Montgomery Wins second straight Lucky Dog Futurity

By Tanya Randall

The Montgomery clan from Purdon, Texas, had a great time at the $5,000-added BFA-approved Lucky Dog Futurity, held March 1-3 at the Four States Fairgrounds in Texarkana, Ark.

Jolene Montgomery won the event for the second straight year, this time with Famous Moon Star ("Marilyn"), owned by Robin Weaver, Mahaffey, Pa. She also finished fourth on Hesa Dashin Dreamer ("June Bug"), owned by Tom and Becca Kelly.

Her sister-in-law Molli Montgomery took third with Royal And Famous, owned by Terris and Kim Matthews. Only Lacey Donegan's reserve championship on Take A Ride Guys, owned by her mother Kathy, kept the Montgomery clan from making a clean sweep.

"We had a pretty good weekend," said Montgomery, who won it last year on LS Corona Winsalot and place second the two prior years. "That pen has always been good to me. I don't know why. I'd probably better go every time they open the gate. It hasn't failed me much."

Marilyn, a 4-year-old daughter of Dash Ta Fame out of A Moon Dash, by Better Judgment, is the second futurity winner that Montgomery has ridden for Weaver. Last year they paired up with Old Fort Days Futurity Champion KN Fabs Mist Of Fame ("Misty"). Montgomery has had Marilyn in her barn since last spring. Much like Misty, Marilyn's early futurity career was plagued by fallen barrels. At Texarkana, the mare put together two penalty-free runs, including a scorcher in the first round.

"Her first was probably the best competition run she's made yet without catching a barrel," said Montgomery, who is sponsored by Classic Equine, Priefert and Tin Haul Boots. "She had pretty much a perfect run. She's made runs like that before but I've always managed to catch a barrel. She would have placed in the average at the (BFA) Juvenile and at Lance's (the LG Pro Classic) but we drug over barrels. She's just really ratey and turny, so I have to ride her like an open horse.

"The second run I got by the first a little bit and it cost us a little time and she got to scotching across the pen a little bit. She's dang sure going to turn. She just gets really scotchy, so we're trying to work that out."

Montgomery's fourth-place finisher June Bug has also been in her barn since last spring.

"He didn't go to the Juvenile, he was a little green yet," she explained. "He had a little bout with EPM last summer that set him back a little bit. He ran at the futurities in Arizona (in January) and was trying to be really good, but fell down twice. So, that kind of hurt his confidence. He's just now getting it back.

"He's a really nice colt. Actually right before the BFA, he outran

Increase and Addition-BFA World Championship

submitted by Tamara Reinhardt

Barrel Futurities of America is excited to announce 4-Star Trailers commitment to increase the BFA 4-Star Derby added money to $17,500. This is the most added money for any Derby in the nation, and the BFA 4-Star Derby is open to all 5 and 6 yr. Old barrel racing horses(including 5 yr. Old futurity horses).

4-Star Trailers is an industry leader in trailer manufacturing. Building trailers in Oklahoma City, OK for over 20 years, 4-Star Trailers is recognized for quality workmanship and superior engineering. The company's dedication to the horse industry is evident in their support of both barrel racing's NBHA and rodeo's IPRA.

BFA welcomes Allen Ranch Saddles as the sponsor of the $uper$takes Champion trophy saddle. Located in Bixby, OK, Stanley Allen and his team have been crafting saddles and tack since 1985. Tried and tested in both the arena and pasture, Allen Ranch saddles are ridden by both winning and working cowboys and cowgirls.

Allen Ranch Saddles joins Shiloh Saddlery and Team Steinhoff as an official award/saddle sponsor at the BFA World Championship. This addition brings the total of Champion saddles to six that are awarded at the BFA World Championship.

The BFA World Championship is December 9-14, 2013 at Oklahoma State Fair Park, Oklahoma City, OK. For more information www.barrelfuturitiesofamerica.com.

Philthy Phamous laid to rest

Over the weekend, Philthy Phamous was euthanized due to barrel racing injuries. The 6 year old brown gelding was by Dash Ta Fame out of the Dash For Perks mare, Coconut Cash. He was bred by Bo Hill & Jeff Switzer. He ran through his futurity year with Kebo Almond for owner Felicia Taylor and FC Ranch and was most recently owned by Tiany Schuster and Edwin Cameron. He placed at futurities such as the BFA Spring Classic and the JB Quarter Horse and had recently placed in the 1D at the Holiday Classic, and the LG Pro Classic Derby.

