Could 2014 Be Lisa Lockhart's Year?

Is this Lockhart's year?

By Julie Mankin

The winter run has come to a close, and as the players in the NFR race head for the West Coast, here's a rundown on the contest this season.

On 9-year-old Scooten Ta Fame, Shelly Anzick of Montana has arguably won as much as any cowgirl can win in wintertime without RodeoHouston. Anzick has banked almost $40,000 through March – which is more than anyone had in 2013 through the same weekend.

However, since Houston counted this year, she's third in the world standings. Lisa Lockhart leads the standings in April for the first time with a whopping $58,802 earned on 11-year-old Louie. The past two years at this same point in time, she'd earned almost exactly $27,000 each year. Still, it's early – an extra $30,000 wouldn't have changed a thing in Las Vegas for Lockhart in 2013. And Nancy Hunter – having entered just two rodeos on 14-year-old Fuzz – sits second.

Regarding how the paychecks from this winter rodeos stacked up against those from last year, the good news is that four of the nine rodeos paid the winner more – although five paid the winner a little less. Here are your winter winners:

Odessa: Christy Loffin $4,813 (Taylor/Squires won $4,848 each in 2013)

Denver: Mary Walker $7,906 (Melby won $10,676 in '13)

Fort Worth: Shelly Anzick $15,125 (Jacob won $14,796 in '13)

Rapid City: Jessica Miller $4,342 (Diaz won $4,850 in '13)

Tucson: Ann Scott $7,172 (Smith won $6,735 in '13)

San Angelo: Jana Bean $13,181 (Walker won $14,592 in '13)

San Antonio: Sabrina Ketchum $20,839 (Brazile won $16,866 in '13)

Houston: Nancy Hunter $55,000 (Hunter won $53,000 in '13)

Austin: Natalie Foutch $7,047 (Carlee Pierce won $8,783 in '13)

It was 2012 the last time Houston was sanctioned, and back then, standings leader Carlee Pierce had banked $68,000 by April 1 – which didn't come close to the staggering $73,000 that 2011 winter leader Brittany Pozzi racked up on that April Fool's Day. Interestingly, Pierce lost that world title to Mary Walker and Pozzi lost the 2011 title to Lindsay Sears.

But truly, the winter run doesn't mean everything. Last year, Michele McLeod was not even in the top 20 on April 1st and Sherry Cervi had only earned $23,000. Both later entered the NFR with world-title chances and Cervi took a commanding lead into Las Vegas.

The girls in the top seven can take comfort – each of the top seven from the April 2013 standings ended up making the NFR.

Natalie Foutch, however, at eighth, missed the cut with $22,000 earned in April. This season, despite having just won Austin, Texas, she hasn't cracked the top 20 yet. Eighth right now is, in fact, McLeod.

Newcomers looking good for a 2014 NFR are Jana Bean, Anzick and of course, Hunter, who at 57 will likely qualify for her first NFR after 40 years of WPRA membership. Anzick would be returning after a handful of years and for Bean, a wife and mother from south Texas who rides 9-year-old Heza Bug Leo, an NFR trip would be a milestone on her already impressive resume.

Bean had another good week at circuit rodeos recently to bring her total to $31,576 (she won both Nacogdoches and Graham, Texas, and placed at Lubbock for a nice $4,429). Tana Poppino and Mary Burger also made a great showing last week in Texas; each placing at both Graham and Nacogdoches.

The biggest splash lately in the Southeast was made by Callie DuPerier, who placed at Ocala, Fla., after winning Montgomery, Ala., and Lake City, Fla., for a total of $4,023. She hasn't yet cracked the top 30, however.

Just a bit of trivia – the top 20 horses in the world through April 1 were produced by several different stallions and mares, except for the fact that Dash Ta Fame can claim six of the top 20 while Blazin Jetolena and Dr. Nick Bar have produced two each.

Finally, one cowgirl who used the winter run to land seventh in the world, has got to be licking her chops far more for the coming spring run. If Trula Churchill can duplicate her unbelievable April and May in California from last year – in which she banked $18,544 by winning or grabbing second at Red Bluff, Clovis, Lakeside, Sonora, Riverdale and Redding – she will kick off the summer run with more than $50,000 already in the bank.

But don't think those springtime Texas rodeos don't add up, too. This should be interesting!

