Scott & Fallin For Fame Shine at Red Bluff

By Tanya Randall

Defending California Circuit Champion Ann Scott of Canyon Country and her talented gelding Fallin For Fame ("Buzz") are well on their way to another title with a $9,000 lead early in the year. They picked up nearly $6,000 of that total--$5,927 to be exact—at the Red Bluff Round-Up.

A progressive rodeo, all contestants made their first runs in slack on Friday morning with the top times progressing to the performances. Scott and Buzz placed seventh in the first go, which was won by Megan McLeod and Fast Feet N Freedom, and advanced to Sunday's performance.

"The ground was pretty cloddy," Scott recalled of their slack run. California is in the midst of an epic drought, and with water levels at an all-time low, the ground was hard. "There were big clods everywhere, so a lot of horses struggled. Finally for the perfs all the clods broke up and they could really get in there, but underneath it was really hard and slippery. We had a decent run, we just took a little longer getting around the clods, you could say."

On Sunday, Scott posted the best time of her performance, a 17.47, and finished second in the round to Shelby Janssen and Baily's Dash Ta Fame.

"The ground was a little hard and slippery," said Scott. "A lot of girls were having trouble. My horse went down to his knees and kissed the ground with his nose at the first barrel. I was thinking, 'Should I pull up?' He just jumped up so quick and didn't miss a beat. I thought in my head, 'Does he feel alright?' When stuff like that happens it is like it makes him mad and he comes back even harder. He tried his heart out and smoked the rest of the run. I'm really happy with him."

Scott and Buzz, a 10-year-old gelding, also picked up a check at Lakeside, worth $1,164. Living in Canyon Country in southern California, Scott ran at Lakeside before making the 12-hour drive to Red Bluff.

"I think weekend I might have doubled my earnings in the world standings," she quipped. "I didn't have that good of a winter. Nothing bad happened. We won some money, but nothing too big. The Texas ground is so different from California ground and what he's used to. We just had a little bit of ground trouble. Not that California ground is better; he's just used to it and can handle it better. We were third last weekend in Oakdale, so I think he's liking being home."

Next weekend, Scott has Clovis, another progressive rodeo, as well as Springville and Auburn. How she does at Clovis will determine if she goes to the other two rodeos.

Scott may also ride Buzz's 8-year-old full brother Tiny Celebrity at either Springville or Auburn. Both geldings are by Dash Ta Fame and out of the Merridoc mare Immunity. "Tiny," who was named in honor of his dual lineage to Tiny's Gay and not his stature—he's a

Silent Auction for Julie Mankin at Nothin' But Try Jackpot

The U Cross Arena in Coleman, Okla., will be home for the second annual Nothin' But Try Steer Wrestling Jackpot on May 9th.

The competition, hosted by Sean and Bryel Mulligan will see many of today's top steer wrestlers competing for cash while supporting the Nothin' But Try Scholarship honoring Levi Wisness. Wisness was a steer wrestler who just missed qualifying for the Wrangler National Finals Rodeo (NFR) in 2007.

The North Dakota native was a student director for the Central Rocky Mountain Region of the National Intercollegiate Rodeo Association, (NIRA) earning the national steer wrestling championship in 2003 for the University of Wyoming. In October of 2007 he was diagnosed with cancer and had a tumor removed from his spinal cord at the base of his brain. He was successfully treated and was making his return to the rodeo arena when illness took his life in August of 2008.

"It was rare to see Levi without a smile on his face," said Sean Mulligan. "Will Cook with Flying C Rodeo brought up the idea of having a big steer wrestling jackpot. I saw it as a perfect opportunity to raise money for Levi's scholarship."

Flying C Rodeo located at Madill, Okla., has generously donated all of the steers and contributed to the added money. Cinch Jeans and Shirts, Equisure, Cosequin and The Sport Zone are also sponsors, bringing the added money to $5,000.

The competition starts at 1 p.m. Competitors will compete individually, but they will also be part of four-men teams for the Cosequin Team Incentive where the winning team will receive a $1,000 bonus. Each team will have at least one NFR qualifier. Teams will also be auctioned off in a calcutta where 50% of the money raised will go to the scholarship fund.

