Game Changer -- Firewatermakemehappy & Kassie Mowry Win Rodeo Houston

By Tanya Randall

Houston, Kassie Mowry has a problem.

The veteran futurity trainer from Dublin, Texas, has already won more than $150,000 in the futurity arena in just four months, but now she's on the cusp of her second National Finals Rodeo qualification, thanks to a $60,000 Rodeo Houston Championship aboard Firewatermakemehappy ("Junior"), owned by Jeff and Martha Smith of Lipan, Texas.

Unfortunately, the BFA World Championship Futurity and NFR are held at the same time, making competing at both impossible. "It was so unexpected," said Mowry of her Houston championship. "I went there with no expectations, really feeling out of my element. It wasn't that I didn't have confidence in my horse; it was just that we'd never run in anything like that before and I didn't know how he would handle it. Every run surprised me."

Smith, too, was shocked after watching a horse that she purchased as a weanling after only seeing him in pictures win the lucrative winter rodeo.

"I'm still in disbelief," said the nurse practitioner. "When I think of Houston, I think of Nancy Hunter winning it and making it to the NFR. To me, it's like the ultimate win in rodeo. I'm still in shock. It's surreal."

Even though Junior has rodeo winning experience, having won San Angelo, which qualified Mowry to Houston, and the Elite Rodeo Athletes Finals in Dallas, Mowry never took her trainer's hat off when it came to the Houston set up, which she accurately described to Junior's owner Martha Smith as a 14-second pattern at the very end of a football field.

"They let us ride in there every morning and I took advantage of every single minute they let us in that arena. I basically had that horse as prepared as you could ever have one. That went a long way for my confidence. I was able to let him get a feel of the ground and show him the barrels. I did a lot of slow work."

Mowry was also able to make adjustments throughout the rodeo.

"He's doesn't just go in there and take you for a ride," said Mowry. "He's really good about letting you make adjustments to different setups. I use that to my advantage."

Junior has run in the same square-mouth cloverleaf snaffle his entire career, but Mowry made bit changes during the rodeo. Because the ground was hard and she was worrying about him bouncing and she didn't want him to stop pulling with his front end, Mowry made her next run in a twisted-wire O-ring. After one run with the O-ring, Mowry felt it was too much so she switched to

ProRodeo Hall of Fame announces 2017 class

Randy Corley, an 11-time PRCA Announcer of the Year, joins five world champions to headline the 12-member 2017 induction class for the ProRodeo Hall of Fame, which was announced Tuesday.

Corley, along with gold buckle winners including the late Buck Rutherford (all-around, 1954), Enoch Walker (saddle bronc riding, 1960), Tommy Puryear (steer wrestling, 1974), Mike Beers (team roping, 1984) and Cody Custer (bull riding, 1992), will be enshrined with rodeo notable Bob Ragsdale, a 22-time National Finals Rodeo qualifier in three events.

Also, voted in by the selection committee were four-time bare-back horse of the year, Christensen Bros.' Smith & Velvet, and the committee for the Ogden (Utah) Pioneer Days.

For the first time in the history of the ProRodeo Hall of Fame, barrel racers from the Women's Professional Rodeo Association (WPRA) will be amongst the class of inductees. Their inaugural class will be Wanda Harper Bush, Charmayne James and a joint PRCA/WPRA equine inductee - Star Plaudit "Red." The class will be inducted Aug. 5 at the ProRodeo Hall of Fame in Colorado Springs, Colo.

On the WPRA side, Bush was multi-talented, becoming the most decorated cowgirl in the history of the WPRA (formerly the Girls Rodeo Association).

When the GRA first formed in 1948, Bush was one of the first to sign-up. All totaled, she won 32 world titles - nine all-around (1952, 1957-58, 1962-65, 1968-69), two barrel racing (1952-53), two cutting (1966, 1969), one flag race (1969), 11 calf roping (1951-56, 1960, 1962, 1964, 1966-67) and seven ribbon roping titles (1951, 1953-54, 1956-59). She finished as reserve world champion in the barrel racing three separate times.

While Bush's barrel racing world titles came before the NFR began, she qualified seven times (1959-60, 1962-65, and 1974) for the NFR during her career.

"That is awesome and really great. We are really proud she will be honored in this way," said Shanna Bush, Wanda's daughter, who qualified for the NFR in 1984. "She would be very honored and humbled. She would be very glad to be a part of the Cowboys Association (PRCA) because she always worked for that to be the case. She always wanted them to get along and to better themselves by being associated with each other. This is a very special honor."

