Returning To Normal -- Jessie Telford & Famous Cool Whip Win Red Bluff Roundup

By Tanya Randall

National Finals Rodeo qualifier Jessie Telford of Caldwell, Idaho, and her homegrown superstar Famous Cool Whip jumped to sixth in the WPRA World Standings with a $9,155 victory at the $18,500-added 100th Annual Red Bluff Roundup, held April 16-18 in California.

"It was so nice to be at a big outdoor rodeo that felt normal," said Telford, who has $20,113 won on the season. "You could hear the crowd. It's been so long for any of us to be where it's 'Holy Smokes! Loud!' in a performance. I thought they did a phenomenal job of putting rodeo on that felt like the good old days!"

Telford had spent the past few weeks crisscrossing the country. She started the end of March in Redmond, Oregon, where she and Whip picked up $2751 for second. Then, she picked up a new barrel horse for her oldest daughter before heading to Kissimmee, Florida, for the RAM National Circuit Finals Rodeo (RNCFR), where she represented the Wilderness Circuit.

"I did stop at San Angelo on the way down," she added. At San Angelo, everyone got their first run in slack with the fastest 120 advancing to the performances spread out over three weekends. "I knew with Kissimmee, Red Bluff and Clovis (California) that was going to be pretty tough for me to do. So, I entered it as a one-header for me to see if I could get anything out of slack. I ended up not placing but he was in the top 20, so I had to turn out of my second progressive round there."

At the RNCFR, Telford and Whip picked up $6,579. With that money counting toward the WPRA World Standings, Telford found herself 18th going into Red Bluff.

But first, she had to swing by home again and drop off her daughter's horse.

"They have a high school rodeo coming up this weekend so I had to get that horse back up to Caldwell," she said. "It was a little extra driving."

In Red Bluff, like at San Angelo, all contestants got their first runs in slack on Friday morning. The top 36 advanced to the three performances while the remaining contestants got their second round run shortly after the first round concluded.

Telford and Whip were second in the first round with a 17.39 behind Cheyenne Hattesen and her 5-year-old futurity horse Fairlea Mr Elwood. They made their second run in the first performance that night. Their 17.24 ultimately placed second behind Charleen Ornellas and Famous Red Roses' 17.22, the fastest time of the rodeo from the second round slack.

"My horse has always really liked that arena," said Telford. "I think from the first time I ever took him there as a 5-year-old, he's won money there in the rounds or the average. That's the main reason I knew I was going to turn out of San Angelo and go to Clovis and Red Bluff. He won Clovis the year before last. I feel like those are really my horse's arenas, more so than San Angelo in the little bitty building."

Whip, 10, is by Dash Ta Fame out of Telford's high school and college rodeo mare Had A Kanita, by Docs Rocky Top. Whip, along with the help of Shu Fire, qualified Telford for the 2018 NFR. In 2020, Telford and Whip finished 16th in the WPRA World Standings but got the call to compete at the NFR when COVID protocols prevented Dona Kay Rule from competing.

the gelding to college friends Burt and Megan McGill's in Sanger, California, to layover until Clovis this weekend.

"I just left my rig and horses there and I jumped on a flight Saturday afternoon so I could be home this whole week with my kids and then I fly back down Wednesday night before slack," said Telford. "I have 100 acres of hay fields and irrigation coming on this week. After being gone a week to Florida I felt really behind at home."

Telford said she'd like to stay higher in the World Standings so she can be home more, especially for her and husband Jake's two teenage daughters, Shawny and Sierra, both of whom compete in high school rodeo and cow horse events.

"I could take a little more time and go to some more high school rodeos and not feel the pressure of going to the bigger rodeos," she said. "We still don't know which ones are going to go on and which ones are not. There is that side of it that wasn't there before. If there is a decent size rodeo you feel like you need to go to it because you don't know what's to come."

Touchdown for Gay Wynn & First Down Carolina at Stock Ranch Slot Race

By Tanya Randall

An evening of fun with friends turned out to be very profitable for Gay Wynn. She and her 8-year-old gelding First Down Carolina ("Dexter") topped the inaugural running of the Stock Ranch Slot Race on April 16 at Brian and Lindsay Stock's home in Naples, Florida, for $6,285!

