Tag Team Triumph - Kassie Mowry Wins Rodeo Austin With Force The Goodbye & CP He Will Be Epic

By Tanya Randall

They say teamwork makes the dream work and it certainly does for two-time WPRA World Champion Kassie Mowry of Dublin, Texas.

The richest barrel racer in the sport's history used her two talented mounts, Force The Goodbye ("Jarvis") and CP He Will Be Epic ("Will") to capture a $19,621 Rodeo Austin Championship.

The $64,000-added rodeo was limited to 88 entries with twenty of those contestants coming from a qualifying jackpot held in conjunction with February's The Grand Prix event in Stephenville, Texas. All contestants got a first round run in a performance with the top 24 fastest moving on to the playoff round. The eight fastest from the playoff performances advanced to the championship round.

Mowry started Austin on Will so Jarvis could stay in Houston to rest. Will, an 11-year-old gelding, by Epic Leader out of Percilla, by Dash Ta Fame, turned in a 14.49 that finished 11th, one hole out of the money in the qualifying round, but advanced to the playoff round.

Meanwhile, Jarvis successfully defended his title and won his second straight Rodeo Houston. However there was no rest for the weary with Austin ongoing and San Angelo right around the corner. Mowry committed to finishing Austin on Jarvis and resting Will for San Angelo.

Will, a 17-hand behemoth, has two San Angelo championships to his resume having won in 2023 and 2025. Jarvis, her 8-year-old superstar by The Goodbye Lane, out of VF Forcit First, by Burrs

First Down, didn't seem to be a fan as he failed to advance her out of San Angelo's progressive round the first year she ran him there in 2024.

Mowry opted to rest Jarvis the few days between his last two runs at Houston on Saturday, March 20, and his first at Rodeo Austin on Friday, March 27.

"I hate to say this, but I only rode Jarvis the day before he ran at Austin," Mowry said. "He really just needed the break. He stayed turned out in his pasture and went on the walker daily."

Mowry and Jarvis tied with LaTricia Duke and her young rising star DM He Will Run Em ("Carlos") for the playoff round win with identical runs of 14.20. The next night, they had top of the ground in the championship round and turned in the fastest run of the rodeo, a 14.19, to take the championship.

This was technically Jarvis' second Rodeo Austin Championship having won in 2024. The rodeo was two rounds, a final and aggregate then. And, just like this year, Jarvis got aggressive on the first barrel and rocked it that year too.

With slack for San Angelo on Sunday morning, Mowry had both horses with her and laid over at Josh Owens' place south of Austin in New Braunfels, Texas.

"The boys had the perfect place to rest. I left the morning of San Angelo and made it just in the nick of time!" she said.

Mowry and Will finished third in slack at San Angelo, earning another $4,231. Slack at San Angelo constitutes the first round of the rodeo and the fastest 124 of the 230 entries advance to the rodeo's performances.

Unofficially, Mowry has set a new World Standings benchmark at this point in the season with unofficial earnings of $126,218, excluding San Angelo since it's ongoing. She had won $111,382 at this point last year.

Per usual, her rodeo schedule will be limited.

The only remaining rodeo for Jarvis until July is The American, which doesn't count toward WPRA World Standings. Mowry has plans to run him at the Ruby Buckle Derby and possibly the Royal Crown Derby if it doesn't conflict with The American.

Her prize fighter Famous Ladies Man ("Emmitt") is also getting back in shape for the summer run of rodeos.

Kelly Allen & Heaven A Good Time Bank $19,659 at Barrel Bash Hosted Select Stallion Stakes Futurity

By Tanya Randall

Kelly Allen and Heaven A Good Time ("Rico") captured their second futurity title at the $45,000-added, 130-entry Select Stallion Stakes Futurity held with the Barrel Bash, March 26-29 in Chickasha, Oklahoma.

"He was on," said Allen, who won the Lone Star Shootout Futurity with the 5-year-old JL Dash Ta Heaven gelding, out of her winning Hot Corona mare Charge My Corona. "He felt really, really good."

Allen and Rico won $16,852 in the Futurity plus earned JL Dash Ta Heaven's connections $4,050 from the $30,000 Select Stallion Stakes Futurity Sires Bonus. Carryovers to the regular open and sidepots garnered $2,132. Allen and Rico also pocketed $675 for winning the $15,000 Select Stallion Stakes Open, which paid $450 to JL Dash Ta Heaven as well.

"That was my first one to ever go to," Allen said. "I was really impressed with the payout. They ran it very efficiently but not too fast. It's a nice facility. I wish they had more stuff up there."

