Carmel Wright & Sweet Heart Special Conquer RAM National Circuit Finals Rodeo

By Tanya Randall

The barrel racing at Kissimmee, Florida's RAM National Circuit Finals Rodeo fit the tournament-style event perfectly with the Final Four all running within 7/100ths of a second of each other. New Zealand's Carmel Wright, by the way of Roy, Montana, and her gritty mare Sweet Heart Special ("Tweety") bested the group with a 16.42 to take home a $14,242 championship and earn a berth to the Calgary Stampede.

"Oh boy, that was so tough," said Wright, who finished ahead of local favorites Sarah McDonald and Fame Fling N Bling (16.45) of the Southeastern Circuit, Pamela Capper and Sheza Smooth Flight (16.47) of the Columbia River Circuit and Kassidy Dennison and Sierra Hall Of Fame (16.49) of the Turquoise Circuit. "That could have gone anyone's way. I was just lucky it went my way this time."

Wright and Tweety placed fifth in the first round, which went to Lisa Lockhart and the fabulous An Oakie With Cash, but struck out in the second round that was won by Sarah McDonald and Bling. Their average time, however, was good enough to advance them to the Elite Eight.

"The first run she did super well," said Wright. "My second run I over-rode her. I wasn't very happy with how I rode. She's very feely. If you move too much or move your hands too much it influences where she goes; it influences her placement. Consequently, with me getting too busy and riding too...you get to chasing the money and you want to ride so hard...she didn't clock very well. She had extra steps around turns that she didn't need, which was my fault. I was pretty disappointed. I had a good sit down with myself and analyzed what I had done. I just went back to basics and how I should be riding. She was awesome the next two rounds."

Wright and Tweety tied for second with McDonald and Bling in the Elite Eight, which went to Pamela Capper and Sheza Smooth Flight, before winning clean slate Final Four in a speed duel.

Bred to run by Mary Ellen Cook, Mills, Wyo., Wright's mare Tweety is a 12-year-old mare by My Special Bear out of Ima Testy Too, by Isaw Kirk, a AAA son of Dr Kirk. Tweety is actually double-bred Dr Kirk as Isaw Kirk is also the broodmare sire of My Special Bear.

"She'd been tried on the track as a 2-year-old and had been turned out for 12 months when we got her as a 4-year-old," said Wright. Much to her dismay, Tweety was anything but a natural on barrels. "She was very not natural to the extent that I just about give up on her. She would just try to throw herself around the barrels and kick her hip out. She was awful. I finally had to throw all my usual training methods out and do everything opposite, just leave her head alone and use a lot of outside leg on her."

Tweety started to figure things out about the middle of her fifth year. By the time she was 6, she was making good runs, but not super solid.

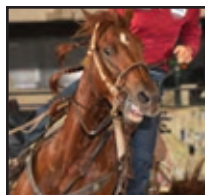

"We had to take her really slow because if I pushed her too much she'd blow by her barrels," she said. "She doesn't have a lot of natural rate, but she'll rate off of what I tell her. Even today, she'll rate off of the barrels a little, but she'll wait til I stop kicking—that's her cue to look to turn. I could still blow her by a barrel if I didn't do my stuff right."

That quality has served them well during the building run of rodeos this winter.

"She has very quick reflexes," she said. "She's got good top speed, but she can transition into those turns really well. That makes her very competitive inside."

Wright and Tweety qualified for their first Montana Circuit Finals

Go Fund Me Set Up for Julie Mankin

Our good friend and writer, Julie Mankin, was involved in a serious automobile accident in Dallas, TX last week. She has undergone a surgery to repair facial lacerations and also a surgery to fuse her three fractured vertebrae. As of yesterday, she was awake and alert and having a conversation with her Dad. Julie has been a great asset writing for our Barrel Racing Report and has been a big asset to the whole barrel racing industry and the roping industry as well. Please keep her in your thoughts and prayers!

There is a Go Fund Me account set up to help Julie with her medical bills and also you can keep up with her progress there.

