Squeaky Clean Finish for Emily Miller & Namgis D 35 at RAM National Circuit Finals Rodeo

By Tanya Randall

Dental hygienist Emily Miller and her 7-year-old gelding, Namgis D 35 ("Pipewrench"), jumped into the hunt for National Finals Rodeo berth with a $13,646 RAM National Circuit Finals Rodeo Championship.

In addition to her RCNFR earnings counting toward the WPRR World Standings, Miller also earned an invitation to the Calgary Stampede, where $50,000 of the $100,000 victor's prize counts toward NFR qualification.

Miller, who works for Dr. Brain Stephens in her hometown of Weatherford, Okla., is currently ranked 16th in the standings with $22,686.

"It's going to be tough, sitting at home, watching the standings, but if I play my cards right, I'll still have a chance," said Miller, who was grateful to have her parents Tom and Margaret with her in Kissimmee. "I want to be good to my boss, because I love my job and he's an incredible person to work for, so I don't want to let him down either."

Knowing that a RCNFR Championship could give her a chance at the NFR, Miller was determined to win the event after coming so close in 2016, when she was a last-minute substitution. Her plan for 2017 was to rest Pipewrench for the winter so he'd be fresh in the spring.

"I set a goal when I left Kissimmee last year to come back and win it," she said. "My best chance of doing that was not running him all winter at the big rodeos."

plans got altered a little bit when she got a last-minute call to replace an injured Kim Schulz at Rodeo Houston.

"I had to get on him a little sooner than I had planned to. I didn't have shoes on him or a Coggins when they called," she laughed. "We were pretty rusty at Houston. It had been five months since he'd ran. That let me know that I had a lot to do get ready for Kissimmee."

She decided to run the gelding at Lubbock, a smaller pen that typically isn't their forte.

"Typically, he is the horse I ride in the big outdoor pens," she explained. "I've always had a little bit more success on him outside. He so fun outdoors. He's a pretty good sized horse. I decided to take him the Lubbock, just to get a run on him and he did great. We got the win there and that was a big confidence boost for me. That was an arena that I didn't expect to win at. I just wanted to get my timing down. After that, I knew he was ready."

Miller left for Kissimmee much earlier than she did last year, when she was a last-minute replacement for Kim Couch. "I wanted to get him used to the heat and humidity because it is different,"

2017 RNCFR Closes out with a Bang

It's been a long road to the RAM National Circuit Finals Rodeo (RNCFR), but one that paid off with big dividends for champions crowned on Sunday. In addition to a share of the three-quarters of a million dollars in prize money, each champion won a Polaris RANGER UTV, a $20,000 voucher toward a new RAM truck, trophy saddle, buckle and other swag.

Action started Thursday, April 6 at the Silver Spurs Arena at Osceola Heritage Park with the best contestants from 12 geographic regions in the United States and the country of Mexico competing for $1 million in cash and prizes.

Everyone got two opportunities, hoping to be among the top eight that advanced to Showdown Sunday, April 9. From eight, the field was cut to four. The top time or score in the final round of four secured the championship.

R. C. Landingham from Hat Creek, California, was one of those champions. He qualified from the California Circuit in the bareback riding and was the most successful athlete here. Landingham was the big money winner at $29,630. When he entered this rodeo, he was 11th in the Professional Rodeo Cowboys Association World Standings. The money he won here counts in the world standings for the first time in the 30-year history of the RNCFR. He should move into the top five and will be looking good for a spot at the 2017 Wrangler National Finals Rodeo.

Landingham's success came aboard a horse he was very familiar with, Korkow Rodeo's Onion Ring. He had won the semifinals after receiving a reride where he scored 85.5 points on Smith Pro Rodeo's R.D. Mercer. Then he met up with Onion Ring in the finals. Landingham had ridden the South Dakota horse to win the final round of the Pendleton Roundup last September with an 85.5 score. When the judges added up their scores at the RNCFR, an 88.5 gave him the championship.

The steer wrestling champion came from the Texas Circuit and got here by competing at rodeos close to his home in Hallsville. Justin Shaffer had the fastest time in the finals at 3.6 seconds to beat three men who are veterans of the Wrangler National Finals Rodeo. Shaffer nearly doubled his season earnings collecting $11,846.

