Michele McLeod & Slick By Design Dominate Rodeo Corpus Christi

By Tanya Randall

Slick By Design loves to run barrels. The 9-year-old black stallion, owned by Charlie Cole and Jason Martin's High Point Performance Horses, took a day off from the breeding shed to smoke a victorious 13.49 at Rodeo Corpus Christi on the Texas coast to added $5,203 to Michele McLeod's 2016 National Finals Rodeo Fund.

"He was really using his hind end and really accelerating from behind," said McLeod, Whitesboro, Texas. "When he's done that before, he really puts on a show. It's a lot of fun when he does that; it puts a smile on your face for sure."

She also credited reined cowhorse trainer Ron Ralls for keeping Slick tuned while she was on the road running other horses.

"Ronnie basically works on keeping him framed right and keeping his footwork correct," she said. "He loves to go to Ron and Patty's. At Corpus, Slick's footwork was phenomenal. In those little pens, you can't take any extra steps—that costs you a lot. He just used his body correct and everything else was great. He felt phenomenal."

McLeod had flown in from California to make her run in Wednesday morning slack, and she commended the rodeo committee on the improved ground conditions for slack, noting the ground wasn't as deep as it was in the past.

"This year the ground seemed a lot better in slack," she said. "They usually win that rodeo out of a perf but I knew when he ran that time it was really fast for that pen. I just hoped that I would hold on for a check, so I was surprised when the perms started that no one was outrunning me."

The only one to come close was fellow NFR qualifier Cassidy Kruse, who posted a 13.55.

"He's really strong right now," said McLeod. "He's felt great since the (NFR). We prepared well going into the NFR. I feel like if he hadn't of had that little setback in the last round (he stumbled in the alley way and caught his front leg with a hind foot) we would had an even better January. As it was he had to sit out of Denver, Rapid (City) and Fort Worth.

"We have our horse back from 2013. It's taken a couple of years, but he's gotten over the lung issue. He feels great. He loves what he does and he proves it every time he comes back from a break or the breeding barn. Slick truly loves to run barrels. You can tell when you're sitting in back waiting your turn. He's just happy to be there. He loves being in the trailer going. Right now, he feels better

ERA Launches 2016 Qualifying Series

Elite Rodeo Athletes (ERA) announced a partnership today with the historic Mesquite Championship Rodeo (MCR), which will give rodeo athletes an opportunity to earn a spot on the 2016 World Championship Roster. The 2016 ERA Qualifying Series at the MCR Arena will take place every Saturday night July 2nd through October 1st and feature a win to advance format familiar to many sports fans.

"We want the ERA to be about the very best talent, so we designed the 2016 qualifying system so that all rodeo athletes have a way to earn a place at the World Championship based on their ability," said Ryan Motes, ERA Athlete and Qualifying System Committee member.

Brady Wilson, MCR Corporate Sales Director said, "Mesquite Championship Rodeo is excited to do our part in writing history with the ERA. For 59 years, fans have been coming to Mesquite to see both the Legends and Rookies make their mark in Professional Rodeo. Many of the cowboys and cowgirls currently on tour with the ERA got their start at Mesquite, and we look forward to watching the next generation of competitors pursue the title of Elite Rodeo Athlete."

In 2016, two qualifying contestants in each discipline will advance from Mesquite and go up against the ERA Premier Tour seeded athletes to vie for a 3 million dollar purse during the 5-day World Championship event in Dallas at The American Airlines Center, November 9-13, 2016.

Prize money isn't the only thing they will be battling for at the ERA World Championship. Athletes finishing in the top 7 of the 2016 ERA World Standings, will secure a position on the 2017 ERA Premier Tour. Any contestants that find themselves outside the top 7 in the 2016 ERA World Standings will "fall off" and have the ability to rise again through the 2017 ERA Qualifying Series.

Much like in other professional sports, the 2016 ERA Qualifying Series and the ERA Premier Tour will be point based, with heavier point values associated with winning at a higher level of competition.

The 2016 ERA Qualifying Series at MCR will consist of a bracketed format where athletes will advance through a series of events over the 14-week schedule.

Series A, B, C - July 2nd – August 27th

The first nine weeks is divided into three separate qualifying series. For timed event entries, there will be an open tryout (slack) held for each series (A, B and C), where the top 24 athletes in each discipline will advance to one of the three performances within that particular series. Rough stock entries will be filled by preference for the three performances within each series. Eight athletes in each discipline will compete in one of the three performances within that series (A, B and C). The top 3 athletes (from each discipline, performance, and from each series) will advance to the semifinals.

SemiFinals – Sept. 2nd – 24th

A total of nine athletes will compete in one of four performances during the four-week ERA Qualifying Series Semifinals. The top 2 athletes (from each discipline, performance, and from each Semifinals) will advance to the ERA Qualifying Series Finals.

ERA Qualifying Series Finals

A total of eight athletes will compete in the two-round ERA Qualifying Series Finals at MCR on October 1-2, 2016. The top 2 athletes from the ERA Qualifying Series Finals will join the ERA Roster for the $3 Million Dollar purse at the ERA World Championship in Dallas, Texas November 9-13, 2016 which will be televised LIVE on FOX Sports 2.

than ever and it's really exciting. We're going to place him where we want so he doesn't spend as many hours in the trailer as he's done in the past. But it makes for a very exciting year to know that I have a couple of other horses that I can run and then pick when and where I want to run Slick."

The son of leading barrel horse sire Designer Red out of Dreams Of Blue, by Dream On Dancer, has stayed in Texas for his breeding duties, while McLeod and her daughter Katelyn headed to California with the second string. Immediately following her slack run in Corpus, McLeod was back on a plane for California. She ran at Red Bluff last weekend and has Lakeside and Clovis this week before returning to Texas.

