Family Effort – Kathy Korell-Rach & Smoke N Sunshine Crowned BBR Finals World Champions

By Tanya Randall

"I'm just so excited," said newly crowned Better Barrel Races Finals 1D Champion Kathy Korell-Rach of Loveland, Colo. "I can't believe I have a world champion in my trailer!"

Her world champion is her family raised 6-year-old palomino mare Smoke N Sunshine ("Shine"). Her parents Gerald and Iva Korell bred mare by their stallion Smoke N Sparks out the Frenchmans Guy mare Runaway Frenchgirl.

Korell-Rach, who had only joined the BBR to qualify for RFD-TV's The American, started off her quest in the Coliseum.

"(Shine) had a decent run," said Korell-Rach of her 15.639, which was the 33rd fastest in that pen. "She made a funny step, and my rubber band on my outside stirrup broke. I didn't realize it 'til I hit my third that I didn't have an outside stirrup, and on that mare, that's not a good thing! Some self-preservation kicked in and we were a little bit wide coming out of it. But, she was working and I survived."

They qualified for the Short Go out of Barn 6, where they turned in a sixth-place finishing 15.423.

"She worked beautifully," she said. "I really appreciate how quiet she is and how she comes into the arena. I was able to walk her complete down the decline going into the arena before I started my run."

Korell-Rach said Shine "had the run of her life" in the Short Go. "It was just amazing," she said. "I want to remember that feel forever because it was the best run I'd made on any horse ever."

For extra luck and added family flavor, Korell-Rach had wore Jake Korell's, her late grandfather's shirt, in the Short Go.

"I was very close to my grandfather, my dad's father," she said. "He passed a few years ago. His birthday would have been on April 22. He was just an amazing man. He loved me so much and was so supportive. I'm sure people got tired of hearing him brag about me. I decided that he should come for the ride, so I wore one of his shirts in the Short Go. I like to think he had something to do with it. I actually wore one of my dad's shirts when I ran in Barn 6. Dad got me qualified and Grandpa got it won for me."

All totaled, Korell-Rach pocketed $14,165.

Korell-Rach also qualified her 8-year-old Tell Me Im Smoke N ("Telly") for the 1D Finals.

"She had a beautiful run for me," she said of Telly's 15.7 in the Short Go. "I think that's very respectable. She was just out of the money. I'm just tickled with her too."

Calgary Stampede Announces Contestants

The Calgary Stampede has announced it's list of contestants that compete from July 8th to 17th, 2016 at the Greatest Outdoor Show on Earth.

This year features the same amount of Canadians that were first announced in 2015. This year that number again is 32, compared to the 27 from 2014. As we are still over two months from July this list is sure to change slightly.

In 2015, Canada earned two of the six checks worth $100,000 those were won by Clint Lave of Cadogan, AB in the bareback and Zeke Thurston of Big Valley, AB in the bronc riding.

Ladies barrel racing: Vickie Carter, Richfield UT; Mary Burger, Pauls Valley OK; Ivy Conrado, Hudson CO; Callahan Crossley, Hermiston OR; Nancy Csabay, Skiff AB; Callie duPerier, Boerne TX; Jackie Ganter, Abilene TX; Deb Guelly, Okotoks AB; Taylor Jacob, Carmine TX; Cassidy Kruse, Gillette WY; Julie Leggett, Kamloops BC; Lisa Lockhart, Oelrichs SD; Sarah Rose McDonald, Brunswick GA; Michele McLeod, Whitesboro TX; Cayla Melby, Burneyville OK; Kelley Schnauffer, Pueblo CO; Megan Swint, Plant City FL; Fallon Taylor, Collinsville TX; Mary Walker, Ennis TX; Brittney Paige Willis, Bristol FL

Five world champs highlight 2016 ProRodeo HOF class

Five world champions representing gold buckles earned in four different decades headline the 2016 induction class for the ProRodeo Hall of Fame.