The pair started their Select Stallion Stakes campaign by winning the opening round by nearly 4/10ths with the second fastest time of the event, a 14.982.

"His first run was flawless," said Allen, who hails from Stephenville, Texas. "There really wasn't much I could pick apart. He was a little short with me going into the second, but he stayed honest. I really couldn't have asked for a better run."

Knowing she had some time to play with, Allen tried to be solid and clean on their second run.

"The next day, I was fourth out at 8:30 in the morning with a 130 left to go," she explained. "My draw wasn't exactly ideal, but I told myself, 'He's fast. Be smooth and be clean.' He did exactly what I asked. I was really happy."

Although she felt she overrode him a little bit and had some minor ground trouble at the first and second barrels, Allen said Rico made an honest run. Their 15.325 placed sixth in the round and they maintained their nearly 4/10th spread to win the aggregate.

Allen said she's been continually working to keep Rico at the top of his game even though he's been winning for her.

"There's been a lot of different tweaks," she said. "I'm not really sure which one helps the most. It's part of running a barrel horse that's only been running four months."

She's had to adjust her riding as the gelding has developed.

"I'm learning that I'm having to ride him differently than the way I had stuck in my head that I would ride him when I was training him," she said. "I thought I was going to have to ride him really quiet, rocked back on my hips—kind of like I rode Rona (his dam). Turns out, I have to ride him more like an open horse. I have to ride him more aggressively. He's honestly better the faster he goes and that was not the case with her. I think it's more about changing my mindset of how I run him. I can't safety up as much as I thought I could with him. That's when mistakes start happening. He's really backwards from what I expected."

Allen also modified how she tuned the extremely athletic gelding.

"He is so athletic he can come back over himself," she explained. "I take him off the backside of the barrels really wide, then bring him back close when I finish it. I do a couple of circles away from the barrel, off the barrel. If he's too tight halfway around the turn and he's about to hit it, then he gets in a bind and has to step off. I've learned that if I can teach him to not rush his turns and take one extra step then he finishes his barrels so much better."

Allen has also been searching for the right headgear.

"I played around with different bits," she said. "I think I've won $60,000 on him now and I've won $10-$15,000 with five different bits. I've used something different every weekend. He requires a little bit of playing around with stuff to figure out what he likes."

THE RUNDOWN w/Kelly Allen

Heaven A Good Time "Rico" 2021 Brown Gelding, 15.3 h., 1200 lbs

BIT: Freeman gag (similar to a Josey Go Round)

SADDLE: Custom Robbie Phillips

SADDLE PAD: Saddleright

LEG GEAR: Classic Equine Classic Fit on all four

SHOEING: Shod by Cutter Holloway

FEED: Renew Gold

HAY: Cubeit alfalfa cubes

SUPPLEMENTS: Oxy-Gen Digestive Advantage, Conquer Tranquility, Succeed

ALTERNATIVE THERAPIES: Spectra Laser Therapy, BEMER, acuscope, sweat his legs before runs and ice after, chiropractic care as needed

TRAINING/CONDITIONING REGIMEN: He stays in shape pretty well. I put him on the walker a lot. I do a lot of walking the pattern. The whole week before I gave him two days off after Waco and then I just walked the pattern every day. I used a different bit every day to get a different feel. I would walk the pattern exactly how I wanted him to work and I also do it the way I was tuning him, making his take an extra step and finish close and do more circles away from the barrel.

SPONSORS: Oxy-Gen Equine, Happy Animals, ProHats, Classic Equine, Spectra Laser, Kenny & Lori Allen

At Select Stallion Stakes, she made a bit change on Saturday morning before the first round to a Freeman gag, which is very similar to a Josey Go Round.

"It was my mom's bit, so I've had it forever. It's got a lot of gag and round mullen," she said.

Allen also followed her mom's advice and had Rico's teeth worked on.

"I ran him somewhere and my mom was like, 'Have you had his teeth done recently?'" she said. "I think it had been six months, so not that long. She said, 'Why don't you get him done and see if there's anything in there sharp, that's catching when you're leaving the first barrel?" I had his teeth done and he hasn't done it since. He's had great first barrels ever since. There was just one little, tiny spot that was a little sharp but nothing crazy. I think he's so sensitive."

Saaul Good Smashes Arena Record – Twice – in Cedar City

By Julie Mankin

Hailey Krahenbuhl of Las Vegas, Nevada, is still obliterating long-standing arena records in Utah. She did it again over the weekend in Cedar City aboard 6-year-old Saaul Good (“Sully”), the horse that Dale Long piloted to six figures at the 2024 futurities for Benette Little.

