Samantha Flannery & Promise Me Fame Guys Sweep Valley Girls Barrel Daze

By Tanya Randall

HHA Futurity Reserve Champions Samantha Flannery and Promise Me Fame Guys, owned and bred by Tinley Epperson, dominated the Valley Girls Barrel Daze, held April 9-10 in Moses Lake, Washington. The duo won both Open and Stallion Incentive Program (SIP) futurities plus topped their second straight Breeders Challenge Futurity Qualifier for nearly $34,400 won in their names.

The open futurity victory was worth $14,414 while the SIP paid $10,551. The Breeders Challenge paid $6,698 with $2,009 going to stallion owner Lisa Miladinovich.

"That paid way too good not to reenter," said Flannery of the Breeders Challenge. "I told them that in Waco. I signed up down there. Here's another check. Put me in the next one."

Thankfully, Levee made "the next one." The gelding came down with a respiratory infection on Wednesday before the futurity. Flannery started him on antibiotics and had Dr. Jared Sharp of Idaho Equine check him over the very next morning.

"He thought we were ahead of it and we were I guess," said the Mission, South Dakota, trainer. "My mindset was 'We're here and going to make the best of it. I'll give you 20 cookies when you're done.'"

In the first round, they turned in a 15.369 which placed fourth in the open, third in the SIP and second in the Breeders Challenge.

"His first run was really good, but it lacked a little punch," Flannery said. "He's talented enough that he just went through the motions and still clocked."

THE RUNDOWN w/Samantha Flannery

Promise Me Fame Guys, "Levee" 15.1 hands, 1,100 lbs.

BIT: L&S (No Hit Bit) Briggs to compete; Schoneberg bit for warmup and general riding

SADDLE: Ammerman

SADDLE PAD: 3S Pad "I won it at the Breeders Challenge (in Waco), and he gets to run in it. I told him after I set the record at McCook that it was the saddle pad."

LEG GEAR: Classic Equine on all four

SHOEING: Barefoot

FEED: Bluebonnet

HAY: Homegrown grass hay and alfalfa pellets during winter and hauling

SUPPLEMENTS: Simply Equine, Redmond Rein Water & Redmond Rock Crushed Garlic, Forco, Equilix

ALTERNATIVE THERAPIES: Back On Track, Flexi-Neb "I became really good at using the Flexi-Neb this trip with all the respiratory. . . It was huge therapy. I ended up buying one."

TRAINING/CONDITIONING: "We've just been out in the pasture. We do about a three mile track through the hills, up and down. If I can do that track, I've always had good air in my horses. We've got hilltops that we lope circles on."

SPONSORS: Redmond Equine, Simply Equine, ReNovo, Schoneberg Performance Bits

Their next run of 15.309 won the second round across the board.

"His second run he was on his toes and he was a little bit obnoxious," she explained. "I was like 'Oh, yeah! This is good!' He had a phenomenal first and second barrel. I might have chased him a little bit past the third, but I darn sure didn't want to hit a barrel, so I'm OK with that."

Levee, by Aint Seen Nothin Yet, is the second foal out of Epperson's high school and college rodeo horse Bar Blue Lass, by FC Aboo. Epperson credited Travis Young and Dean Briggs for helping with Levee's foundation. Milee Malone Dailey and Taylour Russell helped Epperson with his barrel training and seasoning. Then last September, Epperson, who was pregnant at the time, sent the gelding to Flannery for his futurity campaign.

Since the HHA Futurity in Waco, Levee's won nearly $60,000. "I'm very fortunate that he's that talented," said Flannery, who also broke the Triangle Cross arena record in McCook, Nebraska, between events. "He doesn't require a lot and I'm not going to trash him out on little jackpots. I'm going to go where the ground is confidence building and safe. We have too many runs coming up to waste him on anything."

Next up for Flannery and Levee will be the BBR World Finals Futurity in Oklahoma City followed by the Ruby Buckle in Guthrie, Oklahoma. After that it's possible that Epperson will take over Levee's reins as Flannery has family and clinic commitments in May.

"Tenley has shown an interest in running him," said Flannery. "I don't blame her one bit! I'm personally not going anywhere in May."

When she kicks back up again in June, Flannery has three other promising mounts—all of which won checks at Valley Girls.

“Everybody in the trailer won a check,” she said. “I don’t know if they paid their entire way. I took four horses and everyone placed in the first round.”

Lenas Smooth BF Tad, a 5-year-old mare by A Smooth Guy out of Flannery’s former futurity standout Lenas Last Streaker, by A Streak Of Fling, placed ninth in the SIP and 10th in the Open futurity after a stellar first run.

