Prindle & Red Man Jones Pocket $28,559 at The Big Time in Arizona

By Tanya Randall

Randee Prindle and Red Man Jones ("Scooby") remain on a hot streak with their latest victory yielding a mega payday.

The Gilman City, Missouri, barrel racer and her 10-year-old superstar collected $28,559 at the inaugural running of The Big Time, held March 24-28 at the Horseshoe Park Equestrian Center in Queen Creek, Arizona. The event was produced by Ross and Casey Wagner of U Barrel Racing Championships (UBRC).

"My 'day pay' paid for my entry fees completely," said Prindle. "The rest was just a bonus from there. It was nice because even if you had a 4D horse, you might not have got (the big time pay) money, but they had a chance at day money."

The race featured a $25,000-added Top Gun (Open) and $10,000 added Young Gun (Youth). Entry fees were $1,500 and $500, respectively. Those fees were split throughout the daily races with the bulk going to the all-encompassing payout. Contestants also had the option to enter additional sidepots.

Prindle had pre-entered for two runs before December 31 which gave her a free Tipped Barrel Insurance, an automatic redo in case she hit a barrel on either run. Entries after the deadline had to pay $750 to get the buy-back on a hit barrel.

On her first run on Friday, Scooby clocked a 15.831, which won $1,673 in Top Gun day money, $424 in the open sidepot and $492 in rotation money.

Rotations were sections of each day's races that paid out on their own. For example, if there were 100 entries, 1-50 were one rotation, while 51 to 100 made up the other.

"They called them Ross's Rotations," said Prindle. "In one of the rotations, a 4D horse got $800 because it was the only one in the D. It definitely was worth your money."

Ultimately Prindle and Scooby's 15.831 earned them a third-place check of $9,763 in the final Top Gun payout.

On Saturday, Maggie Poloncic and her great mare Aint Seen Me Yet took the overall race lead with an 15.817, but Prindle and Scooby had a second run on Sunday.

With a scorching 15.804, Prindle and Scooby topped Sunday's Top Gun for $1,757, won $416 in the open sidepot and $516 in rotation money. That time also brought home the biggest check—$13,518—for the overall Top Gun win.

Also par for the course, the trip wouldn't have been complete without some Scooby drama. The picky gelding tried to tie up because he didn't like the facility's water. He preferred the cattle's water, which was more like his stock tank water at home.

"That's not unusual for him," Prindle sighed. "If I have him stalled at home, I'll have to take out and let him get a drink out of the stock tank from time to time. But I'm not packing 100 gallons of stock tank water with me anytime soon!"

The quirky, but lethally talented gelding is by the late Brownie Jones out of the great Dinky's Red Man mare Dinky's Purple Rain. The Jud Little creation started his career with Kelsey Knight before Prindle bought him as a 4-year-old at the BBR World Finals Horse Sale.

Together, Prindle and Scooby have dominated the numerous large barrel races throughout the central United States. This year, they're trying their luck at the pro rodeos and already have three of big barrel races, like the BBR World Finals, on her schedule too. Now, she's got another to add to an already packed season. She said she and the three friends who traveled with her to Arizona are already looking forward to another UBRC Big Time Race.

"I'm definitely going to put that one down on the calendar," she said. "Scooby made $28,000 before entries were taken out. It was definitely worth going to. It was well run. The ground was great for everybody.

"It's definitely a race to take a 4- or 5D horse to. Everyone had a chance at money. It's not just big money for first place. It's spread out through all the Ds. Me and my group of friends are already planning on going to the next one and taking more than six head. It could be interesting."

Troy Crumrine & Kentucky Star Fling Top Select Stallion Stakes Futurity at Barrel Bash

By Tanya Randall

Troy Crumrine and Kentucky Star Fling ("Elsa") set an arena record en route to the $30,000-added Select Stallion Stakes Breeders Futurity, held March 26-28 in conjunction with the Barrel Bash in Chickasha, Oklahoma.

Crumrine and the 5-year-old mare, owned by Brad Shirey of Rushville, Ohio, collected $10,101 at the event.

"She doesn't always do it the prettiest, but she is bad fast, really bad fast," said Crumrine.

Crumrine and Elsa were out of the money in the first round with a 15.770 but not far off the pace.

"They won it with a .5 and she was a .7," he explained. "She just really wasn't sharp, and she was last on the drag."

The next morning, Crumrine exhibited Elsa a couple of times to school her off the barrels.

"Even as fast as she is, she just craves that turn," he said. "I just work to keep her up. Getting her up into the hole is all I really worry about. I know even if her turns aren't the prettiest if she lets me get her up enough into the hole, she's going to clock."