The world champions include Dave Appleton (all-around, 1988), Arnold Felts (steer roping, 1981), John Quintana (bull riding, 1972), Jerold Camarillo (team roping, 1969) and Bud Linderman (bareback riding). Also voted in by the selection committee were rodeo notable Myrtis Dightman, announcer Phil Gardenhire, renowned steer wrestling horse Scottie, celebrated saddle bronc horse and sire Gray Wolf, and committees for Spanish Fork (Utah) Fiesta Days Rodeo and the Redding (Calif.) Rodeo.

They will be enshrined Aug. 6 during ceremonies in the sculpture garden adjacent to the Hall. The induction week will kick off with the 29th annual ProRodeo Hall of Fame Golf Tournament on Aug. 4, the Cowboy Ball on Aug. 5, and then culminates with the Commissioner's Classic Team Roping competition on Aug. 7.

ProRodeo Hall of Fame inductees are selected by a committee of former contestants and rodeo experts. More than 150 individuals are nominated each year and selection is based on contributions to the sport of professional rodeo in any one of seven categories: contestant, stock contractor, contract personnel, rodeo committees, livestock, media and notables/lifetime achievement.

Including this year's inductees, 250 people, 31 animals and 27

rodeo committees have been selected for enshrinement in Colorado Springs since the Hall opened in 1979.

AHC's Forum to Focus on "Putting More Horsepower in Congress"

The American Horse Council has announced that its theme for this year's National Issues Forum, sponsored by Luitpold Animal Health, is "Putting More Horsepower in Congress." The forum will feature several Congressional speakers. In addition, a primary focus of AHC committee meetings this year will be on how the horse community can better deal with legislation affecting the industry.

While gridlock has been the common denominator of the last five Congresses, there is an expectation in Washington that the elections might change that and return Congress to the days when give-and-take allowed legislation to be passed. "With control of the White House, the Senate, and the House of Representatives up-for-grabs in this year's elections, there could be changes that might break the Congressional logjam," noted AHC president Jay Hickey. "Now is the time to get ready for such opportunities and how better to learn about this than from leaders of Congress. While federal bills are always discussed at AHC committee meetings, we want our committees to consider how each member organization can be more involved in the grassroots process," said Hickey.

In addition to Congressional speakers, the National Issues Forum will hear reports from representatives of The Jockey Club and the United States Equestrian Federation on their plans to require the microchipping of horses in the future. "Other breeds and disciplines may be wondering how this might affect them. They may be considering microchips themselves. The forum will provide them ample opportunity to get answers to what is underway and how it might affect them going forward," said Hickey.

This year's AHC annual meeting will be held June 12 to 15 at the Washington Court Hotel in Washington, DC. AHC committee meetings will be held on Monday, June 12, and the National Issues Forum will be on Tuesday morning, June 13.

This year the annual Congressional Ride-In will begin on Tuesday afternoon and extend through Wednesday, June 15. "We have shortened the National Issues Forum this year to allow more time for attendees to visit their elected officials," noted AHC Vice-President of Government Affairs Ben Pendergrass.

The Ride-In allows members of the horse community to meet with their elected representatives and federal officials to discuss important issues affecting them. All members of the horse community are encouraged to participate, even if they don't attend the AHC convention.

More information on these Forums and the entire AHC annual meeting, including registration and hotel information, can be found on the AHC's website, <http://horsecouncil.org/events.php> or by contacting the AHC.

mare kicked her in the shoulder and split it open. When Korell-Rach tried to bring the mare back from the initial injury, she never seemed quite right. It wasn't until nearly two years later that an injury was discovered some scar tissue in her stifle, probably the result from trauma during the initial kicking incident.

"It's really nice to have two really great ladies in my trailer," said Korell-Rach. "I'm just so proud of both of my ladies. I couldn't have had a better weekend."

Ironically, Korell-Rach has both Shine and Telly because no one wanted to pay the Korells' asking prices when they were younger.

"I have a couple of rejects," she laughed. "I have them because nobody bought them. I'm happy that nobody wanted them!"

