos since making his debut in a round at the 2022 National Finals Rodeo. He ran in a couple late last summer before winning two rounds—one with the fastest time of the rodeo—at the 2023 NFR. This year, he's been to two—and won them both.

"The horse just seems to get better and better," she said. "He was a phenomenal futurity colt. He placed at every futurity. He was super consistent. Now, to have these big wins like this against top pro rodeo horses...I can't even wrap my mind around what he is doing. I'm just so thankful to have him."

Mowry, who likes to prepare her horses as much as she can before an event, knew that Jarvis could handle Austin, where she ran CP He Will Be Epic "Will" last year, because he'd proven he didn't need to see the arena before a run.

"I wasn't able to get him in San Antonio either, and he did well there for his first run going in without seeing the pen," said Mowry. Jarvis won both the Semifinals and Finals to bring home the San Antonio championship after Will advanced Mowry out of her bracket. "I feel like he's ready now to just go in there without getting an exhibition or seeing the arena beforehand."

Rodeo Austin used a new format this year. The $50,000-added rodeo was limited to 56 contestants, 20 of which came through a qualifier in Stephenville, Texas. Each contestant got two runs in back-to-back rounds with the top eight on two advancing to the short go.

Mowry made her two runs early, in the third and fourth performances. She and Jarvis held the lead in the first round with a 15.35 for much of the rodeo until Jodee Miller and M R Im On Fire Guys bested them by a tenth. However, no one was able to catch their blistering run of 15.01 in the second round.

They had their slowest run in the Finals, a 15.40, that placed third in the round but gave them nearly a half-second lead for the aggregate.

"I hit the first barrel, and it just didn't go over," Mowry said. "I was thankful for that clean run, because it was close!"

She said she was able to save the run because of Jarvis's willingness to be handled.

"He just has a way of letting me get him to his spots," she said. "That makes my job a lot easier. He really comes back and relies on me. We were in trouble from the first barrel, and he let me ease him through the rest of it and try to put it back together. I knew I was behind at that point.

Jarvis didn't even take an extra-large pocket at the third—something he has a habit of doing.

"He knew we didn't have time for that!" Mowry laughed.

Although it was close a couple of times, it was Mowry's first time to put clean runs together at Austin in a while.

"I've always hit barrels there," she said. "Last year, Will won the long go and then I hit the third in the semifinal. Will felt great there, but I just hit barrels. It seems like a lot of people have trouble with that there. I don't know what contributes to that. It's not a really tricky setup. The crowd is up over you so you're not running straight at them. I'm not sure what it is. It is very loud. It is difficult for people to get two, especially three, clean runs in there."

Mowry, one of the industry's all-time leading trainers, had two other equine proteges running the eight head Final. Stevi Hillman was on Sand In My Socks ("Sandi"), who was a former futurity standout with Mowry, and Wenda Johnson was on Steal Money ("Mo"), who got a futurity win under Mowry's saddle.

"It's always cool when I get to see them," she said. "The guy was like you need to come on over here for the interview, and I'm like, 'Well, Sandi still has to run.' It's still a win for me if she wins this. I just love seeing these horses go out there (and win). Being a part of their training and career is so much fun, so rewarding. Mo was my biggest threat...and my biggest buddy. It's just cool!"

Mowry has one more winter rodeo in San Angelo, Texas, before she's back to focusing on the lucrative spring aged events. Jarvis, who now has career earnings of $873,764, is still a derby horse, too.

"He has a full schedule this year, but he seems to be thriving on it for the moment," she said.

Good Things Comin for Brandon Cullins at Oklahoma's Select Stallion Stakes Futurity

By Tanya Randall

Good Things (keep) Comin for American Champion Brandon Cullins. He and his talented 4-year-old stallion Good Things Comin ("Nahko") collected $11,858.75 for taking top honors at $30,000-added, 108-entry Select Stallion Stakes Futurity. Cullins also placed second on the 5-year-old stallion Seis Shots Of Beauty ("Hershey"), owned by National Finals Rodeo qualifier Jane Melby, for earnings of $11,447.

