Dona Kay Rule & High Valor Set Rapid Pace to $20,358 San Angelo Rodeo Victory

By Tanya Randall

The 90th San Angelo Rodeo saved the best barrel racer for last. Three-time National Finals Rodeo qualifier Dona Kay Rule and her great horse High Valor were the last through the gate in the Final Round and turned in the fastest run of the rodeo performances to win the $45,000-added rodeo.

Rule's $20,358 victory jumped her to third in the WPRA World Standing with $56,225.

"It was so exciting!" said Rule, who wanted to thank the rodeo committee and her husband, John. "I knew it would be. It was a lot Held throughout the first three weekends of April, the San Angelo Rodeo actually started with slack on March 25. All barrel racers got to make their first run in the 1st Community Credit Union Spur Arena. The top 120 advanced to the performances and the top 12 on two runs made the short round.

"We really appreciate having a jackpot-style slack because they have so many," said Rule. San Angelo is one of the richest rodeos without entry limits. "They drug (every six runners). I know it's hard for the committees to understand, but it makes such a difference and is really appreciated so much."

Rule and Valor finished second in the first round. Their 14.48 was just a tick behind Wenda Johnson and Steal Money's 14.47.

The two wouldn't make their second round performance in the Foster Communications Coliseum until April 14, so Rule took the time to "score" Valor at a couple of jackpots.

"I went to two different jackpots in the local area, needing some confidence runs and time to relax in the alley," she explained. "We get pretty tied up worrying that we're going to get a fine or mess up a production by taking too long in the alley. By going to those jackpots, you can take your time and reset mentally in the alley. I won both of those so that was even better. He feels really, really good."

On their second run back in San Angelo, Rule and Valor tied for fifth with World Champion Jordon Briggs and Famous Lil Jet with a 14.28 on a night that saw multiple Girls Rodeo Association World Champion Betty Dusek, 91, win the fan award while the committee

Rule and Valor's run aggregate gave them a tie for the lead going into the Final with Shannon McReynolds and Minie Gun, who won the second round in 14.12.

For their Final run, Rule was able to keep her 13-year-old mount well contained and focused despite having to wait in the holding pen under the stands until the very end.

"It's hard to keep any of them quiet," she said. "With Valor, the best thing to do is just relax. He looks to me to see if we're scared, are we nervous, are we happy. I try to put the best stuff forward that I can to make him feel confident. As long as I'm confident, he follows suit usually."

When Rule and Valor quietly lined up in the alley, roping legend and rodeo guru Joe Beaver, who was commentating for the Cowboy Channel, knew what was about to happen.

"When she gets him in the alley like that—calm and cool and sent to the first—he usually clocks," he told the audience. "She's fixing to put them away. When she gets him in the alley set up like that, you can pay Dona Kay Rule!"

They turned in the fastest time of the event and only run below 14-seconds, a 13.96, to win the short and take the three-run aggregate—at the largest winter rodeo—by a half-second!

"I love Joe Beaver," said Rule, also a longtime roper. "He sees the whole picture. He'll by golly tell you the truth. Even if it isn't good, you'd better listen still! He knows what he's talking about!"

Rule said the run felt "really good."

"I was trying to be completely calm and let him work," she said. "In most circumstances—including branding—it's best to stay out of the way. That's what I tried to do and just stay in the middle." Making the win extra special was that her husband got to go with her.

"We were calving and he had several art projects that were on deadline," she said. "He finally had a window that he could go. We had a wonderful time. It was beautiful country. We really enjoyed the trip."

Rule has Lufkin and Athens, Texas, coming up as well as a circuit rodeo in Cheyenne, Oklahoma, before she takes a little hiatus.

"I've got some things coming up that I'm going to have to take a little break so I'm grateful San Angelo went like it did," said Rule, who plans to be back on the road for the Fourth of July run.

Stevi Hillman & Cuatro Fame Win Second Red Bluff Round-Up

By Tanya Randall

Six-time National Finals Rodeo qualifier Stevi Hillman and her great horse Cuatro Fame ("Truck") won their second title at the $20,000-added Red Bluff Round-Up, held April 15-17, in northern California. They won their first title there in 2017.

This year's championship was worth $8,991, which bumped Hillman in the 13th in the WPRA World Standings with $25,201 won on the season.

The rodeo veteran wanted to thank the Red Bluff rodeo committee for their efforts on behalf of the contestants.

"They really try to take care of the contestants," she said, "and I really appreciate them dragging at six and doing what they can within their control to help us out on the ground."

