Good Times Rolling -- Makenzie Mayes & Chicado Win $101,500 at New Orleans Hondo Rodeo Fest

By Tanya Randall

WPRM Rookie of the Year Makenzie Mayes wasn't sure what got into Chicado Moon this past weekend, but the 8-year-old mare called "Rousey" was on fire winning $101,500 at the inaugural running of New Orleans Hondo Rodeo, held April 10-12 in the Caesars Superdome.

"She did awesome!" exclaimed the third-generation rodeo athlete from Winnsboro, Texas. "She just pinned her ears back and did her thing. This weekend she was very confident in herself. Usually, she's very laid back and walks in. Not this weekend! She was prancing and was excited and very confident! I don't know what was different about this weekend...maybe it was the crowd...maybe it was New Orleans!"

The Hondo Rodeo Fest, which features a $1 million rodeo as opening act to headlining entertainers like Cody Johnson, Lynyrd Skynyrd, Creed and Jason Aldean, is an invitation event for eight contestants competing in three rounds with a top aggregate payoff.

Mayes and Rousey were competing in their second Hondo Rodeo, having previously competed in Phoenix, Arizona, last November.

"They do such a great job putting on the rodeo," she said. "What a neat opportunity for all the contestants to win a lot of money. It's just such a fun event with concerts they put on. We get to go front row. It's just so neat."

The rodeo arena took up half of the Superdome floor with the length running from sideline to sideline of what is the Saints' football field. It was the perfect setup for Mayes and Rousey, who have had some of the biggest wins of their careers on super short courses.

Knowing that Rousey was likely to get tight over three runs, Mayes took the opportunity to slow work the mare in Friday morning practice at the venue.

"I walked her around the arena for a little bit and just slow worked her on the barrels," she said. "I worked her past the barrels because I knew she would get pretty tight with those white walls and the people sitting behind the second barrel. I also cruised her through to let her get a feel."

They won the opening round with a 13.579 and the second round with a 13.622. Each winning run was worth $12,000.

"She stayed very consistent," said Mayes. "Her first run was her very best one. She was more free and ran all the way up into her turns. She was very honest. Her second, I was clinching at the second barrel! She definitely got a little bit tight. She made me work for that one!"

Mayes had a lot riding on the third and final run. Her performance thus far had made her eligible to win the $50,000 Maverick Bonus for being the event's highest money earner, but she wasn't thinking about that at all.

"I was just thinking if we can get around the barrels, we could get the $20K!" she exclaimed.

Emily Beisel and Ivory On Fire got the third round win, but Mayes and Rousey stayed consistent with a 13.679 for second to get the $20,000 average win.

"I was trying to ask her for a little bit more room since I knew the last run she was pretty tight," she said. "On the first barrel, it felt like she was coming in a little bit, so I stayed two handed and

Their $51,500 event total also won them the Maverick Bonus. Even though it doesn't count toward any standings that money will come in handy as Mayes chases her NFR dream—one that was attained by both her father Jim Bob Mayes and grandmother Nancy Mayes.

She's currently No. 22 in the WPRA World Standings with $24,171.

"Rodeo is hard," she said, considering fuel prices and the cost

ROLLING WITH THE PUNCHES

Nearly four years ago, Chicado Moon ("Rousey") forcefully insisted Mayes consider the softness of Martha Josey's packed sandy loam arena at the Reunion Barrel Race.

Rousey, a force of nature bred by leading futurity trainer and rider Jolene Montgomery, is 1.4 million dollar sire Guys Canyon Moon out of Chicados Bully, a daughter of Chicado Cash out of futurity champion Return Of The Bully, a daughter of the highly energetic multiple futurity champion mare Less Return.

Mayes' great aunt Naoma LeBarron had purchased Rousey but a severe wound to her left hip left her stall bound for six months. When she was sound to ride again, she was extra spicy. After injuring a friend, LeBarron let Mayes have a shot at Rousey.

Arena records have fallen since Rousey made her disruptive competitive debut at Josey's as a 5-year-old. She's carried Makenzie Mayes to nearly $400,000 in career earnings, of which $101,500 came from last weekend's Hondo.