Bush will be inducted posthumously, having passed away Dec. 29, 2015.

Although she had to wait 22 years to join her legendary horse Scamper in the ProRodeo Hall of Fame, James is ecstatic to be a part of this historic class.

"I am thrilled to be going in as part of the inaugural class and what this represents for all barrel racers," said James, who now makes her home in Boerne, Texas. "To be going in with Wanda is very exciting. Wanda was such a pioneer for our sport. Throughout my entire career her presence and forging through on issues with barrel racing was there and evident, and why we are where we are today.

"Scamper has just been waiting for me and I was fine with that as he really deserved the honor. This news made my entire day."

James, who grew up in Clayton, N.M., the home of the very first barrel racing National Finals Rodeo in 1959, won the first of 10 consecutive world titles at the youthful age of 14 in 1984.

James was the first WPRA member to wear the coveted No. 1 back number in 1987, and became the first barrel racer to cross the $1 million record in career earnings. In addition to the 10 consecutive world titles (1984-1993), James and Scamper won the NFR average title six times (1984, 1986-87, 1989-90 and 1993). In 1996, Scamper became the first and only barrel horse (until 2017) to be inducted into the ProRodeo Hall of Fame.

James would add a cherry on top of her illustrious career returning to the top of the sport aboard Cruiser (Cruisin on Six) in 2002, winning her 11th world title and seventh NFR average title.

Bringing symbolism to this new chapter in the history of the PRCA and WPRA is best summed up with the induction the horse known as Star Plaudit "Red."

Star Plaudit holds a very unique record in the world of professional rodeo, one that is not likely to ever be duplicated. The bay gelding won two world championships in the sport in a single year and contributed to a third, at the age of 12.

In 1962, Red, as he was affectionately known, carried his owner Sherry (Combs) Johnson to the GRA world title in the barrel racing. The horse also helped close family friend Tom Nesmith to the RCA world title in the steer wrestling, as well as the RCA all-around championship.

Johnson credits the steer wrestling with teaching Red how to run hard through the pattern.

"Lord, that is a blessing and a dream come true for him and I," Johnson said of Red being inducted into the ProRodeo Hall of Fame. "He was a horse of a lifetime, and what he accomplished will never be done again. I had the pleasure of riding him and he had such a big heart. This is just such a wonderful honor." Red passed away at the age of 22.

a square mouth partially locked O-ring.

"It gave me a little bit of quicker action because it was locked, but it wasn't as quick of a reaction as the bit I normally run him in," she explained. "Halfway through I also adjusted his tiedown about an inch. I changed my angle in the alley way several times. I started out running with one spur on my right foot and ended up changing it to my left foot. There were just a ton of little adjustments I kept making as we went to try get that edge because that was a pack of wolves. I just kept trying to make him better and better."

Bred by Karma Loftin, Junior is by leading barrel horse sire, Firewaterontherocks, out of the blue hen mare Juniors Country Girl, by Deep Note Jr. The 7-year-old gelding is a half-brother to futurity winner Grace Master, pro rodeo money earner Classic Confederate, futurity money earner Mandalay Bay, and current futurity money earner My Epic Moment, who is also owned by Smith.

Mowry has trained and ridden Junior since he was a long 2-year-old. He was a futurity standout with more than $150,000 in earnings and has adjusted well to open competition. In addition to his rodeo wins, Junior has also qualified for every American Semifinals Rodeo since he was 4.

"He's a great horse and he always has been. This is just a new atmosphere for him," Mowry added.

Mowry purchased her WPRC card last summer for the first time in years. She took So Epic, who has done well with his new owner, Sidney Forrest, to three pro rodeos. This year, she got her card to take her futurity horse, Girls Dig Fame, owned by Michael Boone, to slack at San Angelo, where she was hoping a rodeo run would inspire her to ride the gelding more aggressively.

When Mowry made the second round in San Angelo, she asked Smith if she could take Junior.

"We don't run him very much," Mowry said. "We don't take advantage him. We do not run his wheels off. He's a winner. Everything is well thought out and calculated when we run him. He's that special to us. We don't ever make him run for nothing."

