Top Dollar For Carly Taylor & Diva Deniro at San Antonio Rodeo

By Tanya Randall

Carly Taylor, the 2019 WPRA Rookie of the Year, and her great mare Diva Deniro collected a $13,300 championship at the San Antonio Rodeo, held February 12-27 at the Joe Freeman Coliseum.

"I'm super excited with her," the Andersonville, Tennessee, cowgirl said of her 10-year-old mare. "She felt good on every run I made there."

Due to COVID restrictions, the San Antonio committee opted to move the rodeo back into the historic coliseum rather than use the larger AT&T Center next door. The committee also had to contend with a winter storm of epic proportions that forced them to cancel four performances from February 15-18 due to ice and snow and reschedule.

"I really enjoyed San Antonio last year," said Taylor, who wanted to thank her parents and sponsors for their support. "I thought it was really cool to run in Freeman this year."

Taylor was originally set to run on February 15 and 16 but had her bracket in the tournament style rodeo rescheduled to February 20 and 21. Unfortunately that left her camping in her trailer on the rodeo grounds during the worst of the storm.

Knowing that the storm was coming in, Taylor had left early and arrived in San Antonio on Saturday, February 13.

"When I was coming into San Antonio, I slowed down because everything was about to get icy," she explained. "The cars were just wrecking in front of me. I was so terrified! I called my parents and they were like, 'Pull over!' I was five miles away and I thought I could make it in 4-wheel drive as long as no one came zooming up behind me. It was bad! I was a nervous wreck!"

Taylor said the rodeo committee and volunteers went above and beyond to keep the camped contestants safe and comfortable during the record cold.

"They were awesome," she said. "They brought us generators and let us use that for power so we weren't out trying to buy gas and running our generators

In the meanwhile, Diva was bedded deep in her stall since there wasn't anywhere to get the horses out without being on concrete. "I think Diva had 20 bags of shavings in her stall by the time we left!" said Taylor. "I was so stressed out!"

By the time, she got to make her runs a week later, Diva was firing and ready to go. They got by their first barrel on their opening run, but still placed third with a 15.39. They got more than a half-second faster in the second round with a second-place 14.81. Their $2,300 from their bracket was good enough to advance to the semifinals, where they again had a second-place run of 14.94.

"It's one of those things that you knew you had to place to keep going," she said. "She made a pretty nice run and was smooth around all of them."

Taylor headed into the final round with $4,300. "When I got the draw, I was super excited to be fourth on the ground," said Taylor. She made an awesome run. I sat back there and held my breath until everyone ran. I honestly started to walk out for a second, I was like I'm just going to pull her boots off and let her hang out a little bit. When I walked back down, they still had three or four to go. It's just one of those things you have to sit and sweat it out!"

Their time of 14.80 held on for the round win, worth $9,000, and their total earnings of $13,300 gave them the championship title. They currently sit seventh in the WPRA World Standings with $13,636.

Taylor purchased Diva in the middle of her 4-year-old futurity season nearly six years ago from her trainer Liz Michael, who bought her as weanling from her breeder Lauren Madgeburg. Diva, a daughter of five-time WPRA World Champion Sire PC Frenchmans Hayday, is out of the Bully Bullion, R Smith (TB) mare KC

Bully. Prior to winning the 2019 Rookie title, Taylor and Diva were the NBHA 1D Teen World Champions and BFA Derby Reserve Champions. In 2019, they narrowly missed the NFR 18th in the WPRA World Standings. Last year they were 21st after Taylor decided to bring Diva home for a rest in August.

"After the summer, I knew she was just worn down," she said. "She is usually pretty snappy, but last year she just kept getting really round and not snapping the backside of them. Honestly, this year I took her to a couple of jackpots before I went to San Antonio, but I was worried because I didn't know if I had made enough runs on her."

From the end of August to San Antonio, Taylor had only made six runs on Diva while she concentrated on her backup horses. "I've been really trying to prepare the other horses that I have so when I did take her to the jackpots my timing was completely off," she said. "I was a little stressed out about it."

"It was different going into San Antonio this year because we had made so many runs before. Last year I was coming in from Denver and Fort Worth and I was confident. This year I was confident, but I did have a little bit of that ... well, is she ready?"

Now that she knows her mare is firing, Taylor is focused on having a good rodeo season. She's got an upcoming run of circuit rodeos in Florida.

"I would really like to keep going this year as long as everyone is staying healthy," she said. "I definitely feel like I've learned a lot in the last two years to know when to go and when not to go. Sometimes you get yourself in a position where you have to go, but sometimes it's better just to step back and let them rest."

