Emotional Rodeo Austin Victory For Amanda Welsh & Frenchman Fire Fly

By Tanya Randall

Amanda Welsh felt sick to her stomach.

She and her great horse Frenchman Fire Fly were less than 10 rodeos back from a stifle injury that cost the gelding the entire 2022 season. They had just taken advantage of top of the ground in the Championship Round of Rodeo Austin, held March 11-25. Their time of 14.88 had survived six runners. All that was left was recently crowned Rodeo Houston Champions Jordon Briggs and Famous Lil Jet, who had posted the fastest time of the rodeo one

"After she ran, it hit me like a ton of bricks," Welsh admitted. She turned to her horse and whispered through building tears, "You just won Austin, Fire Fly!"

Welsh, a 2021 National Finals Rodeo qualifier and two-time Badlands Circuit Finals Rodeo Champion, picked up $13,522 at the $47,500-added playoff-style rodeo. She currently sits No. 18 in the WPRA World Standings with $21,308.

She wanted to commend the Rodeo Austin committee for their excellent ground conditions throughout the event.

"The committee at Austin was tremendous," she said. "They really cared about the ground and it showed throughout the rodeo. The ground stayed really even from top to bottom. That speaks volumes. They really take pride in their rodeo and do the best they

Ironically, Welsh didn't have high hopes going into Rodeo Austin even though the arena setup is one of Fire Fly's favorites because they were a half-second off at their previous rodeo. She had to remind herself that Fire Fly was coming back from almost an entire year off.

"I said, 'You know what? He'll be fine. He'll hear the music and be fine.' I had gone back and forth in my mind—is he really OK or is he just toughing through this?" she said.

"I had to remind myself that it took me two or three years to get him in the shape he was the year we made the Finals," she continued. "I was like, 'Give him grace.' He's had a full year off. He hasn't been back six months. Quit expecting him to be at the top of his game. It's not realistic.

On the way back from Mercedes, that's the conversation I had with myself. It's ok. He's fine. You just have to trust the process."

Welsh was just hoping to make the Top 24 cutoff to make the second round at Austin, when Fire Fly cut the clock off with a plac-

"I didn't make any adjustments for my second run and he got a little bit faster," she said of her 14.97 that got her back to the Championship Round with the fourth fastest time. "He made three identical runs, pretty much. He's pretty hard to fault. All of his runs kind of look the same. I knew once we made the Top 8 we needed to fire on all cylinders. All of those horses in there were amazing. I knew we had to take advantage of being first out on the ground and it worked out in our favor."

It was an emotional victory because it marked the successful return of Fire Fly to winning form. The 13-year-old gelding, by Frosty Frenchman out of Princess Bar Dash, by Hot Dasher, was bred and raised by her parents Bob and Peggy Welsh and trained by her dad.

the dreaded hang falls—one where he caught himself rather than falling completely broadside—at the third barrel at Fort Worth.

"I wish he would have fell broadside," said Welsh. Fire Fly had torqued his back leg in the process of trying not to fall all the way down. "Ever since then I see horses fall like that and I'm like, 'Please, take them in.' It makes me cringe."

Welsh and Fire Fly made their second run at Fort Worth, but he didn't fire. She commented to her fiancé Craig Wisehart that Fire Fly was either trying to be safe or hurt because it wasn't like the gelding to be so far off the clock. Welsh also sent the video of the fall to her veterinarian Candace Carden, who advised her to rest the gelding before his next run in Rapid City and then see how he performed.

"I ran him at Rapid and I could feel running to the first barrel that something wasn't right," she said. "I texted her on the way back to the trailer and she looked at him the very next day."

Neither radiographs nor ultrasound images showed anything significant, but both Carden and Welsh knew the injury was in Fire Fly's stifle. Carden recommended taking Fire Fly to Dr. Tommy Hayes at Elgin Vet in Texas to have his stifle scoped.

Fire Fly was on stall rest for three months after having Hayes surgically clean up his stifle. During his stall rest, the gelding was treated with RenoVo sandwiched by IRAP every thirty days.

Once he was cleared to leave his stall and start hand-walking, Welsh turned Fire Fly out at Wisehart's place in Stephenville, Texas, for most of the spring and summer. Once she and her two children, Raelyn and Ronnie, moved to Texas in August, she started slowly returning Fire Fly to condition.

"I spent the first 30 days with a lot of walking and a little long trotting, not a lot of circles, just trying to get that stifle strong again," she said. "It took a total of three months to get him back into shape before I made my first run on him, which was at the end of October, beginning of November."

The Austin win has Welsh contemplating entering more.