Perculatin aka Latte Sells

According to Lt. Michael Tobey of the Ellis County Sheriff's Office, 2012 WPRA/AQHA Horse of the Year, Perculatin (Latte) sold for $850,000 to Rose Thorn, L.P., on Friday morning, March 28 in Waxahachie, TX. According to Mary Walker's Facebook page she will get to keep Latte and she will be running him again after some time off.

To the best of our knowledge and what could be found from past sales, this was a record price for a barrel horse sold at auction.

Correction to NBHA AZ02, Buckeye, AZ

Last week, in our March 25, 2014 issue of the Barrel Racing Report, we mistakenly reported that CJ Vondette & her horse Cache A Mount ran a 16.625 on a standard pattern at the March 22-23, 2014, NBHA AZ02 March Madness Pot Of Gold Saint Pattys Show Barrel Race. Upon further verification, the pattern was standard but the distance between the timer and the first barrel was shorter than a standard pattern, being 50 feet instead of 60 feet. So even though it is still an amazing run, especially for an 18 year old horse, it is not a record. We apologize for the mistake and promise to do our best to more thoroughly verify times in the future.

Down Home Dash - 1988-2014

Million dollar barrel and race sire, Down Home Dash passed March 26 at the age of 26 due to a shattered pastern while turned out in his snow covered pasture. This striking brown stud was bred and raised by Joe Kirk Fulton and had a number of owners in his life before spending the last 9 years of his life under the care of Carole Lampron in Ontario, Canada, adding some powerful genetics and conformation to the Canadian performance and race horses.

Down Home Dash ran 31 times on the track over 3 years, was an 18 time winner & also a stakes winner earning over $60,00 and a speed index of 108. After retiring from the track he went on to the breeding shed to produce consistent winners on the racetrack and barrel arena.

On the race track, he produced stakes winners such as Add A Shark, Im Extra Down Home, One Easy Dash, Dash Pac, Hurricane Caleigh, Uptown Dash and Homefires and total earners of close to $1.4 million.

In the barrel arena, he produced big winners such as Sure Down Dash, Little Oakie Dash, Fireworks, and Sure Dash with Equistat earners over $315k, and since most of his colts were ran in Canada where few producers submit results to Equistat this was probably only a fraction of his earners. His speed and conformation will continue to be carried on for many years to come through his daughters and sons.

"He was in great shape, felt awesome and was looking forward to a delayed breeding season. He set the bar pretty high for any other stallion to come into my barn. He had the achievements, the conformation, the longevity, but mostly the best disposition you could ask for from a stallion. Kind, gentle and quiet. Everyone who has had the pleasure of working with him over the years all agree that he was a sweetheart. I've been a fan of his for 20 years and was fortunate to acquire him 8 1/2 years ago. He leaves a big void in my heart." said Carole Lampron of losing Down Home Dash.

Swivel Ta Fame Coming Back from Injury

Swivel Ta Fame, the main mount of Sabrina Ketcham (who is #4 in the World right now), is coming off of a hairline fracture of his pelvis during the Short Round of the San Antonio Stock Show & Rodeo. The pair won that rodeo and were leading the World Standings after the victory. Swivel Ta Fame is recovering well and Ketcham is looking for him to be sound and running in time for the Guymon Pioneer Days Rodeo the first weekend of May.

Jackson Hall Memorial

The Jackson Hall Memorial has wonderful sponsors that are running all kinds of fantastic specials during the show this week. Come on out to enjoy some great shopping and barrel racing. If your not pre entered it is not too late to enter and with no late fees it's affordable. Stalls are still available.

Books for the MVP 4 yr old BFA Futurity, the Duba Trailers 5 yr old WPRA Futurity, and the Barrel Racing Hotline Derby are open until 8PM on April 2nd. We have an Open 5D race each day and the books will be open for those until the last 25 horses each day. Books for the Cowgirl Tuff/B. Tuff Junior 3D race (youth 17 & under) will also be open until the last 25 horses.

Offering more ways to win this year Saturday and Sunday the check winners in the Open 5D will be entered into a drawing for a Diamond Cross Saddle and matching tack set (a $1500 value). Non check winners in the Open 5D on Saturday will be entered into a drawing for a custom CSI saddle pad! The Junior 3D check winners will be entered into a drawing for a Sharin Hall Pro Series saddle. Saddle drawings to be held on Sunday.

Where are Lindsay Sears & Martha?