Entries close at noon with the auction following. Entry fees are $250. There will be two full rounds of competition with the top 12 competitors advancing to a final round. Last year's winner was Jake Rinehart, an NFR qualifier from Highmore, S.D., who is a former traveling partner of Wisness.

Calling the auction will be Mickey Gee, the 1999 Professional Rodeo Cowboys Association world champion steer wrestler. Six-time NFR saddle bronc rider, Wade Sundell will be part of a team that is roasting a pig and serving lunch.

Additionally, a silent auction will be held with the proceeds going to help Julie Mankin a well-known writer and rodeo publicist who was tragically injured in an auto accident on March 24th. Mankin is expected to make a full recovery but sustained a broken neck and various other injuries. Mankin attended college at the University of Wyoming with the Mulligans. To donate items for Mankin, contact Susan Kanode (817) 307-6336.

Donations will be taken at the gate for admission. The Levi Wis-ness Nothin' But Try scholarship is one of four that are given at the College National Finals Rodeo. They go to NIRA members who have faced adversity but have never given up. The original scholarship was started to honor bull riding champion Shane Drury. The other two awards honor Betty Gayle Cooper and Lee Akin. Since the scholarship started in 2006, $25,000 has been awarded to students whose stories exemplify the Nothin' But Try attitude.

16.607 on Standard Pattern Ran in Brazil

written by and courtesy of Shannon Kerr

It is an understatement to say that Marli Faria and her crew of the NBHA Parana do a great job at putting on a barrel race. With 1050 entries, a payout of R$99,200,00 (about $323,000 USD), and 24 times under 17.0 a person can only say "Wow! What a race!"

But it was the last category of the race that proved to be worth watching. It started out very fast when Giovana Balbo and her mare Sweet Little Fame Ek ran a very fast 17.0, then came Evelyn Moreno and the ever consistent Cash Quixote Hga who ran a 16.9 and left many people believing that that would be the time to beat. But then came Carla Buena and her gritty palomino mare Diana Firewater Zd and they scorched the standard pattern with a record breaking 16.607. There would be two other 16.9's ran, MIRNA Pegos on Missin Rebecca and Shannon Kerr on Streakin Red Fling, but no one could come close to the 16.607 set by Carla Buena. Carla Buena's time would not only break the arena record of 16.713 set by Otavio Faria and St Flavia Leo during the 2ª Etapa do VIII Campeonato NBHA-PR but they ran the second ever fastest time recorded on a standard pattern and set the ABQM Record. The mare Ms Perky Bug has the fastest time record on a standard pattern but her time was ran during the Tira Teima of 3ª ETAPA XIII Etapa XIII Campeonato Regional Oeste and does not count toward ABQM records.

Diana Firewater Zd and Carla Bueno are no strangers to winning. According to SGP, Diana Firewater Zd is ranked number 6th in earnings for the current 2014/2015 year and 13th in overall earnings all years and all horses with total SGP lifetime earnings of R$114,512,00. Diana Firewater Zd is also a 2 time ABQM National Champion with her owner/rider in the Amateur and Amateur Light categories, as well as an ABQM Congress Champion in Amateur Light.

Diana Firewater Zd is sired by Top Firewater who is a son of one of the greatest stallions in barrel racing history Fire Water Flit. Top Firewater is also a full brother to Six Moons Firewater who has winnings over US $180,000,00. And to watch Diana Firewater Zd run, its easy to see that she carries the Fire Water Flit genetics. The mother of Diana Firewater Zd is Ana Leo Zd.

Additional Notes: Kerr also noted the pattern was measured twice before this race in which the the 16.607 was run. It might also be of interest that most races in Brazil are run on a standard pattern, so it is no surprise two of the fastest times on a standard pattern have been run there.

monster—is owned by Scott and her mother.

"I've got him in shape and in the trailer with me now," she said. Scott used to haul a retired Paint mare with Buzz to keep him "on Earth" while at the rodeos, but now it's up to little brother. "There's a couple of other smaller rodeos that I hope I get to run him as well."

A stuntwoman by profession, Scott has a couple of jobs lined up during the week while she's home, since the majority of her upcoming rodeos are in her circuit.

"I can work a little during the week and hit my rodeos on the weekend," she said. "I'll go a little over the Fourth. I'm going to try to go to some of the rodeos I haven't been to before—take a little different route than last year."

