Pierce & Dash Ta Diamonds Sweep Red Bluff Round-Up

By Tanya Randall

Two-time National Finals Rodeo qualifier and former NFR record holder Carlee Pierce and her new steed Dash Ta Diamonds ("Arson") dominated the 93rd Annual Red Bluff Round-Up, held April 18-20 in California. The duo made a clean sweep of both rounds to pocket $8,247 of the $39,273 total purse, of which $15,000 was generously added.

"He really liked that pen," said Pierce, Stephenville, Texas. "We've had a bad couple of weeks back home. We tipped a barrel to win Beaumont. We tipped a barrel to place at Nacogdoches. Tipped a barrel to be second at Lubbock. When we came out here I was hoping I wasn't wasting my time. I'm thinking he likes the big wide open pens. He felt really good. I'm hoping that bad couple of weeks is all we'll have for a while."

The Round-Up was open to all card and permit holders with everyone making their first run in slack on the morning of April 18. The fastest 36 barrel racers progressed to the three performances with the remaining contestants making their second run immediately following slack.

Pierce drew up late in slack, about run 99, and was third on the ground—the committee raked every 12 runs—when she and Arson posted a victorious 17.26. With the progressive format, their second run was in the final performance on Easter Sunday.

"Watching slack, I thought the first part was better because the ground was still a little bit moist, but it didn't seem to affect him. And, there were still some pretty decent times at the end. The second go... it was a 2 o'clock afternoon perf and it was really dry. I was 11th out on the ground. I didn't get to watch any of it, but everyone that came out said the ground was terrible; it's too dry to hold. I was just blocking it out. I was just going in there like I didn't hear any of it. My husband (Steve) said it looked like he might have taken a couple of extra steps around the first barrel, but I never noticed it."

Their run was a scorching 17.16. Their two run average of 34.42 was 4/10ths faster than reserve champions Carley Richardson and Doda Flit's 34.82.

Arson, an 8-year-old gelding, is by the all-time leading barrel horse sire Dash Ta Fame and out of the royally-bred The Millennium Star, a daughter of Strawfly Special out of three-time racing champion Denim N Diamonds. He was trained by Kelly Bowser and won Jud Little's Bar Nothin Barrel Bash Futurity as a 4-year-old. In November 2013, Pierce purchased Arson from Aimee Kay, who had run the gelding the past two years.

"We're still getting to know each other a little bit and trying to get things figured out. He doesn't feel as seasoned as Dillon (Her former NFR mount Rare Dillion that's now climbing the standings with his new owner Callie duPerier.) was. He watches a lot more and I've noticed I'm on him a lot more than I was Dillon to just ride him around and let him look at stuff."

Mandan Rodeo Days Named 2014 ND Tourism Event of the Year

The Mandan Rodeo Days Celebration received statewide recognition at the 2014 North Dakota Tourism Conference in Fargo on April 16.

North Dakota governor Jack Dalrymple presented the Mandan Rodeo Days Celebration with the Governor's Travel and Tourism Event of the Year award for 2014. The three-day event, held around the July Fourth holiday, marks its 135th anniversary this year. More than 25,000 people annually attend the celebration, which is a true family experience, rich in western history and tradition.

"Tourism is one of North Dakota's largest industries and an important contributor to our growing economy," Gov. Jack Dalrymple said. "The leaders recognized today are key reasons why visitors enjoy legendary experiences when they come to North Dakota. Congratulations to this year's award recipients, and thank you to all those who work hard to make North Dakota's tourism industry so successful."

The PRCA rodeo, North Dakota's largest regular-season pro rodeo, provides a taste of the state's western culture. The celebration's wide variety of activities are designed to keep both kids and adults entertained. Children's activities include dummy roping, stick horse racing

Turnin 3 Progressive 4D Barrel Race

The Turnin 3 Progressive 4D Barrel Race to be held this weekend, April 25-27, in Corning, CA was the original idea of Annette Anderson, and the theory behind it is this: Hold a race where multiple associations are co-sanctioned, so barrel racers can come to ONE location, and in that one trip run for over $9000 added money, great awards and earn qualifying points and/or runs for whichever association they choose to pay the fees for. The race also features a very unique Sale Horse Showcase Race; this race is for horses for sale ONLY and there is $1,000 added to it.

The Sale Horse Showcase Race was developed to be able to showcase sale horses on the barrel pattern in the race environment. The Turnin' 3 Progressive Race has a hospitality hour with live music, vendors galore and it's all being held at The Rolling Hills Casino Equestrian Facility in Corning, CA (right off I-5). We are sanctioned with BRN4D (Barrel Racers National 4D); WCBRA (West Coast Barrel Racing association); NSBRA (North State Barrel Racing Association); WPRO; and WPRO Jr.; ACBRA (American Computer Barrel Racing Association) and a new association, Run4-Love.