"You always dream of things like this, when you're a little girl watching the NFR and the Lisa Lockharts. . . and now getting to compete with them is a dream come true," said Mayes. "Having a horse to compete with them. . . that's just incredible. She's a once-in-a-lifetime for sure."

of her NFR dreams. "I went all summer last year, and I won almost what I had won all year at the three barrel races, the Texan and two other high stakes races."

Mayes has the second round of the pro rodeo in San Angelo on Wednesday and then another high-stakes opportunity over the weekend at The American Central Region.

Kelli Thouvenell & KT Edward Sweep VGBRA Barrel Daze Futurities, Win $20,263

By Tanya Randall

Kelli Thouvenell and her homebred gelding KT Edward swept the futurities at the Sharp Sports Medicine Barrel Daze, hosted by the Valley Girls Barrel Racing Association on April 9-12 in Moses Lake, Washington.

Thouvenell and Edward topped the 126-entry, $30,000-added Open Futurity for $9,447 and the 105-entry, $30,000-added Stallion Incentive Program Futurity for $7,942. With open and sidepot carryovers they collected $20,263 at the 48th annual event.

“He’s really been just an easy horse,” Thouvenell said of the gelding by $11.3 million sire Eddie Stinson out of her two-time National Finals qualifier RF Firefly, by Smoke N Sparks. “He wants to be a good horse and do the right thing all the time.”

The pair from Hooper, Utah, put together runs of 15.549 and 15.156 to win both aggregates. Their second run also won Sunday’s Open.

“First off, the ground was great,” she noted emphatically. “He’s the kind of horse that’s a little timid, a little apprehensive his first run. He always comes back on his second run with a little more fire and a little more confidence. He had a really great run. He was actually last on the ground and ran 4/10ths faster.”

Thouvenell had Edward going through the pattern by the BIT: Elliot Spur Up short shank locked lifter with the mouthpiece wrapped in leather. “It looks like a hotdog,” she explained. “It’s Sue’s bit and she said, ‘Here, try this on him.’ I did and I loved it. He’s chewed the mouthpiece off six times, so I keep reapplying it. He’s very light and very sensitive. He doesn’t require any help from me on the pattern. That bit works out great. It’s not as stiff as a Billy Allen (mouthpiece). It kind of curves to his mouth, but it takes some of the play out of it. He is a more bendy type horse, so I’ve done my best to keep him a little straighter when he turns. That bit helps me accomplish that.” (pictured on left) end of his third year.

“What I typically do is try to have them going through pretty good and take them to one exhibition that fall, and then I kick them out for the winter,” she explained. “I start back on them in April.”

Edward made his debut at the Bust ‘Em Out Futurity in South Jordan, Utah, the opening weekend for the 2026 season. He won the second day of the futurity and finished second in the average.

“He’s a typical big, kind gelding,” she said. “He doesn’t try to overthink anything. He just tries to do his best. He tries to be a good horse all the time, which is really different for me.”

His first major test was the Royal Crown Futurity in Buckeye, Arizona, where he placed fourth in both the Open and Royal Crown futurities. He most recently won the Glen Wood Memorial Futurity just prior to Valley Girls.

“He hasn’t been many places,” she said. “Everywhere I’ve taken him, he’s been outstanding, just so solid.”

He’s got the Idaho Barrel Futurity coming up, and Thouvenell plans on taking him to the Colorado Classic, Ruby Buckle in Utah and Royal Crown in South Dakota.

With a 12-year-old sports crazy son on a travel baseball team, Thouvenell tries to plan her racing around Nash’s games.

“Mom guilt is awful!” she said. “They don’t put it on me. I put it on myself! I actually missed a tournament to come (VGBRA),” said Thouvenell. “The UBRA Futurity in Heber is next weekend but I’m going to have to miss that one so I can go to his tournament since I missed the last one. It’s a bit of a juggle.”

QUEEN CLEO

RF Firefly (“Cleo”) carried Kelli Thouvenell to the 2009 WPRA Rookie of the Year title and qualified for the National Finals Rodeo in 2010 and 2012. When the mare’s competitive career came to an end, Thouvenell was beside herself.

“At the end of her career, I had to come to terms with the fact that she couldn’t do it anymore,” Thouvenell said. “I could inject her and keep running her or we can stop and let her have babies and move on.