For those of you who paid close attention to the Rodeo Houston results and were watching the webcast, you might have seen 2 Time World Champions Lindsay Sears and Sugar Moon Express (better known as Martha) win 2nd in Round 3 of Super Series 3 and win $1,200. Many people might have been wondering why Martha at only 14 years old and sound & Sears still riding at her best were staying home. So we caught up with Sears to see how her and Martha were doing and what they were up to.

BRR: What are you and Martha up to?

Sears: We are both at home and plan on staying home! Martha is healthy and we are looking forward to some babies arriving this summer. We are started on this year's breeding season and hoping for a couple of embryos this year. 6666 Ranch is taking care of Martha this breeding season and is also standing AsGoodAsNickGets which we are very excited about. I plan on going to a few rodeos over the summer on AsGoodAsNickGets but nothing intense.

BRR: How does Martha feel? Is she sound?

Sears: She (Martha) is in the best physical condition of her life just because we have been at home and she gets daily exercise and her daily vibration and laser treatments. She is ready to go. Her jockey didn't ride so well at Houston and tipped barrels over with her feet! She has nothing left to prove and I want her to remain the way she is right now; happy, health and sound.

BRR: Why don't you have the urge to rodeo right now?

Sears: I have always said that rodeo was never a long term option for me... I spent a solid 7 years of my life dedicated entirely to rodeo and for me that was enough. We have a family business that is calling my name and my Mom and I started a small breeding program 5 years ago and I'm 5 years behind because of rodeo; so it was time for me to focus on other avenues of life. I will still rodeo a bit but nothing too serious.

BRR: What are you up to these days?

Sears: We are busy with young horses for the moment and breeding season. That is pretty much consuming all my time right now!

PUT SPEED AND GOOD LOOKS IN YOUR NEXT BARREL HORSE

JL SIROCCO

2010 AQHA Champion Canada Hi-Point Three-Year-Old Colt

Sirocco is a AAA race winning stallion by Dash Ta Fame, out of a winning barrel racing Band Of Azure mare. Fee $1500 (includes first cooled semen shipment). Nominated to VGBRA and 5-State Breeders, and others as foals come of age.

PRAISE FOR JL SIROCCO

I have two coming 2 year olds by Sirocco that are beautiful! I bred to Sirocco after riding his full sister and seeing a picture of Sirocco himself. I asked around and was told he was even better in person. Jill has an amazing eye for a horse and knows her pedigrees, so I knew I couldn't go wrong. In my business, I train futurity colts and sell them after their futurity year, my goal is not only to have a winning season on a very talented colt but to also look good doing it, Sirocco is helping me be all that! I believe that JL Sirocco is going to be the whole package, looks, speed, ability and awesome conformation, what more could a barrel racer ask for!

I'm awaiting another colt to be born this year and plan to breed two more mares to him.

Montgomery, Thornton Win Saddles in Fairfield

By Julie Mankin

The life of the party at one of the newest barrel racing facilities in Texas is not your typical barrel racing producer. Jason "Bud" Smith is a 305-pound, 6'5" NFL tackle who most recently played for the New York Jets. Raised in Dallas, he was chosen second overall in the 2009 draft. Today, he's married to Dacie (Stoner) and they raise goats and horses on their JKS Ranch in Fairfield, Texas.

Fairfield is also the home of Dacie's parents, Darren and Oowala Stoner (Darren invented The Perfect Bit, and Oowala's brother is former world champion team roper Tee Woolman). Incidentally, Dacie's brother Dryce Stoner is the ranch's horse trainer.

JKS also boasts the relatively new Twin Lakes Covered Arena and Training Center, which was the site of Smith's recent Bloomer Trailers Barrel Bash, sponsored also by the city of Fairfield and 3W Ranch Supply. The event consisted of a two-weekend format featuring a warm-up jackpot on Friday night and the main 5D on Saturday on March 22 and March 29. Smith added $7,000 to each race and gave away 10 Lazy L saddles by Larry Coats, which went to winners of each D both weekends. The $44,000 event had entry fees of just $50.

On March 22, it was LaGrange, Texas, trainer Lisa Thornton who clocked the fastest time posted in the Twin Lakes arena – a 16.65 on 5-year-old Straight Toasted that just barely edged Jackie Ganter's 16.69 on Cartel's Fame. Thornton earned $1,233 and a saddle, as well as bragging rights as the arena record holder. Smith decided to award $500 to anyone who outran that time the following Saturday.