This year's team roping champions came from the Prairie Circuit. With Jesse Stipes from Salina, Oklahoma, heading and Buddy Hawkins from Columbus, Kansas heeling, they stopped the clock in 4.9 seconds for the win. They each won $17,342. This was the second RNCFR title for Hawkins, but the first for Stipes.

One year ago, Jacobs Crawley, from Boerne, Texas, left here as the reserve champion. He finished second to champion Rusty Wright by 1.5 points. This year he came to Kissimmee with only one thought on his mind, leaving with the title, money and all of the prizes that go with it. His plan came together in a big way as he won $25,343 here after making an 89.5-point ride on Smith Pro Rodeo's Resistol's Top Hat. The native Texan was very happy to earn a title for the Texas Circuit.

Veteran tie-down roper Matt Shiozawa, from Chubbuck, Idaho, won his fourth RNCFR championship and $15,541. Riding his bay mare that he calls Alotta, the Wilderness Circuit athlete stopped the clock in 7.3 seconds for the win.

Texas got another champion in the bull riding. Tanner Learmont from Cleburne, Texas, was the only rider to cover on Sunday and which earned him the championship and $20,090. The all-around title went to Josh Peek who competed in steer wrestling and tie-down roping. This is the third consecutive title for the cowboy from Pueblo, Colo., who represented the Mountain States Circuit.

Plans are underway for the 2018 RNCFR which will again be held in Kissimmee. It is scheduled for April 5-8.

she said. "I wanted to let him relax and have a couple of days. I think that really helped too."

Miller and Pipewrench turned in a 15.46, the fastest time in the opening set of 13 in the first performance, to eventually finish fourth in the first round.

"My second-round run, I knew I needed to run about a 15.7 and just keep the barrels up," she said. "My second run was more conservative. We were toward the bottom of the ground and a lot of girls were slipping. I just wanted to keep him standing up. It was just smooth and clean and got us advanced to the finals."

Miller and Pipewrench finished seventh in the average with the top 8 advancing to a clean slate Semifinals and Finals. The top 4 from the semifinals advanced to the final run.

To make sure Pipewrench stood up and stayed clean during the first two runs, Miller ran him in a ported, chain Petska. For her last two runs, she switched to her "go fast" bit, which is an L&W combination. She also carried a bat for extra motivation.

"I hadn't carried a bat in over a year," she said. "I was hoping I remembered how to use it! Both runs I was asking him for everything he had. He really brought the heat. He was really good both runs."

They were third in the semifinals, running second to the last on the ground, with a 15.51 and won the Finals with a 15.27.

"He did awesome," said Miller. "I'm so proud of him."

Miller partnered with the gelding in the summer of 2015. Bred by Stan Sigman's Namgis Quarter Horses in Hondo, Texas, Pipewrench is by Bucks Hancock Dude out of the First Down Dash, MerriDoc mare Central Station.

"I just truly enjoy running barrels on Pipewrench," added Miller. "He's an amazing horse. I'm very fortunate to be his jockey."

Last year, Pipewrench proved he could clock with the best, not only at the RNCFR, but at some of the toughest rodeos in the country. In one month of mostly circuit rodeos, Pipewrench moved her from 300-something in the World Standings into the Top 30.

"I've already got more money won than I did last year," she said. "I just want to play it one rodeo at a time."

With Pipewrench, along with his 5-year-old sister Namgis D 56 ("Foxy") and Quijet, an 8-year-old sister to Rare Dillion, Miller has the horsepower to chance an NFR berth, even if she's doing it mostly on Friday and Saturday nights.

"I'm hoping that I'll have a little bit of leniency around Cowboy Christmas," Miller said. "My boss is pretty lenient. I don't think I'm going to be able to be gone months at a time, but I'm hopeful he'll let me go a couple of weeks at a time, every now and then. We'll just try to hit the big ones and go from there."

Condolences to Jana Griemsman on the Loss of her Champion Chase It With Brandy

Badlands Circuit Champion, Jana Griemsman of Piedmont, S.D., lost her great mare Chase It With Brandy while competing at the RAM National Circuit Finals Rodeo in Kissimmee, Fla. The duo had led the two-run average going into the Semifinals after posting the fastest time of the event, a 15.09 to win the second round.

"She was my best friend," said Griemsman in a Facebook post. "My other child. I owe everything to her and we can't imagine life without her. Her life was cut too short; she was just getting started showing everyone how great we know she is."