Note from Tiany Schuster: "I would like to thank all that reached out in sympathy. I really cannot express how touched I was by the overwhelming response from the whole barrel family across all of North America."

OK Teenager Darby Duncan is the Lucky Dog in Texarkana

By Tanya Randall

Oklahoma teenager Darby Duncan rode three horses to earn two high-money earners and the Open 1D Average Championship at the Lucky Dog Races, held March 1-3 at the Four States Fairgrounds in Texarkana, Ark. Duncan, Cameron, Okla., collected $3,793 to be the high-money winner overall and $605 in the youth sidepots to be the high-money winning youth.

"She was really fortunate to get three horses in the 1D," said her mother Gayle. "It was a very tough race." Duncan won the 1D average with Nuther Long Chance ("Chance"), whom she's had since June 2012. The 12-year-old gelding, by the Bugs Alive In 75 son Nuther Bug out of High Chance Lady, by On A High, came from Ashleigh Baugh. Amber Spears helped the Duncans find the gelding.

Their first run in Texarkana didn't go well, so Duncan knew she needed to make adjustments for Saturday.

"I knew I needed to get him up there earlier and walk him around a bunch to get him loose," said the 15-year-old Freshman at Cameron High. "I knew he could run good there because he had before. Saturday he ran a 15.0 and Sunday he ran a 14.9."

Duncan also finished fourth in the 1D average with Firewater Pistol

(“Lilly”). She got the Fire Water Flit mare from Tanya Reams at the end of October 2012.

“She had pretty runs,” noted Duncan, who plays softball and basketball at school. Her third horse was PC Dusty Gin (“Gin”), who came from Sandy Weathers.

“She’s been my main horse forever,” said Duncan. “She still is, but Chance just fits me a little bit better. She won five saddles in 2011, all 1D. The first two days we couldn’t get together, but she came back and ran a (15).2. So, I was first, third and eleventh.” Duncan, whose goal is to win the WPRA Junior title this year, grew up in a barrel racing family. Her grandfather Johnnie Farrar competed and he got Duncan’s mom, Gayle, started a very young age.

“She comes from a long line of barrel races,” said Gayle Duncan. “My dad started the whole operation. My dad was the one that pushed us and now he’s passing it on to his granddaughter.”

The family has the Jet Of Honor son Pepto Honor Jet and the younger Duncan has a few futurity horses to ride by the stallion. “She’s got three futurity colts,” sighed her mom with a laugh. “We do a lot of riding. With school and sports, it’s a lot to do.”

Headin' For Home

by Mike Morrison
Triple M (Mike Morrison Ministries)

Your horse just made a practice run that was the best on yet, the sun is shining, birds are singing and you feel like a million dollars. Life is good and you thank the Good Lord for His many blessings. It's easy to give your testimony and witness for Jesus at times like this.

But, how about on a dark, gloomy day with a strong, cold wind banging things around. Your horse is acting up, your kids are home from school with strep throat and will have tons of schoolwork to make up and you just got an unexpected repair bill for several thousand dollars? Are you praising the Lord now or do you feel as though God has forgotten you?

This is life in an imperfect world and the devil wants to discourage you. Keep in mind that the devil came to steal, kill and destroy (John 10:10) and since he can't get to God, he's out to "get our goat" because we're made in the image of God and we're His special handiwork.

God knows right where you are and, if you're a born again Christian, Jesus lives in you and will help you through the tough times.

Just take a few minutes to talk to God, tell Him how you feel and ask for His direction. He said He'd never leave you nor forsake you. (Hebrews 13:5) He has promised to protect us and has sent His angels "to keep us in all our ways."

A popular song a few years ago had a line that said, "Storms never last, do they, Baby?" And, it's true. Tomorrow might be an awesome day filled with joy and blessings! Turn everything over to God and stand on the words of Jesus in Matthew 11:28 which says, "Come to Me, all you who labor and are heavy laden, and I will give you rest." Be blessed, not stressed!