The race will kick off with a warm up race Fri 4/25, then Sat is the Open, The Futurity, Senior, Youth, Novice and the Sale Horse Showcase. Sunday will repeat the same schedule except without the Sale Horse Showcase. 5 custom saddles, plus other awards, based on the average of Sat/Sun will be given away. There will be another race scheduled for July 18-20, 2014, so check the website for more information.

For more information the website is www.turnin3progressive.com and our Facebook page, search Turnin' 3 Progressive Barrel Races.

Arson wasn't without some rodeo experience. He helped Jane Melby qualify for her second NFR last year by cleaning house at another wide-open pen in Ellensburg, Wash.

Pierce said the biggest challenge has been adjusting to Arson's style, which is totally the opposite of Dillon's.

"With Dillon, I clicked with him instantly," she said. "I could ride him very incorrect with my hands high or whatever. With Arson, I have to be very correct with my hands low and staying right in the middle of him. Everything works well if I do everything the right way. Having to go from Dillon to him, I feel like I'm having to work really hard right now."

Pierce said the barrel bug that plagued them earlier was rather discouraging because he was catching barrels leaving them and wasn't really doing anything wrong in the process.

"He likes to turn and he's honest," she said. "He's not trying to hit or anything. He just gets them coming out with his hip."

To help get past the issue, Pierce worked the gelding at home, and used some drills her farrier Kyle Kukla had learned from veteran futurity trainer Kassie Mowry.

"We don't do any barrels (per se); it's all just a bunch of slow work around one barrel. It's worked really well. A lot of it has been me, trying to keep in my mind: low hands, sit in the middle, no leaning."

"He's my first Dash Ta Fame, and he's like everyone says about the Dash Ta Fames—he wants to go in there and work. It's just a matter of me being a better jockey."

Thanks to the Red Bluff victory, Pierce decided to turn out of Lufkin and Corpus Christie—two big rodeos that she was going to have to fly back to Texas for slack. Instead, she'll remain in California for Clovis, Lakeside and Springville. Arson will get the call at Clovis, which is a possible three runs if they make the short go. Her backup horse TCS Runaway Susie will run at Lakeside and Springville to save Arson's legs.

Pierce, who is sponsored by Relentless, Formula 707 and Dr. Charlie Buchanan at Brazos Valley Equine Hospital, is currently sitting fifth in the WPRA World Standings with $33,787.

"I'm going to make a run for the NFR as long as I can keep the horses going and running good. I'm going to go like I usually do. In July after Cheyenne, I'll come home and get kids ready for school. If I have to go to the Northwest, I will, but I'd rather stay home and go to Lawton and Amarillo—stuff that's just a little closer. Hopefully, I'll have enough won that I don't have to worry about my kids feeling like I'm leaving them at home."

Her youngest daughter Jacy, 7, is currently traveling with her, while her two teenagers Kale, 16, and Mckala, 15 are at home.

"The oldest two are OK with me being gone," she laughed, "but I'm not!"

Headin' For Home

by Sherry Morrison
Triple M (Mike Morrison Ministries)

It's comical to watch a young colt out in a pasture. If the foal wants to taste the green grass or smell something on the ground, it has to really stretch and bend his front legs to do so. Then if something scares him, he runs behind the mare and peers out from under her neck.

I know people act just like that. They want to get closer to God but think they have to go to extreme lengths to reach Him. Then, if something comes along to cause fear, they run to friends or whoever for help. They don't know God is always near to those who have made Him Lord of their lives. They believe they have to go to elaborate rituals or make sacrifices in order for God to hear them.

God is available to us 24/7 and the only requirement to getting His full attention is to "believe only." Jesus said, "Ask and you shall receive. Knock and it shall be opened to you." He doesn't want us to live in fear either. In 2 Timothy 1:7 we are told that God doesn't give us a spirit of fear, but of power and of love and of a sound mind.

The Bible also tells us we're children on God and joint heirs with Christ. We are entitled to the many blessings God has stored up for us if we only claim them. God loves us more than we can imagine and he sent His only begotten Son to take our punishment so that we can have abundant life He made for us. God is always good, merciful and forgiving. Make sure you take some "alone" time with God and tell Him everything that's on your heart and he will give you peace.

Remember it says in Acts 16:31, "Believe in the Lord Jesus Christ, and you will be saved, you and your household."

Mike Morrison and his wife Sherry are ordained ministers in their own nondenominational church in Gillette, WY. They also travel widely as circuit riders ministering over a large area of the western states.
