Sophie Palmore & JL Jamaican Me Rich Capture BBR World Finals Championship

By Tanya Randall

Kirbyville, Texas, model and barrel racer Sophie Palmore and her charismatic gelding JL Jamaican Me Rich ("Richie") topped the record-breaking 2,219-entry, $50,000-added Open 5D at the Better Barrel Races World Finals, held April 19-24 at the State Fair Park in Oklahoma City.

"It was a huge race," said Palmore, who models for jeweler Samsville Gallery and Shorty's Caboy Hattery. "Ross (Wright), Destry (Fleming), Corky (Barder) and Christy (Lewis) did such a great job. They couldn't have had a better buyer than Teton Ridge. I really appreciate them. It was a well put together race."

Palmore and Richie turned in a 15.166 to win Sunday's Short Go, worth $11,530.

"He turned that second barrel and I knew it was going to be fast," said Palmore, 22. "I didn't know if he was going to win it, but as soon as I turned that second I knew if we kept the third up, it was going to be good."

Palmore had a slow start to the World Finals. She was a little under the weather for her first runs in the Coliseum (Race 1).

"My horses must have felt it and they really took care of me," she said.

She qualified two of her three horses—all by $4 million barrel horse sire JL Dash Ta Heaven, from Barn 6 (Race 2). Richie was second with a blistering 15.048. Heavenbringsmoolah, her 9-year-old mare, was 14th with a 15.310.

On Sunday, she had just five horses between Moolah and Richie. Her longtime trainer Dustin Angelle got Richie warmed up, while she ran Moolah, who clocked a 15.391, good enough for eighth in the short.

As she switched horses with Angelle, he gave pep talk as she headed down the alleyway.

"He told me, 'Just have fun. Stay out of his way. He knows what to do!'" she recalled. "When I got back to the alley way, Dustin was rocking the fence back and forth and screaming and hollering!"

The BBR title was Palmore and Richie's biggest championship in their five years together. She had first seen the Jud Little-bred gelding with his trainer Jolene Montgomery at a barrel race in Edna, Texas, at the end of his futurity year.

"He had run a 16.1," she recalled. "I had high school rodeoed in that pen and knew that was amazing fast. She was about to run him again and I said, 'Oh! Nana, Pawpaw, Mom—look! I'd like this horse so much!' At that point, it was just a hope and a wish. I never imagined they would ask to buy him!"

Richie, who is out of Frenchmans Guy mare Frenchmans Lana, a full sister to blue-hen producer and champion performer SX Frenchmans Vanila, was Montgomery's pick out of 2014 Jud Little Production Sale for Dave and Lori Zabel. Under her guidance, Richie ran out more than $100,000 as a 4-year-old and won the 2016 Diamonds & Dirt Futurity.

Palmore's grandparents Ray and Suzanne Hill of Southwestern Farms purchased Richie at the beginning of his derby year. He was sent to Angelle, who won the 2017 Josey Ranch Reunion, on the gelding before handing the reins over to Palmore.

"I don't do very well with futurity horses so Dustin always gets them first," Palmore admitted. "Sometimes he'll go on and derby them and other times I'll get on them later in their derby year or when they're open horses."

Although their initial meeting didn't go so well—Richie blacked Palmore's eye—they quickly became a formidable team.

"There for a while I was a little bit scared of him," she said.

"When I did finally get on him, I had a little problem with the second barrel, it was just one of those new horse things. After that, it just clicked."

Richie did have time off a few years back to recover from a stifle injury, but he's been running well since.

"He had torn his stifle at a pro rodeo," said Palmore, who has since focused on the bigger barrel races with her prized gelding. "He slipped at the third barrel. Although it was initially hoped that Richie could go without surgery, but it ended up being his best option."

During that time, she picked Moolah, another Jud Little bred. Moolah is out of Investment Delight, by Dashing Investment, the same sire as multiple futurity champion Less Return, who was also in Little's broodmare band.

"Moolah was trained by Jordan Goodwin and Ivy Hurst was running her," Palmore said. "I saw her on Facebook and I said, 'I want her. I don't need to try her. Just vet her and I'm just coming to pick her up!'"

Although Richie is her "soul horse," she said Moolah is "just a doll. She's the sweetest, coolest little mare."

All totaled, Palmore won $20,924 at the BBR World Finals. Richie banked $17,181, while Moolah collected $3,743.

Schafer Wins First BBR World Finals Futurity Championship Aboard Born On Derby Day

By Britany Diaz

Ashley Schafer and her rising star, Born On Derby Day, got the futurity win at the Better Barrel Races World Finals, held April 19-24 in Oklahoma City, OK. The duo placed second in the first go with a time of 16.051 seconds, first in the second go with a blistering 15.757 seconds, securing the championship title with an average time of 31.808 seconds. This win for the Comanche, TX cowgirl and her red roan mare, pocketed the team $12,308. Kortney Kizer finished second in the futurity on Coronaslucky Twonite by JL Dash Ta Heaven.