“I can remember the first time I went to the vet clinic to see where she was in her heat cycle. I saw that gross OB glove hanging over the chute and I had the biggest meltdown. I had the biggest Crocodile tears, almost hyperventilating. That was the moment it hit me that it was over. The fun that we had together was over. I was inconsolable. I couldn’t quit crying the whole vet appointment.”

Thouvenell won the 2016 Valley Girls Barrel Daze on Sagey Storm the same week that Cleo’s first foal, by The Red Dasher, hit the ground. Now, she’s campaigned five of the mare’s offspring.

She once described Cleo as “an adrenaline junkie” with the way she handled the rodeo atmosphere. Her babies, though different, have that same trait.

“They’ve all been different,” she said. “Different personalities. Different styles. The one thing they all have in common is their ability to absorb pressure. The more you ask them and the more you put it on them, they just take it. They like it. It’s the craziest thing. They love pressure.” They’ve all been very successful too.

Thouvenell’s first is Smokehaus, a 10-year-old gelding by The Red Dasher, who has won pro rodeo money with his current owner Megan McLeod-Sprague. Her protégé McKenna Coronado narrowly missed the NFR last year on KT Shine Down, a 9-year-old gelding by First Down French.

She currently stands 8-year-old KT Just Fly, a futurity winning stallion by Winners Version.

Coronado also recently placed at the pro rodeo in Waxahachie, Texas, on KT Mama Said, a 7-year-old daughter of The Kandyman.

Thouvenell also has up-and-coming prospects by RR Mistakelly, A Chocolate Fury and Fly Thru The Fire as well as several frozen embryos out of the 23-year-old mare.

“This is so gratifying,” she said. “Now, I look back, I think this is even more fun than rodeoing on her. It makes me laugh that I had that big of a come-apart about it.”

Schuster and Montgomery Win Big Bucks at Wild Card in Abilene

By Julie Mankin

Three-time NFR barrel racer Tiany Schuster won the WildCard Slot Race in Abilene's Taylor Telecom Arena on April 10-12, worth $11,160, on 9-year-old Chalk Cliffs, while trainer Mollie Montgomery dominated the Futurity aboard 4-year-old Heaven's Gone Wild for $9,831 (it also placed third in the Slot Race for $5,580).

Schuster's blistering run of 14.8 on Chalk Cliffs won five different sidepots, plus his other runs placed in the Warm-Up and Open races to bring his earnings to $29,819 on the weekend. Schuster also placed in the Derby and got more Open and Sidepot money aboard her 2024 Salinas rodeo champ Shines By Design to add $4,901 to her total.

"If he was a person, he'd be Kevin Hart," Schuster said of Chalk Cliffs. "I swear I can hear Kevin's voice coming out of him sometimes. He's pretty cocky – back behind the alley he'll pop up like, 'Let's go! Let's go! Let's go!'"

Chalk Cliff's last run was actually his best, Schuster said, but didn't clock as fast. The brown gelding she and Edwin Cameron bought out of Quebec two years ago was named by his breeder – the Burns Ranch in Menifee, California – for a nearby landmark. Schuster calls him "Clifford."

He's by Separate Interest, so he goes back on the top side to Chick's Beduino, Hemen, Jet Deck and First Down Dash. And he's out of Hat D Strawfly – she goes back to Special Effort and Meridoc with more Thoroughbred blood on her bottom side.

"He's been able to win despite adversity," Schuster said. "He's had multiple throat surgeries, so I'm careful with him. I pick and choose where I take him, and I won't overuse him. He won't run again for three weeks."

Schuster describes Clifford's style as four-wheel drive—honest, gritty, and all heart. She credits trainer Mairika Morin for playing a key role in the gelding's development and success.

"He's easy, he's fun, and he gives you everything he's got," she said. With a strategic approach to hauling—and diesel prices not doing anyone any favors—Schuster is content to be selective rather than chase every rodeo.

"I've made around $50,000 on him in the last 30 days at just two

“So why rodeo? If we all put ego aside right now, there's really no reason to be running up and down the road rodeoing. The money at these barrel races is outstanding. The ground is phenomenal and the producers are amazing. And you can stay close to home and keep your horse and yourself rested.”

Meanwhile, Montgomery won the WildCard Futurity aboard Hinton Performance Horses' 4-year-old Heaven's Gone Wild, including a smoking 14.9 that won the first round of the Futurity and placed third in the Slot Race. Their runs also won huge chunks of a half-dozen different sidepots to give Montgomery and “Ferris” a total Abilene haul of $24,420. Montgomery and Ferris had already won futurities in Unadilla, Georgia, Fort Worth, Texas, and Stephenville, Texas – and it's only April.