Both mares were started under saddle by her father and patterned by her mother. She got them when they were ready to enter the futurities.

A psychologist by trade, Korell-Rach said she's uses her professional training to get through a lot of things, including her own performance.

"There were a lot of downed barrels in the Top 20," she noted. "I think girls can psych themselves out a little bit, and make it a really big deal. I don't ever go out trying to win stuff. I really focus on 'I'm only in charge of myself.' I think about my run and I visualize. When I'm happy with my visualization, I just let that sink in."

"And, depending on the horse I'm on, I do different things. Telly is more of a nervous horse, so I do things to be relaxing and calm and quiet. Shine, I have to pump myself up a bit more. She's one you have to ride a bit more aggressive. I have to have 'A let's do this' mentality."

Korell-Rach wanted to thank her equine pit crew, which included veterinarian Joe Strickland, farrier Jason Collins and chiropractor Dave McClain.

"(Shine) hurt herself at the Parker-Wood Memorial last year," Korell-Rach said. "She qualified for the (American) Semifinals after she got hurt, but we were trying to get her right before the Semifinals in February. She was right for the Semifinals, but I had like two runs on her before I went there. That didn't work out like I wanted it to. Dr. Strickland is the one who made her sound. I adore him.

"Jason Collins is my farrier. He's always Johnny-On-The-Spot if I have any kind of issues at all. Dave McLain is my chiropractor. Those three people are instrumental in making my horses healthy." She also gave a heartfelt thank you to her parents and husband.

"They give me wonderful horses and have supported me," she said of her parents. "They've taught me everything that I know and I try to make the best of that knowledge and add to it when I can. They've really made me the person that I am. They made me and the horse!

"My loving husband, Gabriel... He's the reason that I can do this. I've met a lot of people with spouses that aren't as supportive as he is. I do appreciate that. When I have a bad run, he's right there telling me enter again, and if I have a good one, he's right there celebrating with me. He's just so supportive and does everything he can to make things work. I love him a lot."

PUT SPEED, GOOD LOOKS AND "CHARM" IN YOUR NEXT BARREL HORSE

Congratulations to Mark Bugni and JL Fourtafame (Dash Ta Fame x BF Silver Charm) who placed in the TD of both long goes at the 2016 BBR finals and finished fourth in the short go, earning $4939

JL REDDY TO CHARM

QUARTER HORSES

JL Reddy To Charm—one of Red's last foals—reminds me so much of Red with his personality, that beautiful front end and the effortless way he moves I've decided to breed him to several of my mares and a limited number of outside mares this year. His dam, BF Silver Charm (ROM racing), is out of Missy Yupon—dam of BF Shenanigan, one of Dash Ta Fame's top money earning aged event horses. Silver Charm's leading money earner, JL Takin On Fame, is a futurity money winner as well as a PRCA Circuit Finalist with Sally Young. The Youngs also own JL High Five Ta Fame, being futurity by Cody Bauserman this year, who placed in the average and 2nd round of the Southeastern Arena BFA Futurity. BF Silver Charm's foals have earned $78,988 barrel racing so far.

JB Quarter Horses will continue to promote Chasin Firewater to make sure your investment with us holds true!

Congratulations

Edwards Victorious in Futurity at BBR World Finals

By Hope Sickler

Charlotte Edwards has been training futurity horses since the ripe age of 13-years-old and with several futurity championships under her belt, she added yet another one this past weekend at the BBR World Championship Finals. She and Victory Farm's 4-year-old gelding VF Famous Fooster by Foose and out of Victoria Hotpants by Dash Ta Fame, brought the heat to Oklahoma City when they put together two solid runs to claim the futurity championship.

"Fooster is such an athletic horse and absolutely beautiful to look at. He is extremely smart and honestly just seems to really love to run barrels," Edwards explained about the bay gelding. With their first run of the week in the futurity slot race, Edwards and "Fooster" were having a great run until a bad slip on the third barrel slowed their momentum.