Successful 1st Year for RNCFR in Kissimmee

With the RAM National Circuit Finals Rodeo, it's all about the fan. The format is set up with an elimination component so that the original 24 competitors in each event are worked down to an Elite Eight and Final Four on the last night. Fans know what's at stake with every ride and run, and that they are going to see the champions prove themselves right in front of them, by what they do in that final round of four.

There is a purity to that that is hard to surpass, and for traditionalists who might prefer the outcome be determined on total time or score or those who embrace the format used at the San Antonio Stock Show & Rodeo - which crowns champions based on total money - be of good cheer; going with the tournament format generally produces the same result with more clarity and excitement for the fan at the finish.

Here is how the outcome would look in all three scenarios - a four-man finale, a four-head average and total money:

Bareback Riding:

Final Four: Steven Peebles, 88 points (Austin Foss 86)

Average: Steven Peebles and Austin Foss, 327 points each on four head. Earnings: Kaycee Feild, $21,355

Steer Wrestling: Final Four: Josh Peek, 4.8 seconds

Average: Josh Peek, 20.9 seconds on four head

Earnings: Josh Peek, $18,171

Team Roping:

Final Four: Drew Horner/Buddy Hawkins II, 4.6 seconds

Average: Drew Horner/Buddy Hawkins II, 20.7 seconds on four head. Earnings: Drew Horner/Buddy Hawkins II, $22,479 each

Saddle Bronc Riding:

Final Four: Heith DeMoss, 87 points

Average: Jacobs Crawley 326 points on four head (DeMoss second, 322)

Earnings: Jacobs Crawley, $18,920 (Wade Sundell second, $17,047; DeMoss third, $15,299)

Tie-down Roping

Final Four: Marty Yates, 6.9 seconds (RNCFR record)

Average: Marty Yates, 25.5 seconds on four head

Earnings: Jerome Schneeberger, $19,108 (Yates second, $18,077)

Bull Riding: Final Four: Joe Frost, 72 points

Average: Joe Frost, 226 points on three head

Earnings: Joe Frost, $20,138

Nobody was more consistent through the four days and five performances of this rodeo, which awarded more than $1 million in cash and prizes, than the team roping pair of Horner and Hawkins, who had the highest earnings total among PRCA cowboys in helping the Texas Circuit win the team title for a record 12th time.

They had times of 5.4 and 5.0 seconds in the preliminary rounds to finish second in the average, a tenth of a second behind Rhett Anderson and Cole Wilson, then came back to go 5.7 in the semifinals and 4.6 in the finals.

"The goal all along was to be consistent and earn checks," Hawkins said. "This is how I earn my living, so when you have a chance to win big money at a rodeo like this, you want to be able to take advantage of it."

On a weekend when the bulls had a buck-off rate of just over 80 percent (they went 49-12), Joe Frost and his younger brother Josh were the dominant contestants, the only two guys to ride at least two bulls.

With ground money included, Joe, the reserve world champion last year, ended up with checks totaling $20,138, plus the $20,000 voucher for a new RAM truck and the Polaris RANGER UTV that went to all of the RNCFR event winners.

Josh Frost finished with the second-most money of any bull rider, with $10,303.

Feild, the four-time and reigning bareback riding world champion who earned a total of $21,355 in Kissimmee, is scheduled to undergo surgery March 31 in Vail, Colo., to repair a torn labrum in his left hip. Dr. Marc Philippon - who has worked on Olympic athletes, as well as those from the NFL, MLB and NHL - will perform the surgery. Feild hopes to return to action sometime between 8-12 weeks after the operation.

The March 26 Skirts and Spurs RNCFR Luncheon at the Westgate Town Center Villas in Kissimmee, Fla., raised more than $30,000 for the Justin Cowboy Crisis Fund. A capacity crowd of 270 showed up for a wonderful steak lunch and a fun style show. Models included RNCFR barrel racers, wives of RNCFR contestants, and state and circuit rodeo queens. A live auction that was called by RNCFR bull rider Joe Frost and RNCFR specialty act Troy Lerwill helped give away more than 70 prizes donated by PRCA circuits and local businesses. Many RNCFR cowboys were on hand to help seat guests, pass out prizes and call bids.