Lutjen & TS Hayday Return Sweep Utah Futurity

By Tanya Randall

Entering the $5,000-added Utah Barrel Racing Association Futurity in Heber City was a very profitable last minute decision for Kelsey Lutjen and TS Hayday Return, bred and owned by Tom and Vicky Stockton of Kiowa, Colo. The duo swept the two-go Futurity for $2,780.

Lutjen, Casa Grande, Ariz., has only had Hayday, a daughter of WPRA World Champion Sire PC Frenchmans Hayday out of the Complete Return mare Fair Returns, a month at the time of the Futurity.

"I got her on the way home from Diamonds & Dirt (held mid-March in Bryan, Texas)," said Lutjen. "Darla Kennepohl trained her and did a great job on her. She's super easy to ride. You've just got to make sure you ride her all the way up into the turns because she wants to turn and she's very athletic."

The Stocktons had got in touch with Lutjen through her friend Wendy Church. They ended up entering the mare in the Washington futurities before Lutjen had even thrown a leg over her.

"We were going to hope for the best," laughed Lutjen, who wanted to thank the Stocktons for their belief in her and Kennepohl for training such a nice mare.

Their first futurity was the Sand Cup in Pasco, Wash., where they finished fifth in the average. The VGBRA Barrel Daze Futurity in Walla Walla didn't go quite as well.

"I hit a barrel the first round of the VGBRA," she explained. "That little arena—I'm just not used to it. I didn't ride her very well, so we figured we'd go to Heber and try to get a little bit of redemption."

At Heber, the not only swept the futurity, but won the 429-entry, $10,000-added A.A. Callister's Open 5D with their carryover time on Saturday and placed second in the open, again with a carryover, on Sunday for additional earnings of $2,235.

"She's super solid," said Lutjen. "She rates her barrels. She's super focused, super gritty. They were both really good runs. I ran a 16.2 the first round and a 16.3 the second round, so she's a very consistent little mare. She's really easy; I know if I do my job, she's going to clock."

Lutjen said Hayday will likely go to the Montana and fall futurities as well as the Parker Wood Memorial back in Heber City.

"I love that arena. It's a great set up and the ground's awesome. I really want to go back for that one!" noted Lutjen. Hayday will probably go to some hand-picked rodeos, too.

"She's really stepped up," said Lutjen. "She's got a great mind, so I think she'll really handle the rodeos. We're just really going to listen to her and let her tell us what she's ready for."

THE RUNDOWN with Hollie Etbauer

Bring It On Frost Te

Buckskin 7 year old mare, 15.2 hands, 1,100 lbs.
BIT: Three piece twisted medium shank Ed Wright with the curb dangling. She can't stand the curb chain, it took me awhile to figure it out.
HEADGEAR: None. She is super light in the face and doesn't like being touched. We don't use any headgear on our horses. I think 1 out of 20+ horses may have to have a tie-down.
SADDLE: Crown C Martin with no breast collar.
SADDLE PAD: Classic Equine ESP Sensory Pad
LEG GEAR: Classic Equine Splints, No Turn Bell Boots, polo wraps on the hind.
FEED: Pelleted alfalfa, 1/8 cup of pellets, only one scoop of succeed, 2x day
HAY: Alfalfa & turned out on grass
SUPPLEMENTS: MVP Exceed
ADDITIONAL CARE & SHOING: All our horses run barefoot. I have a girl that adjusts the horses and keeps them to where you don't have to inject and do all that stuff as much. Pretty minimal right now.
SPONSORS: Express Ranches. They have sponsored Billy and our family since 1996. I Thank God that I have the opportunity to do what I do with my family, I feel very blessed!
ABOUT YOUR HORSE: She is by PC Frosty Bid out of daughter of Shawnee bug. We raised her and she is just now coming into her own. I didn't futurity her; I didn't think she was ready but now I think she probably would've been. She hasn't been overhauled, we have been just been training at the house here with the kids. She is a nice, solid horse but a different style for me to ride. I have been having a hard time getting my timing on her!
ABOUT YOUR RUN: We had great runs all weekend. My daughter Jacey blew us out of the water on Sunday on her horse Sizzle Whistle which is by our other stud, Whistle At The Babes! The horses that we are running were all raised by us! We are very happy with the way the horses ran. "Bring It On" had a really beautiful first and second barrel on Saturday, and then I got her too close going into the third barrel and we didn't leave very well. It was totally my fault. Sunday- All three barrels were pretty good but her footwork wasn't quite as snappy. She didn't feel like she was firing quite as hard on Sunday as she did on Saturday. I absolutely adore her. She goes where you tell her to go and has a lot of grit and try. I am very blessed to have her and be able to ride her.