"That guy called me later before the second weekend and said, 'We have a bounty out on you!'" recalled Thornton. "He made that barrel race a lot of fun. I said, 'Okay, I'll just let you know I plan on coming back and running even faster this time.'"

But it wasn't to be. Thornton didn't have a good run, but Jolene Montgomery did. Riding Macy Quintanilla's 5-year-old gelding Dashin Louie, she clocked a 16.88 to hold off some stiff competition in the form of Jackie Ganter, Tiany Schuster and Gretchen Benbenek. Louie is by the double-bred Dash For Cash stallion Dashin Is Easy and out of Emma Lucile – an 11-year-old daughter of First Down Dash by Invisible Injun – a son of Easily Smashed out of a Dash For Cash/Jet Deck daughter.

Montgomery didn't get the $500 arena-record bonus, but she did earn $1,272 and a saddle for Quintanilla, plus $450 in the 1D incentive. Meanwhile, Smith decided to give Thornton $100 for holding onto her record.

The weekend was also lucrative for Ganter, who went home with a two-weekend total of $5,659 aboard a handful of horses who landed in the 1D and 2D.

As for Montgomery, she'd hauled three other futurity horses to Fairfield and took penalties with all of them.

"I had one clean run out of six, and they're not even barrel hitters," laughed Montgomery while driving Tuesday to the Northwest. "I don't know what happened!"

Montgomery had only ridden this one horse for Quintanilla, and trained him as a 3-year-old before earning about $15,000 on him last year at futurities. She'd mistakenly thought he was 5, so he missed going to several futurities that he'd have been eligible to enter. Regardless, he's hit his stride now.

"These last four or five months he's really started to grow up a lot," said Montgomery, who may continue with his training despite a recent prospective purchase of the horse. "He surprised me really; he's done awesome. At Fairfield, I even got him by second a little and he still clocked like that."

Meanwhile, Thornton had never been to the Twin Lakes arena prior to the Bloomer Barrel Bash, but her horse didn't show it. She bought Straight Toasted straight off the racetrack as a 2-year-old in Louisiana after he failed as a racehorse. Thornton liked the fact that he was by a son of First Down Dash.

"I'm fairly certain that stallion stamps the barrel racing gene on his horses," she said of First Down Dash.

The sire of Straight Toasted (nicknamed "Hunter" by Thornton's 9-year-old son Brendan) is not only by First Down Dash but out of an own daughter of Easy Jet. Hunter is actually double-bred Easy Jet. On the bottom, he's named for his maternal grandsire, Toast To Dash – an impressive combination of Dash For Cash, Go Man Go, Raise Your Glass and Jet Deck – which was crossed on a daughter of Easily Smashed (by Easy Jet).

After earning some $35,000 on Hunter at futurities last year, Thornton said she's taking him to amateur rodeos and he's performed really well at the few pro rodeos she's entered on him. She's training some other horses, too, while working as an oil-well production analyst.

Ironically, she'd already had Larry Coasts make a saddle especially for Hunter, but she has plenty of horses that can wear her new one.

Headin' For Home

by Mike Morrison
Triple M (Mike Morrison Ministries)

The old cowboy was waiting for me just outside the door when Bible study was over and the people filed out. He'd been coming to recent meetings and always listened intently but I guessed he was having trouble with his eyes because of the way he squinted and never tried to read anything.

"You say there is only one God," he started in, "so tell me how Jesus and the Holy Spirit fit into things."

"One God in three persons is one of the great mysteries of the Bible," I told him. "Yet, from the beginning to end, it is all through the Scriptures. Just look at a clover leaf. It has three distinct leaves all sharing a common stem."

"What about water? It's H₂O, two parts hydrogen and one part oxygen. It's a liquid but can also be a solid in the form of ice or vapor as in steam. Still, in all those different forms it's the same H₂O - water."

"Some things we have to take on faith and it's hard for our human minds to understand it all. The Bible tells us repeatedly to

'believe only' and that all things are possible if you only believe. John 3:16 says God loved the world so much that He gave His one and only Son so that everyone who believes in Him will have eternal life."

"Jesus said whoever has seen Him has seen the Father and that the Father dwells in Him and He is in the Father. John 1:1 says, 'In the beginning was the Word, and the Word was with God, and the Word was God.'"

I told the old cowboy Romans 6:23 tells us the gift of God is eternal life in Christ Jesus our Lord. I talked to him a long time and we prayed together and when we parted, he seemed at peace. God is good!