Rodeo in 2010, but missed the next two years due to a rear high suspensory injury.

"That was a real set back," said Wright. "She was out 14 months before I competed on her again. We had treatment done on her and gave her the time to really heal. She came back and qualified for the circuit finals again, but I tipped a barrel. This year, she came back and we took a step in the right direction (at the MCFR). She had three clean runs and did awesome."

Now, with the Calgary Stampede on her horizon, Wright is in good contention to qualify for her first Wrangler National Finals Rodeo. She's off to a very good start with a strong showing at the winter building rodeos.

"That's always the ultimate goal—the NFR," she said. This is the first year that she's made the winter run, thanks in part to her qualification to RFD-TV's The American as well as the RNCFR. "We've just been slowly building our summer seasons. Last summer went pretty well and we gave her a little break before circuit finals. Our circuit finals went amazingly well, and we felt it was time to skip out and have go. I had made the Top 46, which was good enough to get me into every rodeo this year but Houston. It's worked out really well."

Next up for Wright and Tweety are Huntsville and Lubbock, Texas, on their way West for Logandale, Nevada, and the spring run of California rodeos. At the end of April they'll go home to rest for their next loop of rodeos.

Wright has come a long way from running grass courses in New Zealand. Although she got her start in a foreign country, her start in rodeo was like many of her stateside colleagues.

"My sister went to a rodeo a friend," she explained. "Back in those days, it was quite different. She was offered a ride on a horse, and she could enter on the day, so she did and won money that day. It just snowballed from there. She got to ride this chap's horse and I got to tag along. He actually had two horses and I ended up having the run on his other horse, a super solid, campaigner that taught me so much."

A solid foundation built on Pony Club activities and English riding gave Wright a good start in the sport. She also stumbled onto a great horse for her first solo training expedition.

"My first little mare that I ran in New Zealand and won two championships on was 13.2," said Wright of the mare she fondly called Nikki. "She was tiny, tiny. She was part Welsh mountain pony, half Arab and the rest Thoroughbred. When we first started running over there we were running on grass. We didn't even have Wright and her family—husband Dave and children Lane, 25, and Danielle, 22, became permanent residents of the United States in 2002.

"The goal right now is for my husband to be able to travel with me more," she said of the former New Zealand champion saddle bronc rider. "We are living the dream."

si 94, $191,735

Jess Being VALIANT

Valiant Hero-Jess Sass Me, Mr Jess Perry

1/2 brother to 2014
AQHA WORLD CHAMPION
2 yr old filly
Jess Walking Thru

1/2 brother to
MR SASSY FRENCHMAN
sold for $70,000
at the Heritage Place Sale!

“He has the best mind, I trained Walk Thru Fire and Corona Cartel, and Jesse has same mind as them, always acted like geldings. He’s a great stallion for 3 reasons: good conformation, good mind, and he has 3 good mamas on his bottom side, 3 blue hen mamas, that makes a great stallion. He was a runner and he’s going to throw runners,”
I really recommend him.”
-- JAIME GOMEZ
World Champion Trainer and Jess Being Valiant's trainer

“He reminds me a lot of Rare Fred. He’s incredibly athletic and so good minded. The kind of horse you can do anything with!”
-- RON MARTIN

This Chick's On Fire

By Hope Sickler

We all know Michele McLeod and the success she has had with the jet black stallion known as Slick By Design. However, in the last year and specifically over the last few months, we have seen her on a much taller and much more feminine equine athlete that is literally taking the rodeo world by storm and their recent victory at Rodeo Austin has only added to this mare's extremely impressive resume of wins.

Kellies Chick is a 7 year old mare by Darkelly and out of The Skye Chick by Fiesta In The Sky. She is owned by Jason Martin and Charlie Cole and is not only ran by McLeod herself, but also her two daughters, Katelyn and Lindsey. All three have had huge success with "Skye".