"It could have been anyone's day and I was really lucky that it was my day," said Wynn, 62. "I was probably the oldest one at the race. It was never on my scope. These guys were the big dogs."

Wynn and Dexter turned in a 15.811 to squeak ahead of Margo Crowther and Shes Packin Fame's 15.821.

"Dexter and I have bonded," she said of the Down N Dash gelding, out of the Vital Sign, Bugs Alive In 75 mare Carolina On My Mind, that she purchased from Riley and Shannon South two years ago. "He's just getting better and better."

Wynn grew up riding in Washington State until she returned to her birth state of Florida as a teenager. She went several years without horses, and after she and her husband Larry had their children, she decided it was important that their children, the girls especially, grow up with them too. It wasn't until she was in her 30s that she decided it was her turn.

"I basically taught myself to barrel race," she said. "(NFR qualifier) Kappy Nelson was a huge influence for me. I bought my first good barrel horse from her. It just went on from there. I didn't grow up doing it like a lot of these girls, so there's been a bit of a learning curve. But I love it. It's addicting. You feel like if you don't go, you're missing out!"

Wynn's husband is also involved with horses, raising Thoroughbreds for sale at their horse farm in Newberry, Florida.

"He does his kind of racing and I do mine," she laughed. "We don't run them, we sell them. We put them in the breeze shows, sometimes sell them as yearlings, but mostly sell them as 2-year-olds."

Wynn wanted to thank Michael Porter, DVM, and her farrier Rex Amos for keeping her horses sound. She especially wanted to thank the Stocks for having the race.

"That was so much fun!" she said. "They are the most generous giving people that you will ever meet. (Lindsay) threw the whole thing together in ten days and she didn't miss a thing! She had the big checks, trophies, catering.... She had everything!"

BIT: Kathy James — HEADGEAR: Tiedown

SADDLE: Circle Y Tammy Fischer Treeless — SADDLE PAD: 5 Star Equine

LEG GEAR: Saratoga bandages — SHOEING: Steel Rims; shod by Rex Amos

FEED: Triple Crown Complete — HAY: Alfalfa

SUPPLEMENTS: Oxy-Gen Immunize, Bleeder's Daily and Relax pre-race if wound up more than normal; Equinity. Double up on the supplements if traveling or competing heavily.

ALTERNATIVE THERAPIES: MagnaWave

TRAINING/CONDITIONING: "I try to break it up so they're not board. Sometimes I trail ride. Sometimes I lope circles. Sometimes he'll go on the hot walker. Sometimes I'll pony off the four-wheeler. Dr. Porter put in a facility 15 minutes from our place in Newberry and I'll go three times a week to put him on the AquaPacer. That's been game changing for me, especially if I'm trying to save myself. I deal with a little bit of sciatica that comes and go. If I feel a flare up coming, I'll do the AquaPacer more than I ride.

If you post it (and host), they will come.

Lindsay Stock had mulled the idea of having a slot race at her home in Naples, Florida, for some time. She had a new state of the art arena, but not enough parking to host a large 4D. Although she'd considered an invitational, when she finally made her Facebook post, the race was open to anyone.

"I thought I'd get 15 girls and we'd have a pizza party," she laughed. "Within a couple of days, I saw how much interest I was having. I went from thinking 15 to having 41. Then I had people asking if they could come watch. Do we allow spectators? That's when I thought I'd charge a $100 spectator fee to keep it to a manageable number. We just really wanted to give back to the barrel racers in the community and do something really special for our first barrel race."

Within two weeks, Stock's 41-entry Slot Race drew some of the toughest barrel racers from across Florida and awarded more than $21,000.

"We ended up adding $5,000," she explained. "We charged a $150 entry fee with 100 percent going back to the competitors. On top of that, we allowed spectators and charged $100 a head to come watch with 100 percent of that money going to the competitors as well. We ended up with an additional $9,800 in spectator fees. It ended up paying great considering the low entry fee the riders had to pay."

