Jessi Fish & Guys Night In Vegas Reel 'Em In at Red Bluff Round-Up

By Tanya Randall

Jessi Fish of Franklin, Tenn., continue to march her way up the WPRA World Standings. She and Guys Night In Vegas ("Showoff") topped the $17,500-added Red Bluff Round-Up, held April 20-22 in California, to claim $8,558.

Fish and Showoff's 17.23 split the first round with Katie Pascoe and Jr Naughty Jet. On Sunday, they split second in the second round with a 17.30 behind Jesse Telford and Famous Cool Whip, who posted the fastest time of the rodeo, a 17.08.

Their 34.53 was just ahead of hometown favorite and defending WPRA World Champions Nellie Miller and Rafter W Minnie Reba, who resides in nearby Cottonwood.

"The first round, he felt really good," said Fish. "He took off through the heel box that you have to walk through to enter the arena. I always have someone walk me in and he got loose and took off. He was running really hard to the first barrel, but it worked out good. My second run, he tripped pretty good at the first. He handles himself and the ground pretty good, so he felt like he recovered really well. His second and third were really quick.

"He felt great all weekend. Lately, in general, he's been feeling really good. He's been very consistent for me."

Fish credits multiple world champion Sherry Cervi with contributing to their overall consistency which has helped them climb into the Top 15 in spite of missing the limited entry rodeos over the winter.

"I've been riding with Sherry Cervi for little over a year now, and it's made a huge difference," said Fish, who wanted to thank Cervi and her husband Cory Petska, who has helped enter her. "She's helped me a lot with my consistency and mental toughness. I still call her before every run almost. She's my go to on stuff like that. Walt Woodard has helped too with my mental game. But, I think the biggest thing is that Sherry's helped me with my consistency." Fish currently sits 13th in the WPRA World Standings with $32,392.

"I went to one rodeo in October (at the start of the 2018 season)," she related. "I didn't go to Odessa and I missed the books for Denver. The first place I ran him was San Angelo and from there I went to Fort Worth. I didn't get into the building rodeos. I ran a Jackson, Tucson, Austin. I've only been to like 15 places. I've been fortunate to have done well."

BFA World Championship at Lazy E Arena in 2019

The largest, most prestigious futurity barrel racing event is moving to the nation's largest indoor arena. BFA World Championship will be at Lazy E Arena, Guthrie, Oklahoma in 2019, 2020, and 2021.

Barrel Futurities of America and Lazy E Arena are excited to announce the new location for BFA World Championship as well as new dates and the new futurity eligibility rule.

BFA World Championship will be held November 15-24, 2019. To facilitate the move to Lazy E Arena in November, the futurity horse eligibility date will be November 15. This rule will take effect in November 2019. Foals born in 2016 shall not compete in a barrel racing event prior to Nov. 15, 2019.

Expanded move-in time, increased added money, facility readiness, no conflict with Wrangler National Finals Rodeo (contestants and sponsors) are among the considerations for this BFA Board decision. Lazy E Arena is a production partner with BFA and will be working with BFA Board of Directors to prepare for 2019 BFA World Championship.

BFA World Championship will continue the Super$takes, futurity, derby, juvenile futurity, amateur futurity final, youth futurity final, amateur derby final, open 4D, and junior barrel race. Future Fortunes Stallion Incentive program will feature its bonus programs for owners, breeders, and stallion owners.

Lazy E Arena hosts rodeos, horse shows, and versatility events as well as National Little Britches Rodeo Association Finals on its scenic 180 acres. The experienced and hospitable production staff works to create a unique performance equine event experience. Barrel Futurities of America is looking forward to this opportunity and partnership with Lazy E Arena. More importantly, Barrel Futurities of America and Lazy E Arena are investing in the success and growth of the barrel racing futurity industry.

More information will be released in the upcoming months.

Questions and inquiries can be directed to BFA Secretary, Cindy Arnold, cindy@bfaworld.com, 918-773-5246.

Fish will finish up her California run this weekend before heading back for the Guymon Pioneer Days in Oklahoma the first weekend of May. She has the Clovis on Friday, Lakeside on Saturday and possibly Springville on Sunday if she doesn't make the short round in Clovis.

"I've brought young horses with me too, so I entered Springville Sunday over the short at Clovis as a backup. I'll take a colt and run there if that happens."

The 10-year-old gelding is by leading sire Frenchmans Guy out of Ashlie York's 1996 BFA World Futurity Champion, Sail On Truckles, by Up N Truckle out of a Sail On Bunny mare. Fish has had the Kay Young-trained gelding for four years.

They've had some success over the years but outside the arena incidents always seemed to sideline them. For instance, right before Reno last year, Showoff kicked through the fence and cut an artery in a foot.

"He was in a cast for 40-something days. I didn't get to ride him again until dang near the Northwest last year. He likes to do things like that. He's into something all the time. He's really ornery and I can't turn him out with other hoses, so he's in solitary confinement now," she laughed.

“Classic” by Mike Morrison
Triple M (Mike Morrison Ministries)

The barrel pattern is set and everyone in the race must follow the predetermined course. You can't just decide to make better time by only turning two barrels.

So, too, it is with life. There are certain things and rules you can't change no matter how much you'd like to. For example, driving in the proper lane of traffic. For your own safety and the safety of others, you must follow the rules.

Hebrews 12:1 tells us "...since we are surrounded by so great a cloud of witnesses, let us lay aside every weight, and the sin which so easily ensnares us, and let us run with endurance the race that is set before us..." Sometimes, we might feel that God has treated us unfairly in allowing us to carry certain burdens and responsibilities but He knows the end from the beginning and He will not let us have more than we can bear.

If we just "stay the course," pray and turn everything over to our Father God, we'll see that He'll make it all right in the end. We can't let ourselves get caught up in the snares of envy when we see others appear to receive all that life has to offer without even trying. Envy is dangerous and blocks our blessings from God. And, many of those who seem to "have it all" are actually living lives of quiet desperation.

"Let's not get tired of doing what is good. At just the right time we will reap a harvest of blessing if we don't give up." (Galatians 6:9) Read Hebrews 10:36 where it tells us we need patient endurance to continue to do God's will and then we will receive all that He has promised. Many times, people now are thankful for the things that they previously murmured and complained about. What satan intends for evil, God can turn to good. It's a good thing to every day ask God help you be content with who you are and where you are.

Remember this advice from Carrie Ten Boom, "Never be afraid to trust an unknown future to a known God!" Now, get out there and do your best at whatever race is set before you!