Slick will likely run at Guymon and Duncan, Okla., and possibly Helotes, Texas, but won't make any long trips until after breeding season. McLeod will go back out to California for the Champions Challenge in Redding but she doubts Slick will be on the trailer.

"I'm anticipating on running him at Reno and some of the ones over the Fourth of July," she said. "I don't think we'll take him to Calgary this year. I think we'll leave him in the States.

Jason and Charlie have agreed that we'll have a separate rig for Slick and I just have to figure out the logistics. He won't go on those long hauls this summer."

McLeod is currently third in the WPRA World Standings with $53,526.

"Hopefully, I'll do well then I don't have to go on those long hauls either! Maybe I can back off a little bit!" added McLeod with a laugh. "I have a really want to go attitude this year. There are so many rodeos out there and so many that we haven't ever been to. We're kind of looking at that. It's just fun; it's a lot of fun."

Fanning The Flames -- Taylor Langdon & Vegas Firefighter Smoke 'Em In Red Bluff

By Tanya Randall

No one has been more surprised about her 2016 rodeo season than Taylor Langdon. The Aubrey, Texas, barrel racer and her talented young mare Vegas Firefighter topped the Red Bluff Roundup in California for $5,984.

"It's been exciting," said Langdon, who currently sits 15th in the WPRA World Standings with $22,599. "I thought I was going to stay home this year and season Vegas this year. I have a young Dash Ta Fame colt that I was going to get going. We really didn't have any intentions of doing what we're going, but she just came on so strong. When you've got one going like that it's kind of hard to stay home. We're enjoying every minute of it right now!"

At Red Bluff, all contestants get their first run in slack on Friday morning with the Top 36 coming back to fill three performances through Sunday. After torrential rains earlier in the week, the Red Bluff committee went above and beyond to have good ground for slack.

"They were scooping mud out for slack, and they had it incredible," said Langdon. "They did not have to work that hard (for us). They were just incredible getting it ready. The Red Bluff committee was just amazing."

Langdon and Vegas placed second in the first round and made their second run on Sunday.

"We've had one other walk-in and set-up pen," said Langdon. "I just didn't know how she would handle the ground. That first barrel is kind of in the middle of nowhere. She just impressed me so much, because the ground is so different out there. The first round, she just smoked a run. I couldn't have asked her to be any better."

first barrel and I felt how hard it was I was like just keep going, she can handle it. She never gave up. She never missed a beat. She gave me everything she had. She was just amazing.”

Bred by Jim and Sonya Walz of Walz Performance Horses in Ainsworth, Neb., Vegas, 6, is by Ima Firefighter, a son of the legendary Fire Water Flit out of Ima Copper Bug Too, a granddaughter of Bugs Alive In 75 that qualified for three Canadian National Finals Rodeos. Her dam is Vegas Heat is the daughter of NFR sire Dashin Is Easy out of a daughter of NFR sire Sixarun.

The Walz sold Vegas, then named Dashin Firefighter, as a weanling to Caroline Dodwell at the JB Quarter Horses Creating Legends Sale in 2010 for $2,100. Langdon's father Tony purchased the filly a month later as a Christmas present for his daughter.

“Since I was off rodeoing, we sent her off to Joy Wargo, and she's who trained her and futurited her for me,” Langdon explained. “We ran her as a 5-year-old. I picked her up from Joy after the BFA in December. I just started running her and trying to get with her, taking her to some jackpots and stuff in January.” They went to Belton, Texas, their first rodeo together, in early February.

“We were in the slack, and we were just out of placing,” Langdon recalled. “We went to McAlester, Okla., and caught a check there. We had already entered Tucson, so we figured we'd might as well go and see what she thinks of the big outdoor pens. I just couldn't believe it. We placed in the first round and won the second round and third in the short go and was second overall. She loved every minute of it—the performance, the big pen. After that, we were like we might as well go out to California!”

Langdon wanted to thank the Walz for raising Vegas, Wargo for her great job training the mare and her family and sponsors for all their support.

“I couldn't do this without them,” she said. “It takes a team to do this.”

I love Oxy Fluidity. It's such a great product to use on a weekly basis and pre-race if needed. The horses I am currently hauling stay on this product. I give a weekly dose every Monday of 20 cc and get the exact results I am looking for!

Headin' For Home

by Sherry Morrison
Triple M (Mike Morrison Ministries)

It's pretty easy to look at what's going on in the world today and not be able to sleep nights. There are some serious situations out there. And I know that some of you are experiencing serious situations right at home. We all have at one time or another. Oh but how I love the times when everything is going great!

And like everything else that affects us, God has ALL the answers. And He gives us practical steps/examples every day...if we will see them.

I love to have my grandchildren over! We had them over this last weekend for the night. The youngest, Cylee, is five. EVERY SINGLE TIME in the last 6 months that we went to get them, once she was in the car, would LOUDLY proclaim, "THIS IS GOING TO BE MY BEST NIGHT (OR DAY) EVAHHH!" It is so funny! This time, when she told me that, God spoke to my heart and said, "You should be saying that every day, too....." Well, as I said before, the world is in serious shape. And because Mike and I pastor a church, we get to hear how serious things are in peoples' homes. Some days I don't consider it to be the "best day evahhh".

So, God being a good God, has the answers.

Matthew 6:25-34 tells us not to worry about tomorrow, God takes care of us.

James 1:2-8 says to count it joy when we have trouble, because when we ask for wisdom, God gives it.

Matthew 7:11 – If we know how to give good gifts to our children, how much more will God give us good things.

So after she rode the horse, drove the 4-wheeler sitting in my lap doing chores, held her favorite chicken and had ice cream, it was a great day!!! Why do we consider these things work???!!!! We are looking at them in the wrong perspective! Have your best day evahh!