Andrea Cline & Pop The Bubbly Sweep Dinero Dash Texas Style Futurity

By Tanya Randall

Andrea Cline and Pop The Bubbly (“Jager”) dominated the $10,000-added Dinero Dash Texas Style Futurity, held February 24-28 at the 1017 Arena at Shephard’s Valley in Alvarado, Texas. Cline and the 4-year-old gelding she co-owns with Lee Pedone collected $8,237 for their futurity victory plus $1,872 in open carryover money for total earnings of $10,109.

“He did great!” said the Springtown, Texas, based trainer. “He’s really easy. I call him an old lady horse because he’s easy to be around, easy to ride. He’s a little grumpy at times, but overall, just very easy.”

In Alvarado, Jager bested the 95-head futurity field by nearly a half-second, clocking a 15.305 to win the first round and a 15.055 to win the second.

“I thought when he ran the .3 it was pretty perfect and was expecting him to run another .3,” she said, thinking of his 15.0. “That was all him. He just likes it.”

Longtime client Todd Matte picked Jager out at the 2018 Copper Spring Ranch Sale. The yearling colt, by Furyofthewind out of the Dash Ta Fame mare Champagne Fame, commanded a bid of $50,000.

Matte had sent the colt to track, where it was decided that he would run better if gelded. Jager started five times winning once and finishing third twice for earnings of $5,367. After his last start on the track in June of his second year, he was sent to Spencer Gray in College Station to get a solid handle for Cline’s barrel training program.

“My sister and I both patterned him up,” said Cline, who trains with the aid of her sister Shyra. “I can’t take all the credit because she does a great job. If they’re gentle, she’ll play on them too.”

After COVID hit the United States, Matte took most of his horses home. Jager was one of them.

“Todd had sent him off to be a rope horse because he had taken some interest in it himself,” “But Jager did not like that, so he came back to me. He was already patterned so I started taking him to exhibitions.”

Cline already knew that Jager was making a horse when Matte decided to sell him. Thankfully, Lee Pedone, the father of fellow trainer Ryann Pedone, partnered with Cline to buy the gelding.

“I happened to get the news when Ryann was standing right next to me,” Cline explained. “She saw my face and asked what was wrong. I told her I had to sell these horses that I just adore, and she said, ‘Call my dad.’”

Knowing that the Pedones raised horses, Cline told Lee about all the mares she had available. She didn’t even mention Jager.

“He told me to pick my very favorite horse,” she said. “I said, ‘Well, it’s a gelding.’ He said, ‘I don’t care.’ I said, ‘Well, it’s this one. I’m going to win on this horse. I just feel it.’”

Having drawn checks at four of the five futurities he’s entered, Jager has earnings in excess of $22,000. He placed in a round at the BFA Juvenile and finished fifth at the OKC Rookie Futurity and was the reserve champion of The Richest Dinosaur Futurity in Glen Rose, Texas.

“When I ran him at Glen Rose a couple of weeks before I knew he was liking it,” she said. “He’s liking it and adding the speed on. He decides if he’s going to clock or not. I’m not whipping him or anything. He turns those barrels and he runs! It’s all him! He just gains more confidence as he goes.”

Cline was originally scheduled to run at the Royal Crown Futurity the weekend prior to the Dinero Dash, but the winter storm left her dealing with water issues.

“I lost water for a couple of days, and I just couldn’t leave my sister,” she said. “We’ve got 30 horses on the place and there was no way I was leaving her with that. We actually lost water after the thaw with leaks.”

Having originally planned to run at Royal Crown, Cline didn’t enter The Patriot this weekend because she wanted to rest her horses. She’s got the Elite Futurity in two weeks and then the Copper Spring Ranch Futurity the following weekend.

“I just thought I’m not doing five in a row,” she said. “I love the producers. The Patriot just happened to be the one in the middle and I wanted to give the horses a week off.”

Cline wanted to thank her sister for all her help and support as well as Jager’s current co-owner Lee Pedone, his original owner Todd Matte, her farrier Neil Smith, and veterinarian Don Lee of Double X Equine.

Most of all, Cline is happy to be able to train and compete after suffering a traumatic brain injury in a horse accident in 2016.

“I’m so thankful,” she said. “I hate that accident and I hate that it happened, but there are lot of great things that have come out of it. I’m so appreciative of what I get to do. That I’m able to ride these horses and not just ride but ride at the level I want to be at. It was a lot of work to get there again.”