But she wasn't done. Montgomery also trained and competes on

Ferris' full sister, Heaven's Wild Side (the siblings are by JL Dash Ta Heaven out of LegsGoneWild). Montgomery said she thinks Heaven's Wild Side could have won the first round of the Abilene futurity without a tipped second barrel. As it was, Montgomery and "Chanel" placed in the second round and earned $2,155 on the weekend.

"I think I've won $260,000 on the two of them, together – and that's without going to the BFA or the Slot Race in Oklahoma City last fall because of EHV," said Montgomery.

A decade ago, Montgomery won the 2016 BFA Juvenile Futurity and nearly $92,000 on the 4-year-olds' mother, "Legs," by Tres Seis out of a Stoli daughter.

"I rode the mother but have also been really successful on a lot of JL Dash Ta Heavens," said Montgomery of the stallion by Dash Ta Fame out of world-champion barrel mare Dynas Plain Special. In fact, Montgomery is having a bit of déjà vu, since she also had great success a decade ago on full siblings Heavenly Firewater and Feelinthefirewater – "Bud" and "Sis."

"I won $150,000 on them, each, before there were ever these big Buckle races," she pointed out.

Taycie Matthews took Bud the stud to the NFR, and his lifetime earnings are $255,332 according to QData. Another Montgomery-trained son of JL Dash Ta Heaven is Jordan Driver's Trheavensilluminated ("Cyrus") with LTE of $546,586.

"They're just superior athletes," Montgomery said of offspring of JL Dash Ta Heaven. "It's easy for them. But it comes at a cost – they need to be managed a certain way. I'm an extreme person and they are extreme horses, so that's why I think we work well together. They require a lot of consistency to become solid. People have a tendency to take them too fast, too soon, because it's so easy for them."

She said Ferris will come out of the arena and not even be breathing hard, then just walk back to his stall the way his mother did.

"It's fun when you get to this place, but I've worked my butt off on those two horses," said Montgomery of the 4-year-old siblings. "There were points during their training that I wasn't sure they were going to make it. They wanted to crossfire all the time and I couldn't get them to drive into the bridle the way I wanted. And the work is still not done. I didn't go to Waco so I could stay home and put my horses back together. Because at futurities, you're always skirting the outer limit of how far you can go."

Montgomery rides up to 17 horses a day out of the same facility where her brother and sister-in-law, Kerby and Jolene Montgomery, train.

"The place has been in my family more than a hundred years," said Molli. "My mom and dad trained racehorses there, and we use the barn my dad built."

She said having Kerby and Jolene, the rest of her family, plus her boyfriend, Jordon Chiglo, and his daughter, Emily Chiglo, who runs barrels, has been such a huge blessing and incredible.

"It's nice having people around you that really support you, and have the same vision for your future that you do," she said. "The Hintons (Jennifer & Brynn) who own Ferris & Chanel, Leslie Hayes who owns the dam and I all have a group text, and it's just fun when that many people support you."

Dusky Lynn Hall Locks Up Third Trip to The American, Wins East Regional

By Tanya Randall

Dusky Lynn Hall earned her third trip to Arlington, Texas, for The American after winning the East Regional Finals, held April 9-11 in Lexington, Kentucky. The 12-year-old from Stephenville, Texas, got the win aboard her little “Spitfire,” Chasin A Win.

“He and Dusky Lynn have the same personality,” said her mother Dusky Hall. “They’re both small, but they’re confident. They don’t let anyone tell them they can’t do something.”

The younger Hall, who made her first appearance in Arlington’s Globe Life Field in 2023 and again in 2025, started the event aboard Aint Seen Famous Yet (“Wally”). The millionaire Aint Seen Nothin Yet gelding, out of A Nasty Chick, did well but fell short of qualifying to the final round.

“Wally did good, but he kind of had some mistakes in the first round that he could clean up,” said Hall. They were just out of the money in ninth with a 15.641.

Hall took advantage of the ride time before the second round to school Wally at the third barrel.

“He’s wanting to cut me off, so I made him go way past the third,” she explained. “When we went in there to run, he went 10 miles past the third barrel!”