At the Xtreme Million race in Cross Hollow’s Diamond Z Arena on March 29, Susan Siggins first broke the record Friday on Fame Folly Five (by Dash Ta Fame out of a quarter-Thoroughbred Tres Seis daughter) with a short 15.5. But then Krahenbuhl and Sully set a new record at 15.492. That run won the Derby for $1,250 and that day’s Xtreme race for $1,181.

“You get him a little by a barrel and he just snaps back so hard out of it, it’s basically a two-point turn,” said Krahenbuhl, who also set a record at South Jordan recently. Sully is by $2.4 million barrel-horse producer Winners Version out of Wild Frenchlady, by Frenchmans Guy and out of a half-thoroughbred Dash For Cash daughter.

Sully’s Saturday run, a 15.6, also placed that day, while another Winner’s Version son – Lora Nichols’ Blissful Version – laid down a 15.5. Those two 6-year-olds, according to QData, are the two winningest barrel horses by Winners Version at this point (Blissful Version has racked up $374,000 and Sully has about $205,000 in lifetime earnings).

After Saturday’s run, Krahenbuhl sensed that Sully was a little bit tired. So, she gave him a vitamin jug. And he came back Sunday with a blistering 15.296 to break his own record again by a mile and leave only two runners in the 1D.

“It’s the fastest I’ve ever gone on him,” said Krahenbuhl, who grew up riding jumping horses. “Coming out of first, he was just flying.”

They won $2,061 that day, but since Krahenbuhl had also entered the Xtreme Mini Million sidepot – which dumps all the weekend’s times into one race – she won first and second with her two record-breaking runs to bring her Cedar City total on Sully to nearly $14,000.

Krahenbuhl already had a nice mare when she obtained the great gelding last May. Back when she switched from jumping, she rode with a cowhorse trainer who found her a barrel horse. Then, her first high-caliber horse, Namgis D 56 (“Foxy”), came from Emily Beisel and is by the same sire as Beisel’s great Pipewrench and Chongo. In Cedar City, Krahenbuhl and Foxy earned a little money on a pair of 16.0-second runs to give the Vegas native a weekend total of $14,583.

Foxy gave Krahenbuhl the feeling of winning, she said, and is the reason she decided to forgo college to try to run barrels for a living. She grew up about 15 minutes from The Strip in Vegas and still boards her horses. But Hailey and her identical twin sister, who continues to ride show jumpers, plan to operate their own horse facility the family is building for them in the Las Vegas area. And now, Krahenbuhl hopes to hit the rodeo road with Sully and make an NFR run in 2027.

Sully has been on top three years already – he’d placed deep at the BFA Super Stakes as a 3-year-old, when Long called him the easiest horse he’d ever trained.

“We’d been looking for another horse off and on for a few years,” said Krahenbuhl, whose dad owns a landscaping business in Las Vegas. “My grandparents told me they’d either buy me a trailer or a horse, and I definitely wanted a horse. So, they bought him for me!

“From the very first time I stepped on him, I knew he was the most powerful horse I’d ever been on, even just trotting,” added

THE RUNDOWN w/Saaul Good

Saaul Good
BIT: Twisted-wire three-piece with roller, short shank and locked gag
HEADGEAR: Kim Smith bonnet that helped her set an arena record in Vegas the first time I tried it
SADDLE: Master
SADDLE PAD: CSI
LEG GEAR: Professional’s Choice Strike
SHOEING: regular steel rims
FEED: Unbeetable Complete
HAY: free choice alfalfa
SUPPLEMENTS: CEP Vitality and electrolytes, OptiWize, Equi-Boss NeurtraBac pH pre-run, and sucralfate for ulcer prevention
ALTERNATIVE THERAPIES: poultice and ice legs after every run or cold spa
TRAINING/CONDITIONING REGIMEN: I ride basically every single day, but he doesn’t ever see the barrels unless he’s been coming into first a little too hot
SPONSORS: CSI Pads and Badwater Tack
THANK YOUS: My grandparents for buying me that horse, my parents, and Dale Long because he trained an incredible horse.

Krahenbuhl, who said the horse so free that she only kicks on the run home from third. “I knew I’d need a seat belt for this one. And I liked that feeling!”

BIG TIME HORSES DOMINATE NOKO RANCH SHOOTOUT!

At the NOKO Ranch Shootout in Stephenville, TX some big time horses dominated - running 1st & 2nd in the Slot Race & the Open!