Schafer and Born On Derby Day, better known as Derby, are no strangers to the winners circle. The team won the Elite HHA Futurity in Waco back on March 10-13, along with the championship title at the Kinder Cup Futurity in Kinder, LA on February 9-12. Although the BBR World Finals Futurity is not the duo's first championship, Derby helped Ashley win her first BBR World Futurity Title. Schafer also won third in the average on Swoon To Be Famous and placed fifth in the first go-round on French Streak of Fame.

Although this is Ashley's first BBR win, she has placed at it the last three years. In 2020, Our Bobby McGee, finished third, with it being his very first futurity. Last year, Famous Cash Can placed in the average. In 2011, Schafer won the BBR Open on JL Dash Ta Heaven. Schafer has had a lot of success in Oklahoma City on numerous horses.

Schafer credits Derby as an incredible athlete. She won Kinder going to the right barrel first and won the Elite going left barrel first, which is what she continues to do today. "It is humbling, it reminds you that she is great because she has what it takes and wants to do it for you. Both of her parents were the same way, along with her full sister. It is just fun to ride horses like that and I am so grateful to be the person that got to be involved with all of them", said Schafer. Ashley trained and won on Derby's sire, NFR Stallion, Freckles Ta Fame, better known to the world as CanMan, being campaigned by Shali Lord. She also trained and won on Derby's dam, KR Last Fling (Laramie) by A Streak Of Fling. Schafer and KR Last Fling won around $104,000 at the futurities in 2015, missing about five months of competition, as Ashley was expecting her little boy. Freckles Ta Fame, KR Last Fling and Famous Cash Can are all owned by Spitz Quarter Horses. Schafer says, "Derby is the perfect combination of the two, but her style feels a little bit more like CanMan's. Her full sibling, Famous Cash Can, named Albany, is more like their dam." Schafer ran the fastest time of the week in the open at Barn #6 on Famous Cash Can with a smoking 14.912 (possible arena record). An interesting fact about Born on Derby Day and Famous Cash Can is that they are full sisters and both are 5-years-old this year. Albany ran in the futurities last year and Derby was held to compete this year. Both are so talented and winning.

"A great horsewoman once told me that the color of your horse can say a lot about which parent they take after. I think there is a lot of truth to that. She said that the horsewoman feels that if the colt is the same color as the mare, she will have more similarities to the mare, and vice versa. If the colt is the same color as the stud, it will take on more of his traits." Schafer laughed, "I think there is a lot of truth to that. Albany looks exactly like Laramie, same color, same mark on her face and she has so many of her traits. The way she runs reminds me so much of Laramie. Derby is a red roan, so she still has the roan in there like her mother, but she is more red like CanMan. Derby is the perfect combination both parents."

"Derby has a bit of a split personality. She can be so sweet and will stand in her stall and stare at you, as if begging for attention, but if something sets her off or she gets wound up, she has a more aggressive side. She tends to get more wound up when she gets someplace new, but eventually settles in. She is very opinionated and has her moments. Wants to be your friend and super super sweet and then is not", laughed Schafer.

Schafer has won numerous large futurities and championship titles riding a lot of different horses. She shared how fun it is for her to be able to not only train some incredible horses, but to be able to go on and win on their babies as well. The filly she placed fifth on in the first-go round of the BBR Futurity is out of Famed French Kiss, who is the full sibling to Freckles Ta Fame. Ashley won on her at the futurities and she is still winning today. "It's fun to have it all come full circle. I have so many good horses that are out of the good mares that I have had and it makes it so much fun. It gives you a little bit of an advantage because you already know the personality", Schafer said.

Ashley and Derby will be making their next stop at the Ruby Buckle in Guthrie, OK this week, where they will compete on a standard pattern. Throughout May they will be making stops in Waco, TX for the Royal Crown and in Fort Smith, AR at the 2022 Old Fort Days Futurity & Derby. "I usually try to go to two futurities a month. I don't like to do more than that. I don't jackpot them much or make many runs on them in between. Derby has maybe been to three jackpots. Her mother was that way. Her and Albany always seem to stay sharp, so I feel like taking them is wasting runs. I try to take them where they can win big money. I don't do that with all of my horses. Some of them need to go to jackpots to stay sharp," says Schafer.

Everyone is able to see the progress of Derby and other horses throughout their training process on www.betweenthereins.us, the barrel racing training website available to anyone wanting to learn more and see what top trainers are doing to remain at the top. Schafer has teamed up with Jolene Montgomery and Joy Wargo to allow the public access to daily routines, horse maintenance, preventing injury, training videos and problem solving skills. They release five new videos every Tuesday and subscribers have access to over 200 videos. Schafer shared a sincere thank you to all of those that stopped by their booth or attended one of the seminars at the BBR World competition in Oklahoma City last week.

Ashley is able to compete at her best with help from her amazing help and sponsors. Rock & Roll Cowgirl, Classic Equine, Martin Saddlery, Silver Lining Herbs, Forco, Summit Joint Performance, MVP, Kahm CBD, Neutrabac PH and Schoneberg bits. She credits her husband, Seth Schafer and sister-in-law, Callie Schafer for keeping things running smooth at home and helping her while at the BBR World Finals Barrel Race.