Their 15.866 left them 14th in the aggregate and only the Top 10 advanced.

San Antonio Rodeo Champions Anita Ellis and SGL Rico led aggregate qualifying into the sudden death Finals, held during Saturday night’s rodeo performance. Rounding out the Top 10 Finalists were Crystal Mason, Randee Prindle, Kappie Bryant, Tabitha Dyal, Missy Jean Etheridge, Bayleigh Choate, Bria Vogel, Christian Shipley and Emily Wilkins. They were joined by invitees Oceane Veilleux and Yasmin Rissi de Oliveira.

Hall had no choice but to try to run her way back in through the Redemption Round, where she opted to ride Spit. They just made it into the Finals, running third with only three advancing.

Incidentally, all three that advanced ran in Hall’s drag. Hall and Spit were No. 16 and ran a 15.443. They were immediately followed by Kelly Bowser and Quarento Tres’s 15.411 and Rhaylen Maloy and Madam Made Me Epic’s 15.186, the fastest run of the event at that point.

“That was pretty nerve wracking,” said Hall. The win in the 27-entry Redemption Round paid $1,080.

For the Finals, Hall chose to run Spit again even though her mother Dusky wanted her to ride Wally because he had the rodeo experience that Spit lacked. To give Spit a preview of what was to come, her mom led the gelding into the pen by the camera crew.

“He had never been anywhere where bulls were being loaded and there were ropes and loud noises like that,” her mom said. “I just let him look. He just stood there and was like ‘OK.’ That sort of thing makes Wally come unwound basically. Spit, it doesn’t bother at all. Wally’s an amazing horse but that kind of stuff...you’ve got to get him used to it. Spit got no ride time, no exhibitions. We used all that up for Wally. Spit had to run in there cold turkey for the Redemption Round.”

The next run, however, was during a rodeo performance and like the younger Hall figured, Spit didn’t care.

“He just went in there and did his job,” her mom added. “He didn’t even look up at the crowd. He’s small, so he definitely has to have this big confidence aura about him, and he does. We were really proud of him.”

By the time Hall and Spit ran at draw No. 12, Randee Prindle and her great gelding Red Man Jones were winning with a 15.2 and a 15.6 was qualifying in the fifth position to advance to Arlington. Hall knew that a clean run with Spit’s speed would likely get them qualified to run at Globe Life Field.

“I knew all I had to do was keep the barrels up because (Spit) is so fast,” said Hall. “We had a million mistakes when we ran the 15.4, so I knew his speed would get us there.”

Although Spit got his start running barrels in the deeper footing in Georgia, the ground in Lexington challenged the 13.3 hand gelding.

“He really didn’t like the ground,” Hall said. “At the first barrel, he went to suck down like he always does and he was like this is not the ground I like. I was like Spit! You’ve got to keep running! You cannot be just standing here, worrying about the ground!”

They clocked the fastest run of the event, a 15.177, to win $10,000 and punch their ticket to Arlington.

“Spit just laid one down,” Hall said. “I knew he could run there. If he wouldn’t have went to the hotdog stand at the third barrel he could have been an .0 or a .9

“Spit is very automatic. He does it for you. I think anybody could ride him if they could hold on because he’s so fast. The more I’m out of my horses’ way the better they are because they’re so automatic.”

Although she has spots to compete at the American Central Region this weekend, Hall won’t be competing since she’s already qualified. Rules also prevented her from using the same horses at both events, even if she was to compete for day money, and her other available horses are on the mend.

JH Firewater Honor is recovering from a crack in his hoof wall that they’ve battled since purchasing him a little over a year ago and KD Baby Driver got sick after the family moved from Huntsville to Stephenville and isn’t back in his winning form yet.

“She was running out of bullets,” her mom said. “I’m glad she made it because Oklahoma City would have been a little tricky, having two spots and having already used the two horses she has up in Kentucky.”

ACE IN THE HOLE

For the second straight year the blood of W R Aces Fame topped The American East Championship.

In 2025, Taycie Matthews rode Fame Fire Rocks (“Poppy”) to the title and this year Chasin A Win (“Spit”) carried Dusky Lynn Hall. Poppy is a daughter of W R Aces Fame and Spit is by her son Chasin Aces N Fame, by Chasin Firewater.