The laid back atmosphere was a hit with competitors and spectators alike.

"We made it just a really great evening," she said. "We had food, a bar and DJ. We did a Calcutta too. A lot of the barrel racers were going for $3,000-$6,000. When Gay came up people were a little side tracked and this girl was sitting next to my dad and he said 'Well, here's one to bid on.' She ended up buying Gay for $300 and won $20,000! Gay was definitely the little Cinderella story. It was a great race, a tough race."

Stock, herself, had tipped the second barrel to tie Wynn for the win.

"I couldn't have been happier for Gay," Stock said. "She's a really good friend and I love her to death. She actually lives just a couple houses over. She works really hard and deserves it. It was her night to shine."

Stock is hoping to have another slot race this summer at their home in Bozeman, Montana, the former Copper Spring Ranch, possibly during the Fourth of July run.

Days of '47 Cowboy Games & Rodeo Ready to Ride Again in 2021

We have missed you! And we hope you have missed us too. Mark your calendars as the Days of '47 Cowboy Games & Rodeo presented by Zions Bank is "Ready to Ride Again" in 2021. We will kick open the chutes July 20th, at the Days of '47 Arena at the Utah State Fairpark, in the heart of Salt Lake City and 100 days from today, we will crown our medalists.

"The year 2020 was a trying year for all of us, but hope is on the horizon, and we are looking forward to once again celebrating Utah's great pioneer heritage and Rodeo in Utah with our fans this July," said Dan Shaw, Days of '47 Cowboy Games and Rodeo President & CEO. "We are confident in having a successful and safe event this summer thanks to lower infection rates and the availability of vaccine in our area."

Gates will open at 4:30 pm daily so fans can enjoy the historical exhibits, commercial exhibitors, great food, and preshow activities in the area including the Young Guns Rodeo featuring the future stars of the sport. The main rodeo action takes place nightly at 7:30 p.m. July 20-24. Tickets will go on-sale the latter part of May and will be available via www.axs.com. Please keep an eye on our website (www.daysof47cowboygames.com) and our social media platforms (<https://www.facebook.com/daysof47rodeo>, <https://twitter.com/Daysof47Rodeo>, <http://instagram.com/daysof47rodeo>) for the latest news regarding the 2021 event.

The Days of '47 Cowboy Games & Rodeo will once again be a stop on the World Champions Rodeo Alliance (WCRA) Triple Crown of Rodeo (TCR). The TCR is an annual bonus that pays $1 million to any one athlete or collection of athletes who wins. The Event Championship of the same discipline in any three consecutive WCRA Major Rodeos. The current WCRA Triple Crown Rodeo series started with the Stampede at the E in 2020 and the second stop will be in Corpus Christi, Texas, at the Buc Days Pro Rodeo May 6-9. Therefore the Days of '47 Rodeo could be the key to drastically changing an athlete or athletes' year and bank account.

"Rodeo fans in Salt Lake are in a unique and lucky position to be able to witness what could be someone's $1 million payday," said WCRA President Bobby Mote. "The high-energy atmosphere tied-in with one of the top paying rodeos of the summer to the world's top athletes will sure be one of the best rodeos in the country this summer."

The Days of '47 Cowboy Games and Rodeo has become a must stop on the summer rodeo schedule for contestants from the junior high level all the way to the pros of the sport as they vie for Gold, Silver and Bronze medals awarded to the top three, setting this rodeo apart from any other rodeo in the world.

The 2021 rodeo will mark the sixth time in the history of rodeo where riders will have an opportunity to compete for Gold, Silver or Bronze Medals. The first two times were in conjunction with the Olympic Winter Games in Calgary (1988) and Salt Lake City (2002), when rodeo was part of the Cultural Olympiad and the other three times being the Days of '47 Cowboy Games & Rodeo in 2017-2019. The medals awarded at the Days of '47 Cowboy Games & Rodeo are produced by OC Tanner, the same company that made the Olympic medals for the champions of the 2002 Olympic Winter Games.