Mowry currently sits third in the WPRC World Standings with $73,501 from just five rodeos. It took $79,068 to qualify for the NFR in 2016. While it's no guarantee, Mowry has very good odds of spending the first week of December in Las Vegas. Unfortunately, as a futurity trainer that eliminates the BFA World Championships in Oklahoma City.

"I'm just going to keep going with the colts as usual," she said. "I'm going to try to make the NFR, but I'm not trying to win the world. I can't set myself back for next year. These colts are my long-term thing. If I go on the road now, what do I have for next year? My owners have told me when these colts hit the ground that they're coming to me that's how long we have invested with these futurity colts and it's not something that I'm willing to put aside."

Mowry said she'll look at the rodeo schedule to see if anything matches up with the rest of her futurity travels or see if she has time for a little rodeo run this summer when she gives her colts a break during the extreme heat.

Smith is grateful that Junior is helping pay his bills as well as that of his younger half-brother. Her personal goal is to one day run for WPRA Rookie of the Year and if Mowry has him well rodeo seasoned when, and if, that time comes, all the better.

"It all depends on what Kassie wants to do," she said. "I know Kassie wants to show what he's capable of, but in my eyes, I'm just happy with all that he's done so far. I just think he's a gift from God and what I've dreamed about my whole life.

Mowry was grateful that the Smiths were able to watch their

$10,223 Payday for Tammy Fischer & LK Sheza Hayday at Rodeo Austin

By Tanya Randall

Tammy Fischer of Ledbetter, Texas, and her talented 7-year-old mare LK Sheza Hayday (“Ziva”) saved their best run for last, winning the tournament-style Rodeo Austin for $10,233.

“The Austin committee did a fabulous job with the ground,” said Fischer, who made all three of her runs toward the bottom of the draw each night. “I was never at the top of the ground and they did a fabulous job keeping the ground even from top to bottom. They did a great job.”

Fischer made her first run at Austin on Monday, March 20.

“It was just a good, solid run, nothing great,” said Fischer. “She was a little conservative, kind of balked a little at the big blue walls. I was 12th in the round and happy to be back.

Making the rodeo more challenging was the fact that it was scheduled at the same time as the Riley Key Scholarship Barrel Race in Giddings, Texas. Fischer started the barrel race eight years ago, after she lost her son in an auto accident shortly following his high school graduation.

Although she makes her living as a professional barrel racer and trainer, Fischer, who holds a Master’s degree from Sam Houston State University, is a strong advocate of education, and she decided that the money she’d saved for Riley’s education would go to help others and the memorial barrel race in his honor would continue to fund scholarships for area youth. More than $140,000 in scholarship have been awarded in Riley’s memory.

“When I found out Austin’s Semifinals and Finals were over Riley’s barrel race, the stress started then,” Fischer said. “I have really good friends and a really good office crew, but the thought of not being there if something happened . . . I was a little panicked. I have never even missed five minutes of one of Riley’s benefits.”

Thankfully, Fischer got a trade to Thursday night, so she wouldn’t miss the warmup race for the Riley Key Memorial, which started at 7 on Friday night. On Thursday, Fischer and Ziva posted a 15.68, which was placing fourth when she left and was bumped to sixth after the completion of the Semifinals runs on Friday night.

"Her Semifinals run, she had a whole lot better run," said Fischer. "She had a beautiful first and third. I over turned the first a little bit so I had an 8- to 10-foot pocket at the second barrel. I was scared to move her over or bring her over to it too soon because I didn't want to hit it, so I just let her run this nice big circle around it. She stayed really true and honest, and I knew she could get faster."

On Saturday, Fischer returned to her barrel race and ran six head before leaving at 3:30 for Austin. In the finals, she and Ziva edged Tillar Murray and Royal Star Commander by 2/10ths of a second to take the championship. Murray and Commander had won both the first round and semifinals before taking second in the finals to earn $17,075.

True to Fischer's expectations, Ziva got faster as she grew more comfortable with the arena.

"The run on Saturday night was on the verge of picture perfect," said Fischer. "She fired hard and turned all three barrels beautiful and she ran out the gate really good. I couldn't fault her anywhere."

Bred by Aimee Kay of Bluff Dale, Texas, Ziva is by two-time WPRA World Champion Sire PC Frenchmans Hayday out of the great Pie In The Sky mare, Sheza Peasa Pie. Ziva is a full sister to LK Sheza Peasa Dinero that won the 2014 BFA Super Stakes and qualified for the 2015 Canadian National Finals Rodeo with Kay.