In addition to those two, W R Aces Fame has produced Chasin Aces N Fame’s younger full brother, Chasin Aces And Fame, a pro rodeo winning gelding, owned and ridden by Laura Lambert, National High School Rodeo finalist and Junior NFR Senior Barrel Racing Champion Frenchmans Aces, a Frenchmans Fabulous gelding owned by Abigail Olson, and 2024 5-State Futurity Champion Tres Aces, a gelding by Magnum.

Raised by the Webb family of Fruitland, New Mexico, W R Aces Fame is a graded stakes winning daughter of Dash Ta Fame. Her dam is the multiple graded stakes winner of $313,416, WR Red Ace, a daughter of Lucky Aces N Eights out of WR Cassia, by Casady Casanova.

WR Red Ace is a full sister to LA Cassia, who produced champion barrel horses Lady La Dash and LA Fame. WR Cassia is the dam of proven barrel horses and producers Miss Fortunes Fool and Silver Creek Dash.

Industry Heavyweights to Sponsor Military Cowboys and Cowgirls

A handful of industry sponsors have stepped up to create a new initiative in rodeo by partnering with military veterans as endorsees. Resistol Hats, Equinety, Cactus Ropes and RopeSmart are each signing a select group of military vets into a patch program with its own logo.

"We're all about the red, white and blue over here," said Barry Berg of Cactus Ropes, which already backs GOATS like Trevor Brazile, Clay O'Brien Cooper, Jake Long and Lari Dee Guy. "There are a lot of veterans who rope, which surprised me. We just wanted to do something above and beyond for the men and women who made sacrifices for us."

Two of the new endorsees are currently president and vice president of the Professional Armed Forces Rodeo Association (PAFRA), and are also its defending world champion header and heeler – Aaron Auld and Travis Beck.

"The men and women of this country who protect all of us and allow us to have this lifestyle where we rope – nothing I'll ever do will seem like enough to thank them," said RopeSmart founder John McCarthy, whose team of existing endorsees includes Clint Summers, Tyler Wade, Dustin Egusquiza, John Douch and Joey Williams.

Resistol, the official hat of the PRCA, recently honored America's 250th birthday by presenting a limited-edition Resistol 1776 to President Trump in March at the White House. The company's CEO, team roper Dustin Noblitt, is glad to give back to veterans and said Resistol routinely donates hats to armed-services fund-raising efforts and is available to back affiliated events that benefit vets.

Meanwhile, Equinety, a maker of amino-acid supplements for horses, is one of roping's newest big sponsors and recently funded the Lazy E Arena's brand-new Equinety Center at the home of the Bob Feist Invitational and USTRC National Finals.

"When I was approached with the idea of doing a special military patch program, my first reaction was, 'That is so awesome – we're all over that,'" said John Dowdy of Equinety, which also backs world champs Taylor Munsell, Paul Eaves, Kaleb Driggers and Junior Nogueira.

"Roping is one of those things a vet can do as a hobby or part-time," said McCarthy, who served seven years in the U.S. Air Force before developing training aids and roping

HEADIN' FOR HOME

by Sherry Morrison // Triple M (Mike Morrison Ministries)

Since spring is trying to spring, yard work and baby things come to mind. In the western world, we grow things. Horses, cows, sheep, chickens (if your husband lets you), hay, grain and assorted other things.

And there is a method to our madness. WE WANT MORE OF THE THING WE ARE GROWING! If no fruit comes from our livestock, we cull them. Our heavenly Father put that in us.

Please read John 15:1-8. Jesus instructs us to stay attached to Him and bear MUCH fruit. Sometimes we tend to grow stuff in our life that needs pruned off. We need to get rid of whatever that is. In the margin I wrote, "Pruned if you do, pruned if you don't".

Verse 5 tells us that we need to stay attached to Him so we CAN bear more fruit and we're not all withered up! In the natural, when we cut off the unproductive, we see such wonderful results. Let's take inventory and get rid of those things that weigh us down.

Mike and Sherry Morrison pastor "Church at the Barn" in Gillette, WY. They also travel to other areas ministering at barrel races, ranches, rodeos, churches and home Bible studies. Check out our schedule online. You can also download all Bible studies by visiting our website: m-m-m.org or contact us at: PO Box 2439, Gillette, WY 82717, 307/685-2272.