WCRA Announces Marquee Partnership With Wrangler

The WCRA (World Champions Rodeo Alliance) has announced a partnership with Wrangler as the "Official Jeans and Shirts" of the organization.

"WCRA is honored to welcome Wrangler as our first national sponsorship partner," said WCRA President Bobby Mote. "WCRA and Wrangler share a common interest in growing the sport of rodeo. Rodeo is steeped in tradition, this relationship unites the sport's most legendary brand, with the most progressive rodeo property in the industry. This partnership will advance rodeo in ways we can't even articulate today,"

Wrangler will be showcased at the WCRA's nationally televised Triple Crown of Rodeo (TCR) events. The WCRA celebrates its third year of competition with the first TCR stop of 2021 in Corpus Christi, Texas, May 6-9 followed by the Days of '47 Cowboy Games and Rodeo July 20-24 in Salt Lake City. The WCRA Triple Crown of Rodeo is an annual bonus that pays a $1 million cash award to any one athlete or collection of athletes who win first place in any three consecutive WCRA Major Rodeos.

Since launching in May of 2018, the WCRA and its partners have awarded more than $8,500,000 in new money to rodeo athletes, with all WCRA Triple Crown of Rodeo events broadcast nationally on CBS network television.

"The Triple Crown of Rodeo continues to be an exciting opportunity for Cowboys and Cowgirls across the country," said Jeff Chadwick, Director Wrangler Western Special Events. "Wrangler is proud to be a part of the World Championship Rodeo Alliance Triple Crown events as well as the Women's Rodeo World Championship held in Las Vegas. Long Live Cowboys - Long Live Cowgirls!"

Sister, OR Rodeo Cancelled

Due to the unfortunate rise in COVID-19 cases and the restrictions enforced by local & state government agencies, the Sisters (Ore.) Rodeo Association (SRA) Board of Directors made a unanimous decision on April 13 to cancel the 2021 Sisters Rodeo and subsequent events for the second year in a row. The 2021 Sisters Rodeo was scheduled for June 9-13. The directors have worked diligently with state and county officials for the past several weeks and looked at the situation from all angles including feedback from community businesses, fellow rodeo associations, stock contractors and sponsors. The Sisters Rodeo Association would like to thank the Deschutes County Commissioners for their hard work and support during this process. Postponing the rodeo to a later date in 2021 was not an option. Due to other obligations, the rodeo's stock contractor, announcers and entertainment/contracted personnel would be unable to get to Sisters at the same time. All tickets for the 2021 rodeo that have been pre-sold will automatically roll over to the equivalent dates for the 2022 Sisters Rodeo.

HEADIN' FOR HOME

by Sherry Morrison // Triple M (Mike Morrison Ministries)

When we are babies in the Lord, sometimes we can assume a scripture can be taken literally. For example, Psl. 37:4 says, "Delight yourself also in the Lord, and He shall give you the desires of your heart."

That is a true statement. But let's say you are 6'8" tall and weigh 250#. You wake up one morning and think, "I want to ride racehorses! God said He will give me the desire of my heart! I'm heading for the track!" Or maybe you are single and decide you want someone else's husband/wife! That's not going to work either!!

Matthew 5:29 tells us that if our right eye causes us to sin, we should pluck it out! Yikes! If we all did that we'd look like pirates! Ahoy matey! No, we won't do that either.

The point this week is, we read the Word, we listen to the Word, and we GROW in the Word. Sometimes growing up is funny.

I was watching HGTV the other day and they were remodeling a house for a couple that had adopted 4 siblings. The house was done and as a surprise, they were going to plant a lemon tree. They brought the kids out, dug a hole and told them they were planting a lemon tree. Three of the kids started cheering and jumping up and down. BUT! One little boy yelled, "I... WANT... A... PICKLE... TREE!!!!!!" No such thing. Ain't happening! I laughed all day!

Mike and Sherry Morrison pastor "Church at the Barn" in Gillette, WY. They also travel to other areas ministering at barrel races, ranches, rodeos, churches and home Bible studies.