In the second round, Elsa slammed the clock with a record setting 15.189 that not only won the second go of the futurity and aided in the aggregate win, but also won the open with a carryover. "I don't think anyone realized how fast she was running," said Crumrine, the all-time leading futurity rider. "She cut me off just a little bit at the first, but she was flying going up into it. When she left that first barrel, she left like a rocket! Her quick speed is just unbelievable. When she goes to leave, you'd better be hanging on!" Bred by Sammy Crooks, Elsa is by A Streak Of Fling, an all-time leading barrel horse sire with earners of nearly $5 million, out of the race-winning mare When Stars Streak, by Miracle Streak. Select Stallion Stakes also offered a $20,000 bonus to the placing stallion owners in the long rounds of the futurity as well, so Fulton Ranch picked up $1,900 on behalf of Elsa's second go round win too.

Shirey bought Elsa as a yearling sight-unseen from John Read Foster after looking through a book of his horse papers.

"I've bought a lot of horses off of John Read through the years," Shirey said. "I was looking at papers that he had in his folder and I came across that one. I always wanted an A Streak Of Fling. I asked him what he wanted, he told me and I bought her—never even looked at her."

Shirey, who competed a lot himself before he got too busy with his commercial flooring business and four daughters, says that Elsa was "super easy" to start on the barrels.

"I knew she was super-fast right from the get-go," he said, "but I didn't know she was THAT fast!"

The initial plan was to run Elsa as a 4-year-old, but she was injured at 3.

"Another horse kicked her in the hock when she was 3-year-old, so we had to hold her," Shirey explained. "I really wanted Troy to get her ready for Fort Smith last year and he told me, 'You'd be better off holding her.' By golly, he was right!"

Elsa's next big race is the Ruby Buckle in Guthrie, Oklahoma, at the end of April. While Shirey says the plan has always been to sell the mare, he wouldn't mind keeping her either.

"Obviously, the plan is to always sell them for big money," he chuckled, "but it wouldn't hurt my feelings any for Troy to run her a whole other year and then one of these girls could take her, but she doesn't look all that easy to ride. Troy's the best jock there is and she makes him work for it!"

JoAnn Middleton & Sparkling Wood Capture 2nd Straight Senior World Championship

By Tanya Randall

Former National Finals Rodeo qualifier JoAnn Middleton of Levelland, Texas, and her 9-year-old gelding Sparkling Wood ("Woodrow") captured their second straight 1D title at the Senior World Championships, held March 25-28 in Texarkana, Arkansas. They collected $3,756 for their winning effort.

It was just last October that the pair won their first Senior World Championship after the race was postponed from March due to COVID. Although she was excited to go again this spring, Middleton was a little bummed that the title wasn't hers longer.

She commented to her husband, Kip: "Well, my reign didn't last very long," to which he replied, "Well, you just have to go win it again."

Middleton laughed, "I'm like, 'Yeah, right! There's 600 other women that have something to say about that!'"

In the first go, Middleton and Woodrow struggled with the ground, but still turned in a 14.814, good enough to qualify for the short round in the 1D.

"He's big and has lots of power," she said of Woodrow. "It takes a lot of dirt to hold him. For whatever reason, he couldn't get a hold of the ground and it left him on the third barrel on the first run. We didn't clock that great, but we got back to the short."

She said the ground "was phenomenal" for the second round and short go, so Woodrow "could run and play." They turned in a 14.434 to win the second round and a 14.230, the fastest time of the event, to win the short round and championship title.

"I couldn't believe it!" said Middleton, a mother of one son and grandmother of another with a granddaughter on the way. "He just went in and worked. I was kind of worried that he wouldn't fire because he warmed up really calm and was just standing there with me waiting, and he usually fidgets. I was thinking I don't know how this is going to go. I couldn't get after him to wake him up because he would think he's in trouble. Not that he's ever been in trouble, but he's just a very kind and pleasing horse. It would just kill his soul if he thought he was doing something wrong. He's either up to run or he's not. I thought, 'Well, we're going to do really good or we're going to be in there a long time!'"

Running in the middle of the pack of 1D qualifiers, Middleton had time to go back to the trailer and watch the remainder of the short go on the Visworks webcast.

"I had to know!" she exclaimed. "I was not believing this! There were several I had to sweat through!"

The daughter of a ranch foreman, Middleton grew up riding horses. She knew she wanted to be a barrel racer after watching the NFR on television each December.

"I wanted to go there one day, so I did!" she said. "It just kind of stuck. I didn't really plan on this path but it was the path that found me."

Middleton, who went to the NFR in 1993, purchased Woodrow as a yearling from Steve Rohrbaugh of Western Livestock. By Woodbridge, one of the leading sons of Dash Ta Fame, Woodrow is out of the Partnership mare Sparkling Olene.