Carol Crowder, founder of Mile Hi Barrel Horse Association, said it best on her social media post this past week, "I watched over 2,200 horses come down the alley at the BBR World Finals in Oklahoma City over the last four days. Barn 6 was my office for the week and I didn't miss one single run and I learned something or confirmed a belief over the course of the week. I LOVE BARREL RACING.... it is my passion and it was chilling, literally goose bump chilling, to witness Ashley Schafer take top honors with a smoking 14.912 (on Famous Cash Can) yesterday in my barn. It was nothing short of stellar, beautiful, gorgeous, a dream run for us average folks!" Congratulations Ashley and keep on inspiring those around you.

Abby Phillips & VQ Im Buzzed Claim $7,531 Clovis Rodeo Victory

By Tanya Randall

Abby Phillips cracked the WPRA Top 20 with a $7,531 victory at the $25,000-added Clovis Rodeo, held April 21-24 in central California, aboard her 8-year-old gelding VQ Im Buzzed ("Big P"). The Marshall, Texas, barrel racer now sits No. 18 with $23,034.

"Very freaking excited!" said Phillips, 25. "I can't believe it. I'm super, super proud of him for how consistent he stayed. We've been waiting to get a win like this. I'm excited that he gets to add that to his little resume!"

Phillips and Big P started their California run at Logandale, Nevada, where they placed but hit a dry spell in the Golden State at Oakdale and Red Bluff.

"My runs weren't pretty," she chuckled. "He was running off a little. He wasn't working like he should. After my second run at Red Bluff, I called Ryann (Pedone). She told me to tune on him and then go in there and trust him. Our next run was Clovis so I had a week to tune on him."

They were third in the first round with a 16.90. The 80-entry, limited rodeo ran all contestants in a first round of slack with the top 36 advancing to one of three performances. From there, the top 12 on two runs went to Sunday's short round.

Phillips and Big P had their second run on Saturday and placed second in the round with a 16.89. On Sunday, they were just out of the money in the short round but held on to the aggregate.

She bought Big P in September 2020 from Robin Weaver through Ryann Pedone. By the all-time leading barrel horse sire Dash Ta Fame, out of Honor Thy Nonstop, by Mr Honor Bound, "Big P" is an aged event standout and full brother to National Finals Rodeo qualifier VQ Sucker Punch, ridden by Cheyenne Wim-

Phillips had been looking for another horse to join Crown Ta Fame for some time but hadn't had any luck closing a deal on one. Fatefully, she had stopped at Double X Equine to have Dr. Don Lee look over her horse after the summer run, when his wife Ryann Pedone convinced her to go with her to the Covid-rescheduled Guymon Pioneer Days in Oklahoma.

"She was asking me if I wanted to go to Guymon with her,"

Phillips recalled. "I said, 'You know I think I need to go home. My horses are tired and we're close to making my goals. I feel like I need to do right by my horse and go home.' Later that day, she asked if I wanted to go and run my colt. Again, I said 'I think I'm just going to go home. She said, 'No. Don't go home! How about you jump ride Big P?'"

Phillips failed to convince Pedone that her jump riding skills were lacking and ended up in Guymon, running Big P.

"I'm the world's worst jump rider," she laughed. "I've got to have confidence to do them any justice. I had never even sat on Big P. I didn't even know what he looked like!"

Then in typical Pedone fashion, she tells Phillips that Big P can get a little nervous and has never been in a rodeo performance—while en route to Guymon where they're both out in the performance—but that they'll be "totally fine."

"I actually pulled the second barrel over to win fourth on him," Phillips chuckled. "We were both crying. We were freaking out!"

Ryann's coming down the alleyway on (Feel The Sting), yelling at me how proud she is. She said she couldn't believe how well I rode him."

Phillips said it was just a "God thing" that she got Big P. "I was looking for a horse and everything kept falling through," she said. "It all started with a jump ride, something that I would never agree to so it's definitely a God thing!"

Next up is return trip to Guymon, Oklahoma, where it all started for Phillips and Big P, as well as Hayesville, Kansas, and one Texas Circuit Rodeo, but after that, Big P will get a little break to rest up for the summer run while Phillips runs Crown Ta Fame at some circuit rodeos.

HEADIN' FOR HOME

by Sherry Morrison // Triple M (Mike Morrison Ministries)

I was born in Wyoming and I can tell you, this was the weirdest blizzard ever! When the wind finally stopped (everyone said, "Thank you Jesus!"), there were bare patches of ground everywhere! It was like no snow had fallen anywhere...until you looked at the buildings. Drifts as high as our shop. Vehicles covered, horse pens full of snow.

Today the sun is shining and there's no wind. I'm sure there will be some clean up and lots of shoveling. That's how it is when the storms of life come and you have been residing under the shadow of His almighty wings. Ps. 91:1-2.

The problem has been shouting at you, like the howling wind. You can see the problem, like the snow. But here we are on the other side of the storm, sunshine and calm. Ps. 91:14-15 says God will deliver us.

He will. He does. He has. Thank you Jesus!