Bred by Griemsman's sister, multiple National Finals Rodeo qualifier Jill Moody, Brandy was by TM Sakem Drift out of the Shake It Special mare Corona Special.

Griemsman and Brandy were on the cusp of an NFR qualification of their own. Knowing that she would have to push herself and Brandy to the limits of their endurance at the tail end of the season, Griemsman made the decision to save the mare's legs for a 2017 run. They finished the year 19th in the World Standings.

"I know my mare deserves to be there (at the NFR)," said Griemsman after winning both the yearend and finals titles for her circuit in 2016. "I know she can run with those girls. I know that would be her set up."

The 9-year-old mare was well on her way to proving Griemsman right. At the time of her death, Brandy had Griemsman ranked amongst the WPRM Top 15.

A Solid Performance for Tanya Jones & Rockin A Lil at VGBRA's Barrel Daze Futurity

By Tanya Randall

Tanya Jones and her cutting-bred 5-year-old gelding Rockin A Lil ("Slick") topped the richest Barrel Daze ever held by the Valley Girls Barrel Racing Association. The 38th annual event, held April 6-9 in Walla Walla, Wash., awarded $214,013. Jones' share for winning the $55,026 Futurity was $8,436.

"I want to thank God for all that he's blessed me with," said Jones, a Northwest native splits her time between the Pacific Coast and a home in Stephenville, Texas. Since relocating about five years ago, Jones has switched from training outside horses to training her own out of necessity.

"I've just been trying to build my reputation in a new area," she said. "People know me in the Northwest, but they don't know me in Texas."

Since she's still getting to know people within the state, Jones put out of Facebook message last summer asking if anyone knew of any 3-year-olds for sale. A friend, Matt Smith, who works for cutting horse trainer Phil Rapp, responded that he knew of a 4-year-old that might work for her.

Jones was initially turned off by the horse's age, but did find his pedigree very appealing.

Bred by Dottie St. Clair Hill of Glen Rose, Texas, Slick is by 2009 NCHA Futurity Champion, Rockin W, a son of Dual Rey, who sired Kelly Yates' 2011 AQHA World Champion Junior Barrel Horse Fiesta Del Rey (out of Firewater Fiesta). Rockin W is out of 2004 NCHA Horse of the Year, Boon San Kitty, a daughter of High Brow Cat out of a NCHA World Champion daughter of Boon Bar.

On the maternal side, Slick is out of Miss N Lil Hickory, a daughter a couple Miss N Cash bred horses, so him being out of a Miss N Cash granddaughter helped too.”

When she went to try the gelding, she instantly liked him. “He kind of has a cool look about him,” she said. “I got on him and rode him, and within five minutes, knew that I wanted him. I vetted him that day and took him home.”

Since she got him so late, Jones didn’t expect Slick to come on as fast as he did to be ready for the Arizona futurities in January.

“To be honest, the first time I ran him, I thought ‘Uh oh, he can’t run a lick. I’m in trouble.’ Once he figured it out, it was a totally different story. He puts his head down and tries really hard,” she said.

Slick is still green with just 12 competitive runs.

“He acts like a more seasoned horse than what he is,” she said. “He’s very, very green, but he’s fun, because he cows up. If I ride him right, we’re fine. But if I lift here wrong or lift there wrong, he’s so touchy, he’ll shoot out or shoot in. He’s really touchy so I have to be careful how I ride him, but he sure is a lot of fun.”

Slick had done well at the Arizona futurities on the standard pattern, but with his 14.2 hand-size, Jones figured that he would do well at the futurities on the shorter patterns in the more enclosed arenas. Unfortunately, that didn’t hold true at Diamonds & Dirt in Waco, Texas, where the ground proved to be a challenge or at the Sand Cup Futurity in Pasco, Wash., the week before the Barrel Daze.

“I was a little nervous about Walla Walla,” she said. “I rented the building a couple of days earlier and cruised him through a couple of times. I still wasn’t really happy with his runs. He worked good but still didn’t feel really snappy.”

In the first go, Jones and Slick nearly hit the first barrel. Jones lifted her leg to keep the barrel standing, but the move caused Slick to bow out on the turn.

“It was a decent run, but still wasn’t very smooth,” she said of the 14.160 that placed third in the round. She also finished fourth on her second horse Margarita Ichi.