"I wasn't thinking about much of anything until after I won Austin," she said. "I'm contemplating whether I want to go to California for Red Bluff and Clovis or not. I really want to save him for the bigger stuff and then pens he does well in. I've got to make up my mind in the next few days for the California run. I know in May I probably won't do a whole lot and then venture out for the summer."

Welsh and Fire Fly also placed in the first round of San Angelo after slack on Monday morning.

"I kind of felt bad asking him to make four runs close together like that," she said. "He did have a day off in between each run at Austin and he was turned out all day (Sunday). I have to remind myself he made 10 runs at the NFR. He's not a wimp even though I want to baby him!"

Andre Coelho & Tiny Bit Of Pressure Get Second Title at Select Stallion Stakes Futurity

By Tanya Randall

Andre Coelho and Tiny Bit Of Pressure nabbed their second futurity championship of the 2023 season with a $9,347 Select Stallion Stakes Futurity Championship. The $50,000-added Futurity--$30,000 to the contestants, $20,000 to the stallion owners drew 109 entries and was held in conjunction with the Barrel Bash in Chickasha, Oklahoma, March 24-26.

"That horse has so much talent and is so fast," said Coelho. "I think he's going to be one of the best horses that I've rode here in America."

The Brazilian native formed a solid plan when he saw the draw for the Futurity and saw it through to victory. He and No Pressure were seventh in the first round and fourth in the second to win

"The first round I was bottom of the ground," he explained. "I didn't push him really hard and tried to be really smooth. I tried to be in the top 10 at least, and it worked out pretty good.

"I knew the next day I could take advantage because I was going to be top of the ground. My plan was to drop the hammer down and do the best that we could. That horse has been solid and consistent all along. It worked out pretty good."

No Pressure, a 4-year-old gelding, was bred and is owned by Bill and Cheryl Kennedy's Smoke Creek Quarter Horses in Bennett, Colorado. He is by No Pressure On Me, a champion performer and

BIT: Switched a Brazilian bit with a chain mouthpiece from J&C O-ring HEADGEAR: Previously ran in a tiedown with the O-ring but is now free-

SADDLE: Brazilian made Equitech — SADDLE PAD: Professional's Choice LEG GEAR: Polo wraps from Classic Equine

SHOES: Steel rims on all four

FEED: Nutrena — HAY: Alfalfa 24-7

THERAPIES: Back on track when traveling, ice boots occasionally CONDITIONING/TRAINING REGIMEN: "I just try to keep him in shape with some long trotting and loping in big circles. I don't work on the pattern very much. If there's a race on the weekend, I'll tune him on the pattern a little. I don't do drills on him like I did when he was younger. Right now, if I'm going to run on Saturday or a futurity on the weekend, I'll work the pattern three days a week, just schooling him to make sure he's listening to me and is soft. He's making my job easier because he knows where to place his feet."

SPONSORS: J&C Bits

THANKS: To the stallion owners — "Those incentives make it worth our while to work so hard. The producers and the stallion owners give us the opportunity to make good money and that's awesome!"

sire of earners of more than $700,000, out of the multiple futurity champion producing Dash Ta Fame mare SF Tiny Bit Of Fame. No Pressure is a half-brother to the Frenchmans Guy mares Tinys Stormy Weather, the 5-State Futurity Champion, and Famous Lady Pistol, the Colorado Classic Champion.

Coelho, the Kennedy's resident trainer, started riding No Pressure within days of his first rides under saddle. A high-energy colt, Coelho knew that one day he'd settle into his job.

"Since last year, I was telling Bill that colt would be really solid and mature by April," noted Coelho. "I think I was right because we're almost in April and he's making my job as a trainer easier. He's getting really mature. I think the next couple of races will be really fun for all of us here at the farm."

Early on in his career, Coelho had to spend a lot of time in the saddle with No Pressure. It was nothing super strenuous, but simply lots of miles to engage his mind.

"I still spend a lot of time with him but not like before," he explained. "He's getting more mature and knowing his job. He's been easier and more fun for me to train now. I can't wait to run him more and see what the Good Lord has in store for us."

Thus far, No Pressure has won more than $52,000 at the futurities. In addition to his two wins—he swept both rounds and the aggregate at the MVP Futurity in Buckeye, Arizona, at the first of the year—the gelding was a top 10 finalist at The Patriot and BFA Juvenile futurities. He's also a money earner at the Kinder Cup and has qualified for the Breeders Challenge Finale.

Jamey Hunt & Gripe Gut Pocket $43,000+ at Good Times Barrel Racing's Perry Cup

By Tanya Randall

Jamey Hunt was the high-money earner at the 4th Annual Perry Cup, held March 23-25 at the Georgia National Fairgrounds. The farrier and barrel horse trainer from McAlpin, Florida, collected $56,473 between the Perry Cup and open bonus money awarded by the Legends Of The South stallion incentive.