"He was working super good and sharp, but when we went around the third barrel, he slipped and it shot him to the wall on the right. I had to line him back out and it really cost us a pretty big check unfortunately."

With such a costly slip in the futurity slot race, Edwards was just hoping for a smooth and clean run in the second round.

"Our second run was fantastic. I cannot say that he made even one mistake. He was fast and quick around every turn and made a flawless run. I actually lost my voice earlier in the day, so I couldn't scream after I saw our time but I did throw my hat in the air like the bull riders do. I was just so overcome with emotion I couldn't help myself," laughed Edwards.

Edwards ran a blistering fast time of 15.454-seconds in the championship round for the championship.

"Prior to the BBR Finals, my goal was to keep "Fooster" fit and happy at all times. I made sure that he stayed sharp but he is generally such a happy horse that there is really not much that I have to do to keep him comfortable and content."

Victory Farms, who own VF Famous Fooster, offered Edwards a job to come work for them and start some colts last year and Edwards is extremely grateful for being given such a wonderful opportunity.

"I am very thankful for Danny Ray for believing in me and for bringing out the best rider in me. The support of some of my close friends and my husband made this win so much bigger than when I won the BFA in 1994 on Orange Smash. Also, I was able to share this win with my youngest stepdaughter, who loves barrel racing,

Martin and Frenchmans Perks Crowned BBR Futurity Slot Race Champions

By Hope Sickler

Frenchmans Perks added another $15,000+ to his lifetime earnings this past weekend when he and trainer/jockey Chris Martin surpassed the tough field of competition during the very exciting futurity slot race at the BBR World Finals in Oklahoma City.

Frenchmans Perks, a 4-year-old son of Frenchmans Guy and out of Our Blue Velvet by Perks Alive owned by Jason Gunter, has had his fair share of struggles in his very short lifetime but his refusal to quit is what makes him so special. With close to $100,000 in lifetime earnings in only 4 months of competing under his belt, it is safe to say that this young athlete is only getting warmed up.

"I have ridden colts that were faster and I have ridden colts that were more athletic but I have never ridden a colt that has never told me no until I rode "Jet" and that is what makes him so amazing. He will always find a way to win," Martin explained.

Just weeks before the BBR Finals, "Jet" had surgery to remove a broken split bone found by Dr. Keith Taraba of North East Texas Equine just before the finals at Diamonds and Dirt. With that sort of injury, Martin and his team prayed that "Jet" would be back to full force before Ft. Smith but after a very successful surgery, Dr. Taraba had the buckskin superstar sound in just 3-weeks.

"We were very excited that "Jet" came back so fast but the only problem was that he had not been around a barrel in a month and he had been rehabbing at North East Texas Equine so I had only been on him a few times since the finals at Diamonds and Dirt," said Martin. "With only one exhibition the day before, we eased him through the pattern and he felt outstanding and that took most of my stress away. At that point, if he stayed sound, I knew he could place! When he turned the first barrel I remember thinking to myself 'how amazing he is'...the horse that never tells me no!" Martin and "Jet" lit the cloverleaf on fire when they crossed the timer with a 15.646-second run which sealed the deal and a check for over $15,000+!

"Jet is such a blessing to me and I cannot put into words how special of a horse he is. He truly is one in a million because of his heart and his will to keep going even when times get tough." Martin, who had encouragement from his parents Mark and Paula Martin along with his uncle Dave Martin while growing up to get into the futurity world, emphasized how important it is to enjoy the ride yet stay humble about your own personal success.

"I remember being 13 and going to the BFA futurities at Lazy E, Poteau, Ardmore and several others that they do not have anymore and watching all the top trainers win. While most trainers did not acknowledge me, Talmadge Green spoke to me every time he would pass me and it made me feel like I was ok being there. Having parents and an uncle that wanted to give me a chance to learn to train horses, knowing it was the only way I was to ever have a top horse, really taught me a lot."