“She really laid down a run in the first round,” she said. “It was fun. I screwed her up in the second round. It was one of those things—do as I say not as I do. It was totally my fault. I didn’t trust her.”

She also picked up futurity checks on FL Epic Sized Gem, a 5-year-old mare by Epic Leader out of the great performer and producer Miss Gemini Oak, by Doc’s Oak.

Her maturity mare FL Fergalicious, a 6-year-old JL Sirocco daughter of the Frenchmans Fabulous mare Ux Flit N Fabulous, ran and placed in the “Corona Class” for horses that missed running in the VGBRA Futurity last year because of the pandemic-forced cancellation.

All totaled, Flannery won nearly $45,000.

She wanted to thank her hauling partner Whitney Blackwell, Jared Sharp and Kay Lynn Francke of Idaho Equine and Simply Equine’s Heather Benson, who took her phone calls regarding the respiratory issues she was facing. She also wanted to thank the stallion owners of the horses she rode—Miladinovich, Myers Performance Horses, Schiller Ranch and Jill Lane, saying, “No way could I run at that much added money without them!”

Kelli Barichello & Im A Slick Guy Sweep Valley Girls Barrel Daze Maturities

By Tanya Randall

Kelli Barichello and the 6-year-old stallion Im A Slick Guy ("Johnny") swept the Valley Girls Barrel Daze Open and Stallion Incentive Program (SIP) Maturities at the annual event, held April 9-10 in Moses Lake, Washington. Between the two championship and open carryovers, Barichello collected $9,901 on behalf of the stallion's owners David and Elaine Sloan of Jermyn, Texas.

"It was totally last minute," the Kennewick, Washington, barrel racer said. "I actually wasn't entered in the Derby (Maturity) until the night before. I was going to run in the open. I was talking to the owners and I told them I didn't even know if I was going to run him the rest of the weekend because I didn't want to be here until 1 or 2 in the morning. They were like why don't you run him in the derby? I was the very last run and it worked out really great!"

Barichello had first climbed aboard the stallion for the American Semifinals Rodeo. When her mare Dats Last Frenchman was injured, she called the Sloans.

"They bought a 3-year-old by my stud Dats A Frenchman," she explained. "We've just stayed in touch ever since. We have a lot in common with them having a stud in Ruby Buckle. I called them before the Semifinals and said, 'I don't have anything to run. Do y'all have anything?' They said, 'Yeah. Hop on him.'"

Bred by Cathey Geary, Johnny is by leading barrel horse sire Slick By Design and out of the Frenchmans Guy mare Frenchmans Perkette, a full sister to 2017 futurity standout Guys Dashing Jet.

Two weeks ago, Barichello brought Johnny to the Northwest for the Sand Cup and Barrel Daze.

TRAINING/CONDITIONING: "I was just lightly working him and trying to figure out my first barrel secretly at the house. He's pretty easy. There's not much training to do. It's just figuring little things out that I can do to make our runs better."

"It was a little rough at first running something new," she admitted. "I think we've had a total of six runs together after this weekend. These last two runs we really clicked and put it together. He's super fun."

Running last in the draw, Barichello and Johnny won the first round of the Open and SIP Maturities with a 15.219.

"I ran him last weekend at Sand Cup and I just couldn't quite figure out what I was doing on my first barrel," she said. "He's so honest and he was just kind of waiting on me. I just didn't have it together. So, this weekend I just decided to stay really forward and help him around the first and not sit down on it so much. It's just one little move on the first and after that he is so easy to run. After I got my first barrel I was like 'Yes!' I knew it was going to be pretty easy from there. He's really cool."

The next day, Barichello admitted to being nervous because the average titles were on the line, but she and Johnny nearly repeated their prior performance, finishing second with a 15.268.

"I didn't want to let the owners down," she said. "I knew he had a really good chance of winning the maturity if I could just repeat my first barrel again. That's all I thought about going into the second round—just go do the same thing on the first, stay out of his way on it and let him work his second and third. I felt I executed that pretty well. We weren't quite as fast but it had been a pretty long weekend. The weather wasn't great up there and I was driving back and forth to Kennewick."

Barichello had also entered the Breeders Challenge after the first round. She was walking by their booth after her first run and noticed that Slick By Design was listed on the banner.