All contestants got their first round in slack on Friday. The top 36 were seeded into the three performances while the remaining contestants got their second run in a second slack an hour after the first Hillman and Truck were second in the first round with a 17.32 on the outdoor standard pattern to Payton Schoeppach and The Mafia Boss's 17.29.

"They drug every six," Hillman noted. "That made slack really nice this year. We really appreciate the rodeo committees doing that. It makes such a difference. Out here when they'd drag every 10 or 12, it would get pretty deep at the bottom. I felt slack was really good."

They came back with the fastest run of the rodeo, a 17.10, in Sunday's afternoon performance to win the two-run aggregate.

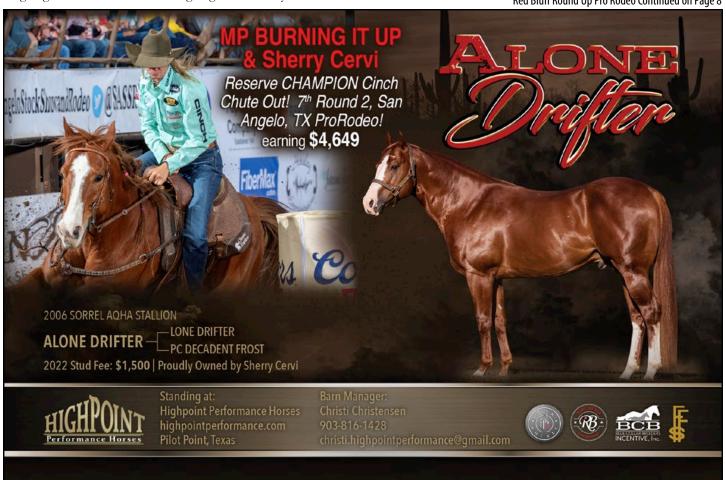

"Truck likes the afternoon perfs and the crowd, so we were happy to be up yesterday," said Hillman. "Friday night it rained during the perf, Saturday it was kind of wet. Yesterday, it was kind of cloddy. You never know what it's going to do with the weather. If it's going to rain too much or if it's going to be too dry. I feel like it was good yesterday."

High diesel prices almost kept Hillman from making the trip to California.

"I did question it and we did consider not coming out here Red Bluff Round Up Pro Rodeo Continued on Page 8

because of that," said Hillman, who glanced out the window to see that diesel was $6.30-something a gallon. "We had a sponsor step up and we're grateful for their support to help make that decision easier."

The key factor though was Truck, who simply loves the California rodeo setups.

"Last year we were just a little unsure why he was getting a little slower at the end," she said. "We also came out here to see where Truck was at after his break. We know he likes the big pens and this ground. It's worked in his favor. He's feeling really good and we're thankful for that."

At 15, Truck is one of the older horses going in the WPRA's Top 15. He's Dash Ta Fame's all-time leading money earner with more than $615,000 and has played a huge role in all of Hillman's qualifications. In fact, he's won enough to get there all but last year, when Famous Lemon Drop earned the lion's share.

"Toward the end of the year, he wasn't clocking great," she noted. "I could just tell he was just getting tired. He's a little older. I just felt like the last two years, I noticed his age showing a little bit." Truck, who is out of the Streak Laico Bird mare Princess Streaks, was given six months off—the longest of his career. He made his first run back on February 7 at the Parker County Arena in Weatherford, Texas, and was fourth.

"I was a little nervous bringing him back," she said. "but he'd never come back that strong before for his first run back." She told her husband Ty that running Truck was like putting on a tailor-made glove.

"I know him so well, like the back of my hand," she said. "To hear myself say that now—if you'd have asked me that five years ago--"This horse is so hard to ride!' He's become my guy and I definitely know his moves."

While having great help when he's needed it has prolong his career, Hillman said she and Ty have made Truck's happiness their Hillman and Truck will run at Clovis, Springville and possibly Lakeside, California, this weekend. In the meantime, she'll jackpot on her younger crew in the trailer—TSH Pendleton, MCM Rocket Man ("Elton") and Luv My Design ("Desi").

After Clovis, she and Ty will drive straight to Guthrie, Oklahoma, for the Ruby Buckle, where Elton and Desi are entered.

Come May, Truck will get another little break.

"He usually gets a little bit of a break in May because it's the deeper Texas rodeos," said Hillman, who will likely have Lemon Drop back from her breeding duties. "He never likes those."

Truck prefers firmer rodeo ground, and at this point, what Truck wants, Truck gets.

BARREL RACING REPORT NEWS

BBR World Finals This Week!

The Better Barrel Racers World Finals kicks off today in Oklahoma City, Oklahoma. The BBR World Finals runs from April 19-24 and includes the World Finals, Gold Card Race and Futurity.