The Futurity, which was only open to the enrolled offspring of stallions in the Select Stallion Stakes program, was held in conjunction with Ranea Bolling's Barrel Bash, held March 22-24 at the Grady County Fairgrounds in Chickasha, Oklahoma.

"I always enjoy that futurity and it pays really good," said Cullins, who won $23,305.75 at the event. "I look forward to it. I like that arena and the ground was good throughout. It was laid back but quick in and out. I don't think we were there 48 hours."

The laid back and low key event was a far cry from Cullins' recent experience, winning the $1 million contender bonus at Teton Ridge's The American. The 2.6 million dollar trainer was more than happy to get back to training and campaigning horses without all the fanfare and publicity that went along with the historic win.

"I just ignored most of it," he chuckled.

With the speedy mare MJ Segers Fast Lane at court of Tres Seis at Zerlotti Equine, Cullins could focus on the boys at Chickasha.

Hershey, a son of Tres Seis out of Melby's great NFR mare RC Back In Black, by Ninety Nine Goldmine, hit paydirt first, placing fifth in the first round with a 15.389. Nahko was a little off the pace, back in 14th, with a 15.547.

"The first go he was a little long," Cullins said. "He wasn't quite as rocked back as he needed to be. He was just trying but he got a little round, nothing bad over all."

Saturday afternoon, Cullins' fiancé Emily Efurd got Nahko out of his stall to ride around, and she got the stallion "rocked back" and off his front end. The little reminder resulted in the fastest run of the entire event, a 14.803!

"The second round, I just went in there and let him work," Cullins said. "He had a really good run. He might have got a step high on his first, but he tried so hard, he got right back where he needed to be. His second and third—he was really quick, in and out of those, and he was running."

Hershey was right on Nahko's heels with a 15.001, the second fastest time of the event, to take second in the round and aggregate by just .04.

Nahko is by 8.8 million dollar sire The Goodbye Lane out of Jeff Varner's great mare Honor This Nonstop, by Mr Honor Bound. He is a half-brother to VQ Sucker Punch, a multiple derby champion and NFR qualifier that Cullins trained; Folsom Prisoner, that took Cullins to a BFA World Futurity Championship; and pro rodeo winners VQ Im Buzzed and VQ Nonstop Stinson.

The colt made his competitive debut in the BFA Super Stakes last November. He was a BFA Juvenile finalist before winning the OKC Rookie Futurity. Nahko was also a finalist at the Royal Crown

FEED: Bluebonnet

HAY: McCracken alfalfa cubes

CONDITIONING/TRAINING REGIMEN: "I don't work the barrels a ton on him. It's mostly riding around and riding in the fields. I think you can get them sharper that way than cranking them on the barrels."

Race in Buckeye, Arizona. His career earnings are now $70,599.

Nahko's first foal crop is in the process of hitting the ground as he bred 10 mares last year. This year, he'll catch a few more mares through frozen semen as he focuses on his futurity campaign.

"I just wanted to make sure he had the best chance to do what he can this year," said Cullins. "We'll worry about the other later."

Nahko's next futurity is the Diamond Classic in Abilene, Texas, just two weeks after Cullins and Efurd tie the knot on April 6.

HEADIN' FOR HOME

by Sherry Morrison // Triple M (Mike Morrison Ministries)

Happy Easter week! For children of God, this is the time of year we celebrate the most! Jesus took all our sin on Himself so we wouldn't have to...

Sometimes I think there really isn't anything more powerful. I have life everlasting. You have life everlasting. Eternity is a long time. And for those of us that have asked Jesus to be our Lord, we have everything to look forward to.

Now, if you haven't asked Jesus to be the Lord of your life, you may want to read Romans 10:8-10. It's so easy to step from death to life. Just follow His directions. From that step to whenever we leave this earth, we are blessed with sooooo many benefits!

Jesus makes sense out of the nonsense of this world. All His promises are yes and amen. He's right there, helping us every step of the way. Forget the Easter eggs. Forget the bunny. Remember Him!