"I said, 'Wait a minute! Is the horse that I'm running in this?'" she said. "They asked did I enter? I said I didn't even know about it. It wasn't an option on the piece of paper I filled out! I didn't even know what I was running for. I didn't know they had a huge race in Texas. So, I called Elaine and said what do you think? I had to pay the full fee even though I didn't have a shot in the first round or average. They actually told me that they didn't think I should do it because it wasn't worth it since I was out of the average. I thought if it goes like it did today, we'll get qualified and it will be worth it. He ended up winning the second round and qualifying for the open. What he won pretty much paid for everything so it worked out pretty good!"

Not only did she qualify in both the derby and open, but she picked up $1,727 for the owners and $775 for Charlie Cole and Jason Martin on behalf of Slick By Design.

Barichello, who wanted to thank the Sloans and their daughter Caila Seal for the opportunity to ride Johnny, isn't sure how long Johnny will be in her barn. They'll run at Ruby Buckle, possibly some rodeos and Pink Buckle later in the year.

"We don't really have a game plan," she said. "I don't know how long I'll have in my barn, but we seem to get along pretty good. I hope for a while!"

Morrison and Inky Freckolena Excellent at X-Factor

10 yr old Bella Starr Morrison walked away from the X Factor Invitational Match with a victory over the best barrel racers in the industry, so the Barrel Racing Report caught up with her for a little bit about her big win.

BRR: Can you take us through your run in the Finals of the XFactor?

Morrison: He was really smooth, nailed his first barrel and after that I just tried to stay out of his way!

BRR: Tell us a little about you and your amazing horse Skeeter.

Morrison: I'm 10yrs old, I live in Grandfield, OK. I am homeschooled and love to goat ranch. Skeeter has been with us since January and he loves peppermint treats. He was trained by Sherry Saunders of Ranger, Tx. It was definitely a God thang... us getting him!!

BRR: What are some of your biggest wins you and Skeeter have had as a team before the XFactor?

Morrison: We qualified for the JR World finals at Alvarado, Tx and then went on to Win 6th overall at the Open Patriot race during the American.

BRR: What funny quirks does Skeeter have?

Morrison: He only likes certain treats and you can't ever tell if he is ready or not... he just acts so chill.

Fast Fun Five:

1) Something besides your phone you can't leave home without?

Morrison: Bag of craft making items

2) Favorite thing to listen to on the way to a barrel race?

Morrison: YouTube

3) Favorite horse color? Morrison: Bay

4) Favorite Hobby other than horses? Morrison: Goat ranching

5) Favorite saying? Morrison: Tiny but mighty

Sealed With A Kiss – Morgan & HR FamesKissAndTell Win RAM National Circuit Finals

By Tanya Randall

Two time National Finals Rodeo qualifier Shelley Morgan captured her first RAM National Circuit Finals Rodeo Championship aboard her 7-year-old mare HR FamesKissAndTell in Kissimmee, Florida.

“It was really cool that Kiss won in Kissimmee!” chuckled Morgan, who collected $16,372, the largest barrel racing paycheck of the 2021 season. “My sister-in-law pointed that out. She told me after our first run, ‘Well, Kiss is going to win because she’s in Kissimmee!’”

The rodeo, held April 8-10, is contested by the year-end and finals champions from the respective circuits across the United States and Canada. Morgan, along with Texas Circuit Finals Rodeo Champion Tiany Schuster represented the Lonestar State, which won top honors at the RNCFR.

“Oh Gosh! What an experience!” exclaimed Morgan, a three-time National Circuit Finals qualifier. “What a cool place to be! There’s so much to do! The hospitality at the rodeo was awesome. It was a nice venue with nice people.”

Morgan also complimented the committee for dragging halfway through the barrel racing performance.

“How awesome is that?” she said. “Everyone knows how much that means to us (barrel racers). I’m hoping if we continue to bring attention to how much we appreciate that maybe it will continue.” Morgan and Kiss, a daughter of CEO out of the Dash Ta Fame, Fire Water Flit mare Fames Fiery Kiss, started their RNCFR placing fourth in the first round out of Thursday night’s performance with a 15.04. They missed the money in the second round with a 15.02 but tied for third in the aggregate with Kelley Carrington French and Slice Of PeachFame.

Even though Morgan was one of the eight advancing to the Semi-Finals, she was filled with worry and dread. The day was hot and humid, and Kiss had a meltdown after the afternoon performance.

“She got upset because they were running broncs through that little alleyway,” Morgan explained. “She can go from ‘I’m fine’ to ‘blown up off the wall’ in a split instant. She went blown up off the wall and my husband (Rex) had to take her back to the trailer. It took her forever to recover. I was worried.”