The Champion of the Slot Race & Open, RC BLACK IN FAMOUS & ANDREA BUSBY has already earned $135,512 in her career. Through her career she has won at the futurities, derbies and rodeos including running at the 2022 NFR with Brittany Pozzi Tonozzi. Rc Black In Famous already placed at the Ft Worth Stock Show & Rodeo over the winter with Busby and looks to be in prime form to hit the early summer rodeos! Her dam is RC BACK IN BLACK who won 3 Rounds with Jane Melby at the 2011 NFR and has then went on to be a top producer! Per Equistat Rc Back In Black now sits at $1,423,287 in offspring earnings as of 3/31/26. So after Rc Black In Famous is done running barrels she should be a blue hen producer as well!

Coming in just a couple hundredths of a second behind were PROMISE ME FAME GUYS & youth superstar TABITHA DYAL. Promise Me Fame Guys has been a superstar since his futurity year with Samantha Flannery then went on to be a rodeo star with the legendary Lisa Lockhart. In fact Promise Me Fame Guys & Lockhart won the Average at the 2023 NFR on their way to winning over $200k and ending that year as Reserve World Champs. Over the past couple year after paired with Dyal, Promise Me Fame Guys & Dyal have picked up big checks at the Royal Crown, Xtreme races, The Texan and now the NOKO Ranch Shootout! All told Promise Me Fame Guys now sits at $867,132 LTE (per QStallions) plus the over $9k they won at the NOKO.

2026 ProRodeo Hall of Fame Class Announced

It seems only fitting as we close out Women's History Month for 2026 that we announce two WPRA members who will be enshrined into the ProRodeo Hall of Fame this July with eight representatives from the Professional Rodeo Cowboys Association.

Mary Burger, the 2006 and 2016 WPRA World Champion, and Loretta Manuel, the 1963 and 1967 WPRA World Champion will be inducted into the Barrel Racing category. They will join the following on the PRCA side – Jerome Davis (bull riding), the late Butch Myers (steer wrestling), Ike Sankey (stock contractor), Keith Isley (contract personnel), Jeff Medders and Bobby Goodspeed (notables), Killer Bee (Livestock) and San Angelo Stock Show and Rodeo (rodeo committee). Troy Weekley will also be honored with the Ken Stemler Pioneer Award during the Cowboy Ball on July 17

While winning one world title in the WPRA is a major feat, both these ladies have tasted that victory twice and now they will be honored for their accomplishments in the professional rodeo arena with induction into the ProRodeo Hall of Fame in Colorado Springs. The other things they have in common are they were both born in August in the State of Indiana.

It seems only fitting for Burger to be going into the ProRodeo Hall of Fame 10 years after her last world title (2016) because after all her second world title came 10 years after her first (2006). Burger, at the young age of 68 years and 4 months in 2016, became the oldest world champion, male or female, a record that still stands today.

"I am flabbergasted and a little in awe of this news," stated Burger upon learning of her induction from WPRA President Heidi Schmidt. "When Heidi told me, I wasn't sure I heard her correctly. This is just such an honor. I am at a loss for words."

She was born August 18, 1948, in Decatur, Indiana, but now makes her home in Pauls Valley, Oklahoma. Horses were commonly used on the family farm and viewed as a tool. One of six children, Burger, was diagnosed at a young age with Perthes disease in both hips, a condition that causes inflammation and arthritis-like symptoms. The disease rendered her unable to walk and she required crutches. As a result, her father bought her a pony that served as her transportation until she was 10.

Burger was able to recover from the disease with treatment, and it's believed that the horseback riding helped her hips spread, allowing her to heal.

She first made a name for herself in the AQHA ranks winning the world titles in junior barrel racing and pole bending in 1974 aboard a horse named High Bars Wimpy. Burger would add seven more AQHA World Titles in the barrel racing (1985-86, 1995, 2001-03, 2005) aboard three different horses Showum The Gold, Miss Mergie and Rare Fred before turning her attention to the ProRodeo ranks.

Burger joined the Women's Professional Rodeo Association in 1985, when she moved to Oklahoma with her husband, Kerry, but just dabbled in the ProRodeo ranks until 2006. That year a horse named Rare Fred carried her to her first WPRA world title. She not only etched her name in the record books for the 2006 world title, but she also became the oldest world champion in the WPRA at the age of 58.

"It used to bother me when people would talk about age and not being able to do things because of age, but then when I made it to the NFR (for the first time) and all the different fans that would tell me how much of an inspiration I was. It changed the way I looked at it," said Burger. "I am just thrilled to be able to do what I love and glad that I can serve as an inspiration."

Burger would qualify for the Wrangler NFR two more times (2008-09) with Fred. In 2010, Fred was sold and so began Burger's search for the next great ride. Enter a buckskin gelding registered Sadiefamouslastwords, known as Mo.