THE RUNDOWN with Alona James

Little Miss Honky Tonk, double papered AQHA & APHA Grey 4 year old mare, 15.1 hands, 1000 lbs.
BIT: Smooth Snaffle
HEADGEAR: Loose Tiedown
SADDLE: Billy Cook
SADDLE PAD: Professional Choice
LEG GEAR: Classic Equine Splint boots, bell boots & polo wraps.
FEED: Heritage 14% sweet feed
HAY: Bermuda grass and alfalfa
SUPPLEMENTS: Electrolytes, ActiFlex
ADDITIONAL CARE & SHOING: Rims on the front, regular plates on the back. Magnetic blanket.
SPONSORS: The owners, Charles and Mary Hainline for allowing me to run this fantastic mare!
ABOUT YOUR HORSE: I got her at the beginning of the year and took her to a few little jackpots. I then took her to the Lance Graves Futurity. Our runs weren't terrible but weren't great either. I brought her back from there and have been running at a few local jackpots on her to get her more solid. This futurity was my second futurity on her, and although she has been working well, I never expected for her to win it! I was looking forward to her working way better than she did at the LG Futurity. She is entered in the BBR futurity this coming week, and then we will be off to Ft Smith. My boyfriend raced her on the track and I kind of took care of her and I think we formed a bond. She did fairly well on the track. She was raced as an APHA and even qualified and won a few racing futurities.
ABOUT YOUR RUN: We entered the Friday night jackpot, thought I would just get her in the pen and let her feel the ground and stuff. She placed in the 2D Friday night. Our futurity run on Saturday went great. On Sunday she warmed up great. She was real excited and very focused and calm. She turned first awesome, then almost stopped at the second so I had to pull her over to get around it. Our third barrel was fantastic.

5-year-old A STREAK OF FLING gelding that is Eligible for the 5 year old futurities. He is Future Fortunes nominated. Approx. 14.3, great bone structure and sound. He has been entered at barrel races only a handful of times and has consistently clocked 2D times. Runs in smooth ring bit. Needs soft handed rider. He does spook sometimes when exhibitioned slow but when asked to run he focuses. A Streak of Fling x Señorita Edition. I raised him and he is out of a proven mare that has produced nice colts. If interested please call Lori Allen, 817-360-0623. Price will increase as he gets further along so call for price.

Headin' For Home

by Sherry Morrison
Triple M (Mike Morrison Ministries)

I bought 5 baby chicks. Cutest little things. My grandkids loved coming over and holding them and naming them. Didn't matter that they all looked exactly alike. They were in a horse tank with a heat lamp on them so they were really easy to catch. Days went by and they grew.

For some reason the grandkids didn't make it over for about 10 days. And in that time, the chicks were feathering up and getting bigger so I let them out of the tank and into the small pen we built. One day only Cylee came over and we just had to go see the chicks. Up to the barn we went. She ran on ahead of me cuz she just couldn't wait and I was too slow. But I took off running when she yelled at the top of her voice, "OH NO! GWAMMA COME QUICK! THE BABY CHICKS ARE GONE!" I was thinking, Oh Lord, please don't let something have gotten in and killed them. When I finally arrived, there they all were....

She didn't recognize them. They had feathers. They were bigger. She expected them to stay the same. It's that way with us sometimes. We have this cute little "problem". Nothing serious really, and I'm sure not going to hell for it. But if we don't address those sins the Bible tells us about, we are going to look up one day and they will have grown up. We'll have fed them until they weigh a ton and we aren't really sure just how they got that big. It's not a problem anymore, it's become a crisis.

You and I know if God is dealing with us about something. If He is, let's don't make excuses, let's make the effort to correct and fine tune our lives in agreement with His Word! It's much better for us!