WPRA President/CEO Announces Retirement

On February 24, 2021, the WPRA Board of Directors accepted President/CEO Doreen Wintermute's request to end her tenure on March 31, 2021. Wintermute's current President/CEO contract was due to expire on May 31, 2021. As a result of this early departure, Vice President Heidi Schmidt will take over Wintermute's duties until a new President takes office on May 27 through the current special election being conducted by the Association.

Wintermute first joined the WPRA Board of Directors in 2011 as the Southeastern Circuit Director and ran unopposed for WPRA President in 2016. At the request of the WPRA Board in 2018, she took on the role as WPRA CEO. The Board felt this was a needed transition at the time to handle the ongoing issues and challenges facing an ever growing Association that services over 3,000 members. When the COVID-19 pandemic struck the industry everyone had to tighten their belts and Wintermute informed the Board of Directors that she would not be taking her contracted salary for a total of three months as a result. Now with her early departure, she will forgo the remainder of her salary returning that budgeted amount back to the Association.

"I would like to thank Doreen for her decade worth of service to an association that I know is near and very dear to her heart and soul," said Schmidt. "The WPRA creates a passion in anyone who has the privilege to serve and Doreen's commitment to the WPRA is the epitome of that passion. For that I thank her."

During Wintermute's tenure, she was able to accomplish many things for the Association including securing a six year agreement, the first of its kind, to ensure that the WPRA remains as the ONLY governing body for women in professional rodeo, WPRA members being recognized in the ProRodeo Hall of Fame, seeing the introduction of women's breakaway roping at PRCA ProRodeo's and membership surpassing 3,000 members. She leaves the Association on solid ground.

AQHA Debuts QData

The American Quarter Horse industry's standard-setting pedigree and American Quarter Horse information service, Robin Glenn Pedigrees, is now QData.

Robin Glenn Pedigrees, long respected as the premier catalog and pedigree producer in the industry and creator of the 37-year-old RGP Database, has been rebranded to QData, a department of the American Quarter Horse Association.

AQHA purchased RGP in 2014 to enhance its member services. Since then, the merger has produced new services combining both money-paying events and AQHA points and awards, including the ground-breaking stallion marketing service QStallions; the self-serve sale catalog production resource called Catalog Builder; QData online data reports, which combines money-paying events with AQHA points and awards; and additional unique services.

With AQHA's ability to raise awareness, the QData database has become a premier resource for American Quarter Horse pedigree and performance data. QData's online services offer detailed money-earning activity for all performance horse factions in a variety of informational formats, and plans are in place to offer even more distinctive member services in the future.

"Thanks to AQHA's acquisition of RGP and vision for the database, the enhanced marketing, evaluation and promotional tools that I dreamed of offering for decades are now available to horsemen and -women," said Robin Glenn, AQHA director of data services. "There could be no better permanent home for Robin Glenn Pedigrees than the American Quarter Horse Association, which has devoted 80 years to preserving the integrity of American Quarter Horse data and providing that information to its horse owners and breeders from around the world."

HEADIN' FOR HOME

by Sherry Morrison // Triple M (Mike Morrison Ministries)

Growing pains. We've all experienced them. Just when you think you've arrived, there will come about a new beginning in something.

When you're a freshman in high school, it's a challenge. Ah, but when you're the senior, look out! Then off to college and you're the freshman again. New job, new sport, new business.

We will all be the beginner more than once in life. It doesn't matter how old you are, you will always be a young whippersnapper to someone! Yes, there are things that you will excel at naturally. Those are gifts from God.

On your own, you just aren't all that and a bag of chips! God put that gift on the inside of you! He gets the credit. How do you do that?

Years ago, we had a pastor that taught on that. He said, "When someone gives you a compliment, it's like a bouquet of flowers. Just turn and give them to Jesus!"

1 Peter 5:6 instructs us to humble ourselves under the mighty hand of God, that HE may exalt you in due time. God does the exalting, not you. Or me.

So, as you grow in the gift God has put on the inside of you, give Him thanks. Then hopefully, people won't be saying, "There's a lot of mustard on that hot dog!"

Mike and Sherry Morrison pastor "Church at the Barn" in Gillette, WY. They also travel to other areas ministering at barrel races, ranches, rodeos, churches and home Bible studies. Check out our schedule online. You can also download all Bible studies by visiting our website: m-m-m.org or contact us at: PO Box 2439, Gillette, WY 82717, 307/685-2272.