"Our win at Austin was amazing. We haven't had the best winter but I really think it is starting to turn around. We have won a little money here and there, and nothing bad has been happening but it just hasn't quite all fallen into place like we had hoped it would. However, at Austin, it did," explained McLeod.

We recently saw McLeod and Skye make two phenomenal runs at The American in Dallas, but unfortunately a knocked barrel probably cost them a giant paycheck. However, they have regrouped since then and are back to their very winning ways.

"Skye really liked Austin and she really worked great. It was my first time to run in the finals at Austin because last year ended up conflicting with Houston. I ran Slick last year, so this was Skye's first time running in Austin."

Rodeo Austin had a new format this year, which made it pretty exciting for both the contestants and the fans. It took on a new name and format and each contestant competed in the form of a tournament bracket, called Ride for the Brand Cowboy Tournament. A grand total of $252,000 was split between 10 rounds and the top 4 athletes in each round advanced on to the Playoff Rounds.

What was even more exciting about this new format, was as the tournament continued, fans were able to anticipate scores and predict the champions of each event.

After the Playoff Rounds that were held March 24-27th, the top two, out of the ten that competed in the Playoffs, advanced into the Final Round. The Final Round was held Saturday night and hosted the top 8 from each event and paid out a total of $160,000.

For winning the barrels, McLeod won a Rodeo Austin branding iron, a large check and the title of Champion of this year's Rodeo Austin.

McLeod stated that Slick is currently in the breeding barn for the spring but hopes to be back on him this summer for the summer run. Until then, she will continue running the incredible big, brown mare and you can bet you will continue seeing their names in the results!

7 YEAR OLD BROWN MARE, OWNED BY JASON MARTIN & CHARLIE COLE

BIT: For the Playoff Round I changed bits to a long shank Ed Wright 3 piece no gag. Her normal bit is a long shank square mouth but it had broke at Mercedes, TX and I really didn't know what to run her in. I saw on Facebook that my friend Rosie Bradley was selling that specific bit so I told her I needed it. I put it on a headstall the night of my playoff run in the parking lot and just went with it and luckily it worked.

Headin' For Home

Classic by Mike Morrison
Triple M (Mike Morrison Ministries)

The names of Jesus tell us quite a bit about His character as He walked about and ministered on the earth.

The name Jesus comes from the Hebrew name Yashus which means "God the Savior" or "God is salvation". The name Christ means "the anointed one" and that is also what the Hebrew name of Messiah means. So when the Bible speaks of Jesus Christ, it actually means Jesus the Messiah of our Savior, the Anointed One. The name Immanuel means God is with us. Jesus is also referred to as Teacher, Master, Lord, Son of God, Son of Man, Redeemer and other names, too.

The many names of Jesus show us a little bit about His unique ministry. We know He "went about doing good" and healing minds and bodies and casting out demons. He had compassion on the multitude following Him who were hungry and He performed miracles of multiplying a few loaves and fish to feed the huge crowds with lots of leftovers!

Jesus turned ordinary water into fine wine at the wedding at Cana so the party could go on. He went about the country teaching and performing miracles. He even raised some from the dead. But, His real mission was to reconcile mankind to God. So He willingly bore the sins of mankind and let Himself be sacrificed on the cross to restore our relationship with God which had been destroyed by Adam's sin.

Wouldn't you like to get to know Jesus better? Not just about Him but really KNOW Him. You can start by making Him your Lord and Savior and asking Him to come live in your heart. It's easy. Just say: Jesus, I believe you're the Son of God who rose from the dead. I'm sorry for my sins. Wash me clean in your blood. I ask you to come into my heart. I make you my Lord and Savior. It's done! Now, talk to him, read the Bible, find a Bible church and some Christian friends. Life with Jesus is satisfy Mike and Sherry Morrison pastor "Church at the Barn" in Gillette, WY. They also travel to other areas ministering at barrel races, ranches, rodeos, churches and home Bible studies.