“My second run, I had hit a barrel on my other horse to win it, so I was a little more determined not to hit a barrel on him,” she recalled. “I pushed him by the first barrel and stayed pretty free on our turns.”

Their 14.266 was third again for the winning average of 28.426.

“I was disappointed in my other horse,” she said, “but it was a lot of fun on him.”

Jones wanted to thank Don Johnson Trailer Sales, who graciously donated the championship saddle, and the VGBRA crew.

“It’s a very beautiful Martin Crown C that actually fits my horse really good,” she said. “The entire VGBRA crew was amazing. The ground was great. I didn’t hear one complaint the whole time I was there.”

She also wanted to thank her mother Ronalie Siler, who helped her at the futurities.

“She’s the one that works behind the scenes and feeds and cleans

Sweetness -- Hallie Hanssen & The Kandyman Win VGBRA Barrel Daze Breeders Futurity

By Tanya Randall

Multiple futurity champion Hallie Hanssen and The Kandyman ("Raider"), owned by Valerie Watson of Wilmington, Ohio, pocketed $11,900 of the $214,013 awarded at the Valley Girls Barrel Racing Association's 38th Annual Barrel Daze, held April 6-9 in Walla Walla, Wash.

Hanssen, Hermosa, S.D., and Raider topped the $39,159 Breeders Futurity for $6,397 and finished reserve champions, by 1/10th of second, in the open Futurity for $5,503. She also picked up checks on all four of the horses she ran in the futurity—with three of them placing in the top 10 of the open futurity—for total event earnings of more than $27,000.

"They put a lot into that futurity," she said. "They work extremely hard to make it a great event. The awards are crazy! They always give away tons of awards. I just appreciate all the hard work they put into that futurity. It just keeps growing."

She also had to give credit to her husband Lee, who helped her have four horses ready to run over the course of the 126-entry futurity.

"He really does a lot to get them ready to run for me, so I don't have to worry about that too much," she said. "I just have to worry about going and making my runs. He really helps me a lot there."

In the Breeders Futurity, Hanssen and Raider placed second in the first go, and third in the second go to win the average. "Walla Walla is a lot smaller pen than what he's used to running in," she explained. "In my exhibitions, I worked on making sure that after he turned his first that he really got over for his second because it's so short across there."

"The first run, he turned the first nice and got over like I wanted him to, had a really nice second and third. I'd say it was the smoothest run he's had all year. I was really happy with his first run.

"The second run, I just wanted to make sure I had another clean run. It was a little bit slower than the first run, probably because I was riding more conservative to make sure I didn't hit a barrel."

Bred by Heath Boucher, Fredericktown, Ohio, Raider is by leading barrel and racehorse sire Tres Seis out of Boucher's great Dash Ta Fame mare, Famous Silk Panties, the first horse to win back to back $100,000 slot races. (Incidentally, Famous Silk Panties' 4-year-old PYC Paint Your Wagon daughter SR Godiva won the first go of the Panty Raid Futurity in Springfield, Ohio, the same weekend.)

Hanssen got Raider late in his second year. He was broke but not started on the pattern.

"He was really pretty easy to train," she said. "He really wanted to go around the barrels. My biggest challenge with him was getting him to ride like I like to ride, so I worked on that a lot before even going to the barrels. Once I went to the barrels, he picked that up easily."

Raider did well enough learning Hanssen's way of going that he got to stay home while others went south on her winter futurity run.

ADVERTISING HAS ALREADY STARTED FOR 2017. Don't be left out. The earlier you nominate, the more exposure your stallion receives prior to the 2017 breeding season with regional and national advertising.

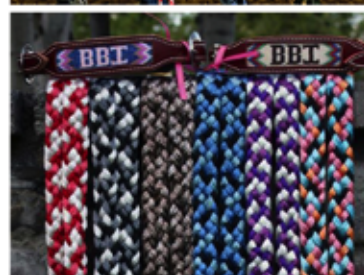

BBI was formed for stallion owners as an incentive program to breed barrel horses and sell barrel prospects. Now barrel racers are looking specifically for BBI horses.