"They had posted some colts for sale and I had been wanting a Woodbridge. I picked him out of the pasture, and we pretty much had to pick him up manually to load him in the trailer because he would not load!" she laughed.

THE RUNDOWN w/JoAnn Middleton

Sparkling Wood "Woodrow" 15 hands, 1,275 lbs.

BIT: Sherry Cervi short shank with the twisted wire dogbone mouth
SADDLE: Double J Wide. "I won a Martin last year at Senior World," said Middleton. "It came in the day before I was supposed to leave. I only got to ride in it one time and I really liked it. It was a Martin BTR. I'm anxious to get it on Woodrow and see how it fits."

SADDLE PAD: Classic Equine ESP

LEG GEAR: Professional's Choice on front and Classic Equine on back.

SHOEING: Rims on all four

FEED: Bluebonnet

HAY: Alfalfa in the morning and grass at night

SUPPLEMENTS: HorseLogic

ALTERNATIVE THERAPIES: Josh Patton chiropractic care whenever Middleton feels that he needs it. "Whenever he doesn't feel soft and supple enough, I'll have Josh look him," she said.

TRAINING/CONDITIONING: "He gets the day off when we get back (from an event)," she said. "We have one day of just conditioning: long trotting straight lines, no circles. I try to ride him every other day because there's a fine line between keeping them in shape and wearing them out. I try to balance between those two. I might take him around the barrels once or twice, trot or lope, before I go somewhere if it's been a while."

Woodrow was just the second horse that Middleton trained from the ground up. At 47, she did all his ground work and put the first rides on the gelding. In fact, she was the only person to ever ride him until he was 4.

Middleton says that Woodrow didn't "set the world on fire" as a futurity horse, but he did pay his way. She's tried taking him to the pro rodeos, but Woodrow prefers to see the pen first.

"I don't have to go around the barrels, but he does better if he can get in and see the pen before," she said. "You can't do that at a lot of the rodeos, so he'd run a little timid. I would usually be in the top 10 or 15, but I never got a check on him."

Instead, Middleton has focused on the larger barrel races and amateur rodeos.

"I just stay closer home," said Middleton. "I don't really crave living out on the road anymore. I don't crave the all night drives and wondering where you're going to be able to get your horse out. That doesn't appeal to me anymore."

Races like the Senior World are more appealing.

"It's something to look forward to when you make 50!" laughed Middleton. "I went for the first time three years ago. When you drive through the gates, waiting in line for them to check your papers, you can just feel the difference. They run it so well. There is no drama. It's peaceful. It's fun. It's just, hands down, a ball."

Middleton wanted to thank the producers of the Senior World, from the office staff to barrel setters.

"I'm just grateful for them having it," she said. "When they were handing out the awards, they said, 'Thank you for coming. We couldn't do it without you.' I was like, 'It goes both ways. You give us the opportunity to compete, cheer, laugh and cry...' I'm just thankful for all the producers that do this."

She also wanted to thank her husband for "holding down the fort" at home and telling her to "get back out there when I come home and throw my sucker in the dirt." A special thank you also goes to her daughter-in-law Kristy Middleton, DVM, for taking care of her health papers at the last minute.

Maybe the journey isn't so much about becoming anything. Maybe it's about unbecoming everything that isn't really YOU, so you can BE who you were meant to be in the first place.

HEADIN' FOR HOME

"Classic" by Sherry Morrison // Triple M (Mike Morrison Ministries)

Easter! When I was a young girl, Easter to me was a pretty new dress, white patent leather shoes, white gloves and a hat! (Won't see me in those things now!). I sorta knew it was about Jesus but honestly, it was more about candy, baskets, new clothes, coloring and hiding eggs, and who knows what else!

It's not about chicks, or bunny rabbits that may or may not lay colored eggs. . . . it's about the Lamb! The precious Lamb of God. The Lamb that loved you and me so much that He died on that cross. The Lamb that took all our sin on Himself so we wouldn't have to pay the price!

Sometimes it's hard for me to imagine that kind of love. I have a wonderful family that I know loves me. I have friends that have my back and, if needed, would drop everything and come to my rescue.

Though I'm confident in their love for me, I don't think any of them would volunteer to take on my sin and die on a cross! But Jesus did!

And then, better yet, after three days He rose again! He went to hell, paid the price for sin, rose again and now He ever lives to make intercession for us. Heb. 7:25. What a Lord! What a Friend!

If you have never asked Him to be your Lord, now is a great time! Romans 10:8-10. You'll be glad you did! Celebrate Him this Easter season!