Fischer got Ziva from longtime friend and 2000 WPRA World Champion Kappy Allen in July of last year. She had ridden the mare off and on since the late spring of her fourth year for Allen, who never really felt the mare was her style.

When Fischer's 7-year-old daughter Sydney lost her rodeo horse unexpectedly, she made the decision to sell her rodeo horse MP Quick Money. Allen, who was running the gelding at the time, decided to buy him and offered Ziva as a partial trade.

"I didn't expect her to be my main horse," said Fischer. "I really took her in on trade for Sydney. She backs off and does great for Sydney, but she's really bloomed and turned into a lot more than I ever expected."

With Money's 7-year-old full brother, MP Follow The Money, and the 7-year-old Famous Bugs mare, Famous Rabbit, Fischer has a talented team up rodeo ready horses.

"I have three 7-year-olds that I really, really like," she said. "I'm feeling very blessed."

This summer, Fischer is going to try go bit more.

"I would like to go," said the five-time NFR qualifier. "I went for a week last summer to see how she would do at the big outdoor rodeos. My traveling partner, Taci Bettis, went with me. She'd never been out there. We went to the ERA in Salt Lake, Estes Park and Spanish Fork. Ziva and Taci's horse Smash did great out there.

"If all the stars line up and our horses stay sound, we might go again. The biggest factor is always Sydney. She's not a big fan of travel, so we were going load her horse up and take her with us and see if we can find enough youth rodeos and fun things to do to keep her in the trailer."

IT PAYS TO OWN A BBI HORSE, HURRY UP AND JOIN US!

ADVERTISING HAS ALREADY STARTED FOR 2017. Don't be left out. The earlier you nominate, the more exposure your stallion receives prior to the 2017 breeding season with regional and national advertising.

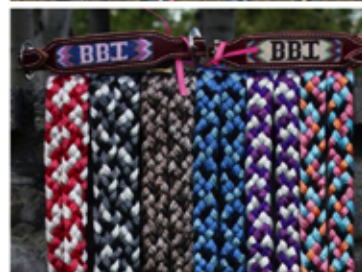

BBI was formed for stallion owners as an incentive program to breed barrel horses and sell barrel prospects. Now barrel racers are looking specifically for BBI horses.

BBI is set apart from other barrel breeders' programs as we promote an Open Barrel race as well as Futurity & Derby events. Horses 4-7 years old by nominated stallions (or sire if of age) are eligible to run in BBI sidepots. Pictured are some of our 2016 BBI winners: Just Look Quix (JD Look) with Emily and Adi Keefer ("Q" won all 3 BBI futurity events), TS Mrsunpeppy Dash (PC Mr Sun Peppy) and Monica Gruel (Barrel of Gold Derby champs), Margaret Jones (Midnight Corona), Monica Gruel, Emily Keefer and Shelley Murphy (As Good As Nick Gets). 2016 handcrafted awards from JoBeth Hutchison, Gale Beebe and Sammy Jo Hall.

Headin' For Home

by Sherry Morrison
Triple M (Mike Morrison Ministries)

My granddaughters were here for the night. At bedtime, the youngest (6) just couldn't get to sleep. She chatted about everything she could think of. Then in a really quiet moment she said, "I talk too much..." Now any good parent/grandparent would take this opportunity to tell her just how wonderful she is. And I probably wouldn't have thought it too serious but she added, "Darcy (the 9 year old) is really quiet, and so and so said I talk too much." There it is. The beginning of comparing ourselves to someone else, someone different.....

I grabbed that opportunity to tell her that there was no one else in the whole wide world like her. That God created her just like He wanted her, perfect. And He created Darcy to be a different perfect. You get the idea. In all of us there is the tendency to compare ourselves. 2 Cor. 10:12 tells us that comparing ourselves is not wise. And I Cor. 12:14-27 tells us that each of us are needed. Eyes/hands/knees, etc. Read these scriptures and hear the heart of God about you.

Honestly, I wish those scriptures weren't in the Bible. I want to be a singer. When I vacuum, I sing...loud! But when I turn it off and keep singing...yikes! I really appreciate those who have a pretty voice and use it for Him. I appreciate people who can teach. I appreciate people who can build things. I appreciate those who can draw. This week, appreciate the gifts in others. And I will tell you, in case no one else does, that I appreciate the gift in you!