Weekend Pro Rodeo Wrap-Up

By Tanya Randall

California Love – Sarah McDonald & Fame Fling N Bling find their groove on their first West Coast run.

With her great mare Fame Fling N Bling battling an upper respiratory issue, Sarah McDonald didn't have the winter she hoped to have. But a healthy Bling helped turn her fortunes around on her first trip to the West Coast for the California spring run of rodeos.

"It was pretty good to us!" said McDonald, who is currently 13th in the WPRA World Standings with $27,672. Her most recent win was the Clovis (CA) Rodeo, where she picked up $7,095.

McDonald and Bling kicked off their West Coast with a $4,491 payday at Logandale, Nev., before heading to the Red Bluff Round-up in northern California. There they added another $3,655.

"Logandale was our first big run back," she said. "She had a couple of weeks off before that and I just decided to try and see if our luck had changed. She did really good. It was definitely a confidence boost that we made the short round at Logandale. She seems like she's back to her normal self. She feels good again and seems very energetic. She's been running very good."

The 10-year-old daughter of A Streak Of Fling out of Short Penny, by Dash Ta Fame, had been battling an ulcer on her epiglottis that was restricting her air intake throughout the winter. Since she's been feeling better, Bling has won $15,000 in the past month.

McDonald has a light week with only Stonyford, Calif., this weekend, where she plans to run Trip duPerier's Foxys Driftin Jewel (Nonstop Drifter x Foxys Buzzie Bars x Buzzie Otoe Bars), with Bakersfield and Sonora the following weekend. Three weeks from now she has the Helldorado Days in Las Vegas, which is her next big added money rodeo.

The odds of McDonald seeing her New Brunswick, Ga., home anytime soon are fairly slim. Rather than make the drive home, she plans on staying out on the road.

"I'm not making that drive from Georgia to California!" she laughed. "I can't make myself do it or do it to Bling."

Rookie Race – West Coast Swing helps put Cayla Melby back atop the Rookie Standings.

Clovis, Calif., also helped Cayla Melby, the daughter of multiple National Finals Rodeo qualifier Jane Melby, regain the No. 1 spot in the Rookie Standings.

She and Kristen Darnell, Goshen, Ala., are locked in a heated battle at the moment. The younger Melby currently has $15,108, while Darnell has $14,917. They are also sitting No. 26 and No. 27 in the WPRA World Standing with those totals.

At Clovis, Melby guided Shameon U ("Gator") to the reserve championship after turning in the fastest time of the rodeo to win the first round. The effort was worth $6,100.

Melby, Burneyville, Okla., had a rough start to her rookie season in the WPRA after Eyema Rare Bug, the horse that earned her a Canadian Professional Rodeo Reserve Championship and earned her the right to compete at the Calgary Stampede this year, got hurt a few runs into the year.

"We got Gator and it's been a little bit of a struggle with me getting with him," she said. "It's kind of been a bumpy road. I think he'd been to like five rodeos before I got him."

Gator, 7, is by the Dash Ta Fame, Sixarun stallion Fameonu out of Gay Sunny Delight, a granddaughter of Gay Bar King. She also has LTF Jets Last Dance (Foxys Sun Frost x Himito Copy Girl x Himito Dancer), who picked up a check for her at Red Bluff, and Brookstone Jo (Brookstone Bay x Sheza Jo Baby Jo x Proudest Effort), that her mother is currently running.

Melby said she'll be home for the next two weeks for Helotes, Texas, and Guymon, Okla., before flying out for the Helldorado Days.

"I'll fly out to Vegas and meet up with the Ganters," she said.

"They're going to take a horse to Vegas for me. I'll go to Vegas and Redding and then Mom will bring the rest of the Ganters' horses and we'll meet up in Canada. I think Mom will stay with me for the rest of the summer."

Last year, Melby spent the summer in Canada with her goal of making the Canadian Finals Rodeo. This year, her focus is on making the Canadian Finals Rodeo. This year, her focus is on making the Canadian Finals Rodeo. This year, her focus is on making the Canadian Finals Rodeo.