His biggest check—a cool $30,000—came from winning the open Slot Race with its 200 entries and $1,000 fees aboard the gelding Gripe Gut ("Juice").

"When you've got a horse like we've got those slot races can be life changing," said Hunt. Since the first of the year Juice has won $110,000 in open slot races alone. "He's building a house, fixing barns and paying for all kinds of stuff."

All totaled, Juice, a solid paint gelding by Little Jungle Jet out of Redneck Gal, by Country Quick Dash, won $43,237 between the opens, slot race and Legends of The South. His career earnings are just shy of $300,000.

Juice has done more than just win money for Hunt. The gelding has also help restart the former leading futurity rider's career.

"I've picked up a lot of nice horses because of him. He stepped up and started winning and getting people's attention. He's gotten me some nice horses and a few extra good clients."

There's also been no shortage of offers for the 9-year-old gelding.

"It's crazy money that we've been offered for him, but the way we ended up with him..." Hunt mused. "I traded $1,200 worth of shoeing for him. He's quirky as heck. He wasn't sound when we got him and he's a little tricky to keep sound, but we've got him kind of figured out now. I could never sell him. He's been a blessing."

Hunt also got a big win on his favorite futurity colt Ever Eddie, owned by Edwin Cameron and Tiany Schuster. The Eddie Stinson 5-year-old gelding won Saturday's Open and picked up $9,770 between the Perry Cup and Legends of The South.

"I should have done that two futurities ago," he said. "I told Ashley when I was getting ready to run that I was seriously going to let him go. I'm not going to pick up my reins too quick this time and do something crazy! I guess sometimes I get them to where they're too easy and I don't trust them. I'm glad to see him step up because he's my favorite. I love that colt. He's a good one."

Hunt has the NBHA Wrangler Super Show in Jacksonville, Florida, this coming weekend, but his wife Ashley will ride Juice.

"I had to talk her into running him," laughed Hunt. "She didn't want to run him again after he won so much money the weekend before. I told her she had to run him or he was going to have four weeks off until the BRR (Finals). He needs more runs than that!"

As of right now, it looks as though Hunt will be able to pull off the double between the BBR World Finals and the Ruby Buckle both of which are scheduled for the last weekend in April. Luckily they're barely an hour apart, the schedule will work so that Hunt is able to run his colts at the Ruby Buckle during the week and then ride Juice in the BBR's 1D Invitational on the weekend. He should

BARREL RACING REPORT NEWS

2023 ProRodeo Hall of Fame Class Announced By Ann Bleiker, courtesy of WPRA

The Class of 2023 ProRodeo Hall of Fame inductees were announced on Monday, March 27 and will mark the 44th annual induction. A total of 11 will be inducted including two representatives from the Women's Professional Rodeo Association (WPRA) on July 15.

The WPRA is celebrating 75 years in professional rodeo this year and both inductees from the WPRA have been instrumental in the foundation of the Association as well as advancing the sport for women.

Sherry (Combs) Johnson, the 1962 WPRA World Champion will be inducted into the WPRA Barrel Racing category, while Fay Ann Horton Leach will be inducted as a WPRA notable. Johnson and Leach will join the following on the PRCA side — Cody Wright (Saddle Bronc Riding), Luke Branquinho (Steer Wrestling), Doyle Gellerman (Team Roping), Butch Knowles (Notable), Tom Feller (Notable), Kenny Clabaugh (Contract Personnel), St. Paul Rodeo (Committee), Cowtown Rodeo Inc. (Committee) and Night Jacket #408 (Livestock) owned by J Bar J. Bryan McDonald will also be honored with the Ken Stemler Pioneer Award during the Cowboy Ball on July 14.

Sherry (Combs) Johnson will join the hallowed halls alongside her world champion horse Star Plaudit "Red," who earned induction in 2017 the first year WPRA members were officially included and will also join her sister Florence Youree, who was inducted as part of the Class of 2019 in the notable category for the WPRA.

"I am in shock," stated Johnson upon learning of her induction into the ProRodeo Hall of Fame. "I knew when Jimmie (Munroe) called me that she wasn't fibbing, but it is still just so hard to grasp. It is such a blessing to be put in the Hall with my horse Red and my sister. It definitely brings my career around full circle.

"When I got my card and went to the first NFR in Clayton (N.M.), I would have never dreamt of this day and what the Association has become. It is just truly a great day."

Johnson was born on August 16, 1938, in Duncan, Oklahoma, but has made her home in Addington, Oklahoma. During her career she qualified for 12 National Finals Rodeos, the first coming in 1959 at the first GRA (predecessor to the WPRA) Finals in Clayton, N.M. and the last in 1991 under the bright lights of Las Vegas, a span of four decades (1959-68, 1970, 1991).