A cycle of late afternoon rain showers that meant Kiss had to stand in the trailer on two occasions added to Morgan’s discomfort. “I’m a worrier when it comes to my horse,” she said. “I want everything to go like clockwork. With all that is going on I’m just in stress mode. This is too much. My stomach hurts. I can’t do this.” Knowing she was making her second run on the mare that day wasn’t helping either.

Kiss, on the other hand, was excelling in the situation. She and Morgan turned in a 14.80 to win the Semi-Finals and earn a spot amongst the four in the Championship Final.

“Before she made her Eight Round run, I told Rex I can’t run her twice,” Morgan recalled. She had Kinda Heavenly (“Phoebe”) saddled and waiting, so Kiss wouldn’t have to make a third run. “I can’t do it with all that’s going on. When she ran so good in the Eight Round, we were back there talking. How can I not run her? How can you not when she’s running so good?”

Kiss stepped up again and was the only horse under 15 seconds with a victorious 14.82.

“She handled it so well,” said Morgan. “She handled it better than I did. I was stressed for her. I just want her to be happy and sound. I still feel guilty but it worked out. She deserved to win because she’s the one that got us there.”

This year prize money counts toward the world standings, which promptly vaulted Morgan from 15th to the top of the WPRA with Since Kiss made all the runs at the RNCFR, Morgan said she’s going to have a break until the summer rodeos.

“The last two years, Kiss has done so well on the summer run,” said Morgan. “So, my plan is get her home and give her a break. I’ll keep her in decent shape and then get her 100 percent happy and healthy for the summer run.

That means it’s Phoebe’s time to shine. Morgan says she plans on “entering for” the 8-year-old daughter of JL Dash Ta Heaven out

"Last year was the first time I had the luxury of having two horses," Morgan said. "I spent all last year trying to figure out how to handle two horses—when and where to run who.

"I'm going to take Phoebe now. Phoebe is definitely capable.

RNCFR Shakes Up World Standings!

With the RAM National Circuit Finals Rodeo counting toward the World Standings, Shelley Morgan wasn't the only barrel racer making a move.

Kelley Carrington French and her great mare Slice Of PeachFame had their great winter capped off with a fine start to spring. They collected $13,770 at the RNCFR to move to second in the World Standings with $24,831.

Tarryn Lee and SadiesAce InThe Hole won $13,923 after winning the first round, placing second in the second and topping the two-run average at the RNCFR. Lee, who was running in honor of their late friend Lori Todd, the 2020 Turquoise Circuit Champion who passed away unexpectedly last November shortly after claiming her title, moved from 46th to 6th in the standings with $18,495.

Jessica Routier and Fiery Miss West have always done well at the RNCFR. This year their fine showing, which included the fastest time of the event, jumped them to 7th in the world with $18,080.

Reserve RNCFR Champion Lacinda Rose and her great gelding RR Meradas Real Deal moved to 11th in the World Standings with $15,203. Jessi Telford and Famous Cool Whip also gained in the standings, moving from 48 to 18 with $10,958.

She's just as capable. Kiss is a lot easier to ride and is super consistent. Phoebe—I have to cowgirl up!"

HEADIN' FOR HOME

by Sherry Morrison // Triple M (Mike Morrison Ministries)

Have you ever had to admit you made a mistake, commonly referred to as being wrrr...wrrr...wrrr...wrong? lol! It's brutal! Why is it so hard to admit when we're wrong? Because our old nature wants to do what will make us look and feel good.

Our flesh is selfish and full of pride. It wants to be the boss. It wants to be smarter than everyone else. But if we can't admit when we have failed, we will not be able to grow in the Lord because we think we've already arrived at perfection. We have not. Jesus is perfection. If we compare ourselves to Him, we have a long way to go.

Romans 2:4 says His goodness leads us to repentance. 1 Jn. 1:9 says when we ask Him for forgiveness, He is faithful and just to forgive us. As we draw nearer to His soon coming, we must judge ourselves quickly. We cannot deflect the truth, tell half truths, or lie, all to be sure we always look good. John 8:44 tells us where lying comes from.

We have a little friend that's 5. We gave him a rope a while back. The other day he was here and he told me that he'd lost his rope. Dang! So, I told Mike. Immediately he took him to the barn and gave him another one.

Little did we know until after he was in possession of the new rope, that he had "lost" the other one because he was grounded! (Nothing like rewarding bad behavior!). He didn't lie, but it was a clever play on words! This week, let's clean up our conversation. We might find we have a lot less to say! lol

Mike and Sherry Morrison pastor "Church at the Barn" in Gillette, WY. They also travel to other areas ministering at barrel races, ranches, rodeos, churches and home Bible studies.