Double Dipping – Kellie Collier is racing her way to dual qualifications to the College and National Finals Rodeos.

Texas Tech sophomore Kellie Collier is hoping to qualify for both the College and National Finals Rodeos this year. She's already met one of those goals, qualifying for the CNFR in Casper, Wyo., as the Southwest Region Barrel Racing and All-Around Champion.

Collier, an ag communications major with a minor in advertising, is also putting in a game effort to qualify to the NFR with her recent victory at the Angelina County Benefit Rodeo in Lufkin, Texas. Her first pro rodeo win paid $2,149.

Aboard Streakin Easy April ("Lolo"), Collier won the rodeo from a Wednesday night performance. From there she went to Stephenville, Texas, for her last college rodeo of the season. In addition to her event titles, Lolo was also named Southwest Region Horse of the Year.

Lolo, an 8-year-old daughter of A Streak Of Fling out of Easy April Lena, by Doc O Dynamite, has already been to the NFR with Carlee Pierce.

"I got her right before the College Finals last year," said Collier, who is originally from Hereford, Texas. "I rodeoed on her all last summer. I went with Christine (Laughlin). It was not the easiest.

We had a lot of trouble with our first barrel; it was a 'her trusting me and me trusting her' kind of deal. When the college rodeos started, we started clicking and it's been clicking ever since, but it took about four or five months for me to get with her and start winning on her. It was a long summer."

Lolo just one of the talent horses in Collier's barn.

Senor La Jolla (Streakin La Jolla x Linda Lobo x Six Fols), who qualified her for the CNFR as a freshman, ran in a round of last year's NFR with Deb Guelly. The family also owned Guys Six Pack To Go, who now belongs to Laughlin, and Peppys Colonel Tivio, who has also been sold. The family recently purchased Winnin Vegas Cash, a pro rodeo money earner in the Turquoise Circuit.

"I'm just trying to get with her so she's can be a part of my string this summer," she said.

Collier is entered in Las Vegas and Redding, Calif., and may go to Canada in hopes of making the NFR. She's currently 17th in the WPRC World Standings with $23,300.

Pay It Forward with Jill Moody

By Jill Moody

I'm not exactly sure that the phrase "pay it forward" is a fitting title for this column but I try to write with that expression in mind. I hope that I can shed a little light into the world by sharing my thoughts and stories and I hope that if I am not inspirational I am at least entertaining.

While driving today I was listening the Mark Wills song titled "Don't Laugh At Me" and I would've patted myself on the back if I could have reached. The lyrics to that song make a powerful statement against bullying. Oh I know I have been guilty of being a bully to someone, somewhere, and at some time in my life but I hope my current actions will make amends for my past behavior. I guess that's kind of like paying it forward.

I was the quiet, shy, little girl who got picked on in school and ate lunch by herself. Intrigued by horses I chose to live in my own make believe world where I was a famous jockey one day and stranded on a deserted island with my black stallion the next. As the years went by I found myself becoming relatively successful in the horse industry and as my accomplishments grew so did my ego.

I think at some point between ages 30 and 50ish I started to realize that I was guilty of bullying to a degree simply by ignoring those who stood by the fence. I actually am a soft hearted soul (I'm the girl who picks up all of the strays but I'll save that story for another day) and even though I tend to keep to myself and mind my own business I started to see myself in some of the people standing at the fence. Some watch and criticize and tell others how they could do it better; others just want to pet the horse. I've had my feet in both pairs of shoes.