She won her first WPRA world title in 1961 in the all-around category, but the highlight of her career would come in 1962 when she won the barrel racing world title aboard Star Plaudit "Red." Star Plaudit holds a very unique record in the world of professional rodeo, one that is not likely to ever be duplicated. The bay gelding won two World Championships in the sport in a single year and contributed to a third, at the age of 12. Red carried his owner Johnson to the GRA World title in the barrel racing and close family friend Tom Nesmith to the RCA world title in the steer wrestling and helped the Oklahoman also claim the RCA All Around championship, all in 1962.

While Red is considered Johnson's once-in-a-lifetime horse, she also trained six other horses that carried her to the NFR and an additional three that carried other competitors to the "super bowl" of rodeo.

The National High School Rodeo Association is also celebrating 75 years in 2023 and Johnson made her mark there as well winning the all-around title, barrel racing and breakaway roping titles in 1955.

Johnson gave back to the WPRA serving on the Board of Directors from 1963-1971, including a stint as the Vice President. She was named Coca-Cola Woman of the Year in 1997 and was inducted into the National Cowboy and Western Heritage Museum in Oklahoma City in 2005.

Fay Ann Horton Leach led the Girls Rodeo Association (GRA-now WPRA) as a founding member, competitor and board member. One of the 38 women who met in San Angelo, Texas, on February 28, 1948, to form the very first professional sports association created solely for women by women.

"This is quite an honor. I don't know that I truly deserve it but know it is a big deal," said Leach, who makes her home in Kilgore, Texas. "We worked very hard in the early years for the Association but never really got to reap the benefits but they are now. I am so thankful the girls now can expect to make some money as we were lucky to run at $20 day money.

"I love to see the progress the Association and the sport of rodeo has made."

Although a founding member it would be a few years before she transitioned from the amateur ranks to the GRA after receiving encouragement from Wanda Bush, who was inducted into the ProRodeo Hall of Fame in 2017.

While Leach never won a world title in barrel racing she was always in the mix qualifying for nine consecutive NFRs (1959-1967). She would finish third in the world in 1962 behind Johnson and Bush.

Like many cowgirls during this era, they competed in many different events with calf roping being one of Leach's favorites. In fact, she broke her mentor's streak of six consecutive titles in calf roping when she beat Bush for the world title in 1957. She would add three more of those titles in 1959, 1963 and 1971. She won the all-around in 1960, the flag race world title in 1964 and one that might surprise everyone was her bull riding title in 1966.

In the mid-1960's Leach was elected to the GRA Board of Directors and served stints as both the calf roping and barrel racing director. It was during this time when Florence Youree, WPRA's first notable inducted into the ProRodeo Hall of Fame, achieved her goal and the Board's goal of getting the barrel racing as a standard event at the NFR.

In 1967, Fay Ann married Billy Leach, who competed in the RCA roping calves and steer wrestling. Together they would get into a new business of making ropes — Billy Leach Ropes. The Billy Leach Ropes business grew to where they were turning out 150 ropes a day and it was what brought an end to Fay Ann's time on the road. After 20 years the couple sold the business.

In 2011, she was inducted into the Texas Rodeo Cowboy Hall of Fame under the category of Trailblazers and now she will be immortalized in the ProRodeo Hall of Fame for her dedication to building a strong foundation for the women in rodeo.

Full information on the PRCA inductees can be found at www.prorodeo.com.

The 2023 ProRodeo Hall of Fame Inductions are scheduled to take place at 10 a.m. MT on July 15 in Colorado Springs, Colorado.

HEADIN' FOR HOME

by Sherry Morrison // Triple M (Mike Morrison Ministries)

n general, do you have a plan for your day? Your week? Your year? Even your life? Some people are great planners and some fly by the seat of their pants. I've noticed that usually you marry your opposite. And then marvel at how weird the other person is!

Well, either way, a certain amount of planning is required to get through a day, right? Mike Tyson said, "Everybody has a plan until you get hit in the mouth!" (I had to ask who Mike Tyson was when Mike gave this statement in church... he's a boxer! Lol!).

I have been blindsided from time to time because I didn't have a plan. That is not God's best for us. The Holy Spirit will guide us and show us things to come. John 16:13. The problem is, we don't pay attention to His leading. He's drawing, guiding and directing us all the time.

But, He is not in the wind, the fire or an earthquake. He is a still, small voice. I Kings 19:11-13. We, however, have gotten so busy and we are so used to those clamoring voices that bombard us, that we miss His direction. We get hit right in the mouth! But no more. We know now how He speaks. We will purpose in our hearts to be quiet and hear Him, right? Right. No split lips for us!