"I have trained all my life and have had lots of top-notch horses come through, so I knew I had it in me to train another great one after Fred," said Burger in 2016. Brad Leiblong, a futurity trainer and horse trader, had sent horses to Burger in the past and he found a 2-year-old that he wanted to trade for, so she asked him to send a photo.

"Once I saw the photo there was just something about him and I knew I wanted him, so we made the trade," beamed Burger, who traded an open horse for Mo. "It was the best trade I have ever made in my entire life."

Mo took to the ProRodeo circuit like a champ, collecting his first big win at Rodeo-Houston and followed that up a few months later with the title at the Calgary Stampede. The first week of August, Burger surpassed Lindsay Sears' record for most money won prior to the NFR with $185,439. Sears set the record in 2008 with $184,567. Burger would set a then regular season record earnings mark with $190,977 and would become just the third WPRA contestant in Wrangler National Finals Rodeo history to wear the No. 1 back number, joining Charmayne James and Sherry Cervi.

Burger would finish the 2016 season with $277,554 in earnings capturing her second gold buckle at her fourth and final NFR.

Loretta Manuel

Loretta Manuel won the 1963 and 1967 barrel racing world championship aboard a black horse registered Full of Pep, that she simply called Spade.

"I never expected to get a call like that," stated Manuel when asked her thoughts upon learning about her induction. "I remember when the ladies started being inducted for barrel racing. I have loved rodeo my whole life. I just have no words to describe this feeling right now."

Manuel, born August 19, 1939, in Winamac, Indiana, is well known for her accomplishments both aboard barrel horses and jumping horses. She qualified for the National Finals Rodeo a total of 9 times (1962-67, 1969-1971), winning the coveted WPRA World Championship twice with a reserve finish in 1965. She partially credits her success in rodeo to her days as a teen performer in Wild West shows, in which she did trick riding and Roman riding.

She transitioned from trick riding to barrel racing shortly after getting Spade as he was fast and agile, so she thought he was well suited for the cloverleaf pattern. She trained him and believes they only hit a barrel twice during his whole career. They captured the RodeoHouston title in 1968, the second year it was held at the Astrodome. Spade also spent some of his career as a bulldogging horse and she thought that made him tougher when it came to the barrel race.

In addition to her world titles another highlight of her career was meeting two U.S. presidents.

"Harry Truman, who was a former president at the time, presented me with my first championship belt buckle, and I later met president-yet-to-be John F. Kennedy," she said.

She retired from rodeo in the 1970s but remained active in the equestrian scene when she began working at Cloudline Hounds Hunt, which is a British-style fox hunting group in Celeste, Texas, where she currently resides.

Manuel is also known for giving to others. As a teacher she tried to pass along some of her champion mindset.

"One of the things I would teach was to 'learn how to lose,' and by that, I mean they have to learn how to persist after failing at something," she explained. "They were not allowed to say, 'I can't.' They have to learn to persist at improving."

In November 2021 she was amongst the sixth class to be inducted into the All Cowboy & Arena Champions Hall of Fame, an internet-based Hall of Fame, created to help preserve and promote rodeo history.

On June 5, 2022, in Kingston, Texas, she was honored when the community mounted a permanent sign on State Highway 69 honoring her accomplishments.

She now adds ProRodeo Hall of Fame inductee to her resume at the age of 86.

The WPRA first began inducting members to the ProRodeo Hall of Fame in 2017 and since that time a total of 18 members (including this year's class) have been inducted along with two world champion horses (doesn't include Scamper as he was inducted in 1996). Full information on the PRCA inductees can be found at www.prorodeo.com.

The 2026 ProRodeo Hall of Fame Inductions are scheduled to take place at 10 a.m. MT on July 18 in Colorado Springs, Colorado.

HEADIN' FOR HOME

by Sherry Morrison // Triple M (Mike Morrison Ministries)

Forgiveness, and the withholding of it, can be a struggle. But forgiveness for a Christian is vital! We all feel justified in our resentment when someone hurts us. After all, to know us is to love us, right? LOL!

We've all hurt someone. We are not perfect, even when we think we are. Matthew 6:14-15 tells us that if we forgive others, He'll forgive us. But if we don't, He won't. That's incentive enough for me!

There is one that is perfect though, JESUS. He died on that cross, bearing all our sin on His body so we wouldn't have to. He has forgiven us. He has redeemed us.

Easter celebration is this Sunday. Put on your best hat and shoes/boots and go to church. Worship Him. Thank Him. Take time to let Him know how much you appreciate Him. You'll be glad you did!