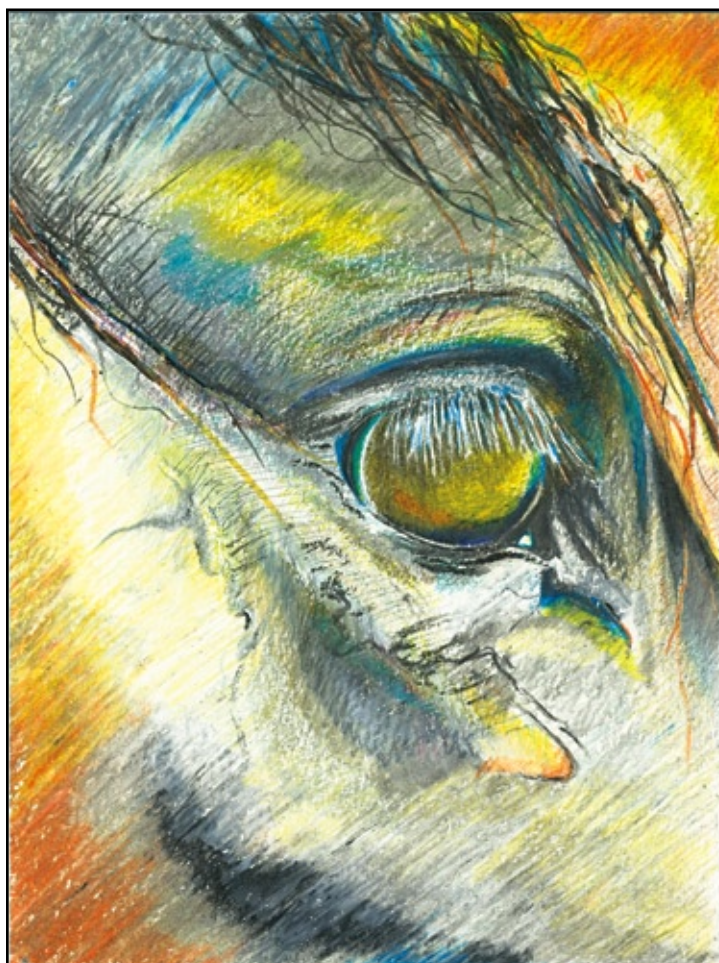

Now days I make it a point to stop at the fence and smile at the critics and let the others pet the horse. Last night while warming up my horse I stopped and chatted with a young lady and even though we had a language barrier it was obvious that she was thrilled to get up close and personal to a horse. I spent some time visiting with my cousin's 12 year old daughter and tried to make her experience special by throwing her on bareback. I just smiled and nodded in agreement with the guy leaning on the fence and drinking a beer who told me I needed to warm my horse up more.

"Pay it forward" by always being humble and kind as Tim Mcgraw would say. Do I deserve a pat on the back for that? No, not really. But when I mess up in the arena I have to find some way to make myself feel better on the drive home. On this trip I spent some quality time on the rodeo trail with my sister, I got to hang out with some close family members whom I hadn't seen in a while, and I made a complete stranger, or two, smile. So even though the rodeo wasn't as successful for me as I had hoped, the trip was a "pay it forward" in my book.

Headin' For Home

by Sherry Morrison
Triple M (Mike Morrison Ministries)

There has been a lot of upheaval around here lately. Many miners and oil field workers are getting laid off. And to top it all off, one of the presidential candidates has promised, if elected, to get rid of all coal mines and coal miners. The layoffs have affected my family and some of my friends. The body of Christ is a family. And each member has a function. If a rancher, oil field worker or anyone else comes under attack, we need to pray for each other.

So I started to pray about it and God showed me two things.

First. That candidate is not God! Whew!!! That was really good news! They are one person. And one person will not have control over everybody. We have God on the inside of us and we have dominion and authority over our area. Luke 10:19 says, "Behold, I give unto you power to tread on serpents and scorpions, and over ALL the power of the enemy; and nothing shall by any means hurt you!" And...

Second. He said He will not forsake His children! Deuteronomy 31:6 says, "Be strong and of good courage, do not fear nor be afraid of them; for the Lord your God, He is the One who goes with you. He will not leave you nor forsake you!"

Oh, the challenges of this life can be many. But when I feel like I'm being weighed down, I remember the line in the movie, Noah. "I AM NOT ALONE!"

With God on our side, all the negative things look ridiculous!