The World Finals has a record number of entries with 2219 horses entered in the Open Race alone plus all the horses entered in the Futurity and other various races available throughout the week, so it will be a busy week of action at the OKC Fairgrounds!

To kick off the week there will be a welcome reception Wednesday April 20 at 7 pm in the Barn 3 Trade Show Area featuring Team Teton Ridge world champion athletes Sherry Cervi, Hailey Kinsel and Brittany Pozzi Tonozzi along with singer/songwriter and multigenerational ranching cowgirl Jenna Paulette.

The Open Race starts Wednesday and runs through Saturday with the Finals on Sunday. The Futurity runs both Thursday and Friday.

For a full schedule, webcast, results and all important BBR World Finals information just go to www.BetterBarrelRaces.com and click on the World Finals logo in the middle of the page or click BBR World Finals under the Shows tab. All the information you need is right there!

Good luck to all the contestants up in OKC this week!

WCRA Inks Deal with Lazy E

World Champions Rodeo Alliance (WCRA) today announced a partnership with the Iconic Lazy E Ranch and Arena, welcoming the organization as the official presenting sponsor of the WCRA Triple Crown of Rodeo (TCR). The TCR is an award that will pay a $1 million bonus to any one or collection of athletes who win first in any three consecutive WCRA TCR events.

Along with the bonus now being called the Triple Crown of Rodeo Presented by Lazy E, the legendary ranch and arena will serve as a year-long sponsor of WCRA and will present the $1 million cash award.

"Lazy E is an iconic Western Sports brand. They are the gold standard in equine breeding and represent the values WCRA was founded upon and celebrate," said Bobby Mote, WCRA President. "This is about as natural and authentic as a WCRA brand partnership can get, and I am personally eager to watch someone take home that $1 Million payday with the famous Lazy E mark on it."

Under the Reliance Ranches ownership, The Lazy E Ranch is located southeast of Guthrie, Oklahoma and was established in December 1984. The Lazy E Arena is located on this private ranch and is the largest indoor arena dedicated to western sports in America.

"Lazy E Ranch and Arena is proud to be part of the Triple Crown of Rodeo where some of the most authentic and diverse group of athletes in the rodeo world are showcased," said Dan Wall, Lazy E General Manager and VP." Lazy E has set the standard of what it means to produce and foster champion equine, similar to WCRA who continues to raise the rodeo bar and progress the western sports industry."

The Lazy E Ranch is a premier equine breeding and sales prep facility and stands many of the world's top racing American Quarter Horse stallions. The Lazy E Ranch opened its gates in the fall of 1984 and since that time has been involved in both the Quarter Horse and Thoroughbred racing industries. With the purchase of World Champion and World Champion sire Special Effort in 1989, the Lazy E began to earn recognition as one of the top Quarter Horse breeding operations in the country.

Currently-Tacy Kay Webb, a 24-year-old ICU Nurse has positioned herself to win the TCR. For Webb, fresh off her win at Cowtown Christmas Championship Rodeo, the event marked her second consecutive WCRA Major win, putting her in contention to be a millionaire. If Webb triumphs at May's Rodeo Corpus Christi, she will be the first victor of the WCRA Triple Crown of Rodeo $1 Million Bonus and the first woman in rodeo to become an overnight millionaire.

All athletes from around the globe have the opportunity to compete in the WCRA Major Events Series and compete for the TCR after qualifying through the WCRA Virtual Rodeo Qualifier (VRQ). All rodeo athletes interested in learning more about the VRQ should be directed to wcrarodeo.com while those inquiring more about the TCR may visit triplecrownofrodeo.com.

Some failure in life is inevitable.

It is impossible to live without failing at something, unless you live so cautiously that you might as well not have lived at all — in which case, you fail by default.

HEADIN' FOR HOME

by Sherry Morrison // Triple M (Mike Morrison Ministries)

unday, we celebrated Resurrection Day! NOW WHAT? I'm glad you asked.

Jesus was crucified, went to hell to pay for my sins and your sins.....and ROSE AGAIN! What a great time to start over in our hearts.

Maybe we've been getting sloppy. Maybe we've dabbled in some things we know are wrong. Maybe we've made excuses for ourselves and let our flesh have its way. Eating too much, judging, gossiping, being lazy, critical, and fearful. Sheesh! Those things add up, don't they? BUT GOD. When we spend time with Him, read His word, go to church, give, help, and encourage others, those other things seem to diminish in our lives.

Now what? Let's ask God to forgive us and let's start over this week! When any temptation comes, we push them away. A huge weight will come off of us.

Spring is here! So is Jesus! It's a new day, a new season! Put Him first and feel joy overwhelm you!