BBI is set apart from other barrel breeders' programs as we promote an Open Barrel race as well as Futurity & Derby events. Horses 4-7 years old by nominated stallions (or sire if of age) are eligible to run in BBI sidepots. Pictured are some of our 2016 BBI winners: Just Look Quix (JD Look) with Emily and Adi Keefer ("Q" won all 3 BBI futurity events), TS Mrsunpeppy Dash (PC Mr Sun Peppy) and Monica Gruel (Barrel of Gold Derby champs), Margaret Jones (Midnight Corona), Monica Gruel, Emily Keefer and Shelley Murphy (As Good As Nick Gets). 2016 handcrafted awards from JoBeth Hutchison, Gale Beebe and Sammy Jo Hall.

Crumrine Crushes Competition at Panty Raid

By Hope Sickler

The Panty Raid Futurity is held the first weekend in April at the Champions Center in Springfield, Ohio and was founded by West Salem residents Dawn Shirey and Clea Remington. The event was named after the incredible mare, Famous Silk Panties, to celebrate the impact she had on Ohio and the futurity industry.

This past weekend the Panty Raid saw fierce competition, with veteran futurity trainer Troy Crumrine coming out on top in the 4-year-old BFA Futurity. Crumrine was riding young stallion, SR Industry Titan, owned by Nick and Tom Wylie of Swanton, Ohio. "Titan" is by Firewaterontherocks and out of the iconic mare, Mulberry Canyon Moon.

"Titan is a big dog but for being a stud, he is pretty quiet and respectful. He is a lot like his mom (Mulberry Canyon Moon). He loves to please you and loves attention," explained Crumrine. The Panty Raid was Crumrine's first run back since breaking his ankle. He ended up having a plate and 9 screws put in Christmas Day.

"The first round at the Panty Raid was my first run back and my timing was a little off. I thought we were flying to the first barrel and I set him too soon and he shut down quick but thankfully we got around it. I figured out quickly that I wasn't going as fast as I thought we were and trusted him throughout the rest of the run."

"The first go was totally my fault, thinking that something would happen to my ankle. Like a horse that has been injured, it stays in your mind for a while!"

Going into the second round, Crumrine felt more confident and comfortable and let the young stallion do his job to the best of his ability, which was the recipe for success.

"In the second round, I sent him in there and trusted that he knew what he was doing. He worked outstanding and did everything spot on," Crumrine said.

Having made two solid, blistering fast runs was just the outcome Crumrine needed to win the average for the second time at the Panty Raid. Last year he won the average aboard yet another one of Mulberry's offspring, MCM Ima Sharp Guy.

"Dawn, Clea and crew are great people and great to work with. They work hard to put on a great event. I also love that it's not too far from home, so I can travel back and forth on the days that I need to be there and can still catch some of my daughter's softball games at home."

Crumrine has been one of the top trainers in the industry for years and for good reason. When asked what one bit of advice he has learned over the years that he treasures, his answer was that not every horse is going to be a great futurity horse.

"Some horses will make great futurity horses and some will not. It doesn't mean they are not going to be nice open horses. Some horses just take longer to mature and turn into a good one," commented Crumrine.

At the end of the day, Crumrine explains that his main goal is making sure his horses last for the long run.

"Being a futurity trainer, we don't get to keep them long but that doesn't mean we don't want them to last and be successful for whomever has them in the years to come. It is very gratifying to see them go on with other riders and be successful."

BARRELRACING REPORT

Headin' For Home

by Sherry Morrison
Triple M (Mike Morrison Ministries)

When problems arise in our lives, sometimes it's good to have a course of action! Last week we talked about those prayers we pray that may seem to be a long time coming.

So, this week, let's have a 10 step checklist to be sure we aren't scattered in our believing.

- Identify the problem. (This is the easiest step!)
- Make a quality decision to overcome.
- Find the promise in the Bible that you are standing on.
- Hear the Word. At church, on tv or on a CD.
- Mediate the Word. Think about that answer/promise 24/7.
- Talk about your answer.
- Act on what God has told you to do.
- Apply patience.

- Wait for God's timing.
- Expect the answer.

I tend to identify the problem, pray the promise, and wait. I'm missing some steps in there! I'm going to make some changes! I can learn and grow.....or not. God bless you!

Mike and Sherry Morrison pastor "Church at the Barn" in Gillette, WY. They also travel to other areas ministering at barrel races, ranches, rodeos, churches and home Bible studies. Check out our schedule online. You can also download all Bible studies by visiting our website: m-m-m.org or contact us at: PO Box 2439, Gillette, WY. 82717, 307/685-2272.
